"Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY
AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing.

Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loudest praise:
Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount, O fix me on it, Mount of God's unchanging love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer; Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure, Safely to arrive at home:
Jesus sought me when a stranger, Wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to save my soul from danger, Interposed His precious blood.

O, to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter, Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it; Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart; Lord, take and seal it; Seal it from Thy courts above.

Elder Michaux holding revivals at Church of God

Elder Lightfoot Solomon Michaux, famed radio evangelist, is now in Baltimore conducting a series of revival meetings, following his return from Puerto Rico where he was the guest of mayoress, Mrs. Ricon Felicia Gautier, in San Juan.

The revival services are being conducted at the Church of God, located on N. Gilmor St., between Saratoga and Mulberry Sts. The elder's wife, soloist on his weely broadcast over CBS radio, is also appearing.

The elder launched what he terms "A War Against the Devil" last Sunday night, at which time he addressed a large crowd. His subject was taken from St. John, 3rd chapter, 17th verse:

* * *

"GOD SENT not his Son into the world to condemn the world but that the world through him might be saved."

The elder is offering to give to all who suffer from diabetes a formula that he says God gave him and which cured him of the disease. There is no charge.

* * *

THE FORMULA is given out every Thursday and Sunday night. The subject on which the elder will preach this coming Sunday night is: "Can a Woman Or Man Who Has Been Divorced and Married Again Enter the Kingdom of Heaven After Death?"

The singing for the services is furnished by the famous radio Happy Am I Choir of Washington. The elder will be in the city until Sunday, Feb. 20. Services begin every night at 8 p.m.

Sam Lacy, Babs Daniel married

ALEXANDRIA, Va.—The Rev. Samuel B. Ross, pastor of Third St. Baptist Church, on Wednesday, revealed that he officiated at wedding ceremonies for Mrs. Barbara M. Daniel, 39, and Samuel Lacy, 46, both of 2101 New Hampshire Ave., Washington, D. C.

He said the wedding was on Nov. 5, 1954.

The Rev. Mr. Ross, who resides at 1018 Oronoco St., said that as nearly as he can recall the ceremonies were held in his home.

"I DON'T remember whether the couple came to my house during the day or at night, but I have them listed on my record book," the minister declared.

He added that his records do not show whether or not there were witnesses. Virginia law, Mr. Ross explained, doesn't require witnesses for weddings.

In her divorce suit filed Jan. 25 against a Samuel Harold Lacy of the New Hampshire Ave. address, Washington, Mrs. Alberta V. Lacy of 722 Park Rd., NW, Washington, names a Minnie Daniel as co-respondent.

SHE CONTENDS that her husband and Mrs. Daniel had lived together since Jan. 15, 1954.

Mrs. Alberta Lacy stated that she and Mr. Lacy were married Dec. 28, 1927, here in Alexandria.

Friend finds body of veteran

A World War One veteran with no known relatives, was found dead in his apartment at 928 Madison Ave., late Tuesday night.

He was identified as James E. Brown, 60, and police said he had apparently been dead for several days before his body was discovered by a friend, Mrs. Leona Bantum of the 400 block Biddle St., who had gone to visit him.

Mrs. Bantum said she found the body lying on the floor near the bed. There was no indication of when Mr. Brown died, but decomposition had already set in around his nose and mouth.

The veteran had been treated at the Ft. Howard Hospital several months ago, and hospital officials reported that he had no relatives listed on his records.

700 guests attend GI Pal dinner

More than 700 guests at the second annual GI Pal Dinner, here, Wednesday night, heard Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin wish for Maryland and America a more thoroughly democratic way of living.

Pointing to the equality of every human, Mr. McKeldin told the group that civilians were present, not so much to raise the morale of the soldier guests, as to look at fine young Americans, in whose hands their safety lay and have their own morale lifted.

THE DINNER brings home the continuing obligation of civilians to the armed forces, M. Shakman Katz, chairman of the Baltimore USA Committee, said.

His message was:

"In a divided world it has become imperative for the United States to maintin its strength. For years to come we may have to call upon our young people to give up their individual pursuits in order to serve their country in military forces. Because of this, when 'the kid next door' puts on the uniform he deserves every consideration the community can give him, no matter where he finds himself."

Also greeting the assemblage was Major Thomas D'Alesandro Jr.

The GI Pal dinners, originated by Frank Cross of this city, are now held in 500 cities throughout the country. For a $25 fee a host and a service man or woman, dines and is entertained with a floor show.

This year's dinner had as special guests the commanding generals of nearby army posts, and representatives from 12 foreign consulates.

AMONG THE civilian hosts were Mrs. Ruth Brown, the Parks Sausage Company, the AFRO-AMERICAN PUBLISHING Co., the T. Henry Waters Catering Company, Mrs. George Holland, mortician; Mrs. Lena Lee, attorney;

Dr. Willard W. Allen, the Luther Benton Dental Co., Joe Neal, Lloyal Randolph, Mrs. Rose Mebane, Mrs. Irene Dodson, the Frontiers of America, Mrs. Anna Stone, Dr. Bruce Alleyne, Judge Joseph Kolodney, Harley Brinsfield and the YWCA Board of Directors.
