ONE OF THE prettiest wedding this town has seen in many a day was the Sunday afternoon ceremony at Shaw Street Methodist Church when pretty Christina Carr exchanged vows with Roscoe Young Jr. of New York. The Rev. Edward G. Carroll officiated.

Some 1,000 guests braved the heavy rains to see the event and even the weather man cooperated for a few minutes. The bride was wrapped in two sheets to make the trip from her mother's Gwynns Falls Parkway home and just as she arrived at the church, the rains let up.

She was a picture in a fitted white slipper satin gown with allusion neckline and a collar studded with pearls and rhinestones which matched the tiara on her head. Her 30's yard train was also of white satin. Her 15-yard veil was of tulle. The gown was designed by Anita Hawkins who also did the attendants' outfits.

The attendants all wore green — colors of their gowns varied from pale green for the matron of honor to dark green for bridesmaids. Theirs were of net with full skirts and draped neck-lines.

And the church was transformed into a bower of green and white flowers as was the Morgan Christian Centre where the reception was held.

Stapley Beckett did the floral decorations and Vernice Reynolds arranged the wedding color scheme and details.

Particularly striking were the red roses which decorated the reception table and made a beautiful contrast against the green and white flowers and the green and white gowns.

Attendants were: Cynthia Cannady, matron of honor; and Mss. Van Pitterson, Washington; Misses Iris Husband, Boston; Ovella Dorsey, Mazie Barbour, Dorothy Shaffey and Mrs. Edith Davidson, all of Baltimore.

Best man was Herbert Robinson, the bridegroom's classmate of Hillburn, N.Y. Ringbearer was Irvin Cannody., Flower girls were Brenda Jones and Sheila Cathing, all of Baltimore.

THE BRIDE'S mother, Mrs. Leonard Reid, wore an apricot chiffon gown champagne accessories, rhinestone jewelry and an orchid.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Roscoe C. Young of New York selected pink lace over contrasting pink taffeta. Also here was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Marie Young.

Mrs. Reid, who is a city teacher, is well known for her work at Sharp Street Church where she has been active for 25 years. She is also a member of the popular We Wives Club.

Mr. Carr is an architect and contractor.

Following the reception attended by 400, the newlyweds left for a secret honeymoon place.

They will be at home after June 27 at 2215 Flagler Pl., NW, Washington, where the bridegroom is a junior in Howard Medical School, and the bride is a research assistant at Freedman's Hospital.

SIR CUPID has scheduled a wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wheaden Jr., for July 8, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coleman, 521 N. Arlington.

Mrs. Wheaden is the former Miss Iris Marceline Coleman.

And a curtsey to the Joshua Northerns who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, Friday at their home at 2320 Edmondson Ave.

Among the guests to extend congrats were Mrs. Muzetta Dabney, Trenton, N.J.; Edgar Northern and Ellsworth Northern, New York City; and Mrs. Mabel Young and her daughter Mrs. Mildred Maynor, Corona, L.I.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles
Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both — Relieves Pain — Shrinks Hemorrhoids
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment forms called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

INTEGRATION SCORED another point this week as the first mixed group of Girl Scouts boarded the bus for camp at Deer Creek, in Baltimore County.

Among the Intermediate and Brownie Scouts who will enjoy 12 days of the same race relations they experienced this year at the public schools are Constance Carroll, Marilyn Oliver, Patricia Nichols, Barbara Prestwidge, Rosemary Backus and Charlene Cephas.

The first camp period ends July 2 at which time the second group including Deborah Butler, Sylvia Payne, Barbara Elliott, Lalitia Henderson, Dorothy Cash, Jean Sizemore, Betty Johnson, Julia Randall, Eleanor Robinson and Pehrlean Woolridge will get set to go.

Registration for the third period, July 19 through July 30 has not been completed yet, but word is that there is a long waiting list of both white and colored scouts.

The integration move was decided in April by the Girl Scout board. At this time the members voted to begin desegration at the formerly all - colored camp at Deer Creek this year and to completely integrate the new all-white camps in Cecil and Anne Arundel Counties next year.

The day camps for the girl scouts throughout the state are opened to all, this year.

HATS OFF to Miss M. Elaine Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Sr., 820 N. Fremont Ave. who is the first of her race to become a licensed dental hygenist, here.

A June graduate of Howard University, Miss Russell passed the Maryland State Board of Dental Hygiene, recently.

And the same to Abram King, who was a "first" when he obtained the position of research chemist at the U.S. Naval Experimental Station in Annapolis.

He has now been appointed to one of the largest research laboratories in the country in Natick, Mass. He's the son of the late Dr. Drue King Sr.

Mr. King, his wife and three children will leave for Massachusetts the latter part of the month.

ANNAPOLIS received 196 inches of rainfall last week and was tabulated as having the heaviest fall during the torrential downpour that hit the state.

However, agriculture sources said that the massive rains were a big aid to famers in helping to ripen their crops, but will hold up field work on tobacco plants.

Anti-firework laws enforced July 4

Is the BANG your kid gets out of illegal fireworks—

Worth the cost of breaking Federal and Maryland anti-fireworks laws?

Worth the loss of his sight?

Worth, perhaps, the loss of life itself?"

"Certainly not! A foolish question, you say."

"Remember your answer come the July Fourth holiday! reminds The Maryland Society for Prevention of Blindness —a Community Chest Agency."

FIREWORKS ILLEGAL

"Don't let Independence Day become Dependence Day for you! Avoid loss of sight caused by the illegal use of fireworks— warns the Maryland Society for the Prevention of Blindness, your Community Chest Agency.

THE BUS TRIP to Hershey, Pa., that was to be sponsored by the Women's Organization of the Community Church on Saturday, June 25, has been postponed until a later date.

Despite a steady down pour of rain on Father's Day morning, the Cherry Hill Chapter of Presbyterian Men entertained over 200 father's and daughter's at a unique Father-Daughter Breakfast in the Community Church.

Otho P. Pinkett, housing authority official and an elder of the Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, gave an inspiring message to the assembled guests. Background music was played on the organ by Miss Olive J. Williams, music director of the church.

Persons directly responsible for the tremendous success of the breakfast were Aaron V. Butler, George W. Quickly, Clifton Bailey and the Women's Organization of the church.

Mr. Pinkett was lavish in his praise of the Cherry Hill chapter, which was organized two years ago under the leadership of Willie S. Moore, president and Rev. Edgar W. Ward, pastor.
