South Baltimore Notes

By GEORGE W. E. HILL
And
MARIE O. LITTLES

Rip Van Winkle slept for 20 years; so has South Baltimore.

The citizens of the Southside, of all races, are holding a meeting, Sunday, Jan. 30, for the purpose of preventing the entire Southside area becoming an area of warehouses, garages and filling stations.

Only you, Mr. Citizen, can save South Baltimore from destruction as far as housing is concerned, for from Washing Blvd. to Eutaw St., the area will be used for the above mentioned purposes.

FOR FIVE or more years a small group of citizens have been fighting for a housing project in this area. Little or no cooperation could be gotten from the majority of the citizens, especially the landlords who thought that a housing project would deprive them of the high rents they are receiving for out-dated homes.

Now everyone knows that the landlords will be forced to sell their houses, and probably businesses of other cities will control the future business of South Baltimore.

Are we going to sit by idly and see this happen? Again let us urge you to attend the meeting on Sunday, Jan. 30 at 3 p.m. at 671 Washington Blvd.

FUNERAL services for Reginald A. Hill were held Wednesday, Jan. 19, at 2617 Forester Ave.

The Rev. W. K. Chew officiated. Telegrams were read by Mrs. Ernestine Christian, and Mrs. Henrietta Brown of Washington and Gerald Burke Wilson were among the many folks present.

Mrs. Venita Parker Butler, Rita Parsons and Mrs. Charlotte Hill served dinner for the family.

THE ION Travelers entertained the members of the Star of Bethlehem League on Sunday for the benefit of the League of Women's day.

Paul Thomas is president and the Rev. W. K. Chew, pastor.

A Valentine Banquet will be held at Star of Bethlehem AME Church, Monday, Feb. 14. Sponsors of the affair are the Women's Day Committee.

The CPHA's "Winter Warmer" will be held Thursday, Feb. 3 at 8 p.m. at the Park School, 2901 Liberty Heights.

See names of those desiring to attend to 703 S. Fremont Ave.

SOUTH BALTIMORE mourns the loss of Roland "Chick" Woodlon, one of the pillars of the Elks movement in South Baltimore.

In 1938, Roland, with other civic leaders in South Baltimore, was successful in having an Elks Lodge set apart from the grand lodge.

Roland was admired by all for his attitude towards children and every morning you could see him giving candies to children, regardless of color.

ATTRACTIVE Mrs. Mary T. Spencer of West Hamburg St., considered by many as the best dressed woman in South Baltimore, looked so lovely Sunday in a black lace gown with tulip bodice over pink taffeta.

A dinner party given by Mrs. Susie Parks Lawe, 941 S. Sharp St., Sunday, attracted some of the smart set of South Baltimore.

Some of the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Washington, Albany, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Johnson, Asbury Park, N.Y.

Also present were Mrs. Paul Glover, Mr. and Mrs. James German, Misses Ann Smith, Dorlis Watkins, Alisha Macer, Gertrude Vaughan, Leon Jackson, Elsworth German, William Murphy and Bernard Mills.

MRS. EFFIE Copeland of 1012 Leadenhall St. was very happy last week. Going to work last Friday on a No. 1 bus, Mrs. Copeland lost her pocketbook and did not discover her loss until her lunch hour arrived when she was at work.

Mrs. Copeland gave her purse up as lost but the next morning the pocketbook was returned to her, with its contents, on the same bus with the same operator who asked that his name be withheld.

Eastern Skeet, Trapshooting Group changes schedule to meet upped costs

PHILADELPHIA

The Eastern Skeet and Trapshooting Association re-elected Lyman L. Winfield, of the Triangle Gun Club, Coatesville, Pa., to the presidency at the 16th annual meeting of the body here Sunday.

The entire slate of officers was returned to the governing board along with Winfield. All are serving their second consecutive terms are:

Dr. E. B. Wetmore, senior vice president; Miss E. M. McGibboney, junior vice president; Charles W. Howard, secretary; Miss Ann Nixon, historian; John H. Murphy Jr., director publicity; John Jeter, chairman, executive committee; James T. Dorsey, sergeant at arms, and Nathan E. Harris, chaplain.

Due to the increased cost of material and travel, the club voted unanimously to divide the association into North and South groups. Each group is expected to hold three shoots and the winner in each group will meet in competition for the championship.

The following schedule of shoots was agreed upon:

North—May 15, Twin Sycamore
June 19, Triangle
July 17, Van Dyke

South—May 22, Deep Sea
June 26, Falcon
July 24, Indian River

The championship shoot will be held in Baltimore, Md., Sunday, Aug. 14, with Falcon Rod and Gun Club as host.

