Virginia State overpowers Morgan 22-0 before 9,000

PETERSBURG, Va.— Virginia State College Trojans drove 88 yards for a second quarter score then managed a 49-yard scoring drive along with a 51-yard run with an intercepted pass and safety to soundly beat Morgan State 22-0 here Thursday.

Morgan turned back four drives of the Trojans in the second half.

Morgan had the better of a first quarter punting duel to get in scoring range with moves to the 37 yard line and 33 yard stripe.

The Virginians, plagued by offside and backfield in motion penalties, in a jittery attack moved from their 12 yard marker in the second quarter after turning back a Morgan drive.

Paced by the brilliant Clint Freeman, senior quarterback who closed out his CIAA career with two touchdowns; the Trojans moved to the six of Morgan on runs by Nathan Smith, John Christian and a freshman find, Don Munford of East Orange, N.J.

* * *

THE SCORE came on a pass over the center from the six from Freeman to end John Nash. Smith's conversion attempt was wide and State led 6-0 at the quarter.

Two drives in the third period were halted by Morgan and a third attempt was stymied when a pass completed in the end zone from Freeman to end William Barrett was nullified by a penalty.

Morgan's Walter Moseley was tossed in the end zone on a statue-of-liberty pass play by Norman Day, Trojan guard for 8-0 Virginia lead.

Freeman tallied twice in the fourth stanza and Smith converted after each score. A pass from Freeman to end William Brown was good for 14 yards and a first down on the one-foot marker. Freeman took the quarterback sneak into the end zone.

* * *

LATER THE signal caller pulled in one of Gary Freeman's heaves and raced 51 yards for the score.

Morgan's first quarter showing was the only bright spot for the visitors. After that they were as cold as a very brisk Virginia Thanksgiving Day.

About 9,000 fans were on hand for the game, which saw the Virginians pull a notch ahead of Maryland State in the CIAA standings—and go flying to the wires to find out the fate of North Carolina College in its game at Durham.

State had a chance to win the crown should the Eagles lose but the Eagles won over A. and T., 7-6.

Score by quarters:

Va. State	0	6	2	14	—22
Morgan	0	0	0	0	— 0

State scoring: Touchdowns, Freeman, 2, and Nash.

Points after touchdowns: Smith, 2, placements. Safety, Moseley (tackled by Day).

Poly Engineers win traditional game, 19-0

For the fifth consecutive year, Polytechnic won their traditional Thanksgiving Day football game from City College Thursday at Memorial Stadium. Some 15,934 fans saw the Engineers wrap up their 19-0 victory.

Poly scored six points in the first period and 13 in the third to cap off an event that started back in 1903. As a result of their victory, Poly placed third in the Maryland Scholastic Association with a 6-2 record.

N.C. College defeats A.-T. for CIAA title

DURHAM, N.C.—The educated toe of Derat Webster, freshman guard from Raleigh, provided the margin by which the N.C. College Eagles defeated the A and T. College Aggies before 10,000 chilled fans here Thanksgiving Day.

Webster's boot, in the waning minutes of the final period carried the Eagles to their second successive CIAA championship andgave them the right to meet Tennessee State in the National Classic at Greensboro on Dec. 4.

A and T drew first blood in the second period when Albert Mongomers, Eagle quarterback, fumbled Gwynns Booming punt and Henry Joseph, senior Eagle tackle, fell on it behind the goal line for the TD. Payne's try for the extra point went wide.

The Aggies' six points loomed larger and larger after a scoreless third period and the fourth was drawing to a close. All of of a sudden the Eagles' air attack, engineered by another freshman, Ed Hudson,, third-string quarterback, began to click. After three successive first downs on as many passes, Hudson tossed 8 yards to Henry Lewis, sophomore flankman, for the TD.

The Eagles made 11 first downs to 6 for the losers and completed 11 of 18 passes attempted against two of three for the Aggies.

The Eagles lost the ball four times on fumbles while the Aggies lost it once. A. and T. lost 40 yards in penalties while the victors lost only 20.

