"SILENT NIGHT"

GO TO THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS SUNDAY
AND JOIN IN WITH YOUR FAVORITE CHOIR SINGING THIS INSPIRATIONAL HYMN

SILENT NIGHT

Silent night! Holy night! All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and Child!
Holy Infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace, Sleep in heavenly peace.
Silen night! Holy night! Sheperds quake at the sight!
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heav'nly hosts sing Alleluia;
Christ, the Savior, is born, Christ, the Savior, is born.
Silent night! Holy night! Son of God love's pure light.
Radiant beams from Thy holy face;
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth, Jesus, Lord, at Thy birth.

Life not complete without religion

Spiritual life is lost in materialistic ideas

By THE REV. J. MOORE

When Mark Twain visited Europe with his wife and 11-year-old daughter, leading business and professional men did him honor. The kings of Europe vied with each other in showing him recognition.

At the end of the tour, the family, in a private car of one of the European monarchs, was on the way to the port to sail for America, and Mark Twain read the names of those who had honored him—a most impressive list.

After a moment's pause, the young daughter said, "Daddy, I guess pretty soon you will know everybody except God."

* * *

WE WANT TO make sure that we get acquainted with the right people, and we spend so little time getting acquainted with the only person (God) who ultimately really matters.

We spend a vast amount of time and money preparing ourselves to make a good living, but we forget the more important thing, preparing ourselves to live a good life.

We are careful about what food is good for our digestion, what climate is good for our health, what exercise is good for our body, but we frequently evade the more important question of finding out what we ourselves are good for.

We would call ourselves ignorant if we did not know which was East, West, North or South, but all the while we are ignorant of that more important point on the compass, the point where we are.

* * *

WE LOOK back into the past, reading history to discover where the world came from, but we avoid an answer to the more important question of where we ourselves came from.

We look into the future, questioning what is going to happen to the world, where the world is going: and we are afraid to ponder the answer to the question of where we ourselves are going.

We would find the answer to life's greatest questions if we spent a little less time getting acquainted with everybody else and more time getting acquainted with God.

THERE ARE a few questions our minds should ask and we cannot have peace of mind until they are answered.

To fail to find an answer to them is to fail in life. The elemental questions are few. There are really only three.

The first concerns sin. How can we rid ourselves of it?

The second concerns sorrow. How can we bear it bravely?

The third concerns immortality. "Brief life is here our portion."

* * *

WHAT COMES next? Is the grave a blind alley or a thoroughfare? Is it a pit ending in darkness or a tunnel — a pathway through the darkness?

The man who knows God, through Jesus Christ, in the fellowship of the church, faces the fact of sin.

He does not attempt to get rid of it by denying it. He adopts no rosewater view of sin.

To him sin is more than a mere superficial negligence, more than inherited weakness. But over against the fact of sin he sees the greater fact of sustaining Grace.

* * *

OVER AGAINST decay and the grave, he sees the Master of death.

There is a cape at the southern extremity of Africa which once bore the name, "the Cape of Storms."

Navigators were afraid to round it. With the growing power of science, the compass and the application of steam, mariners grew bolder and presently the time came when the "Cape of Storms" was called the "Cape of Good Hope."

Such a thing has happened with reference to sin, suffering and death.

The suffering of Jesus on Calvary for man's sins, His victory over death, has turned our Cape of Storms into the Cape of Eternal Hope.

So the Christian religion answers life's three great questions.

Go to the church of your choice and get acquainted with God through Jesus Christ in the fellowship of the church for no one but God can complete your life.

St. Augustine saw this fact, experienced it, and expressed it in one of his prayers:

"Thou didst make us for thyself, and we are not at rest except in Thee."

Annual Harford County Day will be observed at Pleasant Hope Baptist Church in Govans Town on Sunday, Dec. 5. At 3 p.m. the Rev. D. A. Scott, pastor of First Baptist Church, Bel Air will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Sadie Elliott is chairman; the Rev. Moore, pastor.