The body also agreed to act as host to the National Skeet and Trapshooting Association's annual event, Sept. 3-5, on the grounds of the Falcon Rod and Gun Club, Inc.

Delegates from the member clubs present were:

Main Line Gun and Beagle Club—Elizabeth M. McGibboney, Emanuel L. Johnson; Joseph Clarke.

Draw gives Colts Mo. Lincoln ace

PHILADELPHIA — The Baltimore Colts capped one of their most successful days in the history of the player draft here Thursday, when they came out of the early rounds with three of the top names in college football.

Aside from winning the draw Oregon quarterback George Shaw for the bonus pick, and gaining Oregon quarterback George Shaw, the Colts gained Alan (The Horse) Ameche, of Wisconsin, and Leo Lewis, of Missouri Lincoln University.

• • •

IN AMECHE AND LEWIS, the Baltimoreans obtained the two players generally recognized as the most outstanding performers in their respective groups.

Ameche won acclaim as the best white player in the lannd during 1954, and Lewis holds undisputed rank as the No. 1 athlete in colleges that are predominantly colored.

Shaw, likewise, is highly respected, but it is believed he was picked by the Colts with an eye to dealing with the San Francisco 49ers, who openly coveted the native T-star.

• • •

TWO COLORED players were among the first 22 selections of the 13-man Colt contingent, which came hetre armed with hundreds of not-so-colored prospects.

In addition to Lewis, the Baltimore team chose Jesse Arnelle, 6-foot-4-inch, 220-pound end from Penn State.

It was a known fact that the Colts also had entertained serious designs on another colored quarterback, Charley Brackins, of Prairie View. However, when they found themselves in possession of the widely-sought Lewis, the Colt brass were content to let Brackins go to the Green Bay Packers as their 16th choice.

• • •

LEWIS WAS the Colts' sixth pick. During his four years at Missouri Lincoln, the fleet running-passing-kicking artist had made Little All-America in his junior and senior seasons.

A 10-second man in track, the 22-year-old, 190-pounder holds three modern records. His 4,457 yards represent the greatest nu yards represent the greatest number of rushing gains in the nation; his 384 points scored and his 64 touchdowns are also tops among collegiate performers.

• • •

OTHER COLORED players picked up in the annual draft follow—

NEW YORK GIANTS — Mel Triplett, Toledo University, back;

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES — Duke Washington, Washington State College back;

CHICAGO BEARS—Bob Watkins, Ohio State halfback; John Hall, Iowa University tackle (traded to Clevelannd); and J. D. Smith, A and T College back;

GREEN BAY PACKERS—Art Walker, University of Michigan, tackle; Charley Brackins, Prairie View back, and Bob Carter, Grambling University back;

PITTSBURGH STEELERS — Jim Cooke, Lincoln University end; Ellis Duckett, Michigan State College back; Eddie Smith, Texas Southern back;

LOS ANGELES RAMS—Roosevelt Grier, Penn State College tackle (traded to New York Giants);

DETROIT LIONS—Elijah Childress, Prairie View University tackle;

CLEVELAND BROWNS — Leroy Bolden, Michigan State College back, and Henry Ford, University of Pittsburgh back.

Morgan hosts fast Rutgers 5 Sat.

Improving Bears await invading N.J. quint

Morgan State College will play host to Rutgers College of New Jersey in basketball at the Hurt Gymnasium, tomorrow (Saturday) evening.

Off to a slow start, the Bear team has been gradually coming into its own in recent contests. Since dropping an 81-77 decision to Virginia State, Coach Talmadge Hill's charges have won four of their last five starts, their only loss being to Union University, current leaders in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association conference race.

In those five games, the Bruins have scored a total of 410 points. In their last outing, Morgan trounced a highly - touted North Carolina College combine by a convincing 104-79 margin.

• • •

ERNIE GARRETT, senior forward from Newark, N.J., has been the scoring ace of the Morgan team this season, as he has been for the past three seasons.

To date, with sixteen games played, Ernie has sunk 104 floor-shots and 16 free-throws for an overall total of 214, or an average of 19.6 per game. However, despite the fact that his point - per - game average is not as high as it was last season at this stage of the campaign, Garrett's great all - around play has been nothing short of sensational.

In addition to being the leading scorer on the squad, the senior flash has been a tower of strength on the defense. He has been particularly effective in nabbing rebounds and has come through with many timely assists.

