"Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

HYMN OF THE MONTH

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY
AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing.

Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount, O fix me on it, Mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer; Hither by Thy help I'm come.
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home:
Jesus sought me when a stranger, Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to save my soul from danger, Interposed His precious blood.

O, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter, Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it; Prone to leave the God I love.
Here's my heart, Lord, take and seal it; Seal it from Thy courts above.

Words To Live By

By Rev. R. T. Newbold Jr.
Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church, Baltimore

This is Brotherhood Month. And during this period one question haunts us: How can we help bring in the day of brotherhood? The following thoughts should prove suggestive:

First of all if we can recognize that as individuals we can make contributions.

Two attitudes frequently take hold of us: we either feel there is nothing we can do, or else we believe there is so little we can do until it is not worth our time and effort.

* * *

BUT THERE are many things we can do. We can refrain from the usage of racial stereotypes.

We can judge people on an individual, rather than a racial basis. And we can support those organizations whose programs contribute toward brotherhood.

Moreover, we can teach and help prepare children and young people to make their positive contributions.

* * *

THE NAME OF Lillian Smith is well known. She will always be remembered for her novel—"Strange Fruit" and "Killers of the Dream." In one of her speeches she said:

"I remember having had a playmate with whom I played almost daily. Months passed. We played together. Then one day my mother came outside where we were playing and said to me, 'Come inside.'

"Once inside the house, my mother continued, 'You can't play with that little girl again.' Why? 'Because she is colored.' That, was my first lesson in race prejudice," reports Miss Smith.

* * *

CHILDREN AND young people are being taught lessons they will never forget. And they learn from our deeds as well as our words.

If this is true, then it is important that we teach them lessons of love and respect instead of disrespect and hate. It is important to teach them the lessons of tolerance, truth and understanding.

These suggestions should be especially challenging to Christians.

* * *

FOR THE non - Christians in America are expecting us to take the lead in improving relations between peoples of different races, colors and creeds.

On the day of Pentecost the curiosity-seekers and the outsiders heard peter preach. They heard words come from his lips. But later they also saw men of different lands and languages come together in Christian brotherhood. The words concerning this experience are:

"All that believed were together and had all things in common."

People are looking to us today! They have heard our preachments. They want now to see us summon the courageous action, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, that will help bring men together in Christian brotherhood. Therefore, we must:

Rise up (as) men of God
(For) His kingdom tarries long,
Bring in the day of brotherhood
And end the night of wrong."

Welfare unit plans meetings

The first of these meetings will be held on Monday at 8 p.m. in the Department of Public Welfare auditorium at 1500 Greenmount Ave. The speaker will be Reuben Oppenheimer, chairman of the Committee on Juvenile Delinquency.

The subject will be "The Legal Base for Public Welfare." The second meeting will be held March 21, and will present Dr. Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Henry 1st to be endorsed by AME ministeral group

Kappas enter politics 2nd time for Josiah and Law

The AME Ministerial Alliance, which has been organized more than 50 years, has for the first time in its history endorsed a candidate for political office.

The group took this action Monday at Bethel AME Church during their weekly meeting, when they unanimously endorsed Josiah F. Henry Jr., Fourth District Democratic candidate for City Council.

Their endorsement of Mr. Henry, a devoted churchman who has been an officer of his church for 25 years, was one of many the candidate has received recently from outstanding civic and political groups.

* * *

ON SATURDAY night, Mr. Henry was endorsed by the Monumental Bar Association, of which he is an organizer and twice president.

Also on Saturday, the Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity pledged support to Mr. Henry and Charles H. Law, Fifth District Democratic City Council candidate. Both men are members of the organization.

This marks the second time in this group's history that they have endorsed a political candidate. The first was in the November election when they supported Harry C. Cole in his successful bid for State senator in the Fourth District. Mr. Cole is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

* * *

OTHER GROUPS who pledged their support to Mr. Henry, this week, include:

The Arch Social club, an all-male organization which is the oldest social club in the city; the 13th Ward Independent Democratic Club with headquarters in the 1500 block Retreat Street;

And the Ra Continents Social Club, which also pledged support to Arthur Clifton Lamb, candidate for mayor.

Mr. Henry told the AFRO, this week:

"I am overjoyed at the confidence these groups have shown in me by offering their support. If I receive the nomination and am elected to office, I will work to justify this faith."

Mr. Henry has opened campaign headquarters at 416 Druid Hill Ave. All persons or organizations who wish to aid him in his City Council bid, are asked to report there.

Funeral services for Joseph C. Hall, 51, of 1603 Retreat St., will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Williams Funeral Home, 322 N. Schroeder St., with burial scheduled for Mt. Auburn Cemetery.
