IN HARLEM HIT—Jose Ferrer, Merle Oberon (right), Helen Trubel (top) and Doe Avedon head the all-star cast of MGM's "Deep in My Heart," color musical based on the life and melodies of Sigmund Romberg. With Ferrer cast Romberg, the new musical boasts an impressive collection of stellar personalities, including Walter Pidgeon, Paul Henried, Tamara Toumanova, and guest stars Rosemary Clooney, Gene and Fred Kelly, Jane Powell, Vic Damone, Ann Miller, William Olvis, Cyd Charisse, James Mitchell, Howard Keel, Tony Martin and Joan Weldon, now showing at the Harlem Theatre.

'First Run' Films of The Week in Review

ADVENTURE FILM, MURDER MYSTERY, ROYAL BILLS

"Track of the Cat," in CinemaScope and WarnerColor, currently plays the Royal.

Starring Robert Mitchum and Teresa Wright, Diana Lynn, and the outdoor drama tells of eight people snowbound on a northern California ranch, threatened from within by their own greed and hate; from without, by a marauding wildcat.

Second attraction on this thrilling bill stars Cleo Moore, the luscious blonde glamor girl in "The Bait" with John Agar and Hugo Haas. Miss Moore is used as "The Bait" in a murder mantrap set by a gold prospector to tempt his young gold-mining partner.

STAR-STUDDED 'DEEP IN MY HEART' AT HARLEM

A stunning array of stars has been assembled by MGM for this newest color musical, "Deep in My Heart," based on the life and melodies of Broadway's famed composer, Sigmund Romberg now playing at the Harlem Theatre.

Here are the personalities who make up what is probably the most dazzling aggregation of top show business names ever brought together for a single motion picture — Jose Ferrer as Romberg, Merle Oberon, Helen Traubel, Doe Avedon, Walter Pidgeon, Paul Henried, Tamara Toumanova, and guest stars Rosemary Clooney, Gene and Fred Kelly, Jane Powell, Vic Damone, Ann Miller, William Olvis, Cyd Charisse, James Mitchell, Howard Keel, Tony Martin and Joan Weldon.

Several of the stars enact pivotal roles in the story of Romberg's life and almost all of them lend their respective singing and dancing talents to the picture's wealth of musical interludes.

Filled with the lovely melodies which made such Romberg musicals as "Maytime," "My Maryland," and "The Student Prince" among the greatest hits ever to reach Broadway, the plot traces the composer's rise to success from his humble beginning as the leader of a small orchestra in a New York cafe, and centers on the three women who played a vital part in his climb to fame.

'HELL'S OUTPOST' FILM FEATURE AT NEW ALBERT

Heralded as a top-noch action-drama played against the rugged background of a western mining camp, Republic's "Hell's Outpost" is now playing at the New Albert Theatre with Rod Cameron, Joan Leslie, Chill Wills and John Russell co-starred.

Supporting these four popular stars is a large cast of noted players featuring Jim Davis, Ben Cooper, Kristine Miller, Taylor Holmes and Barton MacLane.

Based on the novel, "Silver Rock," by Luke Short, "Hell's Outpost" tells the exciting story of a Korean war veteran, Rod Cameron, who returns to take over his half interest in a million dollar mine and runs headlong into great danger formented by a power-hungry competitor, John Russell.

There is a strong romantic vein developed as Rod falls in love with beautiful Joan Leslie, whom Russell feels is his personal property. This further complicates the situation and goads Russell into a maniacal fury against Cameron.

"Hell's Outpost" is amply puntuated with tense action as Cameron and Russell meet with fists swinging and as Russell attempts first to ruin Rod by sabotage, and then murder him in a brutal dynamite explosion.

This is nicely balanced by the double romantic situation between Jim Davis and Kristine Miller.

CRIME DRAMA, 'BLACK TUESDAY' AT THE MET

One of the toughest, hard-boiled, exciting crime dramas to be seen since the advent of "Litte Caesar," and the era of great gangster films which followed, is now playing on the screen of the Met Theatre, where "Black Tuesday" made its local debut. And it is doubly appropriate that Edward G. Robinson, the arch gangster filmdom, stars in this picture as Vincent Canelli, a heartless, cruel killer, slated to die in the electric chair.

Robinson is superb in the role. A more ruthless, savage, unfeeling criminal has never been portrayed on the screen. With Robinson, in this taut drama of the underworld, is a cast of fine players, all of whom give excellent performances, and all of whom contribute toward making "Black Tuesday," a realistic, suspense - packed film. There's Jean Parker, the sweet, demure star, now in a completely different type of role, as Canelli's "moll." Nevertheless, some of Miss Parker's intrinsic sweetness and understanding comes through in her fine portrayal of a loyal, though misguided sweetheart of a killer. Pete Graves turns in a fine portrayal of a gangster whose final pang of conscience saves the day for a group of innocent people.

CARVER OFFERS 'STUDENT PRINCE,' ANN BLYTH

"The Student Prince," one of the world's most famous operettas, now has been brought to the screen by MGM in CinemaScope and color, and, as revealed at the Carver Theatre, provides filmgoers with one of its most captivating musical entertainments.

Ann Blyth, Edmund Purdom, John Eriscon, Louis Calhern and the singing voice of Mario Lanza are the stars of this tune-filled tale of a handsome, young prince who, because of the impending bankruptcy of his country, is made party to an "ar-

Three-and-a-half-hour rhythm show to Coliseum

A three-and-a-half-hour in-person entertainment show will be offered by the nation's foremost Rhythm and Blues artists at 8:30 p.m. at the Baltimore Coliseum on Monday night when the "Top 12 Rhythm and Blues Show" comes to town.

Featured, are such nationally famous stars as the Clovers, the popular vocal quartet, accompanied on guitar by Bill Harris. The Clovers skyrocketed to fame with their recording of "One Mint Julep," and currently their recording of "Your Cash Ain't Nothin' But Trash" is leading the record sales.

Sharing top billing will be the recorders of "Hearts of Stone," the Charms, another top singing quintet.

Other favorites will be the Five Keys, of "Ling Ting Tong" fame; Faye Adams, Queen of Rock and Roll; Joe Turner, the author of "Shake, Rattle And Roll," and The Moonglows whose recording of "Sincerely" is one of today's favorites.

Other outstanding rhythm and blues artists featured in this show are Bill Doggett, the King of the Hammond Organ and his combo; the Moonlighters, two boys who have won the hearts of rhythm and blues lovers with their disking of "So All Aone" and "Shoo Do Be Do." Lowell Fulson, a favorite with fans, will be on stage too, along with Paul Williams and his orchestra.

Besides the vocal and musical entertainment offered by these personalities, there will be exotic dancing by the Spence Twins and humor by Al Jackson.

Youth Choir in recital Feb. 4

On Friday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. the youth choir of New Pilgrim Baptist Church, will appear in recital at Perkins Square Baptist Church, George and Ogston Sts.

The recital is sponsored by the Ladies' Guild of which Mrs. Inez Lucas is president.