• • •

SECOND IN the scoring parade of Bears is another New Jersey lad, Raymond Murphy, of Orange, who has racked up a 208-point total in sixteen games. "Spider" also holds the season's record for the greatest number of points scored in a single game.

In the January 17 clash with North Carolina A. and T. College, Murphy sank ten field goals and an even-dozen foul-shots for thirty-two credits.

Urge induction probe in Miss.

WASHINGTON

A request that Selective Service investigate pressure of local draft boards on colored advocates of civil rights in Mississippi was made this week by the Washington Bureau of the NAACP.

The bureau's request sent to Col. Campbell Johnson, Assistant to the Director of the Selective Service System, stated that Dr. T. R. M. Howard of Mound Bayou, Mississippi, had been ordered by his local draft board to state why he should not be reclassified into 1-A.

DR. HOWARD, who is 47, is president of the Regional Council of Negro Leadership, the bureau stated, and has been subjected to constant pressure because of in-Mississippi.

The bureau charged that the local draft board's notice to Dr. Howard on reclassification appeared to be part of the pressure campaign stimulated by white citizens' councils that have been formed to halt civil rights advances in Mississippi.

Gladiators win

WASHINGTON

The Northeast Gladiators handed the 12th St. YMCA its second defeat this year, 91-88 last Saturday night in the "Y" gym.

M. Bowman set the pace for the victors with 37 points while W. Martin was racking up a total of 24 points for the losers.

The "Y" squad now has a record of 8 wins and 2 losses having dropped a previous game to the Warriors.

Cardozo swim team easily tops Douglass

D.C. school drowns Baltimore Ducks in water duel

WASHINGTON

Down-the-line strength enabled Cardozo High School's swimmers to register a 44-22 victory over Douglass High School, of Baltimore, in the local pool Wednesday.

With D. Jackson turning in one of the old South Atlantic Conference's fastest sprints, and thus paving the victorious Cardozo team, the Clerks virtually "drowned" an opposing squad that for years has been known as "Ducks."

In this instance, the Ducks weren't much in the water as compared to the speed Clerk aggregation.

• • •

JACKSON CAPTURED the 100-ard freestyle event in 58.7 seconds, one of the rare times a conference swimmer has broken a minute in dual competition.

Although both teams registered an equal number of first places (three) in individual competitions, the Clerks piled up their advantage with a sweep of the two relay events and a flood of seconds and thirds.

Summaries follow:

SUMMARIES

50-YARD FREE STYLE—Won by Payne (C); second, Booth (C); third, Brown (D)—Time, 26.4.

100-YARD BREASTROKE — Won by R. Holt (D), second, Lewis (C); third, J. Holt (D)—Time 1:13.2.

200-YAR DFREESTYLE — Won by Utley (D); second, Yeager (C); third Samuels (D)—Time 2:46.7.

100-YARD BACKSTROKE — Won by Snowden (C); second, Waters (D); third, Henderson (C) — Time 1:17.

100-YARD FREESTYLE — Won by Jackson (C); second, Davis (C); third, Dudley (D)—Time 58.7.

150-YARD IND. MEDLEY—Won by R. Holt (D); second, Payne (C); third Brown (C)—Time 1:40.4.

MEDLE YRELAY — Won by Cardozo (Snowden, Wallet, Briscoe) — Time 1:41.2.

200-YAR DFREESTYLE RELAY—Won by Cardozo (Jackson, Booth, Wood, Payne)—Time 1:32.2.

Y BANQUET SPEAKER — Buddy Young, star halfback of the Baltimore Colts professional football team, will be the principal speaker at the annual Father-Son banquet, tonight (Friday) at the 12th Street YMCA.

Zuleta to meet Perez in video bout Monday

NEW YORK—Orlando Zuleta of Havana and Danny Jo Perez of New York City will be the Leadliners Monday night at St. Nick's Arena.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised over the DuMont Television Network at approximately 10 p.m. (EST)

Zuleta despite his recent losses, is still considered one of the world's top ranking lightweights. The Cuban was the victim in recent months of three "upset" verdicts in bouts with Richie Howard in Halifax, Kenny Lane at S. Nick's, and Frankie Ryff in Madison Square Garden.

The Howard decision was apparently suspect, since the officials were subjected to an investigation immediately following the bout. The Lane decision was a split verdict with practically all the newspapermen covering at ringside of the opinion the Cuban had won. Ryff, in receiving his award, was cut up so badly that it will take at least four months before he will be able to box again.

ZULUETA WON several important fights during 1954. He decisioned John Gonsalves, Percy Bassett, Dennis Pat Brady and knocked out Paola Rossi.

