'Julius Caesar' to Savannah State

SAVANNAH, Ga. — Savannah State College Lyceum Committee, under the direction of Dr. Coleridge Braithwaite, will present the production, "Julius Caesar" on February 10 at 8:15 p.m.

This production will star Robert Conforti, who will play the role of Caesar. Conforti was a star during the entire four years he spent in the Speech and Drama Department of Catholic University.

Bill (Kit Carson) Williams starred in Regent western

"The Outlaw's Daughter," a new and exciting western adventure, starring Bill Williams, Kelly Ryan, and Jim Davis is now playing at the Regent Theatre.

Filmed in color, the Alplee Pictures production released by Twentieth Century-Fox tells the story of a marshal's fight against a band of ruthless outlaws who are responsible for his brother's death.

Bill Williams, who stars in "Kit Carson" television series, plays the leader of the band of outlaws.

For Bill the role is somewhat different from his conventional casting. Whereas he is usually cast as a law-abiding citizen, he now joins those on the other side of the fence and becomes a ruthless killer.

Kelly Ryan is the girl who is torn between her love for the marshal and her fascination for the outlaws' leader.

She is cast in the title role, playing the daughter of one of history's most ruthless outlaws, James Dalton.

Miss Ryan is a newcomer to Hollywood, this marking not only her first starring role, but also her initial appearance before any motion picture cameras.

In the role of the hard-riding, hard-fighting marshal is the screen veteran, Jim Davis.

ROYAL HAS 'VIOLENT MEN' LIONEL HAMPTON SHORT

A motion picture of tremendous power and excitement, "The Violent Men," currently plays the Royal. Stirring drama of the desires and passions which tear apart a frontier valley where men fight for life, land and love, "The Violent Men" stars Glenn Ford, Barbara Stanwyck and Edward G. Robinson. Diane Foster, and May Wynn are also featured in the CinemaScope film, in Technicolor.

It has its setting in the post-Civil War period when small ranchers faced the challenge of the land barons, and either succumbed to their ruthless drives for empire or recklessly died trying to stop them.

In "The Violent Men," the embattled ranchers organize under the leadership of a former calvary officer who uses his military science to combat the killer army seeking to destroy him and his fellows.

Lionel Hampton is featured in a special short subject.

JIMMY STEWART IN 'FAR COUNTRY' AT HARLEM

Score another great and exciting triumph for James Stewart in Universal - International's Technicolor adventure "The Far Country," which brought the booming Yukon gold-rush days to the screen of the Harlem Theatre with Ruth Roman, Corinne Calvet and Walter Brennan also starred.

Matching his memorable roles in "The Glenn Miller Story" and "Rear Window," Stewart makes "The Far Country" a personal story of power and scope, a remarkable achievement in a setting which makes the good and the bad, the strong and the weak all epic characters.

The Jeff Webster of James Stewart is a hard man, tough enough to shoot a couple of riders who try to make off with the herd of cattle he has ticketed for the fabulous Yukon beef prices.

He is cold enough to leave his Dawson-bound companions to the fury of an avalanche when they spurn advice. He is ambitious enough to think of the Klondike in terms only of gold when the town urges him to act for law and order.

But as bullets cost him a life-long pal and a newfound lady-love, as the lawless Klondike laughs at his efforts to go it alone, Stewart emerges into a man of warmth and understanding, an emergence which generates tremendous heart - appeal for "The far Country."

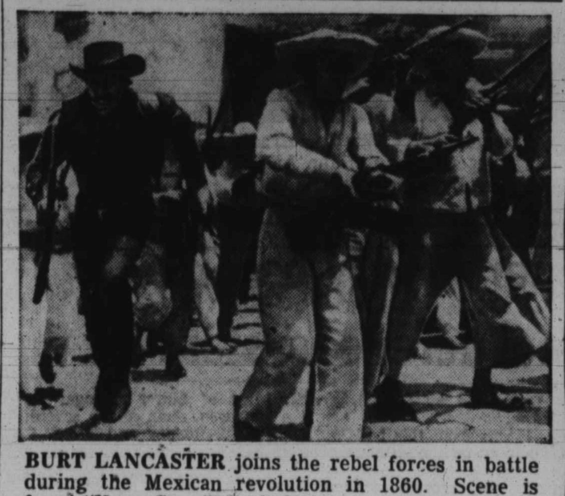
HTK—Met Feature—guide

Two hard-bitten American freebooters on the loose in the tumultuous Mexico of 1866, decide that they can't outsmart, outshoot or outride each other, so they pool their resources consisting of two guns, two horses (one stolen) and their talents with a six-shooter, and decide to fight in the Mexican Revolution of 1866. Which side? Why, which ever pays the most, of course.