-Hemingway

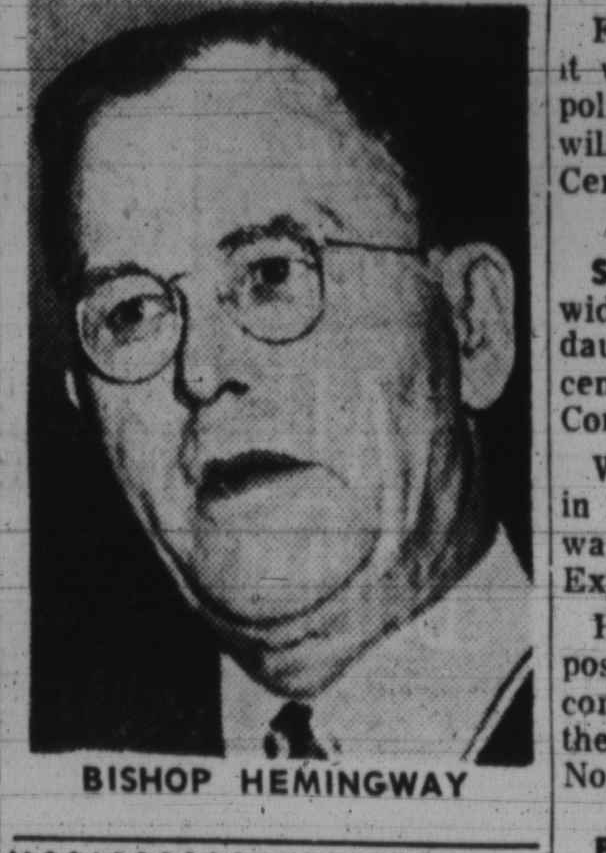
The New York bishop helped the widow, Mrs. Catherine C. Hemingway, and members of the late bishop's background. However, he was born and raised in family in preparing the funeral program.



BISHOP HEMINGWAY

The body of the late bishop will be taken from the McGuire Funeral Home, 1820 Ninth St., NW, to his residence on Sunday. There will be no viewing at the funeral home.

From 9 to 11:30 a.m. Monday it will lie in state at the Metropolitan AME Church. Interment will be in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

* * *

SURVIVORS INCLUDE the widow and seven sons and daughters. The family was reticent about giving details of the Conway, S.C.

When elected to the bishopric in 1948 at Kansas City, Kan., he was holding a post in the Church Extension Department.

He has held only one bishopric post, that of the second district, comprising Maryland, Virginia, the District of Columbia and North Carolina.

* * *

BISHOP SHERMAN L. Greene of Georgia, senior bishop of the AME Church, will preside over the funeral rites Monday. The bishops and general officers of the AME Church will be honorary pallbearers.

Messages of condolence poured in from all parts of the nation as Bishop Hemingway's death was made public.

With all the bishops of the denomination gathered in Boston at a meeting of the Bishops' Council, they sent special condolences to the family, and dispatched Bishop Nichols to render any personal assistance needed.

* * *

BISHOP HEMINGWAY had a career which was both peaceful and stormy at times. However, he exhibited a stern devotion to following his own course once he had charted it.

In 1952 he was embroiled in a court battle in the District over a church which he himself had founded in 1951, which bore his own name—Hemingway Temple AME Church, 501 P St., NW—and of which he was the first member.

He was also sued for slander two years ago by the Rev. M. C. Carpenter of Harrisburg, Pa., formerly pastor of a church under Bishop Hemingway's jurisdiction.

The Rev. Mr.Carpenter won a $7,500 judgment against Bishop Hemingway in that case.

It was during the hearing of that slander suit that Bishop Hemingway publicly stated his worth.

He testified that he was worth more than $100,000. He listed among his holdings four pieces of property in Washington valued at $45,000, owned jointly with his wife; and U.S. bonds and stocks valued at $67,000, owned jointly with his children.

At that time he also said his annual salary was $6,000 and that he received $2,500 a year for personal expenses, plus $4,000 for office, auto and home upkeep.

BISHOPS WHO will attend and take part in the last rites include:

Bishops Greene, Nichols, Frank M. Reid of South Carolina; E. C. Hatcher of Arkansas, George W. Baber of Detroit, Joseph Gomez of Waco, Texas, Carey R. Gibs of Florida, I. H. Bonner of Alabama, H. Thomas Primm, W. R. Wilkes and A. J. Allen.

Bishop H. T. Medford of the AME Zion Church will take part to express condolences on behalf of other denominations.

COMMENTING ON the death of Bishop Hemingway, the Rev. I. Miller, pastor of Turner Memorial AME Church and manager of Bishop Hemingway's campaign for the bishopric in 1948, had this to say:

"We looked upon him as a rather unique character in every respect. I have known him personally since boyhood days. I was with him during the strenuous days of his campaign and discovered that he loved his church, his family and his God."

It was from Turner Memorial Church that Bishop Hemingway purchased the property in 1951 on which he established the Hemingway Temple AME Church.

Family buries youth killed by policeman

Funeral held for Ed Gaskins; NAACP asked to investigate

The victim of a policeman's bullet, Edward P. Gaskins, 20, of the 700 block Bruce St., was buried on Wednesday afternoon following brief funeral services at the home of his mother in the 1700 block of W. Lafayette Ave.

Gaskins was slain early Saturday morning after he allegedly fired a shot at Officers John Boyle and James Colvin of the Northwestern district, and they reportedly fired four shots one which struck him in the upper chest region.

Immediately after the shooting, Boyle and Colvin were suspended from duty pending an investigation. On Monday, Colvin was returned to duty, when a ballistics test on the fatal bullet showed that it had been fired from Boyle's weapon.

