Kidney Slow-Down May Bring Restless Nights

When kidney function slows down, many folks complain of nagging backache, headaches, dizziness and loss of pep and energy. Don't suffer restless nights with these discomforts if reduced kidney function is getting you down—due to such common causes as stress and strain, over-exertion or exposure to cold. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

WILLING WORKERS — The club of the Leadenhall Baptist Church met with Mrs. Mazie Colbert, 1632 Ashburton St., Monday.

The club will have a musical tea on Dec. 12. They also completed plans to send gifts to patients at Henryton Hospital. Mrs. Rena Turner is president.

MONDAY EVENING — The savings club met with Mrs. Mary Ruff of 1511 McCulloh St., Monday. Plans were completed for a birthday party for Mrs. Fannie Wallace, who has served as treasurer of the club for several years.

Mrs. Mattie Johnson is president of the club.

A NEW GROUP in South Baltimore will start a drive to close up the beer gardens on Sunday mornings.

The filthy language the men use on Hamburg and Sharp Sts. and Leadenhall and Hamburg Sts., when the churches let out is deplorable.

Some years ago a white minister on Hill St. was successful in closing the beer taverns on Charles St. all day Sunday.

The new group will make the drive without prejudice.

Mrs. Helen Branch is wed to Osborne Dixon

...with Lula Jones Garrett

Mrs. Helen Branch became Mrs. Osborne Dixon at a quiet ceremony in the chapel of the Sharp Street Community House, Saturday.

The ceremony was followed by a reception for 120 guests at the couple's new home, 2229 Braddish Ave.

The bride wore a simple but lovely frock of Austrian wool in powder blue, made with a full street-length skirt, fitted top and satin cummerbund. Her pumps were also blue satin and her small fitted cap of blue sequins. Her accessories were a pearl choker and pearl earrings and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

She was attended by Mrs. Elaine Hardy, who was gowned in pink faille, wore pink accessories, including a cap of pink feathers and a corsage of white gardenias. Joel Newton was best man. Mrs. Rosemary Johnson assisted as hostess at the reception.

Mr. Dixon is a case worker with the Health Department and the new Mrs. Dixon, a postal clerk.

MAE F. GRIFFIN'S party for her two clubs, the Lords and Ladies and the Town and Country Club, at her Dukeland St. home, Saturday, highlighted the past week.

There were cocktails galore and a Thanksgiving Feast, along with a galaxy of other guests to insure a high time.

Lords and Ladies and their guests included James Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. William Bevans, Bernice Burrows, Linwood Cofield, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felton, Gilda A. Grey, T. Felton Mallory, Irene Bankins, Ober Mallory, Russell Tarter, John Tucker and Leon White.

Town and Country Club members and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Ellihu Norris, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reaves, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mrs. Bernice Burrows, Mrs. Wilhelmina Robinson, Albert Cooper and Mrs. Gloria Webb.

In addition Miss Griffin had as guests:

Messrs. and Mesdames Gordon T. Boyd of Washington, Walter Dyson, Herkerma Mise, Wallace Johnson, Elmer Gibson, Maynard Whitaker, Maceo Holland;

Messrs. and Mesdames Aubrey Sanders, Clinton Agnew, Jesse Lyles, James Watty, Leon Johnson, Mrs. Joyce Lowman, Wendell Fleet, Dr. T. J. Woolridge, Dr. Antonia Brown, Mrs. Lola Curry and U. Theodore Hayes.

ON SATURDAY, three friends entertained at a cute stork shower for Shirley Hughes (nee Lottier) whose wee daughter is Robin Marcia.

The hostesses were Marcia Chapman, a student at Pembroke College, Miriam Hughes and Anne Shervington, both Morgan State students.

Incidentally, the four made their debuts, here, at the Me-de-so Cotillion some seasons back.

Guests played games and feasted at a delightfully decorated table, which, including the chrysanthemums and tall rosebud candles, carried out a color scheme of pink and white.

Favors, received by each guest were tiny pink umbrellas. And gifts were tied on pink ribbons which stemmed from the huge pink umbrella, under which a pink and white stork posed.

Guests were Mary Boulware, Delaphine Faucette, Jean Powell, Freddie Hill and Barbara Burke.

WILLOR SEABROOK, who has a swank hat shop in Brooklyn, where she originates the most luscious headgear this side of halos, week ended with Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Lawrence.

Lillian (Mrs. L.) inveigled her into bringing along some of her wares . . . invited 50-odd guests in to see them and served tea, etc. from a perfectly beautiful table. Olga Rodney and Addie Smith spelled each other at tea-pouring.