The two men are played by Gary Cooper and Burt Lancaster in the Technicolor-Superscope film "Vera Cruz," which is now playing at the Met Theatre through United Artists release. In addition to costarring, Lancaster also co-produced the film with Harold Hecht. Sharing stellar honors with Lancaster and Cooper are Cesar Romero and Denise Darcel. A curvaceous cutie from south of the border, one Sarita Montiel, makes her American movie debut in the picture.

Robert Aldrich directed from a screenplay by Roland Kibbee and James Webb based on a story by Border Chase.

FIGHTING ADVENTURER James Stewart and gold-field opportunist Ruth Roman are a dramatic pair in Universal-International's Technicolor "The Far Country." Corinne Calvet and Walter Brennan are also starred in this booming Yukon story, now playing at the Harlem Theatre.



BURT LANCASTER joins the rebel forces in battle during the Mexican revolution in 1860. Scene is from "Vera Cruz," Technicolor superscope drama now playing at the Met Theatre through United Artists release.

61 favor changeover at Paca St. tavern

Sixty-one persons, the majority given free transportation to a Liquor Board hearing after they had lunch with an applicant who wants to change his tavern from white to colored trade, went on record as favoring the move Thursday afternoon.

Out of the group, four persons testified on behalf of George William DeAngelis, owner of the "George Inn" at 217 S. Paca St.

Mr. DeAngelis told the Board that he was requesting the change because the neighborhood, a commercial area, is 85 percent colored. He also stated that there were 17 taverns for whites in the area but only two for colored.

After warning the applicant that he violated the law by giving food away, the Board agreed to take the matter under consideration.

Eleven protestants, all white attended the hearing. Two said they were against the changeover because "there are already two many taverns for both races in the community."

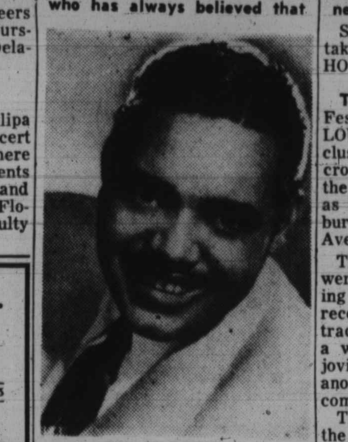
VISITS FLA. A and M

TALLAHASSEE — Phillipa Schuyler, world famed concert pianist, spent three days here last week between engagements as the house guest of Mrs. and Mrs. S. Randolph Edmonds, Florida A and M University faculty members.

Along The Avenue

One of the finest and friendliest places the column has seen in many a night of strolling is the HILTON HOUSE which recently opened its doors at 3133 W. North Ave., with our old and good friend, J. C. Bailey, as the smiling manager.

Emphasis at the HILTON HOUSE is laid on the food and we understand from J.C., who has always believed that good food is all important, that the dinners at the dining rendezvous are a tribute to the art of cooking.



CHRIS POWELL

There's a large dining room and a comfortable bar, all in paneled wood, and over the entire place hangs a relaxed atmosphere which makes the HILTON HOUSE a wonderful place for dinner and drinks.

• • •

THE BAR IS taken care of by three charming young ladies, Lucille Walker, Elizabeth Marshall and Fannie Putty. Other employees include Edythe Thorpe, Pearl Copeland, Juanita Timberlake, Elizabeth Williams, Charles Gray and Sylvia Joseph.

As mentioned before, J. C. Bailey is the manager, and whenever this gentleman is, you can be assured that you will receive only the best of everything. We hadn't seen J. C. in several months until our meeting at the HILTON HOUSE, but he hasn't changed one iota. Come to think of it, J. C. has always been the same since the day we met, and he still thinks the night club business is a wonderful business to be a part of.

So next time you are out, take time to visit the HILTON HOUSE for a wonderful time.

