Herman Scott named head of D.C.'s Royal Golf Club

WASHINGTON

The Royal Golf Club recently held its annual election of officers at their club house, 539 23rd Pl., NE.

The meeting was highlighted by the reading of yearly reports by all retiring officers and each individual officer was accorded a standing ovation by all members present.

Dr. Kenneth G. Brown, in retiring as president for the past two years, delivered an inspiring speech.

He said that his duties as president of the Eastern Golfers Association and the United Golfers Association did not permit him the time he would like to play and expressed his wish to become just plain "Mr. Ordinary" golfer.

Dr. Harold Fisher was retained as treasurer, by popular demand, as were John Boyd, financial secretary, and Matthew Scott, tournament chairman.

Elected to head this group was Herman Scott as president.

Other officers elected were as follows:

Arthur Tate, vice president; Lewis Bond, recording secretary; Walter Suber, assistant secretary;

Otis Davenport, assistant tournament director; Prince Brooks, team captain; Warren Cawthorn, assistant team captain; Earl Tasco, publicity director; Clarence Murray, chaplain; and James Dixon, sergeant at arms.

Auto Show opens Saturday

Baltimore's 1955 Auto Show will open Saturday, January 22, at 1 p.m. at the Fifth Regiment Armory.

An hour before the opening a procession of the new model cars will parade from the Baltimore Stadium through downtown Baltimore and to the Armory. Auto Show beauty queens, a Bagpipe Band of the Second Army Headquarters, and trucks carrying accessory displays will comprise the parade, all of which will be on wheels.

State and Baltimore City officials will be at the Armory for the ribbon-cutting ceremonies and a special telecast will take place from the Armory floor at 1:45 p.m.

THERE WILL be nearly 150 new autos on the Armory floor, including several of each of 18 American makes, foreign cars, cars of the future and experimental models. A generous sprinkling of ancient vintage cars will be on display to exemplify the world of progress made in the automotive industry.

Color will be the keynote in addition to styling. "This year's show will really be a new look from all aspects," according to J. Cavendish Darrell, Auto Show director.

"The whole automotive industry seems to have gone in for a facelifting," Darrell commented.

TWO-TONE cars will be the fashion. And some of the cars will go into three tones.

The cars for the most part will not be taken from showrooms of Baltimore dealers, but will be special vehicles sent in by the manufacturers especially for the exhibition.

"Springtime" will be the Armory decorative motif for the array of automotive splendor. The ceiling of the Armory will be in blue and the walls in grass-green to stimulate the springtime athmosphere. Trellises have been placed throughout the main floor covered with vines and spring flowers.

On the opening day the Auto Show Corporation will award a $50 U.S. Savings bond to the parents of the baby born in a Baltimore Hospital closest to the 1 p.m. ribbon-cutting ceremonies.

THE SHOW will continue until Saturday, January 29. The show will be closed on Sunday, January 23.

Special events during the week include "United Nations Day" on Tuesday, January 24; "Sports Day" on Wednesday; "Celebrities Day" on Thursday; and "Masquerade Day for Children" on Friday.

Piped-in music will be heard in the armory daily.

Crippins vows action in boxing post bid

PHILADELPHIA

"If I am appointed boxing commissioner, the fight game will be cleaned up from top to bottom."

This is the unqualified statement of Assistant District Attorney Isaiah W. Crippins who numbers among his supporters leaders of the Democratic Party.

With racketeer ruling of the ring at a new high, boxing has fallen to a new low, the prosecutor says. He deplores the high percentage of fight figures who have police records.

MR. CRIPPINS has been outstanding as a mainstay of District Attorney Richardson Dilworth's staff. He is credited with cleaning up huge numbers operations in Philadelphia.

All of the defendants brought to trial in the reputed five-million-dollar-a-year numbers syndicate, headed by Leo (Clee) Coleman, were convicted

There are those who wagered that Coleman would not go to jail. Despite his pleas, the gentleman racketeer is behind bars.

from Knoxville College in the up-

MR. CRIPPINS was graduated per third of his class and from Yale University in the upper fifth. He was a high school teacher before going with the Tennessee Valley Authority.

The assistant district attorney has an Army record, of spending 22 of his 29 months in service overseas. He was a personnel sergant major and master sergeant.

Morgan trustees approve appointment at meeting

The appointment of Mrs. Charlene H. Byrd as substitute instructor in English and the granting of sabbatical leave to Dr. Socrates W. Saunders for the 1955-56 school year were approved Thursday by the Board of Trustees at Morgan State College.

Mrs. Byrd's appointment is effective on January 31. She has taught previously at Virginia State College and holds an A.D. degree from Connecticut College and a A.M. degree from the University of Chicago.

