Hampton Victim In Homecoming

Eastern Shore Hawks Run Up 20-0 Win Over Pirate Eleven

PRINCESS ANNE, Md.—Maryland State College celebrated her homecoming here Saturday before a sellout crowd, by defeating Hampton Institute, 20-0.

Don Burns, slip of a lad from Tulsa, Oklahoma, took all the starch out of a fighting Pirate squad when he received Hampton's first punt and ran it back 85 yards for a T.D.

Henry Scott, a defensive end added insurance in the second period when he grabbed Calvin Glascoe's fumble and high-tailed 29 yards to pay dirt.

William Hutton's line plunges and Calvin Glascoe's smashes ran up against Maryland State tackle Joe Raikes and fizzled. Henry Scott, Art Douglas, and Duke Davis took care of the invaders' thrusts at the ends.

Jabbo Still Tops

Midway of the third stanza, Johnny McDaniels smashed a 15 tackle six yards for the third mark er, and Pirates hopes went into an eclipse. The game long sparkplug of Leon (Jabbo) Wilson caused Hampton players a continuous headache. The Muskogee, Okla. lad reeled off runs of 36, 41, 32 and 39 yards to keep his average at 13.1 yard for the season.

Constance Hill, of Martinsville, Virginia, attired in gray, black and gold decor, reigned as homecoming queen.

The fraternity choices, Miss Joyce Christmas, sweetheart of Kappa Alpha Psi Miss Marjorie Frazier, sweetheart of Omega Psi Psi; and Miss Johnnie Marion, sweetheart of Alpha Phi Alpha, heightened the pageantry by their charm.

Duke Ellington and his music was the icing on the cake. The home coming dance and concert climaxed a happy day for the Marylanders.

Sugar Ray Is Still Undecided

NEW YORK—Sugar Ray Robinson, reaffirming the stand he took last month when he told the AFRO he "definitely" has not made up his mind concerning his future, said here last weekend that he does not know whether he will confine his activities to dancing or will return to the boxing ring.

The world middleweight champion told the AFRO he will not decide until his manager, George Gainford, gets back to this country from a trip to Europe. Gainford is due in New York October 27.

While Robinson said he felt he had slowed up, he declared he had an attractive offer to defend his middleweight title against Kid Gavilan in Miami in February. He added that Chairman Bob Chrisenberry had given him until the latter part of November to make up his mind about retiring or defending the title.

Sugar Ray has signed a four-week contract to act as master of ceremonies and dance at the French Casino, starting Nov. 7.

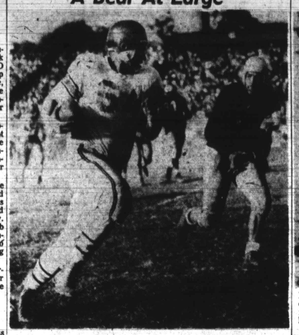
A Bear At Large



Morgan State College rooters didn't get many opportunities to cheer at Baltimore Saturday as the Bears bowed to Howard University, 12-7. But when Howard Hartsfield (64) broke away for this seven-yard gain he looked as though he might go all the way. That is until Andy Chambers came up "from nowhere" to haul him down.

Reverse English: Clawing A Bear

Lawrence Harrell (No. 45), one of Morgan State College's gridiron Bears, himself is clawed as he runs into James' Boddie (69) and Strothers (39) of the Howard Bison forces at Baltimore Saturday. The Bisons downed the Golden Bears, 12-7, to break a 4-year losing streak to Eddie Hurt's charges.

They Rooted For Morgan

Morgan lost to Howard, Saturday but it wasn't because the Morgan team lacked spirited cheering by left to right, Vera Litaker, Jeane Taylor and Gloria Barland.

Early Howard TD's Thwart Morgan

BALTIMORE — Howard University's battling Bisons made the most of two quick breaks in the second quarter then fought ferociously to stave off Morgan State College's repeated drives the rest of the way and upset the favored Bears, 12-7, here, Saturday.

Playing in 60-degree weather in Hughes Stadium, the fired-up Bisons, with Ernie Neverson and scatback Art Van Brakle doing the scoring, registered their first victory over Morgan since 1947.

Morgan took the lead midway the opening quarter, climaxing a 80-yard sustained drive with a neat 14-yard fourth-down pass, Jim Greene to Leonard Randall, who snared the ball in the end zone. George Williams converted the extra point on the second attempt, the Bisons being offside on the initial try which was wide.

Overcome 7-0 Lead

The drive was completed in only nine plays, with a 15-yard holding penalty against Howard as an assist. Guy Paul Smith, Larry Harrell and Walter Mosley sparked the Bears' big push; for the 7-0 first-quarter advantage.

A fumble by George Williams on a pitchout following an exchange of punts set up the first Howard touchdown in the second period. Aaron Davis, Bison end, recovered the ball on Morgan's nine-yard stripe.

Carver Leach hit the line for five yards, then 138-pound Art Van Brakle crashed through the middle for a touchdown. A bad pass from center ruined Neverson's conversion attempt and the Bisons trailed 7-6, with only one minute and 10 seconds of the quarter gone.

Five minutes later Howard was in front to stay as Jim Boddie, freshman end, intercepted a Morgan pass on the Bears' 32 and in six plays, with Leach, Hal Davidson and Neverson alternating lugging the ball the Bisons tallied.

Neverson Scores

Neverson heaved a pass to Leach for a first down on Morgan's nine; a Morgan offside penalty moved the Bisons to the four, then Neverson and Davidson picked up three yards, and Neverson dived over on the second try for the touchdown.

Neverson missed the extra point attempt, leaving the score 12-7 in favor of Howard as the half ended.

That proved to be all the scoring for the day, though Morgan threatened repeatedly in the last half. Howard checked the first Bear drive on the 10-yard line early in the third quarter, then halted two others within 30 yards of pay dirt.

In the fourth quarter, Morgan ruined a scoring opportunity as Smith fumbled and Howard recovered on the Bison 38-yard line the loss of the ball interrupted a sustained drive that was moving with full speed. Another drive was checked by a Howard pass interception.

Strong Bison Defense

Morgan ran up 301 yards gain from scrimmage to Howard's 81, and had the best of it statistic-wise, but Howard's stout defense within the 20-yard zone and the Bisons' alertness and quick capitalization on breaks proved the Bears' undoing.

In addition to the first win over Morgan since 1947, the triumph marked the first time the Bisons have scored a touchdown against the Bears since 1947.

Howard now has a 3-1 mark for the season; Morgan a 2-2 record.
