2,000 frolic at gala party hosted by Postal Alliance

with Lula Jones Garrett

Those Postal Alliance men, who held forth at the Coliseum, Saturday night, did just what they set out to do . . . had themselves a ball and garnered a goodly share of shekels with which to carry on their organization's program.

Some 2200 folks packed the hall, fetched along their own makings for the tables they occupied and danced between sips. They would have seen a fine fashion show if the master of ceremonies could have quieted the crowd long enough for the Pauline Brooks models to disport her styles. That part of the program got just two bathing suits and one play outfit ahead before the project was abandoned.

But I lay a wager that each and every male in the crowd missed nary a quiver from that artist of the shake, Kitty Dean. Andre King's dancers provided other entertainment, and Preston Duncan played for the dancing.

The Alliance will likely clear around $1500 from the project, one of the affairs through which they send delegates to the district and national conference. The district sessions will be held in Washington in June; the national, in Indianpolis, Ind. in August. The other affair given by the Alliance is a boat ride in September.

AND SPEAKING of sessions and delegates, Alpha Kappa Alphas, who will be meeting in Annapolis, Md. in a regional conference, April 15, 16, and 17th, elected delegates at the last session. Representing Epsilon Omega Chapter will be Sorors Emma Bright, basileus of the chapter; Betty Williams, Gloria McDaniel, Esther Johnson, Marion Gregory, Estella Rheubottom and Edith Gibbs.

At the same meeting they heard plans (from Beatrice Butler) of those elaborate travel arrangements that will take sorors (deluxe) to the national boule in San Francisco, Calif., July 26th. They also set up plans for the annual spring dance on May 13 in Morgan State College Refectory and entertained members of Alpha Delta chapter (Morgan), including presenting them with gifts.

Hostesses for the meeting were Verdeen Washington, La Vada Robson, Lois Stubblefield, Gertrude Urquhart, Carolyn Smith, Marseille Stanley, Charlotte Swann, Ruby Taylor, Jean Trupin, Frances Vessels, Ruby Walker, Dellaphine Warrington and Hermoine Weaver.

BRINGING SORORITIES into the conversation reminds me that there's a lot of conjecture in the air these days as to whether (or not) the ousting of Greek Letter societies on Morgan College campus, recently, wasn't to forego any chance of a clog in the wheels when the college will be undergoing inspection for accreditation by the Middle Atlantic States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, next years.

AND AS TO THE SUSPENSION . . . well the Phi Beta Sigma unanimously approved the college's suspension action, at their meeting, Thursday night.

They carefully considered the facts in the case as submitted by the Dean of the College Dr. George Grant, and decided the faculty was right, they said.

Vernon F. Greene, attorney, presided at the session in the absentee of the president, Alfred Dixon. Others voting were U. Theodore Hayes, attorney; John Tilghman, Leroy Gison, Edward Wilkerson, William T. Dorsey, the Rev. W. Lyndsai Pitts, Dr. Douglass Camper, U. Simpson Stubbs, G. Sumner Whyte, Joseph Jenkins, Dr. G. Franklin Phillips, Ernest Lee, Mr. Green, Dr. Robert J. Hill, John W. Woodous, Vincent Norris and Major Stewart L. Lewis.

At the April meeting the chapter will vote on delegates to the regional conference of the Eastern District, which will be held in Washington, April 22-24.

Incidentally, the Sigma Wives had the loveliest of teas. Sunday afternoon, in the auditorium of the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA. A decor of roses enveloped the room and the wives, in their bibs and tuckers served a plate lunch and punch to scores of guests, who also enjoyed a fashion show.

Charm Center models and clothes provided the latter. Mrs. Lewis was chairman of the affair.

APRIL, IT SEEMS, is going to be quite a convention month. The Baltimore Epicureans are readying to be off to Portsmith, Va., the last of that month, for a meeting of all chapters.

At a meeting of the local chapter, Thursday, members surprised Louise Gilliam (who was hostess for the evening) when they showered her with gifts.

Mrs. Gilliam, who is expecting a visit from Sir Stork soon, was surprised to tears! The many lovely gifts were placed beneath a tiny umbrella decorated in blue and pink.

Also announced at the meeting was the opening (by the club) of a new bank account for Cecil Johnston Jr. Cecil is the latest blessing of member Dot Johnston.

Epicureans present at the meeting were:

Phyllis Allen, Elva Matthews, Doris Wallace, Nicki Randolph, Claire Parker, Dorothy Johnston, Betsy McRae, Elsie Scott, Merita Stokes, Gladys McDaniels, Bernadine Harrison and Sylvia Henry.

BEFORE I LEAVE STORK tales, let me say that Dr. and Mrs. Simon H. (Kay) Carter have joined the expectants club.