Other Zuleta victims in past seasons were "name" fighters like Wallace (Bud) Smith, Arthur Persley, Luther Rawlings and Paddy DeMarco.

The Cuban is extremely clever and mixes his punches well. He has triumphed in 51 out of a professional total of 80 bouts, drawing with nine opponents.

DANNY JO, who hails from New York's West Side, has only lost three times in a 19-bout career. He holds a decision over veteran campaigner Dennis Pat Brady, knocked out Dickie Wong in 2 rounds and disposed of Bobb Bickle in 10 rounds. The latter pair of scraps were televised over the DuMont Network.

Perez dropped a questionable split decision to Kenny Lane in his last outing, also a DuMont televised bout. It was a bloody battle. Perez was cut over the left eye and Lane received a deep gash on the top of his skull.

Petey Adams stops Brisci

NEW YORK—Improving Petey Adams registered his 14th win in 20 starts here Monday night when he stopped Angelo Brisci, via technical knockout, in the ninth round.

The bout was the Italian's American debut and the regular scheduled telecast 10 - rounder from St. Nicholas Arena.

Adams, who fights with four fingers missing from his right hand, started slowly, losing the first round to Brisci by a wide margin.

Warming up to his task, however, he thereafter pummelled the invader at will. Smashing uppercut combinations, Adams through repeated left hooks, had Brisci groggy through the seventh and eighth rounds.

It was obvious that the only reason referee Ted Martin didn't stop the fight earlier was that there were no knockdowns. At the end, Angelo was bleeding from cuts over both eyes.

Walker, Marshall Bison co-captains

WASHINGTON

Halfback John Walker and Center Randall Marshall have been elected co-captains of the 1955 Howard University football team, Thomas F. Johnson, football coach at Howard reported this week.

Walker, a 23-year-old junior from Darby, Pa., is an art student in Howard's College of Liberal Arts.

He was the Bisons' leading scorer and ground - gainer last year. The 5-foot-9, 165-pounder has been a regular on the Howard squad for the past two seasons.

Marshall, who is 21, is a graduate of Phelps High School in Washington, D.C. The 5-foot-10, 175-pounder has been the Bisons starting center during his freshman and sophomore years.

Currently a sophomore, he is enrolled in the School of Engineering & Architecture where he is majoring in architecture.

Bear thinclads head for Boston meet determined to stop Jenkins

"He's terrific! But we'll get him yet!"

This is what Morgan State College's mile relay team is unanimously saying this week of Charlie Jenkins, the sensational Villanova anchor man who thrice this season has plucked victory from the Bears just at the tape.

Jenkins' latest exploit occurred last Saturday in the Evening Star Games in Washington, where he overcame a long lead and nosed out Morgan's Jimmy Rogers at the tape to win the Variety Club's Trophy for Villanova in 3:23 time.

He'd done the same thing at the earlier Boston Knights of Columbus and Philadelphia Inquirer meets.

• • •

CHAFED BUT unanimously bursting with admiration at the prowess of their smooth-striding nemesis, the Morgan mile relayers are hoping "to stop" Jenkins this week when Villanova and Morgan again compete in the Boston AA meet in Boston, tomorrow (Saturday).

But how to stop Jenkins is the big problem, the mile relay team members and their mentor, Eddie Hurt, frankly admit.

At the moment the team is concentrating on improving its time. It's generally felt that if the three leg men are able to pile up a substantial lead, the anchor man may be able to hold out against the powerful burst of speed Jenkins has been able, so far, to summon against the Bears.

• • •

A SECOND technique Morgan is experimenting with is the shift of runners on the mile team.

Coach Hurt attempted this last week in Washington. Usually the team has run in this order: Herman Wade, Pittsburgh, Pa., lead-off; Otis Johnson Philadelphia, Pa., second leg; Jimmy Rogers, British Guiana, third leg; and Jose Culbreath, Norristown, Pa., anchor.

In the Evening Star meet, Coach Hurt substituted sophomore Rudy Solomon for Johnson and shifted the running order to: Wade, Solomon, Culbreath and Rogers.

• • •

THE COMBINATION almost clicked Wade was barely nipped on the first leg by Villanova. A good second leg by Solomon put the Bears ahead and third man Culbreath widened the gap. Jimmy was the winner until that man Jenkins let out a powerful burst and nipped Morgan just before tape-time.

"I thought I had him," said Rogers, "and I let up just a bit and there he was!"

Playing the game cagily, Coach Hurt won't divulge how the mile relay team will run in Boston.

