Man dies from injuries in accident

ANNAPOLIS — A 22 year old Galesville man died at the Anne Arundel General Hospital here last week following a two-car accident on route 468 4½ miles South of Galesville.

Roosevelt Tydings was taken to the hospital by the Seventh District Rescue Ambulance at 1:30 Thursday and died six hours later of multiple injuries of the head, face and neck, a hospital spokesman said.

Russell M. Watkins, Tydings' companion and driver of the car was admitted to the hospital also but escaped with only minor injuries and is said to be in satisfactory condition.

THE REPORT made at the Edgewater Sub station by County patrolman Owens Dove was that Watkins' car, heading north on Route 468, failed to negotiate a curve and collided with a two-ton-tank truck drived by Charles Arrington, 26, of Glen Burnie. Arrington did not receive any injuries.

Two teenagers were also injured in traffic accidents last weekend on Route 4 near Drury.

The injured passengers of the car driven by Harvey Brown, were Albert Brown, 16, of 47 W. Washington St., and Charles Diggs, 19, Waterbury. Each suffered lacerations of the face.

Estep convicted in $1,909 burglary

Quantity of silver dollars among valuables taken

A 34-year-old man was convicted Wednesday in Criminal Court in the Jan. 30 burglary of a house in the 1000 block N. Calhoun St. from which $1,909 in cash and property was taken.

Judge John T. Tucker returned the conviction against Vernon E. Estep of the unit block N. Poppleton St. who pleaded not guilty.

Valuables taken in the burglary included a large number of silver dollars which belonged to Garfield Willie, a rent collector who has offices in the basement of the Calhoun St. house.

DETECTIVE Sgt. J. Hiram Butler testified that a police investigation revealed that the burglary occured between 1 and 2:30 a.m.

Further testimony was that at about 8 a.m. on the morning of the crime, Estep went to a club on North Poppleton St. where he gave the owner 50 silver dollars in exchange for paper currency.

Sergeant Butler testified that he arrested Estep at a card game in the 800 block W. Fairmont Ave. A search of the man revealed three silver dollars, one of which was marked, and 10 one dollar bills.

At police headquarters, Sergeant Butler said, Mr. Willie identified the marked silver dollar as a pocket piece he had received from a late woman friend of his.

• • •

POLICE stated that Estep had a record for armed robbery, larceny, burglary and an assortment of petty crimes.

In addition to Sergeant Butler other officers who helped break the case were Detectives Milton Gardner, Lloyd Johnson, and William Burke.

Estep, who was dressed immaculately, did not take the stand. Police said, however, that when they questioned him about his activities during the time of the burglary, he said he was gambling. Sentence was deferred pending a motion for a new trial.

Damaging testimony against Estop was given by a Miss Edith Thompson, identified as his girl friend, who said that on the Monday following the burglary, Estep gave her $100; and by Mrs. Edith Simpson, Miss Thompson's sister, who testified that on Sunday, the day of the burglary, she had gone to a card game where Estep was and he gave her $400 to keep for him.

Bandit locks up owner in store

The operator of a grocery store in the 1700 block E. Biddle St. reported to Northeastern district police on Sunday that she had been robbed of $20 by a bandit who locked her in a room.

Mrs. Mattie Brown told police the man entered her store early Sunday and after ordering several items drew a knife from his pocket and told her: "Don't say anything and you won't get hurt."

Mrs. Brown said the man locked her in a room at the rear of the store and then took $20 in cash from the store. Mrs. Brown escaped by crawling through a window.

ASSAULTED WIFE

Charged with assaulting and striking his wife Marlene, Isaac B. Holden Jr., of the 600 block N. Carey St., was senctenced to six months in jail and fined $100 and costs at Northeastern Police Court Sunday.

Dockworker convicted in lottery case; woman freed

Booker Bryant, 40, of the 1000 block Poplar Grove St., was convicted in Criminal Court Wednesday on a lottery charge.

Judge John T. Tucker deferred sentence pending a new trial motion by Maurice Siegel, attorney.

Testimony was given that Bryant, a stevedore, was arrested last Jan. 28 in an automobile in the 300 block W. Lexington St.

• • •

POLICE said that at the time a man ran up to them and said an occupant in the automobile had threatened to shoot him.

One officer testified that he went to the car and found a gun on the back seat and arrested Bryant, James Palmer, 33, of the 1000 block Bethune Rd., Cherry Hill; and Miss Rose M. Bennett, 28, of the 2500 block Loretta Ave.

They said when Bryant was searched at Central District Police headquarters, lottery slips were found in his pockets.

Bryant and Miss Bennett were both charged with lottery violations but Judge Tucker directed a verdict of not guilty in favor of Miss Bennett after testimony revealed that no lottery slips were found on her.

Last week in Criminal Court, Judge Herman Moser found Palmer guilty on a deadly weapons and assault charge and gave him a six months suspended sentence.