THE HAPPY, happy Cuban Festival at RICTOR'S RED FOX LOUNGE came to a rousing conclusion on Monday, with the crowning of Charles Mills of the 100 block Honeysuckle Ct. as king, and Miss Eunice Milburn of the 1900 block Walbrook Ave. as queen.

The coronation ceremonies were attended by a host of smiling patrons as the king and queen received a number of very attractive gifts and everyone had a wonderful time, including the jovial George Fox, who saw another one of his colorful ideas come to a successful end.

This makes the second year the RED FOX has served as the setting for a Cuban Festival, and the column takes a deep bow to the people who made it such a resounding success. Honest, George, if you didn't take part in the festival, you missed a whale of a time.

And before we turn away from RICTOR'S, we would like to report that there is a great new outfit in the person of the Paulson Duo, which has a wonderful sound and fits well into the room.

AT THE COMEDY Club this week there is the unmatchable music of Eddie Heywood, the pianist, who makes such beautiful sounds and who weaves a spell about any tune that he plays.

And coming up next week for his second engagement will be Chris Powell, another top drawer musician.

On Sunday, Feb. 27, the Carson Models and the Models Guild will present their sixth annual fashion show and cocktail party at the COMEDY CLUB. This year they will show the latest spring styles in hats, furs, hairstyles as well as designer originals.

The models will include Johnie-Mae Brooks, Joan Simmons, Lucille Kane, Georgia Newby, Catherine Aikens, Willia Bland, Florence Williams, Mae Leonard, Margaret Watson, Mattie Faulcon, Virginia Green, June Fields, Lois Lyas, Adele Brown, Delores Cooper and others.

In all there will be about 20 models on hand for the festivities, and that is a lot of beauty to be concentrated in one spot at the same time.

• • •

OUR FRIEND, Lou Bennett, has shifted his talents to the CLUB CASINO where he can be heard nightly, playing some of the finest music in the entire city. If there is one outfit in the city that deserves the big break, it is the group of Lou Bennett, talented fellows all.

Lou has worked out several new arrangements that are a real joy to hear, so we suggest you catch the fellow in action at the CLUB CASINO.

Our friends down at the CLOVER CLUB, Fayette and Wolfe Sts., are wearing broad smiles these days as their recent improvements meet with the obvious approval of the customers. The club has fashioned a dining room, which is shut off from the rest of the club, and which serves as the setting for the music of the Seven Tunetoppers, a group that hs earned a lot of praise during its engagement at the club.

• • •

THE CLOVER Club is also featuring a delectable line of food and with George Fayman and Ben Miller on hand to make the customers feel at home, and a wonderful time being assured for all.

Oscar Pettiford is the big man this week at the CLUB TIJUANA, where modern music moves along at a fast clip, and the TIJUANA remains as one of the finest spots in the entire city.

Baker gets one good shot at James, it scores kayo

Bob Baker, the Pittsburgh puncher, who hopes to get a shot at Rocky Marciano's title, needed only one good blow to add Willie James to his list of ring victims Wednesday night.

Outscored in the opening round and twice staggered by the aggressive James, Baker lashed out with a series of lefts and rights to finish the Roxbury, Mass. battler in 2:57 of the second round.

A terrific right cross preceded by two stinging left hooks proved the payoff punches. Baker, moving slowly, and frequently giving ground to James, suddenly forced Willie to back up with a couple of lefts and a right.

Then he landed a right flush on Willie's jaw, flooring the Roxbury contender. James, dazed and plainly hurt, tried to rise, got one hand on the lower rope strand, and was counted out on one knee.

Until the knockout blow, James had an edge in the brief fisticuffing. Referee Benny Goldstein and Judge Jimmy Jones gave Willie the opening round, 10-9, while Judge Eddie Leonard scored it 10-8 in Willie's favor. The AFRO card agreed with Leonard.

Taller and with longer reach than Baker, Willie quickly scored on the Pittsburgher, twice staggering him with rights in the first round. But James didn't have enough ring savvy to stay out of the way of Baker's big guns and fell victim to them the first time Bob tossed them his way.

Baker, weighing 219¼, scored his 38th victory in 44 fights and his 19th knockout. It was James' fifth defeat in 21 fights.

A slim crowd of 918 paid $2,542 to see the bout which was nationally televised.