"All I can say is the boys are determined."

Mrs. Paris Brown heads golf club

WASHINGTON

Mrs. Paris B. Brown was elected president of the Wake Robin Golf Club last Saturday at its annual meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frances Naylor, 2364 13th Pl., NE.

The new president succeeds Mrs. Helen W. Harris who served in the office for two years. Mrs. Brown was assistant director of the club's national golf tournament last year.

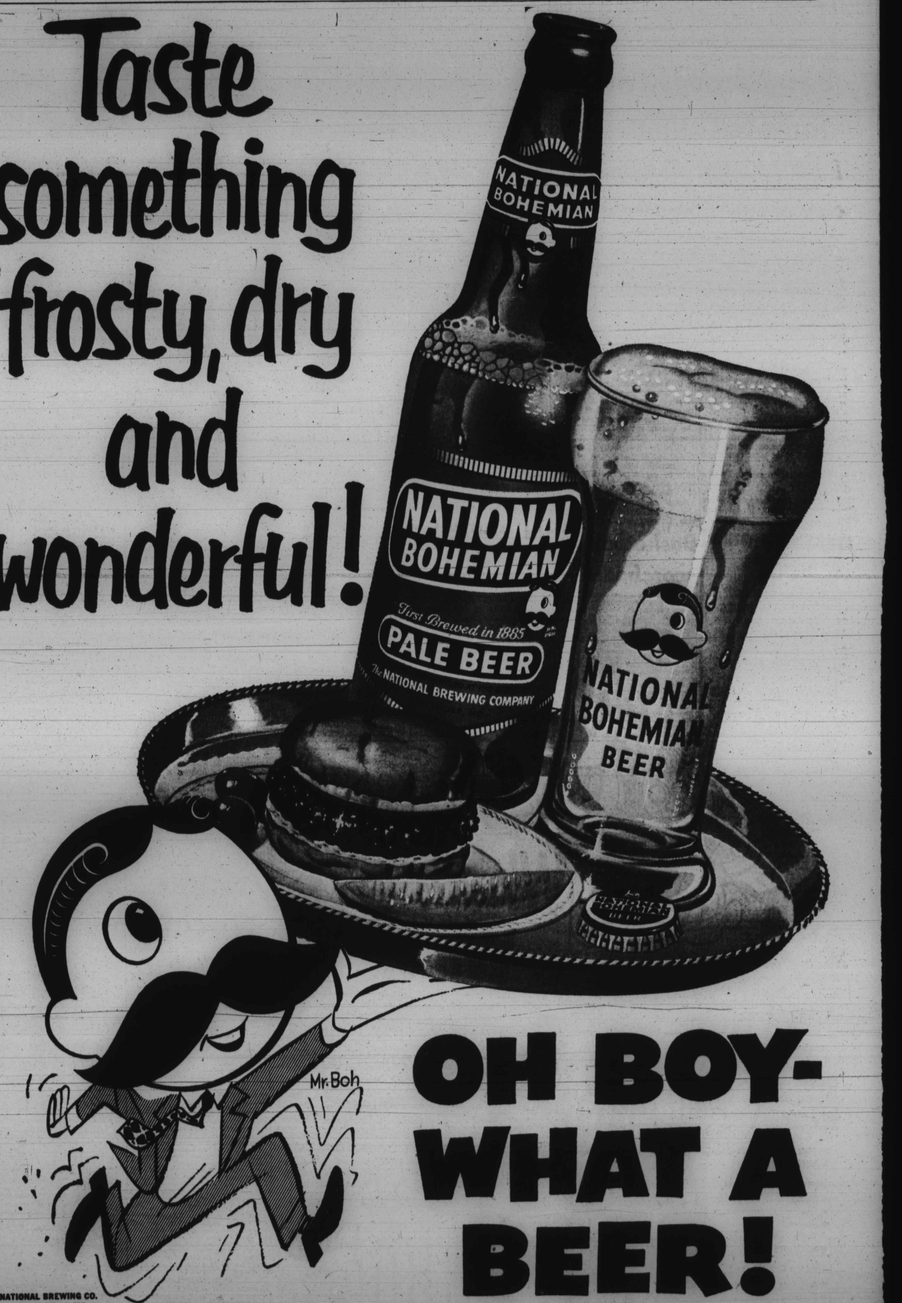

Other officers elected for 1955 are: Miss Ethel Williams, vice-president; Mrs. Gertrude Suber, recording secretary; Mrs. Amelia Lucas, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Vydie Carter, treasurer;