Phelps scores 6-0 victory over punchless Bates team

WASHINGTON

Phelps High scored a first period touchdown, then staved off a sequence of second half scoring threats by a punchless Bates team to take a 6-0 victory from the Annapolis eleven, last Friday at Banneker Stadium.

The loss gave Bates an overall record of 3 wins, 3 losses and two ties for the season. Their Coach James Webb, ended his 5th season after piloting hit team to 20 victories, 17 losses, and 6 ties.

A bad pass from center Lawrence Brown to guard Caralis Kimbrue, rolled to the latter's 25 where the Tradesmen recovered and gave Bates their first and only scoring opportunity.

* * *

A FOURTH down pass from quarterback Spence to fullback Guff gave the host team a first down on the Bates five despite defenders Earl Langford and Norman Randall's efforts to knock the ball down.

After being held for two downs, Guff plowed through the middle for the touchdown. Phelps never again threatened to score.

Playing in a downpour that made it difficult for the backs to run, Bates looked almost certain to gain a tie when quarterback Elton Snowden passed from the winners' 30 to Langford who caught the ball on the 20 and raced in the end zone unmolested for a touchdown.

The officials however ruled that Langford, who scored five touchdowns this season, stepped out of bounds on the 16 and from that point on the Little Giants earned only four yards in four downs.

* * *

PACED BY the running of Eugene Simms, Bobby Green, Joe Foote and the fine passing of Gary Queen, Bates splashed their way 78 yards to Phelps 21 only to see Foote bobble the ball.

Standouts for the losers were ends Roland Jones and Monroe Green; guards Larry Butler, and linebackers Phil Hyman and Mike Parrish.

LINCOLN HALFBACK Bob McCoy (63) of Roxbury, Mass., is stopped by Howard End Hilary Thompson (28) of Washington, in the first half of the 49th Lincoln (Pa.)-Howard game which the Lions won, 6-0, Thanksgiving Day at Howard Stadium. Lincoln guard, David Slaughter (65) of Philadelphia; QB Joe Kenney (12) of Newark and Howard center, Vantile Whitefield (50) of Washington, are coming in on the play.

5,000 fans see Lions trip Bisons

Rival teams in 49th clash on gridiron

By LARRY A. STILL

WASHINGTON

The fired-up Howard Bisons outplayed the Lincoln Lions, but lost the traditional Turkey Day classic 6-0 before a capacity crowd of 5,000 Thanksgiving fans in the Hilltop stadium, Thursday.

The Lions' winning score came on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Joe Kenney to right end James Cooke after a Bison fumble in the first quarter by halfback Johnny Walker on the 16.

Lincoln end Johnny Durham recovered the miscue and hard-plunging left halfback Bob McCoy took the ball three yards on the next play to set up the TD within the first eight minutes of the game.

* * *

FROM THEN on it was an exchange of punts and fumbles between the two squads, with Howard coming out on the short end in the contest which was played under overcast skies and intermittent rain and hail.

The wind and rain didn't dampen the spirits of the holiday throng which was pouring into the stands as late as the second quarter to witness the 49th meeting of the traditional rivals.

The victory for Lincoln still leaves Howard ahead in the series, 21 games to 20, with eight ties. The Bisons won last year's game, 12-7, at Philadelphia.

* * *

PLAYING FROM a straight T-formation, both teams had trouble keeping their hands on the ball early in the game, with the Lions amassing a total of eight fumbles to the Bisons' five.

But the Lions made up for lost ground in rushing, racking up 138 yards to Howard's 78. Although the Bisons totaled eight first downs to the Lions' three, and outpassed the Pennsylvania eleven, 92 yards to 25, the Lions managed to make their gains count the most.

The Lions nipped three Howard scoring threats in the first half on interceptions by Kenney, and Cooke. The Lion quarterback from Newark, N.J., took a Gregory pass once on the 6-yard line and Cooke snagged intended aerials on the 27 and 37-yard lines.

* * *

HOWARD'S DEEPEST penetration into Lincoln territory came in the third quarter on left tackle Thomas Loman's recovery of a Lion fumble by halfback Carlyle Mason on the 36.

