AT SOMERSET Court and Douglass Homes Recreation Center each Friday, from 12 to 2 p.m., special activities are arranged for children from 4 to 6 years of age.

Dancing classes for children from 5 to 14 years of age meet each Monday and Wednesday in Douglass Homes. Miss Carlene Rivers, a volunteer, is in charge.

FOOTBALL — Four midget football teams are entered in the Cherry Hill Midget League sponsored by the Bureau of Recreation. League play is entering the third and final week of the first round. The Tigers were victors over the Browns in the League opener with the Colts and Saxons battling to a 0-0 tie.

In their second League game, the improving Browns held the Junior Colts to a scoreless tie as they checked the hard driving Jimmie Simmons and the powerful running quarter-back Doug Ewell. Grant Batty dropped a would-be touchdown pass in the closing minutes of the game for the Colts.

Outstanding offensive stars for the Browns were James Owens and Garland Jones. James Wood, star halfback for the Colts, had to leave the game because of a shoulder injury. The Saxons are captained by Frank Young and boast a hard running back in the person of Larry Webster. The Tigers are captained by John Womack and appear to be a strong candidate for league honors.

MEMBERS OF THE Rangers clubs have enjoyed their game room activities at the Cherry Hill Community during their weekly meetings which are held on Monday afternoons from 3-5 p.m. Members of the club are boys 7 to 11 years old. In addition to the game room members are enrolled in the craft club, basketball, and the children's dramatic club.

The Beavers club members enjoy their game room period every Monday, 6-8 p.m., at the Center. Members of this group are "Junior Teens," ages 12, 13, and 14 years. Members of the Beavers were one of the "Junior Teen" groups that attended the Junior Teen Canteen held in the auditorium of the Center on last Thursday evening.

THREE SPECIAL events took place at Cloverdale in the past two weeks. The first event was a Halloween Mask Ball, given by the Teen-Age Council, a closed affair. For this event, gala colors of orange and black streamers were strung across the room. The red, green, yellow, and brown leaves around the room painted the most becoming picture of fall.

The officers of the Teen-Age Council are Edward Waters, president; Margaret Smith, vice president; Anna Moody, secretary; Joan Carr, assistant secretary; Ruth Robinson, treasurer; Shirley Forrest, assistant treasurer; Phillip Chester, business manager; Dorsey Skinner, assistant business manager.

The games committee planned a couple of games that went well. The first game was snapping apples, and dancing with the apple on your forehead.

ATTENDING the dance were: Stewart Garner, Steve Carter, Howard Motzuski, Garrie Drennen, Norman Keyes, Marlynn Nelson, Lois Smith, Arlene Frye, George Brown, Helen Greene, Dorsey Skinner, Howard Campbell, and Robert James;

Alice Diggs, Naomi Robinson, La Vern Corbin, Bete Williams, Naomi Smith, Sterling Bush, Alfred Thomas, Billy Holmes, Mickey Ivey, Randolph Bush, Sandra Murray, Nellie Smallwood, Frederick Robinson, Anna Moody, Edward Waters, and Margaret Smith.

A HALLOWEEN party was given at Cloverdale, Friday, with forty-five children attending between the ages of 6-10. Entertainment included a play, peanut relay, magic pumpkins, musical chairs, and many more party games. The leader in charge is Mrs. M. M. Futch.

The third event taking place at Cloverdale was a barn dance given by the Cloverettes. Some 150 persons attended.

THE CHICK WEBB touch football league is in full swing. The Kennedy All-Stars, led by the brilliant passing of 'Yoke' Crawley and the sensational catching of Roland Boardley, defeated the Madison Street Bears, 22-8. A stubborn defense was displayed by Hampton Claude and his crew.

The next game will feature Swifty Knight and his Mobsters against a well rounded team from Kennedy playground.

The Chick Webb basketball leagues are getting under way early this fall. Teams are urged to secure their franchise fees as quickly as possible. Among the many teams expected we have in the Midget Division:

Matson has concussion; may be out for season

CHICAGO (ANP) — Olle Matson, kingpin of the Chicago Cardinals' offense, suffered a "very severe concussion" Sunday in Philadelphia and may be out for the remainder of the season.

