Ducks get first practice field in 40-year history

For the first time in 40 years, a Douglass High School football team has its own practice field.

The Ducks no longer will have to walk to Druid Hill Park, a distance of some 13 blocks for an afternoon session. The team has its own training area at its new school site, formerly the home of Western H.S.

The field is located at the rear of the school just off Bentalou St. and Windsor Ave.

—o o o—

A GREAT deal of work remains to be done on the premises. Goal posts were scheduled to be set up this week, and the job of leveling and marking off the area is expected to be completed shortly.

With their departure from Druid Hill, only Carver is left to train in the park area. Dunbar trains under similar circumstances, but at Clifton Park.

One other event in the planning stage for Douglass is a high school stadium at Pulaski St. and Windsor Ave. Coach Mack Rayne said Monday this plan is being discussed by school officials.

Sugar Ray to try comeback in Detroit

NEW YORK (ANP) — Ray Sugar) Robinson, former middleweight and welterweight boxing champion, will start his comeback campaign in December to be set up this week, and the ber in the Detroit Olympia formances of George Cook and Richard Arter.

The two men won the game for them against Carver last week. Cook, a halfback, scored two touchdowns in the game and Arter, one.

IN DOUGLASS, Dunbar will meet a weak opponent from the standpoint of know how. Comprised primarily of green men, Douglass will take the field with a 1-3 record.

Douglass has lost to Spinnarn, Armstrong and Cardozo, all of Washington. They defeated Carver, 12-7, and tied Bates High of Annapolis.

Approximately 1,000 fans saw the Poets down Carver. The biggest crowd of the season is expected when the two teams take the field Friday at 3 p.m.

Marciano's manager to see Baker-Slade

PHILADELPHIA

Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, will be one of the ringside spectators.

Poets seek city title

Primed for Douglass tilt

Fresh from an easy 20-12 victory over a faltering Carver High eleven, the Dunbar Poets will try to capture the city championship today (Friday), when they meet Douglass at Morgan's Hughes Stadium.

With a 3-0 record to their credit, Dunbar is said to be at full strength and is aiming for a conference tilt with Cardozo High of Washington next week.

For Friday's encounter the Poets intend to bank on the performances of George Cook and Richard Arter.

Watkins, Moore spark victories in big games

CHICAGO (ANP)—Bobby Watkins, 181-pound halfback from New Bedford, Mass., grabbed off a 23-yard aerial from quarterback Dave Tegetts in the first period to give top-ranked Ohio State a 14-7 victory over stubborn Northwestern Saturday afternoon at Evanston, Ill.

Watkins, who had one touchdown nullified because a Buckeye teammate was detected holding, ground out 58 yards in nine carries to improve his season's average of 5.9. Highly publicized white teammate Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, was confined to 37 yards in 12 attempts.

The Bucks were handicapped against the underdog Wildcats because of the injury to their sensational middle guard, Big Jim Parker from Toledo.

The Knoxville College Bulldogs routed Philander Smith before a homecoming crowd at Little Rock, Ark., in a game last week which featured six touchdowns, all by Knoxville. The score was 38-0.

Pacific the Bulldogs attack were halfbacks Moses Ross of Chicago and Joe Dean, Alcoa, Tenn.

Ross scored the first touchdown on an 80-yard romp on the second play of the game, then added another to bring his total points to 14. Top scorer was Dean, who made three touchdowns. Bishop scored the other TD.

HOMECOMING CONTESTS. Hampton Institute scored only one touchdown last week, but that was enough to defeat Lincoln (Pa.) University 6-2 before a homecoming gathering in Rendal Field.

Hampton scored first in the opening quarter on a 38-yard run by Fletcher Battles. Lincoln got its only tally on a safety in the second quarter, when Donald Winston, Hampton fullback, was caught behind the end zone.

The game was highlighted by a military display put on by a drill team from Washington. The military unit, along with an honor guard and military band, was sent to the campus by army officials in honor of President William V. S. Tubman of Liberia, who was at the university to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree.

In another homecoming contest, the Miles College Bears came from behind to nose out a determined but outfought Lane Dragons' squad, 19-14 at Jackson, Tenn.

The Dragons had taken the lead in the first quarter when Bob Mitchell grabbed a pass from Freddie Jones and scampered for the TD.

A fumble by Miles' Nathaniel Davis set up the play for Lane's second score, Mitchell again scoring.

However, Miles fought back, scoring once in the third and twice in the final period to clinch the game. Theodore Norman and Ocie Williams starred for the Bears.

—o O o—

GRAMBLING College, meanwhile, celebrated its homecoming in grand style. The Tigers routed Jackson College 44-12, while 10,000 fans looked on.

Star of the contest was Tiger's fullback Arthur Redman, who racked up a total of five touchdowns in his one-man war with the Mississippians. He gained 211 yards in the process.

Redman was supported by teammates James Gibson and Edward Murray, who scored the other touchdown.

Jackson scored once in the first and again in the final period, but could not cope with the Tigers.

In other tilts, Florida A and M's Rattlers proved they belong in the top bracket by outclassing previously undefeated Xavier University, 25-6; Maryland State rolled over Shaw, 13-0, and Prairie View came back strong after last week's drubbing by the Rattlers to down Arkansas State 26-9.

Colts to battle Lions Saturday

The spirited, but struggling Baltimore Colts—hobbled with a one and five record—take on the dauntless Detroit Lions here on Saturday night at Baltimore Memorial Stadium.

