Morgan meets Hampton in home finale Saturday

Morgan State College plays its last game of the current season on home soil Saturday, Nov. 13, when the Bears meet the Hampton Institute Pirates in a 2 p.m. encounter in Hughes Stadium.

Toppled from the ranks of the unbeaten last Saturday after a thrilling battle against Virginia Union University which halted the Bruins' no-conference-losses record by a 28-15 score, Morgan will be thirsting for a victory over the Pirates.

The game will mark the twenty-seventh edition of a football rivalry that dates back to 1927 and will find the Bears seeking their twenty-second win over Hampton in the long-time series.

HIGHLIGHTING the football contest will be an observance of "Citizens' Day" when special tribute will be paid to citizens by the college. Dr. Carl Murphy, chairman of the Morgan State College board of trustees, will extend greetings during a brief half-time ceremony.

The Morgan Bears will probably be playing their first game of the season without the services of right halfback and co-captain Walt Mosley.

The Yeadon, Pa., senior who's been a bulwark of the Bears' offense and defense all season was injured in the game with the Panthers and, though considered out of all danger, will probably be out of the game, Coach Eddie Hurt said.

BIG TILLMAN (Tex) HENDERSON, 250-pound, six-foot-four tackle from Houston, Tex., is looked to lead the Bears' defense with assistance from Gilbert Prather, Aberdeen, Md., guard; Ellsworth Gordon, 310 pounder from Aberdeen; and Donald Carey, solid 240 pound sophomore tackle from Providence, R. I.

Henderson, senior rejoining the Morgan squad after a stint in the Army, has been a dominant cog in the Bears' defense since the early part of the season.

Offensively, Jerome (Jerry) McArthur, the light of foot left left halfback who ran his touchdown talley to eight for the season last Saturday for a total of 48 points, will spearhead the Bears.

As I See It

By AL SWEENEY

WASHINGTON

That will be quite a dramatic game coming up Saturday when Howard University's Bisons meet the Hornets of Delaware State College.

If anybody would have told three years ago that the Howard-Delaware State game might have a bearing on the CIAA grid crown, he would be committed to sanctuary for the feeble minded in Southeast Washington. It's called St. Elizabeth's.

But, look's what's happening. DELAWARE STATE under Coach Eddie Jackson is rolling along with a 3-0 record in CIAA play thus far and could conceivably wind up with a perfect season.

In six contests Delaware State has yet to be stopped.

Meanwhile, the top teams in the CIAA are killing each other off and even under the Dickinson System, if all the teams wind up with a loss, Delaware could eke in as champion.

OF COURSE, the bubble could burst, if Tom Johnson can fire the Bisons up to avenge last year's 13-6 defeat at the hands of Delaware.

For those who have come in late, it must be recalled that during Jackson's term as Coach at Howard, from 1944 until he was "mysteriously dropped" without a hearing at the end of the 1952 season, his teams never had a losing season.

Since Jackson has departed, Howard has been suffering. Last year the Bisons had a 3-4-1 record, this year they have a 1-5-1 record. They have yet to win a CIAA game.

There is a suspicion making the rounds that Howard's current coach ability is measured in relationship with the record of Jackson.

Of course, this can be shattered, Saturday.

OUR WEEK'S PREDICTIONS

Last week, this space picked 8 winners, missed 2 and one game ended in a tie.

Marguerite Stakes set for Pimlico

Two-year-old fillies will hold the spotlight at Pimlico over the coming week end, with the Marguerite Stakes scheduled on Saturday. All indications point to a share amounting to more than $35,000 if a dozen start.

Among the leading contenders in this important event for the young fillies are Starmount Stable's Vestment, Maine Chance Farms' Myrtle's Jet, Hasty House Farm's Alspal, Tom M. Gridler's Gambetta, Darcey Dan Farm's Errasian, Charlton Clay's Lea Lane, Claiborne Farm's Delta and Brookmeade Stable's Gandharva.

Next week will find older fillies and mares staging the Gallorette Stakes on Wednesday while on Saturday, Nov. 20, the final program of the meeting will be highlighted by the 18th running of the Pimlico Special.

This race is expected to bring together Determine, Helioscope, Hasty Road, Errand King, Fisherman, Chevation, Parlo and King Maple in a championship event for three-year-olds.

Cycle climb on Sunday

The Monument Riders Motorcycle Club of Washington will hold a hill-climb competition on the Indianhead Highway near the Super Chief open air theatre Sunday.

Riders from Baltimore and Maryland will compete in addition to finest in the area.

The dangerous hillclimbing sport is gaining popularity throughout the nation.

Gridiron highlights

CHICAGO (ANP) — Iowa's touchdown twins—Eddie Vincent and Earl Smith — Ohio State's plunging halfback Bobby Watkins, and Penn State's streaking Halfback Lenny Moore, were headliners in the scoring parade last Saturday on the nation's college gridirons.

Vincent established a new Big 10 mark for a rush play from scrimmage, going 96 yards for a touchdown. This bettered the 88-yard mark set by Johnny Karras, Illinois halfback, in 1951 against Indiana. Vincent also tallied another touchdown on a short plunge as the Hawkeyes defeated Purdue, 25-14, before a home-coming gathering of 52,000 at Iowa City.

Smith, another Hawkeye halfback, sprinted 68 yards on a punt return for his ninth touchdown of the season. Four other TDS have been 35 or more yards.

CALVIN JONES, Iowa's All-America guard candidate, had one of the best days of his career, as he and other Hawkeye forwards grounded the Boilermakers' running game to 35 net yards. Lamar Lunday, Purdue's huge end, played a fine game for his team.

