Howard's bases-loaded homer helps Yankees beat Cards, 7-4

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Elston Howard's bases-loaded, eighth inning double produced the 7-4 margin of victory for the New York Yankees over the St. Louis Cardinals here, Thursday.

It was only the third win of the exhibition season for the Yankees, who have lost five.

Howard, who has been employed as Manager Casey Stengel's key man in spring training competition, played the full nine innings for the sixth straight day.

NO OTHER New York player has seen so much duty. He has been shuttled from leftfield to rightfield to catcher. He caught Thursday's contest.

Earlier, Elston had put his mates in a tie with a sacrifice drive to deep left with the bases filled in the fifth.

Tom Alston, being altered at first base by Manager Eddie Stankey, sat out the game; while his stand-in, Joe Cunningham, went the distance for the Cards.

The day before, Howard got one of only three hits obtained by the Yankees in losing to the Chicago White Sox, 3-1.

IN THIS ONE, he was the bombers' leftfielder and, as such, turned in two good defensive plays, both on Chicago's slugging first baseman, Walt Dropo.

The first was a one-hand, over-the-head catch with two men on in the first inning. And the second was a knee-high grab of a sinking liner to left in the fourth.
the nine

Minnie Minoso had two of the nine blows credited to the sox.

IN THE MEANTIME, the Cards had dropped a 21-run slugfest to the Milwaukee Braves in Bradenton the same day.

The victory was sealed with Jim Pendleton drove in the tying and winning runs with a bases-loaded single in the eighth. The score was 11-10.

Brooks Lawrence had an unpleasant two innings on the mound for the Redbirds, being nicked for three hits — one a homer by Del Irandall — and walking three.

Alston had a double and single in four tries for the losing cause.

IN OTHER Grapefruit League games in the area, Humberto Robinson made his second impressive appearance on the mound for the Milwaukee Braves on Tuesday at Bradenton.

The 20-year-old righthander from Panama pitched four innings against the Boston Red Sox, allowed only one hit and struck out four. Only three balls were hit out of the infield off him, and no runs were scored. Milwaukee won, 7-3.

It was Robinson's second stint for Charley Grimm's crew; and in his seven innings of exhibition huring the big youngster has allowed only one hit.

THE SAME NIGHT (Tuesday) at Miami, Don Newcombe tossed three hitless, scoreless innings at the Baltimore Orioles, as the Brooklyn Dodgers succumbed, 8-6.

Rookies Bob Darnell and Glenn Cox surrendered seven runs in the last two frames to spend a 6-1 lead with which the Dodgers had been provided when Newk and his successor, Jim Hughes, left the game.

Down at Ft. Myers, Pat Scantlebury was credited with the 9-7 win annexed by Cincinnati over Pittsburgh.

Scantlebury hurled the last two innings, giving up two hits and three walks, struck out one. He benefited by a 5-run Redleg rally and netted the victory. — SAM LACY.

Basketball

Stokes paces St. Francis in tourney

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Three of the four teams which will meet this week end to determine the National Intercollegiate basketball champion will have colored players as key players.

Six colored performers will be in the lineups of the University of Iowa, LaSalle college and the University of San Francisco. The fourth team is the University of Colorado.

Iowa won the quarter finals at Evanston, Ill., last week end, defeating Penn State and Marquette University. In the Hawkeye-Penn State encounter, five tan players were in the starting lineups — McKinley (Deacon) Davis and Carl Cain for Iowa, and Earl Fields, Jim Blocker and Jesse Arnelle for the Nittany Lions.

IN PHILADELPHIA, LaSalle defeated Princeton and then won over Canisius. Alonzo Lewis, the brilliant sophomore, was a standout LaSalle performer in both games.

San Francisco won twice at Corvallis, Ore., easily defeating Utah and Oregon State. The Dons, ranked No. 1 among college fives in the nation, were led by Bill Russell, the 6-foot, 10-inch center, and his teammates, K. C. Jones and Hal Perry.

MEANWHILE, in New York two, of four first-round winners in National Invitational tourney were teams with colored personnel. Ed Fleming, with 28 points, led Niagara to victory over Lafayette. Charlie Hoxie and Tommy Hemans also contributed to the Purple Eagles' victory.

Maurice Stokes, as usual, led little St. Francis to another victory, the Loretto, Pa., college defeated Seton Hall. Dick Gains was in the losers' lineup.

Jimmy Lake scored 23 points, but Manhattan lost to the University of Louisville in its first-round contest.

St. Francis moved into the semi-finals by beating Holy Cross, Tuesday night, 68-64, as Stokes hit for 21 points.

Duquesne, with Si Green and the Ricketts brothers also are in the NIT semi-finals with Cincinnati and Dayton.

Lions take ice hockey championship

Washington sports fans this week are rejoicing over the title victory of the Washington Lions, new champions of the Eastern Hockey League, and the first pro sports champion the city has had in more than a decade.

The Lions, with Art Dorrington teaming brilliantly with his teammates, sewed up the title by defeating the Baltimore Clippers in Baltimore Tuesday night, 6-4.

This gave the Lions the championship playoff series, four games to none.

DORRINGTON, the Atlantic City flash, who has been a big factor in the Lion's scoring all season, contributed an assist in the Lions' point-getting in the final game.

The triumph closed the Lions' 1955 season but already hockey fans are talking about what to expect next year.
