Spingarn victor in Baltimore thriller

BALTIMORE

Spingarn High School, using its superior height to advantage, gained a thrilling overtime victory over Dunbar High of this city, here Wednesday. The score was 61-60.

Coach Dave Brown's youngsters, boasting four men taller than the biggest player on the Poet team, controlled the backboards through most of the contest. And therein lies the main part of the story.

Anthony Washington, Dickie Wells, Lloyd Murphy and Francis Saunders all tower better than six-feet-two. Coach Sugar Cain's tallest Dunbarite is Tom Briscoe, who reaches a straining 6-feet-1.

Still the locals plagued their rivals all the way, three times overcoming sizeable leads to press the game into an extra session.

* * *

MOREOVER, THE scrappy home club missed victory by a fraction of a second when what would have been a game-winning basket was nullified by the whistle sounding the end of the regulation time.

That occurred when Dunbar's Al McQuaize cut loose with an outside toss just a breath after the timer's bell sounded on a 54-54 score. In the ensuing three-minute overtime period, Spingarn netted seven points to six for the Poets.

* * *

UP TO THAT hair-raising final second, Louis Harris, a relative come-lately to the Dunbar varsity, and standing only 5:10, had done a brilliant defensive job on the Wave's towering Wells (6:3).

Dickie finished the afternoon with 16 points, but four of his seven field goals were of the tap-in variety. Rarely did he have a chance to set on his own.

* * *

WASHINGTON, the big playmaker and floor-leader of the visitors, was the most worrisome of Harris' first-strong corps. He was constantly in position for rebounds and was a thorn in the side of the Poets with his timely assists.

Murphy, his lefthanded hooks hitting with uncanny accuracy, tied Washington for high-point honors. Each bagged 18 markers during the fray, turning in identical cards of six field goals and six free throws.

THE COURAGEOUS Poets, on the other hand, were required to fight an uphill battle most of the way. Spingarn went to the front in the opening quarter, only to be overhauled and led, 29-28, at the half.

Briscoe, with 16 points, was best among the local scorers. Lonnie Mayzek had 14, and Harris came out with 11.

Trailing 45-37 going into the final quarter, the game Dunbar lads rallied to grab a 54-53 lead with 40 seconds remaining.

Mayzek was charged with fouling Saunders and the elongated Spingarn forward sank the shot to knot the count.

* * *

IT WAS AT this point that McQuaize gained possession of the ball and, setting just past midcourt, cut loose. A split second before the ball left his hands, however, the timer's signal sounded and the shot was nullified by the referee's frantic arm waving even before it completed its arc and descended into the cords.

The extra period found Spingarn outscoring the locals by a single point, the victory being sealed in the last 50 seconds by a field goal and attendant free throw by Saunders—LACY.

Bates drops fifth game to Dunbar

Locals use reserves in dull 71-35 victory

By BOB PINKNEY

ANNAPOLIS — Dunbar High of Baltimore, who led all the way by a considerable margin, trampled and outclassed Bates basketball team Monday 71-35 before a large crowd who sat through a dull contest.

Coach John Holt's team, who suffered their fifth defeat in seven outings, was never in the contest at the Monumental five held a 29-13 lead at halftime and coach "Sugar" Cain flooded the floor with reserves the rest of the contest.

Monroe Green led Bates with 12 points, while Bob Jones, the Little Giants 17 point per game averaging forward, was held to 6 points, his lowest total of the season.

* * *

LONNIE MAYZEK paced Dunbar with 10 markers. The scoring was divided so well that every man on the team except one had at least two markers.

Exhibiting a porus defense which permitted the visitors many shots from underneath, Bates' long range shooting which worked effectively in its 74-62 win over Banneker, was ineffective as the Little Giants were able to score only four points in the first period.

Dunbar led by Mayzek, roared to a 14-4 first period advantage and scored the first six baskets of the second quarter, before Green clicked on a jump shot to pull his team out of its dilemma.

* * *

MIDWAY THE third period with Dunbar ahead by 21 points, baskets by Jones, Green and Wilbert Johnson bought Bates as close as it was to come at 39-26.

With one minute and 30 seconds left in the period, Dunbar's reserves eager to break into the scoring column, dunked in 14 points before Green again broke the Giants scoring draught on a one hand jump shot.

However the lanky junior fouled out of the contest with five minutes left, and Bates was able to get only one basket, a jump shot by guard Melvin Pindell, the rest of the evening.

Bates' next contest will be against Douglass of Upper Marboro Tuesday on its own floor.

JACKED BY BEAU — No sooner had the camera clicked on this action during last week's Beau Jack-Eddie Green bout at Columbia, S.C., than Green got Beau's cocked right smack on the button. There were no knockdowns, however, as Jack scored a decision win in his first ring activity in three years.

NEARING TAPE—Art Bragg, formerly of Morgan State College, won the Exchange Club Sprint series competition at the Star Games Saturday night. Bragg, on right, is shown as he paced the field in the 80-yard dash; Rodney Richard of the Armed Forces TT, Lane 2, was second. Carl Cager of the Baltimore Olympic Club, lane 4, was third; Dave Sime of Duke, extreme left, was fourth; and Ronald Horsham of Philander Smith College, trailed.

Sitting In

By LARRY A. STILL

The problem of officiating in the recently integrated Interhigh league is becoming increasingly important as the city-wide circuit passes the midway point in the brief basketball season.