DR. AND MRS. EUGENE STANLEY, and their three-year-old son, Robert, entertained Dr. Henrietta Smith and Miss Marian Quinney at dinner, Thursday.

Dr. Smith is a child psychologist currently teaching at Vassar in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and Miss Quinney is head of the department of Home Economics at Allen University in Columbia, S.C. She is also the sister of Mrs. Stanley. Joining the party in the evening was J. Walter Fisher of the department of history at Morgan and the evening was spent enjoying parlor games and suitable refreshments.

Dr. Stanley is acting head of the department of education in the absence of Dr. Virgil A. Clift who is on leave this year. Mrs. Stanley was a teacher of speech in the local schools prior to her taking maternity leave.

THE MATERS staged their annual "round-the-World" party last week end.

The club cellar of Elois Bright was the site for "Paris." While guests sat around small tables nibbling hors d'oeuvres Verna Day of the Valentine Shop and Joan Simmons Stevenson of the Carson School modeled chic attire. Mary Carter gave forth with poetry and a monologue and Frances Graham sang.

"China" was the second stop where girls garbed in clothes from the Orient served a Chinees menu with Mary Carter as hostess.

The last visit was to Dogpatch, USA where Ben and Frances Graham were hosts.

Guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Jerome Nicholas, John Frazier, Edward Bryant, Douglass Parker, Ben Graham, John bright, Timothy Wright; Dr. and Mrs. George Brown; Mesdames Esther Cole, Ethel Allmond, Dorothy McNeal, Mary Carter and Howard McAdory.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE E. ROGERS had a gala party for their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Roland H. Rogers and grandson, Ronnie, Sunday afternoon.

The young Rogerses are just home from two years in Germany and of course the grandparents were just becoming acquainted with the baby, who is a year and two months old.

The affair not only marked the return, but the birthday of Capt. Rogers. He was formerly on the staff of Morgan State College and Mrs. Rogers was a case supervisor in the Department of Public Welfare.

The reception, mainly a family party, drew a number of her relatives from out-of-town, including her brothers-in-law and sisters, Messrs. and Mesdames Nelson Davis, Henry Coleman and J. A. Stewart and her brother and sister-in-law, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Sewart and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coleman, from Philadelphia and his relatives;

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Morris, Miss Reva Banks and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Branch of East Orange, N.J.

Cpl. John Rawlings, stationed at Fort Jackson, S.C., came in for the party, as did Howard Rawlings, now a student at Hampton, Va.

The honoree was as pretty as a picture in white wool frock, black accessories, a mink stole and a corsage of orchids.

Guests included: Messrs. and Mesdames John McGuire, Elwin Rawlings, Marsden Rawlings, Levi Wallace, Bernie Peoples, Avon Rawlings, Lawrence Rawlings, Garrett Rawlings;

Messrs. and Mesdames William Rawlings, Webster Rawlings, Lawrence Logan, Burnette Spencer and daughters, Jean and Catherine;

Messrs. and Mesdames Benjamin Washington, Cephas Rawlings, Winfried Hughes, William Carroll, Charles Walker, Arthur Creigler, Julian Thomas, William Rawlings Jr.;

Mesdames Rosa Johnson, Emma Carroll; Misses Muriel Rawlings, Calvin Smith Sr. and Calvin Smith Jr.

THE MORGAN STATE College Facluty - Trustee Wives Club held their first meeting of the 1954-55 season on Saturday evening, at the home of Phyllis McKinney.

After a short business session, games and quizzes provided entertainment with prizes going to Mesdames Elizabeth Jenkins, Otyce Froe, Gwendolyn Brooks, Louise Turner and Geraldine Delaney.

ZETA PHI BETAS (Alpha Zeta chapter) met Saturday night . . . selected Lillie Ross and Alice Hall as delegates to the Boule in Louisville, Ky., Dec. 27-30.

Anna Holt presented a report on the regional conference recently held in Philadelphia and the session then became a workshop with committees putting the final touches on plans for Founder's Day observance in January and Finer Womanhood Week in February.

Nellie Buchanan, chairman of the hostesses for December, will arrange the Christmas program, at which members of Gamma chapter, at Morgan State College, will be guest.

Mae Fortune is basileus of Alpha Zeta chapter.

YOU CAN'T PRINT THAT: Set for fireworks is a city church, where a widowed minister is having woman trouble. One non-resident lady is wearing an engagement ring . . one local lady should (says she) be wearing a wedding ring . . instead of which (again says she) she is being offered cash. The board is keeping very mum until after the church meeting Monday night.