The Bisons' substitute fullback, Earl Phillips, fumbled two plays later, however, and the ball was back in Lincoln's hands for one play until Kenney miscued again on the 40.

After two attempted passes by halfback George Smith, intended for Johnny Walker, Howard and the Lions exchanged punts and the ball ended up with the Bisons in possession on their own 41-yard line.

* * *

THE BISONS then took to the air for good and Smith racked up his longest heave of the day on a 39-yard toss to Johnny Daniels, on the Lincoln 40.

The 195-pound tackle scooted ten more yards, but was called back to the point of interception on an illegal use of the hands penalty. A fourth down gamble pass from Smith to Hillary Thompson put the ball on the 36 again, but substitute quarterback Jimmy Jones fumbled again and Lincoln recovered on the 34.

* * *

WITH FOUR minutes to play, the Lions attempted to eat the possession on another miscue and ball until the Bisons regained Smith took to the air again.

A final Smith pass, intended for Fleming Gregory, was intercepted by Kenney on the 25-yard line and Lincoln held deep in its own territory following a 15-yard penalty for clipping. The game ended with Lincoln on its own 7-yard line.

Hampton surprises Va. Union, 18-12

HAMPTON VA.—A determined Hampton Institute team scored two quick opening quarter touchdowns and went on to crush Virginia University of Richmond, 18-12 in the biggest upset of the CIAA grid season.

Favored by three touchdowns, on a basis of their season's record, the Panthers were too stunned by the brilliance of a strong Hampton line and spectacular play by Pirate backfield men, led by Freshman Quarterback Dick Clary, from Waterbury, Conn.

The first two times the Pirates were in possession of the ball, they drove 62 and 53 yards for scores, both coming in the first period.

Fletcher Battle, East Chicago, Ind., and Red Crawford, Baltimore, junior halfbacks, spearheaded the Hampton attack during both scoring drives, while Fullback Dan Winston was instrumental during the second.

A 12-yard pass from Clary to end Johnny Harris, placed the ball on the Union 20-yard marker to set up the first tally.

Crawford went for 7 and Clary skirted end from the 13, for the initial touchdown, which took only nine plays.

A series of line thrusts by Winston, Crawford and Clary moved the ball into scoring position, and Crawford cut off right tackle from the five for the second Hampton score.

Gordon Horne, hard-running Panther fullback, was the big gun in the 63-yard drive in the second quarter.

Horne carried six times in the 10 plays used by the Richmonders, and the senior from Grand Rapids, Mich., went over from the five. Benny Blair scored the other Union TD.

It took only six plays for the Bucs to score touchdown No. three, which was set up and tallied by passes from Clary. Clary threw an 18-yard aerial to Harris, and a 19-yard scoring pass to Crawford. Three conversion attempts by Harris were no good.

Steers defeat Wiley Wildcats

TYLER, Tex.—The Texas College Steers defeated the Wiley College Wildcats 26-0 in Steer Stadium at 2 p.m., Nov. 25, before a capacity audience.

Steers scored early in first quarter when Marvin Broussard, senior of Opelousas, La., tackled Garfield Walker in the Wiley end zone. Score then read Steers 2 Wildcats 0. Charles Smith, quarterback, of Palestine tossed a 40-yard pass to Ruppert Bullard, senior of New Orleans, La. Smith attempted to pass to Raymond Tyous for extra point which was no good.

Steers scored again when Chuck Smith passed to Raymond Tyous for touchdown. Odell Ladd attempted to kick which was blocked. Steers scored again when Buforee Waterhouse, quarterback passed to Captain Ruppert Bullard, of New Orleans, La.

The Texas College band under the direction of A. A. Davenport, made their appearance during the halftime and the Steeretts danced several Mexican dances while H. Byrd Moore worked out at the organ.

There were no scores during the third and fourth quarters.

Outstanding in the Wiley Camp were Willie Richardson, quarterback, of Shreveport; John Kincaide, fullback, senior of Memphis, and Floyd Iglehart of Dallas.

Outstanding in the Steer camp were James Gipson, Dallas, Terry E. Cook, Bonham and Louis Hicks, Waco.
