CIAA boxing-wrestling meet at State Friday

PETERSBURG, Va. — Invitations have been sent out to all members of the CIAA in anticipation of the forthcoming 20th annual boxing and wrestling tournament to be held here on March 4 and 5.

The matches will get under way at 2 p.m. Friday with finals taking place at eight, Sunday.

Boxing trophies will be awarded to individuals, winners and runners-up in their respective classes. Team trophies likewise will be presented to the first and second place finishers.

The Virginia State Trojans, this year's hosts, are out to make a good showing at home. The wrestling team in particular looms as the dark horse, having built with the powerful Hampton squad and having dropped a close one to Howard University.

The State wrestling team consists of veterans Al Smith, CIAA 53-54 champion; Willie Brickhouse, 52-53 semi-finalist, Marvin Horne, 137 pounds and Calvin Terrell, 115 pounds.

Al Smith will defend his title for the third time.

Swim meet under way

Approximately 73 contestants from four colleges are participating in the eighth annual Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association swimming and diving championships at Morgan State College.

The 14-event meet opened yesterday (Thursday) and will continue through Friday and Saturday with awards scheduled to be made Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Refectory.

Friday's events are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

THE MORGAN TEAM, 1954-55 CIAA natation champions, will be joined by teams from Howard University, West Virginia State College and Hampton Institute in competing for the tournament awards.

All would be made to the outstanding individual swimmer, the team scoring the highest number of points and the runner-up, and to individuals. The CIAA championship trophy will also be presented at the tournament award session.

Hawkeyes pay homage to tan ace

CHICAGO (ANP) — With less than one minute to play in the University of Iowa's 96-to-84 victory over Michigan State's Big Ten champion, the Hawkeye Field House, with 13,200 looking on in a nationally televised game, teammates carried McKinley (Deacon) Davis to the floor on their shoulders.

The contest was the final home game of the season for the Hawkeyes and Tribble for the senior from Freeport, Ill., was in recognition of their years of starring to play he has given Iowa. Davis also is co-captain of the team.

The victory, incidentally, left Iowa with Minnesota for the Big Ten lead, with 10 victories and two defeats apiece, for their show-down game on Monday, which also went to Iowa, 72-70.

ALL SMILES AGAIN—Brooklyn Dodger catcher Roy Campanella was all smiles again Tuesday afternoon, following his initial workout in the Vero Beach training camp. Campy tested the hand which twice was operated upon last year, and found it "sound as a dollar." The injury that had deserted him all through the 1954 season, was reported fully healed and so—Campy smiles.

Darlington scoreless as Lion bow to Blades, 4-3

WASHINGTON

Art Dorrington, the Washington Lions' high-scoring wingman, was unable to register any goals Wednesday night but "provided plenty of excitement for local fans as he became involved in a punchfest with New Haven's Eddie Blondin.

The Lions dropped the game, the opening contest in the Eastern Hockey League semi - final championship playoffs, to the New Haven Blades, 4-3, in an overtime period.

The two teams are scheduled to clash again Saturday night at Uline Arena, Wednesday night's tilt drew 2,555 fans.

THE LIONS and Blades battled on even terms during the heated 60 - minute regulation play. Then in the sudden death overtime period, Dan McGuiness slammed through an unassisted goal at 2:57 to snatch the victory.

It was during the overtime period that Dorrington and Blondin exchanged blows after a rough exchange of blocks as the Lions were attacking. Both were sent to the penalty box.

Golden Bear foursome in K of C mile relay

The national AAU championship mile relay team of Morgan State College defends its indoor prestige again tomorrow (Saturday) in the New York Knights of Columbus meet in Madison Square Garden.

Having clinched the national indoor title with a 3:18 mile, two weeks ago the team will try to win the New York KC championship for the second straight year.

Coach Eddie Hurt disclosed that the team will be drawn from the same five runners he's been using all season—Herman Wade, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rudolph Solomon, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Otis (Jet) Johnson, Philadelphia, Pa.; Jimmy Rogers, British Guiana, South America; and Josh Culbreath, Norristown, Pa.

ALSO REPRESENTING Morgan in what is the last big meet of the current indoor season will be high jumper George Dennis, Atlantic City, New Jersey; and Ed. Waters, Baltimorean, who'll defend his title won last year in the 60-yard dash.

Following the Saturday meet, team captain Culbreath, the national 400-meter hurdles champion, will leave New York Sunday to fly to Houston, Texas for an exhibition meet there on Tuesday, March 8.

Culbreath, with the other champions selected by the Olympic committee of the National AAU, will then go to Mexico City, Mexico, to compete in the Pan-American Games starting on Monday, March 14.

In Memoriams

BAILEY—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, ELIJAH, who passed away one year ago, March 5, 1954.
When one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and brokenhearted,
There's something in a kindred tear
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship. I know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything
The grave its victory—death its sting.
We, who loved you, sadly miss you
And long to hear your voice
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often your presence does rejoice
Though God has taken you away,
You are with us always.
LOVING WIFE
AND CHILDREN

COLE—In loving remembrance of our loving parents and grandparents, father, WILLIAM ALONZO, who passed away March 7, 1920, and mother, THEODICIA ANNA, December 5, 1952:
Two dear bricks are from our household gone
Two dear voices we loved are stilled
Two dear places are vacant in our home
Which can never be filled.
Some may think they are forgotten
Though on earth they are no more
But in memory they are with us
As they always were before.
Their Loving Children
CLARRETA, THEODICIA, BERNARD, GLADYS AND ERMA AND GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN.

GREEN—In memory of my beloved son and our brother, WALTER T. GREEN, who passed away March 2, 1945.
We often sit and think of him When we feel sore and sad,
For memory is the only friend That grief can call its own.
Lies not on the withered oak;
When all other things decay,
Our love for him will still keep green
And never fade away.
Loving Mother,
MATILDA GREEN
SISTERS AND BROTHER

PAYNE—In memory of our precious mother, SARAH ANN PAYNE, who passed away four years ago March 4, 1951.
We miss her when we need a friend,
On her we always could depend;
She always would console in pain,
God grant someday, we'll meet again.
Loving Daughters,
ADA and GENEVA
AND LOUISE

WILLIAMS—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, FREDDIE WILLIAMS, who passed away March 4, 1954.
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed your loving eyes
And whispered, "Come home to Me."
