Figures given on '53 Clean Block work

100 more blocks registered this year than last

For the benefit of AFRO readers who want all the figures, here is listed, in capsule form, just how much work was done in the 19th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

This year's campaign attracted considerably more attention than last year's.

A total of 198 blocks were registered for the 1953 drive as compared to 86 during 1952.

$1,252 For Prizes

A total of $955 was contributed by the public to the prize fund in 1952. In 1953, a total of $1,252.50 was reported.

Here are the other figures:

186 blocks are registered

963 pairs of steps painted

466 pairs of marble steps cleaned or whitewashed

728 houses painted

875 houses with woodwork painted

926 houses with woodwork cleaned

1149 yards cleaned

421 houses with flowers in painted pots

631 houses with flowers in window boxes

138 alleys cleaned

758 Cellars cleaned

827 yards with flowers

1317 families in blocks helping

2,265 houses in the blocks

6018 number of persons participating in campaign.

Amount contributed for prize fund, $1,252.50.

A Tip To Captain Elaine Cooper of te 1100 block Shields pl., who won third place in the judging. Don't let your mother spend a single dollar bill until she checks the list of serial numbers in the AFO.

A little bird tolf me she was handed one of those wonderfully lucky Dilly Dollars last Tuesday. Don't tell anyone we told you.

WE ATTENDED the 115th birthday party for Mrs. Annie Ross, indisputably the oldest Clean Blocker in the 19th annual campaign. Her great-grandnephew, Arthur Brown, 6, served as captain of the 800 block Druid Hill ave.

As spry as a 50-year-old, she has a merry twinkle to her eye and a zest for living that would do credit to a teenager. From President Eisenhower, Governor McKeldin and Mayor D'Alesandro came greetings and felicitations.

MOVING SPIRIT of the Clean block program in the 2500 block Madison ave., was C. A. Parham, writes Mrs. M. S. Coasey of 2513 Madison ave.

She reported 14 children participated; ten adults assisted and two residences, 2503 and 2509 were painted inside and out. Sidewalks, streets, alleys and backyards were cleaned and the grass cut.

WELL, TO THE 8,018 Clean Blocks and their parents who helped make this year's campaign an overwhelming success, we bid farewell for another year.

You have the satisfaction of knowing that Baltimore is a better city for your having done your part.

Keep up the good work. You might win first prize next year.

CLEAN BLOCK • SIDELIGHTS •

by M. FRANCIS MACKAY
Clean Block Director

WHILE THE PRIZES have been awarded for this summer's Clean Block Cappaign, the battle against dirt is by no means over.

It is our hope that no captains will relax their drive against filth during the coming fall and winter months.

Rather, the fight should be intensified with the opening of school. The blocks which win top prizes are those who do not wait until the opening of the Clean Block campaign to begin cleaning up.

CARNIVALS WERE in full swing last week. We attended three and had an enjoyable time. The 1300 block Etting st., Velma Smith, had the Sampson Brooks Elks Junior Herd drum and bugle corps to drum up business and did right well, thank you.

Leaving Etting st., after sipping punch and eating ice cream, we journeyed down Druid Hill to McCulloh Homes. After chatting a moment with Manager Mason and his assistant, Miss Caulk, we tried our luck at bingo. We had no luck.

The next night it we out to Wilson Park to fellowship with Clean Blockers on St. Georges ave. That certainly was a delicious ham supper Captain Ann Holmes and her advisor grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Peay, were serving.

Saw Captain Scotty Williams watching, intently the play at the bingo table, but keeping his nickles in his pocket. One of the moving figures at this carnival was Mrs. Adah K. Jenkins, AFRO music critic.

WE WANT TO express our appreciation to the police department for their cooperation Sunday in placing "No Parking" signs in the blocks competing all over the city.

This made the work of the Committee of Clean Block judges so much easier. It also gave these blocks a better chance of being graded correctly. And it also allowed the AFRO photographer to do a better job.

CAPTAIN EARLINE SCOTT of the 1700 block Barnes st. was in tears when the judges called. Only one car was parked in her block and there was nothing she could do to get it moved.

The owner had gone to California and failed to leave the key with any members of his family. She thought the presence of the car would disqualify her block. She was assured quickly that it would not.

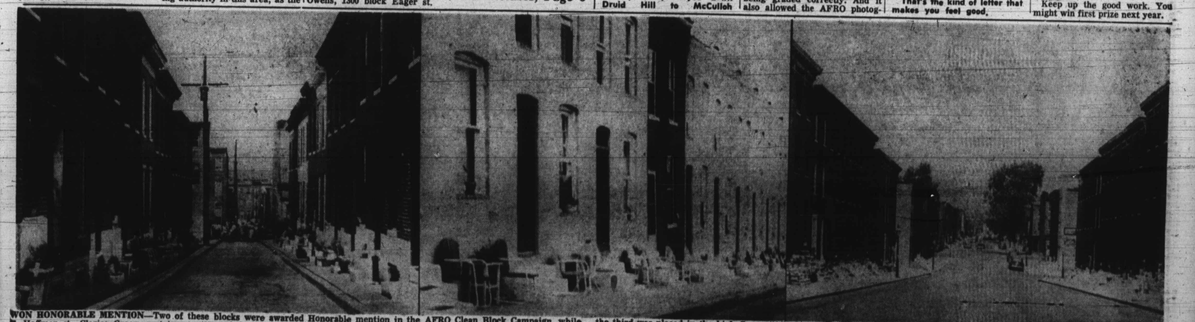
THREE CHEERS for the Park Department for cleaning up Madison Square on Chase st. You might remember we mentioned the dirty appearance of this beautiful plot of green in the midst of East Baltimore's hot sidewalks and pavements some time ago.

We were glad to see the city take our hint and clean it up. Let's hope partrons of he square keep it clean.

FROM ADVISE Serita Mason of the 100 block Amity st., a cheerful note. "I want to thank you and Mrs. Weaver for the way you have shown my captain, Bernice Cole, and me how to go about doing our job.

"We all had a wonderful time working together." Her block won one of the $17.50 Honorable Mention awards.

That's the kind of letter that makes you feel good.



WON HONORABLE MENTION—Two of these blocks were awarded Honorable mention in the AFRO Clean Block Campaign, while E. Hoffman st., Clarice Green, captain, were awarded $17.50 honorable mention prizes. The 900 block McDonogh, Patricia Johnson, the third was placed in the high Group "A" category. The 800 block Saint st., (left) Christine Anderson, captain, and the 1600 block captain, placed in Group "A" and was awarded $15.