Spectators, coaches and departmental athletic officials have been slow in commenting on the obvious fact of "loose" calling by referees and umpires in the tense games.

No one, it appears, wants to leave himself open to charging that certain referees are playing favorites or being unfair in the new, history making set-up.

* * *

AS A RESULT players have been getting away with obvious fouls while cautious officials look the other way. This has been true of court monitors from both of the associations handling the games.

One of the big problems to be ironed out at the beginning of the first integrated season was what to do about officials from the International Association of Approved Basketball Officials, Boards 12 and 13.

Members of Board 13 had been handling the games of former Division 2, While members of Board No. 12 had been handling the games of former Division 1.

Now members of both boards are handling the new schedule, but we understand there has been no joint meeting between the two full boards, let alone a step toward integrating.

The results are becoming apparent.

One referee said last week that he had been trying to call a game the way his partner in the game was calling it, without regard to his own convictions.

Another type of officiating was witnessed Thursday night in the Armstrong - Anacostia game when one official insisted on calling the game the way he saw it without regard to the teams—or his fellow-official.

Atheltic officials have stated that games were usually called closer in former Division 2 than in the old Interhigh circuit which accounts for the difference in the officiating sometimes.

Special admission rates set for CIAA tourney

DURHAM, N.C. — The Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association tournament committee, through its chairman, L. D. Smith, this week announced further plans for the 10th annual playoff, already set for North Carolina College, Feb. 24-26.

Charles A. Ray, news chief at the school here, was appointed director of publicity for the tournament. Ray served as associate director last year with A. M. Rivera, Jr.

Thursday, February 25, has been set aside as "Business and Industry Day." Special reduced rates will prevail for representatives in these fields and also for housewives. A fifty cents student ticket will be available for the afternoon and evening games on Thursday.

Tickets for the tournament will be handled this year by Earl W. Phillips, NCC athletic business manager.

The CIAA's top eight teams will compete for the tournament championship.

Those attending the committee meeting, in addition to Smith, were I. G. Newton, NCC athletic director; Prof. T. L. Hill, Morgan State College, Baltimore and Frank Burnette, Durham, commissioner of baseball.

Absent were Dr. T H. Henderson, CIAA pressident, Union; Dr. G. Singleton, CIAA secretary-treasurer, Virginia State.

Associate members attending were Ray, H. G. Dawson, Jr., Dr. S. B. Fulbright, chairman of NCC athletic committee; J. W. Young, supervisor of NCC gymnasium.

Two members were also present from a local advisory committee. They were N. B. White, president of the Durham Business and Professional Chain, and Mrs. C. B. Daye of the local housewives' league.

In Memoriams 1

BRISCOE—In loving memory of my dear husband, ARTHUR E. BRISCOE, who passed away January 30, 1947:

You left a beautiful memory,
A sorrow too great to be told,
But to me who loved and lost you,
Your memory will never grow old.

Loving Wife,
LAVINIA

MASON — In memory of our mother, MRS. MAGGIE G MASON, who entered a better life on January 30, 1952:

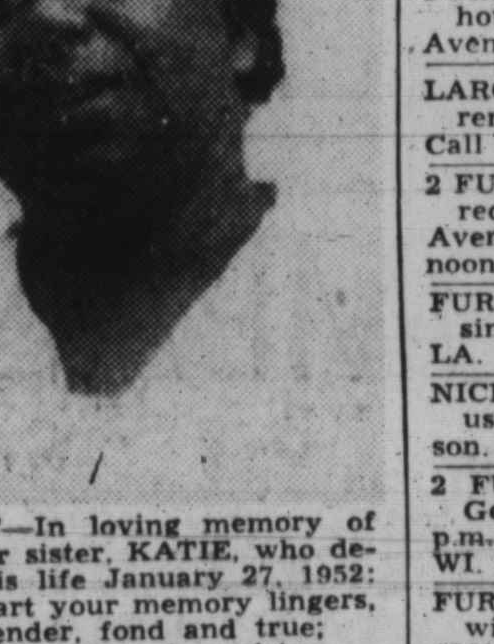
Lord, when we have not any light,
And mothers are asleep;
Then through the stillness of the night,
Thy children keep.
When shadows haunt the quiet room,
Help us to understand
That Thou are with us through the gloom,
To hold us by the hand.
And though we do not always see the Holy Angels near,
O, may we trust ourselves to Thee,
Nor have one foolish fear.
So in the morning may we wake,
When wakes the kindly sun,
More loving for our Father's sake,
To each unloving one.

The Family,
BERNICE, WILLIAM, LOUISE, LILYAN, ANABEL, ROSS

MITCHELL—In loving memory of my dear son, ISAAC, who passed away January 27, 1947:

More and more each day I miss him.
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within my heart concealed.

Loving Mother,
GERTRUDE BLACKWELL.



NEBLETT—In loving memory of my dear sister, KATIE, who departed this life January 27, 1952:

In my heart your memory lingers,
Always tender, fond and true;
There's not a day, dear sister,
I do not think of you.

Devoted Brother,
GEORGE BROWN

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES WILLIAMS, who passed away seven years ago today, January 26 1948:

How I miss your smiling face;
But you left me to remember
No one on earth can take your place.

Devoted Wife,
HATTIE WILLIAMS
