Morgan plays Union

One of the hottest battles in this season's CIAA football series is expected Saturday when Morgan State College meets Union University at Hughes Stadium, on Morgan campus. Game time is 2 p.m.

Morgan, unbeaten in conference ranks, is fresh from a thrilling 6-0 victory over A. and T. College, while Union, unbeaten until last Saturday is smarting from the upset handed it by Virginia State College.

Phelps surprises Cardozo

WASHINGTON

The Phelps Tradesmen stopped the Cardozo Clerks 12-0 Wednesday afternoon before approximately 1,000 shivering fans in the wind-swept Cardozo stadium.

Although it was a cold day Coach James "Biff" Carter's boys appeared all steamed up as they scored touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters and hurled the Clerks back with their changing line.

Both teams actually played each other out of their shoes on the cold grown as Clerk back Johnny Harris and Phelps back Calvin Jenkins lost their three quarter cleats during a couple of hard-hitting plays.

ON THE RAMPAGE—John Christian, the Beckley, W.Va. junior, reels off a 9-yard dash for Virginia State as the Trojans upset the hitherto unbeaten Union Panthers, 34-6, in Richmond, Saturday. Christian tallied two of State's five touchdowns and was the favorite receiver of Clint Freeman, the passing wizard who wrecked the Union homecoming.

Norfolk Unit upsets Livingstone, 14-13

SALISBURY, N.C. — Quarterback Bob Milton's conversion pass to End Carl Adams proved the winning margin in the Livingstone College's 14-13 upset over Norfolk Division of Virginia State College here Saturday.

The Bears had trailed 13 - 7 going into the final period when Milton tossed a 37-yard touchdown pass to Fullback George Allen, knotting the count at 13-13.

The win gave the Bears a 1-1 conference record and second place in the BIAC. Coach Edward L. Mitchell now has a 3-1-1 homecoming record. Livingstone's overall season record stands at 3-2.

NORFOLK DREW first blood with Reginald Sheridan scoring from 5 yards out in the initial period. The tally climaxed a 44-yard drive that began on the Livingstone 44 following the recovery of a fumble by Halfback Charles Aldrich. The conversion attempt failed.

Livingstone's multiple offense clicked in the second period as they grounded out 112 rushing yards and scored in three plays on a drive that began at the Norfolk 43-yard line.

Runs by Aldrich and freshman halfback David Shinholster, put the oval on the 40-yard line, from which point Milton pitched out to Allen and the latter passed to Adams for the touchdown that tied the score at 6-6. Aldrich's conversion gave the Bears a 7-6 halftime lead.

NORFOLK ROARED back in the third period to capitalize on a Livingstone miscue. A Bear fumble was recovered by the Spartans on the Livingstone 17-yard line.

Tailback Bruce Holmes scampered for a first down on the one-yard line, from which point Quarterback Clifton Moses of Warwick, Va., sneaked over. Thomas Goodwin of Englewood, N.J., ran the conversion to put Norfolk ahead 13-7.

Livingstone's winning tally culminated a sustained 88-yard drive that began on its own 12. The drive featured the running of halfback Ted Evans of Raleigh and Shinholster, and a 22-yard spurt by Allen that gave the Bears a first down on the Spartan 37.

Milton passed to Allen for the touchdown and Adams caught a Milton toss in the end zone for the clincher.

The Bears' final game of the season is scheduled for Nov. 13 on the home field against the winless Morristown Red Knights.

OUTSTANDING IN the Livingstone forward wall were guard Roy Hudson and tackles Frank Miller and Jesse Ormond.

Commission says coming hunting seasons good

According to Ernest A. Vaughn, director, Maryland Game and Inland Fish Commission, the coming hunting seasons in Maryland should be good ones, as reports from game wardens and others regarding the status of most upland game are optimistic.

In spite of the storms and the drought, there seems to be an above average crop of quail, grouse in Western Maryland, pheasants along the Mason and Dixon Line, raccoons and opossums, wild ducks and Canada Geese.

The status of that very popular game animal the cottontail rabbit is perhaps not as satisfactory as the commission would have it although there has been a gain in some sections.

The season on waterfowl, namely, wild ducks, geese, coots and brant will open in accordance with both State and Federal law, at noon on Friday, Nov. 12. It will close on brant Dec. 11, and on ducks, geese and coots Jan. 10, 1955.

—o O o—

ALL THE daily and possession limits on both migratory and non-migratory game birds and animals will be practically the same as in 1953-54, namely:

Quail, six a day, 12 in possession; pheasant (male only) two a day, four in possession, and six per season; grouse, two a day, four in possession and six per season; rabbit four a day, eight in possession; ducks, four a day, eight in possession; geese (except snow geese) two a day, four in possession; brant, four a day, six in possession;

Coots (crowbills) 10 a day, 10 in possession; woodcock, four a day, eight in possession; jacksnipe, eight a day, eight in possession; mourning doves, eight a day, and eight in possession; there is no open season on doves in Garrett County.

The daily limit on ducks may include one woodduck; American and red breasted mergansers are included in the bag of four ducks. One hooded merganser or hairycrown is also permitted in the bag of four.

Waterfowl shooting hours are from a half-hour before sunrise to sunset excepting on the first open day when shooting will not begin until noon. It is unlawful to shoot waterfowl from a motor boat or with a rifle, or a gun larger than a 10 gauge. Baiting is prohibited and also a gun holding more than three shells. It also is unlawful to have a rifle in possession near waterfowl. There is no open season on swans, grebes, snow geese, sea gulls and terns.

In Memoriams 1

DANIELS—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, CHARLES DANIELS, who passed away November 1, 1952:
We watched him slowly sleep away
We knew that God knew best.
'Tis sad to know, we wondered why
The best are first called to rest.
God called him home. He thought it best
For him to have Eternal rest.
He called him from a world of pain
And our great loss was His great gain.
Loving Mother, JANIE HAWKINS
Brothers — JOHN DANIELS, JESSIE HAWKINS.

McGEE—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, GILBERT McGEE, JR., who passed away two years ago, November 4, 1952:
Sleep on dear brother
And take your rest
We loved you but
God loved you best.
Devoted FATHER, MOTHER, SISTERS AND BROTHER

PAYNE — In loving memory of our father, CHARLES E. PAYNE, who departed this life 3 years ago, November 9, 1951:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend
We think of you often and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some you may be
But dear to our memory you ever will be Devoted Daughters, ANNIE, GENEVA AND LOUISE.

THORNHILL—A tribute of love to the memory of ELIZABETH J. THORNHILL, who passed away one year ago, November 5, 1953:
Enshrined within our memory
Are fondest thoughts of you
Your kindly eyes, your loving smile
Your heart so fond and true.
And time will never, never dim
Our inmost hearts regret
At loss of you, dear Elizabeth
And we never will forget.
DEVOTED FRIENDS, ROSA LLOYD, ADA A. LEE

THORNHILL—In fondest memory of my dear wife, ELIZABETH J. THORNHILL, who passed away one year ago, November 5, 1953:
If I had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart
I would no feel so bad.
I did not know the pain you had
I did not see you die,
I only know you went away
And could not say good-bye.
HER LOVING HUSBAND, CALVIN THORNHILL.

WILLIAMS, WING AND BOYER
In sad but loving remembrance of our beloved sisters, brother, father and mother:
Maggie B. Williams, November 6, 1947.

They are filled with remembrance
Dear ones of you.