DATE DATA: As the yuletide season approaches, many groups and organizations again don the roles of Santa and lend a willing hand to the needy.

This year in as in the past, the Lords and Ladies under the leadership of club president Leon White, are preparing for their annual benefit Christmas party. Each guest is requested to bring one can of food or a toy which will help fill a basket and bring happiness to a family less fortunate than most.

Last year, the Lords and Ladies donated 20 brimming baskets which were carried to twenty different homes by members of the club. This year, the club hopes to double the number of baskets and with the help of the general public will be able to do so.

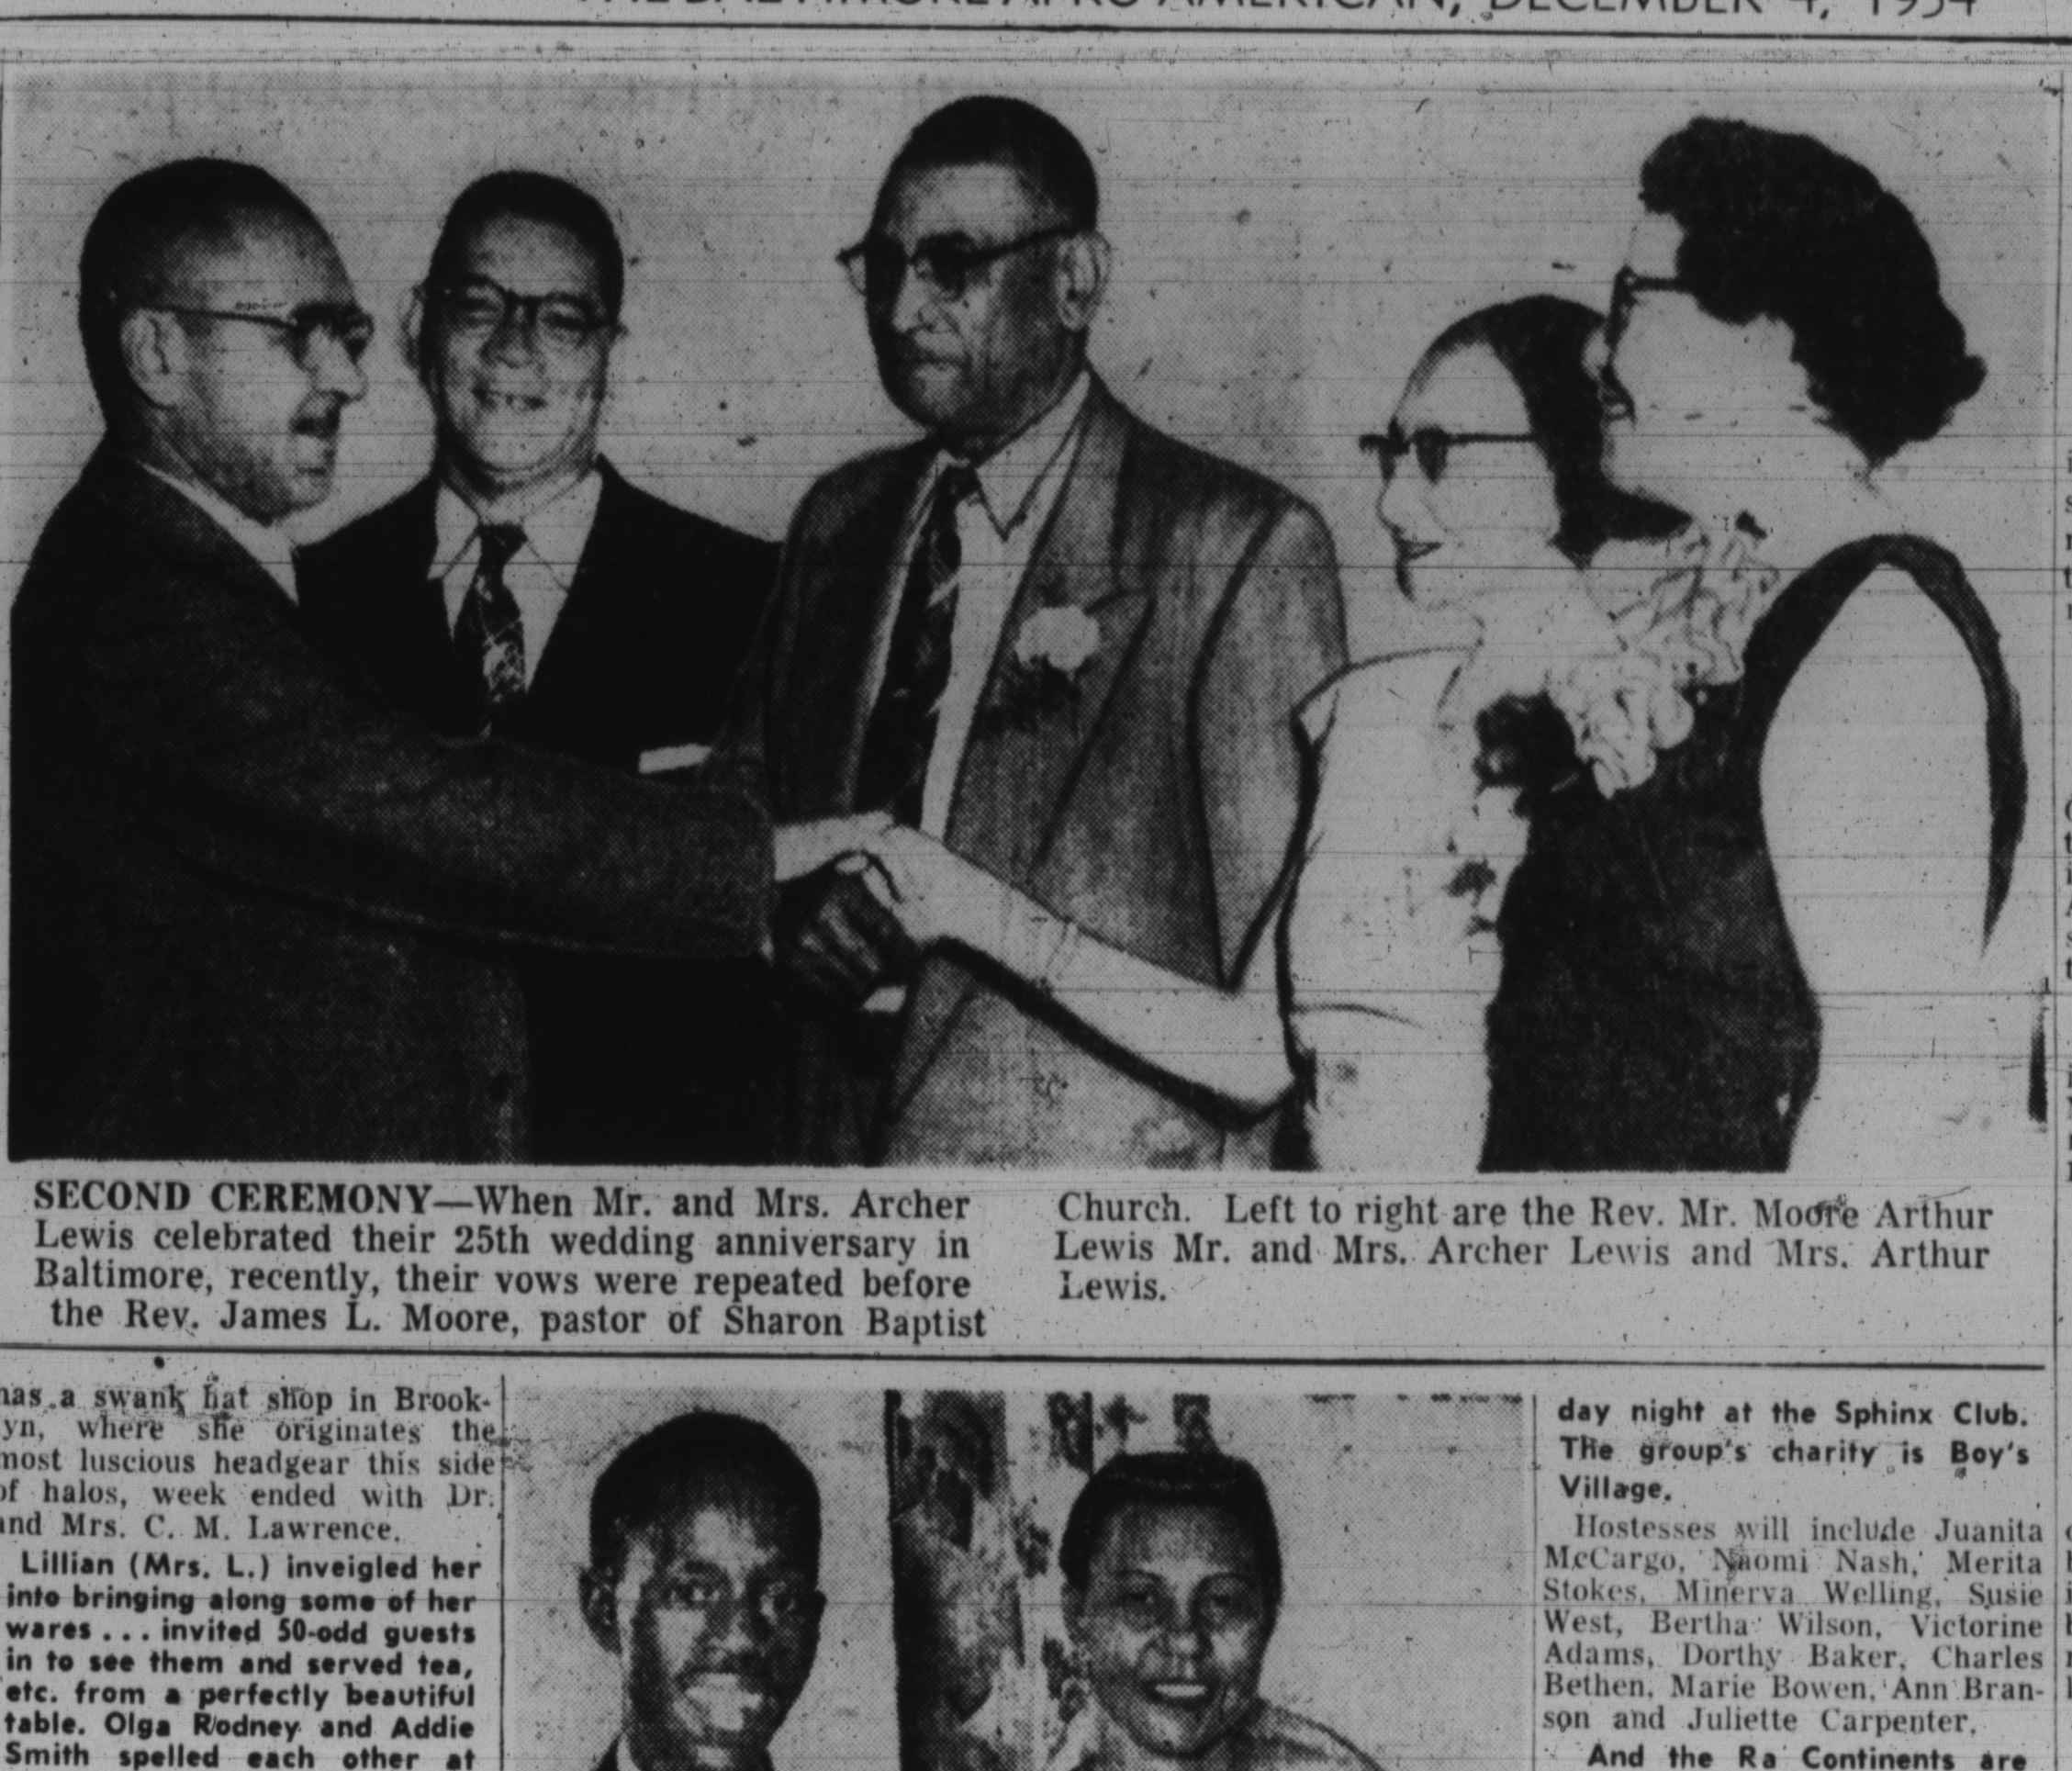
If you wish to help you may do so by attending their pre-Christmas dance which will be held, Saturday evening at the Biddle Hall. Don't forget! Bring a can of food.

The Charmettes have scheduled a cocktailer, also on Saturday night at the Sphinx Club. The group's charity is Boy's Village.

Hostesses will include Juanita McCargo, Naomi Nash, Merita Stokes, Minerva Welling, Susie West, Bertha Wilson, Victorine Adams, Dorthy Baker, Charles Bethen, Marie Bowen, Ann Branson and Juliette Carpenter.

And the Ra Continents are having their black and white cabaret ball on Friday evening, at Odd Fellows' Hall, when guests are asked to bring canned goods for their Christmas basket project.

Hostesses at this affair will be Ada Smith, who heads the club, Geneva Brown, Ruth Fortune, Charlotte Johnson, Helen Tucker, Mildred Carr, Bettye Simmons, Wilhelmina Thomas, Natalie Phelps and Ernestine Brooks.



SECOND CEREMONY—When Mr. and Mrs. Archer Lewis celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary in Baltimore, recently, their vows were repeated before the Rev. James L.