Watkins scored two touchdowns to bring his total points for the season to 51 as the Buckeyes toyed with the University of Pittsburgh before 80,886 at Columbus. Ranked number two nationally, OSU won, 28-0, as Coach Woody Hayes used more than 50 men.

Besides, Watkins, halfback; Jimmy Roseboro, fulback; Jack Biggs, guard; Jim Parker and Tackle Bill Cummings saw action. Henry (Model T) Ford and Bob Grier, halfback and fullback, respectively, were in Pitt's lineup.

IN PENN STATE'S 39-7 rout of Holy Cross at State College, Pa., Moore picked up 126 yards and broke a 42-year-old school record for 801 yards in single season, while scoring two touchdowns. The nation's second rusher in college football, he has a total of 843 yards for the season, breaking a mark set in 1912 by Shorty Miller. One of his touchdowns was a 57-yard dash.

Illinois' sophomore halfbacks, Harry Jefferson and Abe Woodson, did yeoman service, but the Illini went down to a 14-7 defeat at the hands of Michigan before 58,812 at Ann Arbor.

With the fabulous J. C. Caroline seeing action for only one play, Jefferson and Woodson collaborated on the Illini's successful scoring drive, with the latter going over to tally his fifth touchdown of the season. On the winning Wolverine team was Art Walker, the senior tackle.

CO-CAPT. LEROY BOLDEN had his best day of the year as he ran for 109 yards, twice the rushing yardage of the entire Washington State team, to pace the Michigan State Spartans to a 54-6 rout of the Cougars from the Far West.

Bolden, halfback, who also made a dazzling 52-yard return of a kickoff, tallied one of the Spartans' eight touchdowns. Teammates John Henry Lewis, an end, and Travis Buggs, a halfback, also scored. The game was at East Lansing.

Halfback Milt Campbell and his Indiana teammates suffered from fumblitis as the Hoosiers were beaten 6-0 by Miami University of Ohio before a Dad's Day crowd of 23,000 at Bloomington. Bob Bronston, captain of the Redskins, missed the extra point.

CORNELL DEFEATED Syracuse, 14-6, with Dick Jackson, junior halfback, registering one touchdown as 25,000 watched at Ithaca, N.Y. Tex Robinson, senior, senior halfback, kicked three extra points as Temple won easily over Brandeis University, 27-0 at Philadelphia.

End Rommie Loudd grabbed a 16-yard touchdown pass in UCLA's 41-0 rout of Oregon before 46,435 at Los Angeles. Jasper McGee, a fullback, was in the Oregon lineup.

Don Wright scored three touchdowns and Mel Triplett another as the University of Toledo overwhelmed Baldwin Wallace, 47-13 at Toledo.

Rawlings featured on St. Nick's card

NEW YORK—Italo Scortichini, of Italy, and Luther Rawlings, of Chicago, will headline next Monday night's boxing program at St. Nick's Arena.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised over DuMont television network at approximately 10 p.m. Preliminaries will also be telecast commencing at 9 p.m.

Rawlings and Scortichini are welterweights who box exceptionally well and deliver their punches in combinations. They are seasoned scrappers.

Touchdown passes help Canton defeat Sylva

CANTON, N.C. — William McKinney threw touchdown passes on plays that covered 33 and 76 yards here last week to lead Reynolds High of Canton to a 13-0 victory over Central High of Sylva.

McKinney passed to Charles Dalton in the second period and to Gus Mills on a scoring play covering 75 yards.

Bates to play Carver in homecoming game today

By BOB PINKNEY

ANNAPOLIS — The Little Giants from Bates High School will be out to break the longest jinx in their history (today) Friday when they play host to Carver High of Baltimore at 1:15 at Bates Field.

In taking on Carver, Coach James Webb's team will be seeking their first victory over the Trainers since 1946 when the Giants won a 13-7 contest on a mud laden field.

Friday's game will also serve as homecoming for Bates. The day will be highlighted with the crowning of "Miss Homecoming," Bertha Matthews of Harmon, Md.

Vivian Hicks, Agnes Sembley, Lavonne Barbour and Dana Brown will reign with Miss Matthews.

—o O o—

IN 1952 Carver won their final game of the season from Bates, and also opened the 1953 season with a victory over the Giants.

The Trainers have not won a game in five starts. The battle, a nip and tuck affair when Carhowever, is still expected to be ver throws Charley Butler, David Johnson, and Gabe Bell into the backfield.

The Little Giants will offer Delbert Williams, Eugene Simms, Gary Queen, and Joe Foote.

Bates has not lost a home game this season. In their last outing they defeated Jason High of Delaware, 26-0.

Coach Webb and his aides John Holt, Raymond Hammond, and Dallas Pace are looking forward to one of their best seasons.

Interhigh playoff on Cardozo field

WASHINGTON

The championship play-off between the east-west divisions of the Inter-High League will be held Nov. 20 at the Cardozo Stadium, 13th and Clifton Sts., NW

Wendall Parris, assistant director of athletics, said the title match is being held on the former Division 2 field to save expenses of renting Griffith Stadium.

As a step in the desegregation process of the school's athletic program, and because "Cardozo is the best high school stadium in the east."

Wilson, winner of the Interhigh's western division title, will meet the winner of Thursday's Anacostia-Eastern game for the former Division 1 title.

At ROTC meeting

PETERSBURG, Va. — Lt. Col. Clinton C. Burke Jr., professor of military science and tactics at Virginia State College, here, attended a two - day Reserve Officers Training Corps conference, Tuesday and Wednesday, at Second Army Headquarters, Fort Meade, Md.
