NAACP holds victory meet

1954 campaign earns $12,734

With $12,734.46 received in contributions and 4,500 new members registered, the Baltimore chapter of the NAACP closed its 1954 membership campaign with a victory program at Sharp St. Methodist Church last Friday.

The Northwestern District led the campaign by signing up 1,470 members. The district turned in -3,999.76.

Southwestern placed second with 942 members and $2,200.50; Northeastern, third with 538 members and $1,338.50; and southern, fourth with 500 members and $1,066.

—o o o—

MRS. SARAH Diggs won individual honors for registering 259 members and for bringing in $1,049.76.

As first place winner she was presented a silver sugar and creamer set.

For signing up over 100 members six team captains were awarded trips to Atlantic City. Winners in this group were:

The Rev. Mrs. Lillian Thompson, 166 members and $187.

Mrs. Beatrice Martin, 137 members and $309.50.

Mrs. Florence Snowden, 123 members, $392.

Mrs. Susie Murphy, 110 members, $212.

Mrs. Eula Mae Watts, 146 members, $493.50.

Mrs. Mary Hawkins, 143 members and $354.

—o o o—

TWO TEAM captains were responsible for over 100 members. They were Raymond Young who brought in 127 members and $439.50, and Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, 148 members and $442. Mr. Young was awarded a ton of coal.

For registering more than 50 new members awards were presented to Mrs. Marie Turner, John White, Mrs. Enolia McMillian, William L. Adams, and Miss Patti E. Holloway.

From East Baltimore, Mrs. Amanda Fitch was presented a set of pillow cases for bringing in 42 members and $87.

Miss Lucy Hammond represented the Southern District and brought in 41 members and $85.50. A second contestant from that area, Mrs. Frances Booker, registered 37 members and $81 in contributions.

—o o o—

FROM THE Northwestern area, Miss Jacequeline Porter was responsible for 38 members and $79; from Southwestern, Mrs. Sophia Mathis of Leadenhall Baptist Church, 85 members and $211.50.

An additional contribution of $25 was turned in from Leadenhall Baptist, by Mrs. Mathis. Mrs. Lucille Sewell of John Wesley Methodist Church brought in 48 members and $91.50.

From Northeastern, $88 in contributions and 42 members were registered by Willie Hubbard of Israel Baptist Church; and Mrs. Katie Allen of the Apostolic Church brought in 48 members and $97.50.

Mrs. Esther Jackson representing Sharp Street Methodist Church brought in 74 members and $164.50.

From Ames Methodist Church, Mrs. Bessie Thomas was responsible for 45 members and $86; and Mrs. Helen Thomas of Psalmist Baptist, 46 members and $99.50.

—o o o—

UNDER THE direction of Executive Secretary Bowen K. Jackson, 1,001 new members and $1,983 in contributions were recorded.

Office maintenance contributions under the direction of Mrs. Augusta T. Chissell registered 30 members and $1,137.48.

From Legal Defense fund workers, under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Watts, 146 members and $1,179 were brought in.

Office workers were responsible for 50 members and $122.50; and businessmen represented by William Adams, 77 members and $361.50 contributions.