Mrs. Carter was one of the prize winners (she could afford to be satisfied with the booby after such news) when the Echoes met at Jimmy LaForest's home, Saturday evening, when the latter and Shirley Kyle hosted the group.

First prize went to Robbie Chissell, who took home a lovely rope of beads and tiny rosebuds, with earrings to match and second to Ivy Harris, whose award was Rochas Femme cologne. Kay's gift was nylon stretch hosiery.

Others playing bridge were Minna Anne West, Wilhelmina Garner, Ellsworth Rhetta, Jeanne Cummings, Miriam Brown, Cleota Minor and Vivian Pendleton.

THERE WAS NO PLAYING, however, when the Lawyers' Wives met, last week in the home of Zaidie Koger, with Rosa Murray, Litty Lane and Madeline Murphy as hostesses.

That group completed plans for a very serious and profitable public session on April 17th, when they will present Magistrate Charlotte Main at Grace Presbyterian Church. Miss Main Will talk on "Behind the desk at Women's Court." The Mercedes Douglas singers will furnish music.

At the planning session were: Catherine Greene, Ruth Rosedom, Martha Allen, Verna Gosnell, Adele Foreman, Bernice Buckner, Shirley Pinkett, Carrye Knox, Anna Williams, Clarice Parrish and Jacquelyn Watts.

Alma Gray and Mary Pitts were chosen to represent the Alpha Wives at the annual luncheon of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs Saturday at Morgan State College.

The March meeting of the group was held Tuesday night at 910 Edmondson Ave.

Marye Oliver served as chairman of the hostesses, which included Irene Templeton, Patricia Page, Verda Welcome, Audrey Davis and Marguerite Brown.

Other members present were Olivia Dixon, Ella Edemy, Hortense Winders, Marjoret Driver Anita Hawkins, Alma Gray, Rubye Walker, Maxine Higginbotham and M. Francis Mackay.

WHEN CHIPPERETTES met Friday evening, in Civic League House, they inducted three new members: Peggy Jones, Hermoine Weaver and Merita Stokes.

Ellsworth Rhetta was hostess, and members about included Pauline Blackwell, Cita Finney, Bernadine Harrison, Arnetta Lottier, Vonzella Murray, Nicki Randolph, Louise Robinson and Frankie Wood.

ALPHA ZETA CHAPTER of Zeta Phi Beta recently held its monthly meeting at the YWCA surrounded by St. Patrick decorations.

This setting helped to add color to the gay program planned by the social committee which is co-chairmaned by Katherine Johnson and Marguerite Carroll. (Who was on TV with her home economics class, school No. 180 last Friday)

Emma Henson reviewed Irish Customs and the history of Saint Patrick's Day while Hazel Phil-Johnson. Audrey Davis won a lips produced tunes from the piano. Solos were presented by prize for sketching an Irishman "In the dark." She also led the Beatrice Pitts and Katherine group in dancing the "Irish Jig."

Prior to this bit of gaiety the foremost committee report was by Magdalene Rice, chairman of the Starlight Cruise to be held June 9th. When you will dance to the music of Preston Duncan's Orchestra.

Awards for outstanding service in the sorority were presented by Catherine Mayo to sorors Hazel Phillips, Mae Fortune, Lillian Webb and Lillie Ross.

POT POURRI: Add to interesting young couple to be welcomed to the home heath, soon. Capt. and Mrs. Alfred H. Johnson, and 17-month-old son, Richard. The Captain will be stationed at Camp Meade . . . but with Mrs. Johnson will be at home with Mrs. Mary Jane Brown. Mrs. Johnson is the former Gloria Taylor, protegee of Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Esther Harris entertained at luncheon, Saturday, with guests including Mesdames Rugh Fortune, Geneva Jones, Mabel Denkins, Mildred Hooper, Anita Woodlon, Mary Brent and Maria Newton.

Already knee-deep in plans for the annual trip to the Shrine of St. Ann DeBeaupre in Quebec, Canada, is the St. Peters Church Guild, headed by Gladys Britt. The sixday tour will begin on August 4.

The Reginald (Margaret) Browns are tipping on clouds since welcoming a five pound 11 ounce daughter at Provident Hospital two Wednesdays ago. Baby has been named Denise Angela.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bennett of South Baltimore, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marie E. Brooks, to Pfc. Melvin L. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Brown. Wedding is to be June 19.

YWCA to present film showing

The Baltimore Young Women's Christian Association, in keeping with its program of Health Education and community service, will present the film, "Breast Self-Examination for Cancer" every Tuesday during April at 12:15 at the Central Branch building, Park and Franklin.

