Rev. Newbold is Fla. A & M speaker

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Two inspirational messages, a violin recital, the traditional visit to the graves of the founders, and a reception honoring an outstanding alumnus, were highlights of the annual Founders's Weekend observance at Florida A and M University last week.

The Rev. Robert Newbold, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, spoke at worship services held Sunday morning.

James, Muldrow to give recital

Fleming James and Cornell Muldrow will appear tonight (Friday) in a recital at the Morning Star Baptist Church, W. Fayette St. near Carrollton Ave.

They will present well known classics and arias in the lighter vein to make for pleasant listening.

Mr. James is a former member of the Baltimore Boys' Choir and the Baltimore Singers. He is a graduate of Douglass High School and Morgan State College.

GOP, Elk officials at Oliver funeral

ANNAPOLIS — Political leaders, high Elk officials and city officials packed the tiny Asbury Methodist Church, here, Tuesday for the funeral services of Charles A. Oliver.

The retired city alderman and one of the two remaining charter members of the Ancient City Elk Lodge died Friday at the Fort Howard Veterans Hospital. He was 75.

• • •

IN MEMORY of the well-known Republican leader who had served as an alderman for over 20 years, the flag atop the city hall was flown at half mast and a black shroud draped the front of the building.

Mayor Arthur G. Ellington attended the funeral and sat in the pulpit with the Rev. I. R. Berry, who conducted the services, and Elk officials, Herbert Jones, grand organizer; Judge Houston, grand secretary; 1. Oliver Hill, grand inspector; Dr. Theodore Johnson, state inspector and Leonard Randall, exalted ruler of the Ancient City Lodge.

Pallbearers included: Clinton Dorsey Charles Dauhe, Robert Tusker, William Jeraha, Thomas Kyler, Jerry Wynn, George Grooms and John Parker.

• • •

AMONG OTHERS attending the services were Alderman T. Norwood Brown, J. R. Jackson, deputy sheriff of Anne Arundell County and James T. Queen, charter member of the Elk lodge.

Mr. Oliver is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lula M. Cully; three grand children and two cousins, Charles O. Oliver and Mrs. Mary E. Queen of Washington.

2 MEN WIN—24

Two men injured in a street car accident Oct. 22, 1953 were awarded $15,000 for injuries, this week by Judge E. Paul Mason of City Court.

The money will be paid by the Baltimore Transit Co.

The plaintiffs, Leroy Williams, 24, 2800 block Monroe St., and Bernard James, 38, 900 block N. Bentalou St., were passengers on the trolley which collided with a tractor trailer when it went through a red light at Edmondson and Monroe St.

Mr. Williams, who suffered injuries of the shoulder and back, will receive $10,000 while Mr. James who had back injuries will get $5,000.

Amos I. Meyers was the attorney for Mr. Williams and Mr. James.

Neighborhood Club observes anniversary

"The Lord says that we are the salt of the earth, therefore we should make other people thirsty for what we have," said the Rev. Reginald Daniels, pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening.

The Rev. Mr. Daniels was preaching at the annual services of the Iradell Bond Williams Neighborhood Club, whose officers were installed during the meeting, which also featured a memorial service for deceased members.

Mrs. Mary Baskerville was chairman of the installation rites. Mrs. Mabel Coleman gave the history of the club. Mrs. Mary Oliver read from the scriptures; and Mrs. Addie McCormick offered prayer.

• • •

SOLOS WERE, rendered by William Williams, Marshall Waters, Arthur Warner and Mrs. Mary Randall. Mrs. Gladys Taylor and Miss Mattie C. Halloway conducted the candlelight memorial service.

Former members memorialized included Messrs. John Meeks, Lewis Murray and James Pinn Sr., and Mrs. Susan Smith.

At the close of the meeting coffee was served in the Sunday school room of the church by Mesdames Manokey, Brown and Greene.

The Neighborhood Club's next meeting will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Virginia Tabb. Mrs. James Pinn is the president of the club. Reporters are Miss Pattie Halloway and Reginald Daniels.