Matson was injured late in the game with the the Philadelphia Eagles after he had electrified the crowd at Connie Mack Stadium with a 59-yard punt return which gave the Cardinal's their first score. The Cards eventually lost the game 30-14.

MATSON HAD to be helped off the field and became ill in the dressing room. He refused to have X-rays taken in Philadelphia and flew back to Chicago with the rest of the squad.

He was taken to Garfield Park Hospital where X-rays were made. Physicians were studying the prints to determine the extent of the injury.

Meanwhile, Cardinal team physician Dr. Ralph C. O'Halloran, said:

"Matson has a severe concussion and will be out for at least a week. If X-rays show a fracture, he will be lost for the rest of the season."

Matson has been the Cards' main offensive threat this season.

Switzer stars, but Bears win

CHICAGO (ANP)—Very Switzer, Green Bay Packers star halfback, played brilliant football Sunday evening, scoring the Packers' first touchdown on a 95-yard run as his team went down to a 28-23 defeat.

However, Switzer's fine playing was overshadowed by a costly fumble by the tan star in the final three minutes of the game which paved the way for a Chicago Bears' touchdown. Moments later, the Bears wrapped up the game when Quarterback George Blanda connected with a 10-yard aerial.

Switzer's touchdown came toward the end of the first quarter with the Packers trailing by seven points.

While an overflow Wrigley Field audience looked on, Switzer took a Bears' boot on the Packers' five yard line, swung to his right, picked up blockers and scampered to pay dirt. It was the longest run of the game.

Bolling Generals gain 6th victory

BOLLING, AFB, Wash.—The Bolling Generals tacked up their 6th victory against 1 tie by crushing a game Navy team from Little Creek, Virginia 46-6 before a crowd of 4,000 chilled fans at Arnold Field, Saturday.

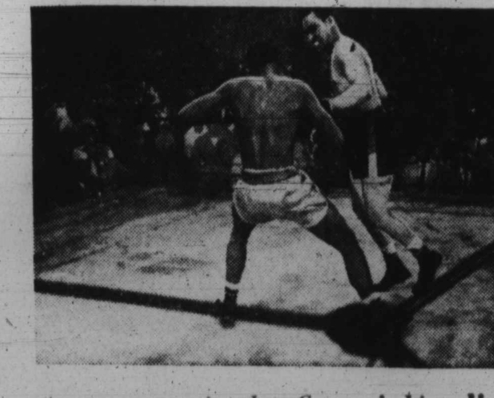
Paced by Tommy O'Connell, who completed 6 out of 9 passes for 115 yards and 3 touchdowns, the Generals jumped into a 26-6 lead at halftime. Ernie Warlect, General end saw plenty of action during the second half.

Stand up and CHEER!

Here she is—that man-crazy, dazzle-dancing Jones gal! It's torrid! It's terrific! It's the musical marvel the whole world has been waiting for!

They'll fight like cats about their men!

Pearl Bailey rocks 'em on a rhythm ride!



Any man can win when Carmen's his gal!

The wild jeep ride that started the trouble

A real gal will go the limit for her man!

ALSTON—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, HARRY, who passed away November 13, 1953.
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God grant you eternal rest.
MOTHER AND DAD
SISTERS AND BROTHER

DIXON—Sacred to the Memory of JOHN H. and ANNIE R. DIXON:

That we do not think of you.
By her devoted daughter,

We saw you fading like a flower,
But could not make you stay
We nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.

And our hearts ache for you still
Forgotten by some others
But by us you never will.

MOORE — In loving memory of our mother, BERTHA MOORE, who departed this life November 15, 1953:
Gone dear mother, gone forever
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
DEVOTED CHILDREN

WHITE—In memory of our dear mother MARY L. who passed away November 2, 1936;
On your memorial day, Mother dear;
Remembrance shed another tear
As etched upon life's window pane.
We see your smiling face again,
Our hearts great yearn has no relief.
Yet hope is not beyond belief
That we will clasp each other's hand
Somewhere, sometime, we'll understand.