In making the announcement of the showings of the film, Mrs. William H. Chambers, president of the "YW" said that because of its vital importance to all women, the Association has arranged the four showings during the noon-hour. The 12:15 time should make it most convenient for working women to attend.

THE FILM, WHICH is a sound and color production will be followed by a question and answer period, to be conducted each week by a well known physician.

In inviting working women—particularly to the film showing—the YWCA has announced that for those who wish to bring along a sandwich in order to avoid rushing or overstaying a lunch hour, there will be free coffee and tea.

Admission to the program is free of charge to all women, and there will be no solicitation of funds either by the Cancer Society or the YWCA.

Those on the committee are James Campbell, Thomas Earl, Vernon Hill, Elwood Ware, and George Hill, presilent.

WE WOULD like, to make a correction concerning last week's column. We stated that the Royal Light Singers spoiled the program, it was not that they could not sing, but because they were the only men on the Women's Day progrlam.

The Citizens and Merchants Organization of Area 7 held a mass meeting, Sunday, March 20 with Simon Fox presiding.

Mr. Fox told of the number of blocks that would be used in Area 7 for redevelopment. R. A. Larrabee, director of Baltimore Redevelopment Commission, stated that South Baltimore had the lowest property value in the city, the greates in crime, and was the highest in rent.

MISS LUCY Hammond, secretary of the organization, pointed out that many of the people of South Baltimore spend a great leal of money on their properties.

Others who spoke on the subject and for a bigger organization were Roseby M. Carr, president of the Southwest Baltimore Civic and Improvement Association, and William Blumberry.

Augustus Knox brought to the attention of the proper persons the lot facing Russel and School No. 162 which had to be cleaned.

Mr. Larrabee also stated that he honestly knew of nothing that could be done in this area.

IT WAS then, that your columnist stated that now is the time to give Mr. Larrabee something to take back to the Baltimore Redevelopment Commission.

We, the citizens of the South and Southwest Baltimore, do hereby on this 29th day of March ask for apartments to help better the living conditions of this section of the city.

spoke about the two million dollar school in this community and lisgrace and would hamper the duration of the people of this area.

The officers of the Citizens and Merchants Organization of Area 7 are Mr. Fox, president; George W. E. Hill, vice president; Miss Hammond, secretary, and Mr. Freeman, treasurer.

Record attendance seen for League of Clubs' conference

A record attendance at the 12th annual one-day conference and luncheon session was predicted today (Friday), as chairmen checked reservations and completed program plans.

A high point on the business session of the conference, which begins at 9 a.m. will be the election of a president. Mrs. Buce Alleyne, who served the organization as vice president and then went into the top office, will have served the two years allotted to a president. Under her regime the organization has shown exceptional growth in club membership. At this session also, will be heard the reports of the 72 clubs affiliated with the League.

The business sessions will be followed by work shops on "New Attitudes; A Pattern for Community Growth," "Adequate Housing; A Key to Better Unedstanding," and "Equal Education: A Premise of Democracy."

Respective speakers will be Mrs. Mildred Atkinson of the Council of Churches; Edgar Ewing, of the Baltimore Housing Abuthority; and Mrs. Bernice Munce of Trenton, N.J., social science teacher and an expert in human relations.

WILL YOU HAVE LONG MAGNIFICENT HAIR?

By Jean Allison

Many women tell me how they envy people with naturally attractive, long hair—smooth, soft, growing out so rich and healthy. They ask, "How can I have hair like that?"

Scientific facts now give the answer: It all depends on the nature and condition of the scalp. In other words, you can have gorgeous hair like that only if your scalp is ready and able to make it so.

More and more of my friends are discovering that when they seek to improve the looks of their hair they must think about the condition of the scalp too. They are also learning the amazing facts about Sulfur-8 Hair and Scalp Conditioner and how it works for the beauty of the hair.

The Power of Sulfur-8

A new scientific form of sulfur is being hailed by hair and scalp experts throughout the world. This discovery, actually a potent "super-sulfur", is the wonder drug featured in the great Sulfur-8 Hair and Scalp Conditioner formula. Only Sulfur-8 has that special formula.

Of course, Sulfur-8 cannot give you a new scalp, nor make your hair grow or be longer than your scalp allows, but when used in time it usually works wonders on certain conditions that may hold your hair back from looking its best.

You may never know how beautiful your hair can be until you try Sulfur-8 and give it a real chance to do its good work. You will like its new, pleasant fragrance too.

Something Wonderful Happens

Happy Sulfur-8 users have been telling me about its marvelous results in helping the most abused dry hair look softer, smoother and more lustrous. They are thrilled by the new beauty of their hair and have been telling their friends how it came about. The fame of Sulfur-8 has grown so fast that already millions of jars have been sold.

Get Sulfur-8 at the drug store today. See what it can do for you!