Dr. Saunders plans to do postdoctoral work in mathematics while on leave at the University of Pittsburgh.

THE BOARD also accepted the resignation of Mrs Joslyn Braxton, college nurse, effective January 23. Mrs. Braxton plans to complete her studies for her degree in nursing.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jessie R. Layton as dining room supervisor. Mrs. Layton, already on leave, resigned to enter Federal service.

Mrs. Blanche W. Malone's promotion from senior stenographer to principal stenographer was approved.

Also the appointment of Lorman A. Bell as Watchman II.

On The Limb

By GEORGE LYLE Jr.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (NNPA)—After a prolonged vacation, here we are, back on our Limb and very happy about the whole affair.

There have been lots of developments in the world of sports, some good, some bad. Sugar Robinson has emerged from his retirement and, in his first engagement looked little like the guy whom we watched drop the duke to Joey Maxim, beaten not by a superior boxer, but Mother Nature.

Joey Giardello, who goes ringward again in a few weeks, has cast a blight on the ringmen by his untoward actions out of the arenas and although he was fined last week by the Pennsy Commission, my reaction would be to suspend him for a lengthy period until he proved himself fit to be admitted to action—and then only on probation.

SPEAKING OF the fight game, a report was made here in Philly recently that a surprising percentage of the lads who engage in the "manly art" have police or prison records. It's underprize ring.

His explanation was that only the rougher untutored element made boxing their life work because most of the educated laddies had too much sense to get their brains scrambled.

And a Massachusetts juror in passing down the verdict in the recent ring death of Ed Sanders commented that only because boxing was legalized in the Commonwealth did the persons responsible for Sanders' death escape a murder charge being placed against them.

It's true, most of the fans who attend a fight go away feeling cheated if knockouts and blood are not in profusion. A really skillful ringman, who can, and does, box, is booed out of the ring.

THE MEN OF Cliveden will honor the outstanding schoolboy athlete in the area at their annual dinner Tuesday. And my guess is that no one, but no one, could be honored over Wilton Chamberlain, the seven-foot tall Overbrook High athlete who has standable in light of the remarks set new highs in scoring the scholastic ranks.

Just last week he tallied 74 points in a single game and his was the third highest individual single game score in the state, he tallied only 28 points, preferring to "feed" his teammates.

Oh, before it slips your mind eclipsed the mark which has stood for quite a few years.

I had my first look at "Wilt total for his three years has and Stilt" last season when the City Championship game was being played. And to say that I was pleasantly surprised would be putting it mildly. My impression had been that the guy was a freak who stood under the basket and dumped them in but this kid is great. He handles the ball, and himself well up and down the court and is a playmaker as well as a pretty hot article in shooting.

TO ILLUSTRATE, the next game they played after his record-breaking performance the other day, which, incidentally, —don't forget the Inquirer Charities Track Meet on Friday night of this week at Convention Hall. Andy Stanfield, and a whole lot of other track greats will be on hand as will the members of Club Los Hermanos who will, for the third straight year, escort some 50-odd polio victims to the meet.

Italian newcomer TV foe of Adams Monday

NEW YORK—Angelo Brisci, of Taranto, Italy, makes his American debut at St. Nick's Arena (NYC) Monday night against Pete Adams, of Newark.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised over the DuMont network at approximately 10 PM (EST).

Adams substituted for Gerald Dreyer last month at St. Nick's against Jimmy Martinez and handed the Arizona middleweight a sound thumping.

Brisci, too, is subbing for Dreyer. The South African, originally scheduled to meet Adams, was removed from the program by Promoter Tex Sullivan immediately following his kayo defeat at the hands of Joey Klein two weeks ago.

Brisci has engaged in 38 professional bouts in his native Italy and has compiled a 29-5-4 record. He knocked out 10 of his opponents.

Adams, who is handicapped by the loss of four fingers on his right hand has a neat 13-4-2 record in 19 pro bouts. During 1954, Petie engaged in four fights and in addition to beating Martinez, he also outscored Rocky Tomasello and Larry Villeaneu and drew with Allie Gronik.

Union outclasses battling Bisons

Undefeated Virginia Union continued to pace the CIAA Monday night, as the Panthers romped to their seventh straight victory by defeating Howard University's quintet, 73-66.

Tom Harris, Howard's "watch charm" guard, was the game's leading scorer with 25 points. Carl Smith topped Union's scorers with 22.

AT THE HALF, the battling Bisons trailed by a slim 30-28 margin.

Until the final minutes, the to tell and the Panthers' flashy ball handling bewildered the losing Bisons as the game neared its end.

However, Union's class began wins against seven losses and a 6-7 overall record.
