Zeta Phi Betas schedule Finer Womanhood program

...with Lula Jones Garrett

Zeta Phi Beta sorors set forth plans for the annual observance of Finer Womanhood Week, this week.

"Youth Meeting the Challenge of Integration in American Life" is the theme that will characterize the activities of the week. The activities will begin with a closed meeting, at which all of the Sorors will gather for a repledge service.

On Sunday, February 20th, at 11:00 a.m. there will be a Fellowship Service at Union Baptist Church where the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews serves as pastor. On Friday evening, February 25th, the sorority will entertain their friends at a dance at Morgan State College Refectory.

The sorors will visit Barrett School for Girls in Glenburnie, on the 26th. There a program will be given, gifts will be distributed to the girls and a social hour including a repast, will be served.

The culminating activity will be held on Sunday, February 27th when a public meeting and tea will be held at Morgan State College Christian Center. There will be participants on the program from Goucher College, Morgan State College and Southern High School. This will take the form of a panel discussion. The Woman Of The Year will be featured on this program. The tea and social hour will follow the public meeting.

During this celebration there will be an exhibit in the library of Morgan State College featuring the achievements and hobbies of women. This exhibit will be one of the projects of Gamma Chapter, the undergraduate Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

The general committee in charge of Finer Womanhood activities is chaired by Soror Mary C. Frazier. Soror Beatrice A. Mayo is the basileus of the sorority.

Other members of the general committee are:

Sorors Thelma Coleman Ashe, Audrey Davis, Althea Saunders Cornish, Emma D. Dudley, May Williams Fortune, Beatrice H. Hall, Emma Henson, Doris A. Howell, Mary B. Hurtt, Katherine O. Johnson, Hazel M. Phillips, Vivian Purviance, Jessie Valentine and Lillian R. Webb

EMMA MICHAELS entertained at a delightful luncheon on Saturday afternoon at her Bradish Avenue home.

Luncheon and cards, of course ... with Ruth Jennifer garnering first prize, Vashti Matthews, second; and Dorothea Merchant third. The booby went to Arnett Lottier and Veronica Carr, who kept score, also received a gift.

Others playing were Mary Lou Redd, Grace Burke, Cleota Minor, Kay Carter, Wilhelmina Gainer, Vivian Pendleton, Louise Robinson, Lucille Burns, Robbie Chissell, and Margaret Proctor.

Serving as host group to the Baltimore chapter of Howard University Alumni Association at its monthly meeting, Friday evening, were the Baltimore Dentists who are graduates of Howard University.

The meeting was held at the home of Dr. Isaac Young, 532 N. Carey Street.

Among important items discussed in the meeting were final arrangements for the Charter Day celebration which will be held on March 2nd. The affair will be at Morgan State College and the guest speaker will be Bishop Edgar H. Love, a graduate of Howard.

In attendance at the Friday meeting were:

Ernest Gambull, Edgar D. Draper, Mrs. Mary Spellman, Mrs. Yvette Murphy, the Rev. Oliver St. Clair Franklin, Miss Ethel E. Wise, Dr. Maybelle Weaver, Mrs. Edith I. Gibbs, Mrs. Esther Whyte Bailey,

Roy S. Bond, Miss Gwendolyn Biddle, Mrs. Lillian Rustin, Edgar S. Williams, Miss Elizabeth J. Johnson, Miss Anne C. Calhoun, Miss E. Louise Anderson, Emory R. Cole, Dr. Reginald Evelyn, Dr. Isaac H. Young, Dr. Charles E. Watts, Jonathan

Dr. William B. Mason, Herbert M. Frisby, Theodore R. Hayes, Linwood G. Koger Sr., Mrs. Mary C. Frazier, Dr. Donald Brandon, Mrs. Bernice Brandon, Mrs. Mary E. Brown, Miss Louise Baker, Miss Hazel Caffers.

Dr. Young served as chairman of the host group. The other dentists responsible for the banquet were Dr. Reginald Evelyn, Dr. Charles E. Watts, Dr. William H. Beamon, Dr. Bernard Christmas Sr., Dr. Bernard Christmas Jr., Dr. William B. Mason.

The March meeting will be in the form of the Charter Day Celebration. The host group for the April meeting will be the School of Pharmacy and in May, which will be closing meeting for this fiscal year, the Howard graduates from the School of Law will be the host group.