Youth held in assault attempt

A 17-year-old youth, accused of attempting to criminally assault a 28-year-old woman has been ordered held without bail or action of the grand jury.

The woman told Magistrate Howard Aaron in Southwestern Police Court on Wednesday, that Levi Stokes of the 800 block Vine St., and several other youths had thrown her to the street near her home and attempted to assault her late Tuesday.

She said when she resisted their advances, Stokes struck her in the face and her screams attracted the attention of neighbors who called police. The other three youths escaped.

Boy 10, claims man, 30 robbed him of $1.15

Thurmond N. Lee 30, of the 1200 block E. Madison St., denied in Northeastern Police Court Sunday that the robbed a 10-year-old boy of $1.15 but that didn't stop Magistrate Samuel Gaboff from holding him in bail of $1,500.

The youth, who resides in the 1600 block Spray Ct., pointed Lee out as the man who "yoked" him while he was on his way to a niehgborhood store.

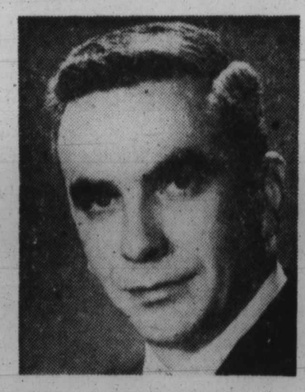
Since 1951 Arthur B. Price has served the people of Baltimore as President of the City Council. During many months of this time he has been acting mayor. As President of the City Council, he has fought untiringly to uncover corrupt politics, dishonesty in government and to rid our city government of political domination. As a direct result of his efforts against Bossism, Mr. Price's candidacy has the frantic opposition of the same political groups whose shady manipulations have been opposed and exposed by Mr. Price.

Arthur B. Price is a fifth-generation Baltimorean. Educated in the public schools, he received his law degree at the University of Baltimore. He is married, and has four children. During his successful business career of over 30 years, he has served many times on important civic and charitable committees. He was a member of the City Council from the 3rd District from 1944 to 1947. During this time, he was chairman of the Rules Committee and a member of other important committees, including the Special Committee on traffic control and improvement. Throughout his public life he has led the fight for new and improved schools, playgrounds, recreational facilities, and development of Baltimore's port and aviation potentialities.

Mr. Price is a member of the Masonic Orders; B.P.O. Elks Lodge No. 7; the Loyal Order of Moose; the Kiwanis Club of North Baltimore; the Maryland Historical Society and other civic and fraternal organizations.

Joseph Mullan is a native Baltimorean. He was educated at McDonogh and Loyola College. During World War II, he served with the U. S. Army. He is married and has seven children. He is a highly successful business man, having purchased a defunct brick factory in 1947 and built it into one of the largest producers of bricks in America under the name of Champion Brick Company, of which he is president. Mr. Mullan is a member of The Holy Name Society, The Rotary Club, The Advertising Club and the Home Builders' Association of Maryland. He is Vice President of the Baltimore League for Crippled Children and Adults. As a hobby, Mr. Mullan is an amateur radio operator with Station W3RLR, tied in with the National Civil Defense network; also, he is one of the few amateurs in the United States who has built and operates his own television camera and broadcasting apparatus.

Lever 5-F



The only ticket presenting itself to the people as a team, with each member proud to be associated with each of his Running Mates.

Mr. Price is a member of the Masonic Order and the Elks. He has many friends among the colored Masons and Elks.

When the Equal Opportunities Bill was in the City Council, Mr. Price cast the first vote. His vote was yes, with the hope that others would follow his example.

"Race, religion or national origin will play no part in my administrative appointments. I will be just, fair and impartial, I will serve all of the people"—Arthur B. Price.

Mr. Price has spoken every year at NAACP Mass Meetings. Mayor D'Alesandro has never attended these meetings.

At the NAACP Founders Day meeting Sunday, Mrs. Lillie Jackson said, "I am going to vote for Mr. Price. We need to support men who will take the bull by the horns and get things done."

Mr. Price has handed out diplomas and spoken to high school graduates at Douglass, Dunbar and Carver for the past 2½ years. Up to this year, the Mayor has been too busy to give out these diplomas and speak to the graduates.

Mr. Price is in favor of improving the facilities at Provident Hospital and will use his influence to see that they get a new building.

Mr. Price believes that the state and city should give more protection to women workers. The present 60-hour work week for women is shockingly high.

Unlike any other ticket or candidates in this primary, we avow our independence from any political domination. The P-M team is the only ticket which is 100 percent anti-Pollack and anti-bossism, and the only ticket which exposed "Precinct Packing" and "Ghost Voting," the bosses method of out-voting honest citizens. The Price-Mullan stand is not a temporary expedient for the campaign, but as known to most Baltimoreans, the record shows that the P-M team members individually have been unalterably and actively opposed to Jack Pollack and what his influence over office holders means to average citizens for a number of years. This ticket is completely free of political domination and is the only ticket owing allegiance solely to the individual voter of Baltimore.