* * *

BOYLE WAS arraigned at Central Homicide Court on Monday afternoon on a charge of "assault by shooting one Edward Gaskins thereby causing his death on Nov. 27." The officer was released on a writ of habeus corpus signed by Judge Ralph J. Warnken, in the custody of his commanding officer, Capt. Millard Horton, for a hearing to be set by the state's attorney.

Meanwhile, the local office of the NAACP through Robert Watts, attorney, was conducting a sweeping investigation into the shooting on the basis of of a complaint made to the office by the youth's mother, Mrs. Aiken Gaskins, and his wife, Mrs. Gloria Gaskins.

Mr. Watts, NAACP attorney, told the AFRO on Wednesday that the association is making the probe in an effort to determine all the facts and to learn whether the officers shot too quickly or whether they were justified in shooting the youth.

The Gaskins family holds membership in the NAACP and has belonged for many years, Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, president, said.

GASKINS WAS killed early Saturday morning after he allegedly fired a shot at Officers Boyle and Colvin. The officers said they had been summoned to the 800 block of N. Fulton Ave., to investigate a complaint of a "man with a gun" and arrived in time to see Gaskins fire a shot.

The officers said Gaskins started to run and when he ignored an order to halt, Boyle fired a shot into the air.

In their report, the officers said Gaskins whirled and fired a shot at them, and they answered with two shots each. The youth fell mortally wounded in the front of 839 Fulton Ave., they reported.

When the officers approached the man, they said he attempted to raise himself in an effort to fire another shot, but they kicked the gun from his hand.

Gaskins was taken to Provident Hospital where he was pronounced dead at 3:10 a.m., by Dr. Lorenzo Lopez of the hospital staff.

IN DESCRIBING the events leading up to the shooting, the police report said that Gaskins had entered an apartment house at 831 Fulton Ave., at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, and gone to the third floor, where he first knocked on a door of the apartment of Clarence Brown, and then on the door of the front apartment occupied by Willie L. Billinger, his wife and four children.

In a statement which police said they received from Mr. Billinger, he was quoted as saying:

"About 2:30 a.m. the man came up to the third floor and rapped on my door, at the same time using bad language and raising sand. I went down the steps to the first floor where I found him sitting on the front steps.

"I asked him why he came upstairs at that time of night raising sand and using bad langauge. He asked me what I had to do with it and he cursed me. Then I told him I lived on the third floor and I didn't want such talk as that up there.

"He then half turned while sitting on the steps and pulled a gun while I was standing in the door. He got up and backed into the street and fired a shot at me. At that time the police came up. When they got out of the radio car they told him to drop the gun.

"He started to run and more shots were fired. I went upstairs with my wife," he was reported as saying.

AFTER THE shooting, police said they found a .38 caliber revolver from which two shells had been discharged, near Gaskins' body. A search of his body turned up an additional eight shells, it was reported.

Following the Wednesday services, the youth was buried in Mt. Auburn Cemetery. Officiating minister at the rites, which were attended by more than 100 persons, was the Rev. J. Lloyd Garrison, pastor of Ames AME Church.

In the funeral procession for the slain youth were 14 cars carrying his relatives and friends. There were 17 floral pieces.

Speaking on the "eternal question of why certain tragedies happen in our life," the Rev. Mr. Garrison said:

"We don't have the answer but by leaning on God in time of adversity, we will have that answer."

In addition to his wife and mother, Gaskins is survived by three children ranging in age from three and a half months to three years.

Announce New Way to Relieve Pain of Arthritis and Rheumatism Without Pills!
Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep—speeds up flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas—actually helps drive away pain-causing congestion and pressure.
New York, N. Y. (Special)—Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring a new kind of relief from pains of arthritis, rheumatism, and muscular aches and pains. This new cream relieves these pains without the need of taking pills and other internal medicines that may only upset the system.
Gently rubbed into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep and completely that it actually vanishes. Quickly a comforting feeling of warmth develops and the whole painful area takes on a pleasing glow. This is striking evidence of the power of this cream to penetrate quickly and stimulate the circulation of the blood. This glow illustrates how it speeds up the flow of fresh, rich blood into the sore areas and actually helps drive away the pain-causing congestion and pressure.
146 British and French doctors are so satisfied with this new help for patients suffering from arthritis and rheumatism that they have prepared written reports of success based on hundreds of cases. Further, one of the leading arthritis and rheumatism clinicians in the United States has now confirmed the findings of these doctors.
Now for the first time this remarkable cream can be obtained without a prescription at drug stores throughout America—under the name InfraRUB®. The price of InfraRUB is only 98¢ for a large tube. InfraRUB is backed by the amazing guarantee that sufferers from the pains of arthritis, rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, neuralgia or muscle injuries or sprains will get hours and hours of comforting relief or their money will be refunded in full.
