prosecution if they do otherwise.

THEY HAVE authority to preserve order and to cause any person to be arrested for any breach of the peace or of the election laws or for interference.

Some judges do not know it, but the law requires them to be at the polling place one half hour before the polls are opened (5:30 a.m.) to inspect voting machines and equipment and to be ready for operation at 6 a.m.

If any judge does not report by 6:15 a.m., the others have power to swear in a person of the same political party of the absentee as a substitute.

Keys to the voting machines, sealed in an envelope, must be delivered to one of the judges not earlier than the Saturday before the election and not later than ¾ of an hour before the polls open.

The machines may not be opened until two judges of election of opposite party affiliation are present. And the voting lock may not be opened until 6 a.m.

AFTER THE polls are open no judge may absent himself until all the returns are completed.

If there is a case of absolute necessity for the absence of a judge, he shall appoint some fit person in the same political party with himself to act until his return, having first administered to the substitute the same oath as he himself has taken.

The absence, the appointment of a substitute and the reason for it must be recorded in the poll book.

IF A VOTER does not understand how to operate the voting machine, a judge is required to instruct the voter — using the model machine standing on the judges' table — and call his attention to the sample ballot upon the wall of the voting room.

At a primary election, the judge in charge of a voting machine is required to learn the name of the voter's party affiliation and then turn the primary lines until they point to that party.

This will prevent the voter from voting for the candidate of any but his party.

ALL VOTING machine counters must register 000 before the polls open.

At 7 p.m., judges themselves must declare the polls closed but permit all persons who are waiting in line to vote.

Judges are required, in the presence of watchers, to unlock the doors over the counters of each machine, giving full view to the counter numbers.

JUDGES THEMSELVES must first lock and seal the voting machines, then read off the votes of each candidate's total and enter them in ink on duplicate return sheets, check the total voting authority cards by the machine register, and return the machine keys in a sealed envelope to the Supervisors of Elections.

Judges must proclaim the results. During such proclamation, persons lawfully present (judges, clerks, watchers) shall have the opportunity to compare the results with the counter dials on the machine.

Judges themselves are not permitted to see how any person votes or permit others to see or assist them.

The single exception is of blind or physically disabled persons who shall file an affidavit as to his disability. In this case, two judges, each of a different party, must accompany this disabled or blind person and offer no assistance except to operate the machine as the voter directs.

EACH POLITICAL party has a right to keep a challenger and a watcher at each place of election who shall be assigned to such position near the judges' of election to enable them to see each person as he offers to vote and they shall be protected in the discharge of their duties by the judges of election and the police.

Watchers recently complained justifiably that some election judges denied them permission to get close enough to the machine when the polls closed to see the totals for their candidates.

The law expressively requires judges of elections to make figures visible to watchers and any other persons (policemen, candi-

Dippel suit hits 'ghost' vote' in 4th

To correct irregularities in voters' registration, Francis Dippel, Democratic candidate for Mayor, sought legal action this week, directing Police Commissioner Beverly Ober to get the names of persons 21 years of age who have moved to other areas in the city.

In a suit filed in Superior Court, Mr. Dipple charged that the inaccuracies in the registration, which would prevent a "fair, honest and impartial election," were due to the negligence of the police commissioner.

UNDER THE law, Mr. Dippel pointed out the commissioner is supposed to furnish the Board of Supervisors of Elections with names of those who have moved from their permanent residences so that they could be notified.

Included in the action which is scheduled to be heard before Judge Joseph L. Carter, Friday (today) is a list of names which Mr. Dippel charged were improperly registered. They include:

Robert Barnes, Salvatore Carnaggio, William Crane, Edward Dorba, Joseph Paznekas, Joseph A. Paznekas, Joseph Korzeniewski, John Koutsantis, Ira Levey, Alphonsus Paznekas John Paznekas, Norman Rinaudo, Robert Rinaudo and Samuel Ain, all listed at 741 W. Fayette.

CHARLES BATTAGLIA, Milicent Cassinici, Sam Cassinici, Leon Fox, Edward Ha s s e l l, Helen Livengood, Charles Phelps, listed at 651 W. Fayette.

Morris Chodak and Max Finstein, 1917 N. Bentalou; Albert Greenberg and Mary Greenberg 2029 N. Bentalou; Raymond Levinson, 2031 N. Bentalou; Abe Albert, 2051 N. Bentalou; Annette Liebowitz and Sam Liebowitz, 2059 N. Bentalou.

Bertha Stern, 2061 N. Bentalou Lillian Caplan, Louis Caplan, and Melvin Rusgo., 2046 Ruxton; Samuel Goldberg and Sarah Goldberg, 2213 Windsor.

HOWARD BLEVANS, Frank Borsella, Geromiah Craig, Earl George, Llewelyn George, Christian Krichton, Joseph Meyers, Robert O'Neill, Joseph Salla - mone, Irving Quinn, Joseph Seasilberger and Ivan Watson, all at 923 E. Eager.

mer heavyweight champion has made two trips to Baltimore in the interest of Mr. Herman's campaign.

Harry Weiss, a candidate for the City Council from the Second District,is a member of the NAACP and Urban League.

A businessman, he claims the endorsement of the Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee, the Coalition Party Orfganization, the Citizens Democratic Club, Dr. B. M. Rhetta Jr., Senator Harry Cole, Lloyal Randolph, Charles Law, Mrs. Victorine Adams, Mrs. Ella Watson, Donald Boyce, Henry Parks, Raymond Hayes Jr and the beauty parlor owners in the Second Dis.