Do you know that invitations to the lush $25-per GI Pal Dinner, here, go begging ... so far as tan army personnel is concerned?

Baltimore as such an unsavory reputation as to its democracy that the service men and women (in the main) avoid it as they would a plague.

The second annual dinner, held in the Emerson Hotel, Wednesday evening, was beautifully done. The 'Colors' decored the main ballroom. Tables were enhanced with flowers and flags. Governors of States had sent floral offerings from lush magnolias from the Southland to tiny orchids from Hawaii. There was an array of top brass from nearby posts and glamour from nearby consulates. The dinner was attended by 700 guests.

There was entertainment from Broadway, and a three-course dinner.

THE AFRO-AMERICAN drew as guest a pretty little WAC from Camp Meade. She was Sgt. Hazel C. Thomas, of Altona, Pa. She's on her second enlistment in the Army, having been in for five years, and plans to become a civilian again in six months. Her plans also include returning to college (Howard University) to specialize in economics. She thinks after that she might go into civil service.

Another guest at the same table was Sgt. Isiah Sample, also of Camp Meade ... who, incidentally, ended up in taking an arm load of prizes in one of the entertainment features. He was guest of Mrs. Vivian Alleyne.

There, also were Pvt. Mary I. Maitnez, of Chicago, stationed at Fort Meade; SFC Washington Pierce of Kenor, N.C.; Master Sgt. Nicholas Smith of Washington, Pvt. Redfore Gear of Atlantal Ga., stationed at the Army Chemical Center; Pvt. Jose Freyre of Puerto Rico, who was guest of Mrs. Irene Dodson;

Also Pvt. Leonard Sheppard of Boston, Pfc. Harold Simmons of Nashville, Tenn.; Sgt. O. C. Taylor of Brownsville, Tenn.; Cpl. James E. Fouthers, T/A U.R. Hill, Cpl. Thomas N. Prince, Sgt. Reginald McHenry and Pvt. James E. Hooker.

DATE DATA: Letitia Ashe flew up to New York for the National Urban League's Beaux Arts Ball, over the week end ... just to prep on the how of the affair there and to see that nothing would be missing from the one she is chairing, here, on the 21st.

From what the committee tells me, three will be nothing missing either, Erskine Hawkins, who played for the NYC ball, will ditto here.

No end of folks are arrayed to go ... because they can make a costume do double duties that evenings, by having fun with the Urban League Guild at the Charles St. Famous Ballroom, (to say nothing of vieing for those prizes) and also having fun with the Omegas, who will have their annual Mardi Gras frolic at the Coliseum the same evening.

W.N.M.'S masquerade dance is set for the 19th at Biddle Hall. And other festivities that will pep up the local heath in the near days to come include Founder's Day banquet of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority atthe YMCA, Saturday night; We Wives' cocktail dance tonight (Friday) in Biddle Hall; the Flamingoes, who are having a benefit cocktailer to aid City Hospital patients, in Odd Fellows' Hall Tuesday evening; Phi Delta Kappa Sorors' fashion show at the Coliseum on the 25th; and Zeta Phi Betas' Finer Womanhood Week tea in Morgan Christian Center on the 27th.

South Baltimore Notes

Nieces, nephews and a great niece honored their uncle, William Gardner, on his 77th birthday.

The affair was held at Mr. Gardner's home, at 2420 Huron St., and the house was very beautifully decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner have been married for 52 years and have celebrated 50 of their anniversaries. This event has become so prominent that the citizens of the community look forward to it.

The name of young Charles Scott has been sent in to WMAR-TV as one of the names for the "Good Deed of The Week" contest.

THEATRE GOERS OF THE WEEK — Charles Scott, Robert Cooper and Berkly visited the Hippodrome, Sunday, Feb. 6 and enjoyed themselves very much.

We wish to make a correction Last week we stated that Lillian Dingle, classmate of Marie Littles, went to the New instead of the Town.

An "Oyster Supper" will be given Friday, Feb. 18 at the home of Mrs. Nettie Gardner, 2420 Huron St. The affair will be given by the Trustee Aid of the Star of Bethlehem AME Church.

Officers are William Polk, president; Ernestine Christian, secretary and the Rev. William R. Chew, pastor.