Unable to untrack themselves early in the ball game last Sunday, the Colts fell before the Redskins by a 24-21 count in the most thrilling game of the Washington-Baltimore series.

Despite their best offensive showing of the campaign, the Colts could not contain the brilliant Billy Wells and were forced to the hilt to keep it a close ball game.

Detroit, meanwhile, tripped the Los Angeles Rams by 27-24 to take over undisputed possession of first place in the Western Division of the National Football League.

New Era Yanks win first half

The New Era Yanks, Baltimore 1954 football champions, are on their way to another championship.

The Yanks captured the first half title in the league last Sunday, defeating the Astor eleven, 12-0, at Easterwood Park.

Sparked by Wade Cade, James Moulden, Donald Bailey, and Buddy Stanley, Coach Cleve Brister's squad showed much power and promise. Rock Sykes is assistant manager of the team.

Ft. Meade's 5-1 record 4th among service teams

FORT MEADE, Md. — Five victories in six games, including four shutouts, is the record of the 1954 Fort Meade Generals football team.

With a total of 138 points scored, while holding the opposition to 32 points, the Generals rank fourth among the 13 service teams in the area, Fort Belvoir, with four wins and one-tie, is the only Army squad in the area with a better record.

Taking advantage of opponents mistakes, a well - balanced and scouting, seems to be the keynote to the success of the Generals.

ALTHOUGH the team has scored 20 touchdowns, only two players have scored three. Fullback Don Lipell leads the scoring list with two extra points added to his three touchdowns for 20 points. Lex Prindle, a halfback, has three touchdowns.

Next on the list is co-captain Nick Farkas, a guard, who has kicked 12 extra points in 13 attempts, and added one point running.

A big test comes Friday night, Nov. 5, when the Generals play host to Fort Monmouth, a powerful squad, much better than its three wins and three losses indicates.

As I See It

By AL SWEENEY

WASHINGTON

This writer doesn't know when George P. Marshall will see the light, but eventually he will.

Sunday, the Redskins, who are wallowing in the coal hole of the Eastern Division of the NFL, drew more than 23,000 fans to a game against the Baltimore Colts, who had a similar spot in the Western Division.

Ordinarily, such a game wouldn't draw the vendors. But, Marshall's Redskins proved they belong in the top bracket by outclassing previously undefeated Xavier University, 25-6; Maryland State rolled over Shaw, 13-0, and Prairie View came back strong after last week's drubbing by the Rattlers to down Arkansas State 26-9.

Philly signal caller sparks Paul Quinn homecoming win

WACO, Tex.—The Paul Quinn Tigers satisfied a capacity homecoming crowd here in Jackson Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon with a thumping 39-0 win over the Butler College Bears.

The Methodists scored early in the first quarter when Bernard Durant, Quinn quarterback from Philadelphia, Pa., sneaked over from the 1-yard. Then, Sammy Stenton's conversion in a placekick was good and the score stood at 7-0.

Durant had placed the Tigers in scoring position with two completed aerials to S. Q. Bradford and Elridge Brown, starting from his own 3-yard strip.

—o O o—

MILTON GOODEN of Hillsboro, Texas, tallied the second TD from 10 yards out to culminate a Quinn drive from the Tigers' 40.

Bertrand Gans, from Orange Texas, uncorked a prodigious heave from his own 40 to Ervin Harris, of Tampa, Fla. on the Butler 5-yard line. Harris then scampered into the end zone to bring teh score to 19-0 at half time.

The Tigers scored again in the third quarter when Gooden intercepted B. H. Smith's toss intended for J. L. Griffin on the Bears 30 to race unmolested into pay-dirt.

PAUL QUINN amassed two TD's in the final period on Brad Ford's plunge from the 10-yard stripe and James Williams' 6 yard sweep of right end on a pitchout from Durant. Benton's kick was good for the extra point.

Bearing the brunt of the Butler Bears' offense with Smith and Griffin was J. McNealy, speedy halfback from Bonham, Texas.

'Generals' back on winning track

WASHINGTON

The Bolling Air Force Base "Generals" got back on the winning track, Saturday. Without the aid of their star halfback, Lowell Perry, they overwhelmed the Cherry Point Marines 60-15.

Bolling scored at least two touchdowns in every period to maintain their unbeaten record before some 3,000 fans at Varsity Field, N.C.

The air base has a 15-15 tie with Fort Jackson, S.C. in addition to its five wins over Fort Lee, Quantico, Fort Eustis and Camp Lejeune.

FORMER NORTH Carolina College aces Ernie Warlick and Frederick James played in Saturday's game, with Warlick returning a punt 14 yards and snagging an 18-yard pass. James gained 18 yards on rushing.

Tommy O'Connell, Bolling Ace quarterback from Notre Dame, was also used sparingly in the powerful victory.

Perry, who has been suffering from a shoulder injury since the start of the season, was formerly a Michigan U. end.

Matson scores two, Cards win 1st game

CHICAGO. (ANP)—Ollie Matson, showing some of his pre-service form, galloped 91 yards for one touchdown and caught a pass for another as the Cardinals scored an upset Sunday in beating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 17-14, for their first victory of the season.

With less than four minutes of the first quarter played, Matson took a kickoff and raced for the TD which tied the score at seven each. Later he took an 18-yard pass from Lamar McHan for the other TD.

Giving Matson good blockings was Emmet King, rookie fullback who never went to college but won, nevertheless, managed to learn a lot about football.