Mr. Weiss has declared himself in favor of the long promised additions to the Chick Webb Center. He has appeared before numerous colored groups during his campaign and is relying heavily on the colored vote in his bid for the nomination.

On Thursday, a huge rally was held in his behalf at Biddle Hall and many of the candidates appeared.

On Wednesday night, Mr. Weiss, who has been attacking the Redevelopment Area-12 plan, appeared at a meeting of the 11th Ward Democratic Club and learned to his chagrin, that one of his opponents is secretary of the Mt. Royal Improvement Association, frankly working to "get rid" of the colored residents in the area.

Meanwhile, the citywide candidates have not been neglecting the colored voters in the Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Districts where the majority of them reside.

ARTHUR B. Price, Democratic candidate for Mayor, appeared before a group of 58 workers of the 15th Ward, 21-34th Precincts, at a meeting, Wednesday night, held at the Me-De-So Club, and headed by S. Edward Smith.

Mr. Price warned the group that if they failed to appear at the polls on Tuesday "You will be saying that you haven't had enough of the D'Alesandro-Pollack administration and that you want more of it."

The telling pace of the campaign could be observed from Mr. Price's voice Wednesday night. He was suffering from a mild case of laryngitis.

Other speakers included Lawrence Lockwood, Judge Samuel Campanello and Joseph Mullan, candidate for comptroller on the Price ticket.

Mr. Mullan was introduced by Dal Raiser, former Pollack man.

The group endorced the Price ticket and the Randoloh - Perry - Rombro ticket in the 4th District. Also Mr. Law in the 5th.

Visitors to the meeting from outside the 4th District included Alexander Brown, Cherry Hill Democratic Clubpresident; Mrs. Ethel Langley, 5th District precinct executive; Leonard Hicks, 5th District leader and Samuel Turner, 3rd District executive.

AT THE same time Mr. Price was addressing a group at the Me-De-So's, T. Barton Harrington, also seeking the Democratic nomination, was speaking at a meeting of the Monumental Elks before a group backing Mr. Randolph's ticket.

Mr. Harrington again repeated his remarks of last week when he disclaimed all blame for the "smear racist sheet" which appeared in Byrd headquarters during the gobernatorial campaign.

Chairman of the State Central Committee, Mr. Harrington stated again that he has heard a rumor that a smear sheet stating that he is racially bigoted is due to appear over the weekend.

We centered most of his remarks, however, on the present D'Alesandro administration and blasted it for its "failure to criticize the scandals" that have appeared during the past year.

MEANWHILE, ON the Republican front, an announcement was made by the "Sam-Hopkins-for-Mayor" headquarters which would seem to indicate that the Republicans are certain that Mr. Price's voice Wednesday night. He was suffering from a mild case of laryngitis.

Other speakers included Lawrence Lockwood, Judge Samuel Campanello and Joseph Mullan, candidate for comptroller on the mittee on behalf of Mr. Hopkins which is to be held March 9—eight days after the primary elections.

The principal speaker at the affair is to be Howard Pyle, principal administrative assistant to President Eisenhower. Dr. John C. Woodland is a member of the dinner committee.

THE PROBLEM of ghost voting also continued to be a topic for much discussion this week and from the Arthur B. Price headquarters, from where the original charges came, new fat was thrown on the fire.

On Wednesday, Mr. Price made public a letter addressed to State's Attorney Anselm Sodaro concerning a house at 2101 Whittier Ave., now occupied by the Rev. John L. Tilley, pastor of the New Methodian Baptist Church, Mosher and McCulloh Sts.

"It has been brought to our attention," said the Price letter, "that Alma I. Jeannette and Joseph Newman, as well as Ethel Amernick, are registered for voting purposes at 2101 Whittier Ave. which is located in the Fourth Legislative District.

"According to the records of the Bureau of Assessments . . . Joseph Newman and wife are the owners of 3504 Ingleside Ave., located in the Fifth Legislative District.

"It has been determined that the Newmans who live in the Fifth District vote in the Fourth District, Ethel Amernick actually resides at 5606 Narcissus Ave. in the Fifth Legislative District."

MR. PRICE also charged that Mr. Newman is a member of the Pollack political organization" in the Fourth District and is a Liquor Board inspector.

The letter also stated that Mrs. Tilley "was surprised to learn that the Newmans and Amernicks were using her home for voting purposes."

ANOTHER MAYORALTY candidate, Francis X. Dippel, has also entered the "ghost voting" battle and today (Friday) at 2 p.m. Judge Joseph L. Carter will hear arguments on a mandamus he filed in Superior Court charging "flagrant disregard of the election laws."

Mr. Dippel has repeatedly asked Governor McKeldin to delay the primaries until the "ghost voting" situation and other election irregularities have been cleared up.

Interest was also shown this week in a newspaper distributed by the Price headquarters. With a streamer blazing "Beat Bossism With Price," the eight-page tabloid attacks the "Pollack-D'Alesandro - Piracci Combine," running Baltimore.

On other fronts, the Poplar Grove Democratic Club, 1343 Poplar Grove St., this week endorsed Price for Mayor, George Sellemayer for president of City Council, Joseph Mullin for Comptroller, Arnold Herman for City Council and Charles R. Law or City Council.

John D. Jefferies is president of this Fifth District club. Gwendolyn Quinn, secretary, and Robert M. Riddick, treasurer.
