Morgan, spirited by Classic win, faces tough A. and T.

The Morgan State College Bears, whose fourth-quarter three - touchdown comeback against West Virginia State in the Capital Classic in Washington, has earned them new respect, seek their third conference win Saturday against the North Carolina A. and T. College Aggies in Greensboro, N.C.

The contest, marking A. and T.'s homecoming, will be the 24th meeting of the two teams, with Morgan ahead in the series. Morgan has won 17, lost three and tied three against the Aggie Bulldogs.

In the last few years, however, the series has been a season affair, and the Bears are still smarting under the 20-7 licking the Bulldogs dealt them here last year to spoil Coach Eddie Hurt's Silver Anniversary celebration.

—o o o—

SATURDAY'S GAME is considered to be a crucial test of how well the Bears will fare in conference play this year. Morgan was given long odds over Howard University which it defeated 20-7, and a typical favored position over West Virginia, which it defeated 32-26, after trailing for most of the game.

A. and T., though defeated this year, is given the edge over Morgan. This is probably due to the fact that A. and T. beat Central State—the only team that has topped the Bears this year.

The contest is the mid-way battle for the Bears. The local team meets the highly rated Virginia Union University Panthers here Saturday, Nov. 6, then meets Hampton Institute on Nov. 13.

The final game of the season will be the annual Thanksgiving game with Virginia State, Nov. 25, at Petersburg, Va.

TIRED OF JUST TALK? WANT BETTER TIMES?

VOTE DEMOCRATIC

VOTE FOR ACTION, NOT WORDS

The Democratic Party has always been known as the Party which does the most good for all the people. Republicans will give you lots of fancy talk, but words don't build roads and hospitals, clear slums, make pay envelopes fatter or jobs available.

DEMOCRATS believe in action—to make life better for YOU. Talk won't do the job.

Take an example in our own community. We are proud of Provident Hospital and we want to constantly improve it. What is the record of the McKeldin regime on Provident Hospital? You know what it is—neglect, promises and talk BUT NO ACTION.

HARRY C. BYRD will help PROVIDENT HOSPITAL. When he is Governor, he will appoint a Commission of medical leaders, community leaders, hospital administrators and other experts to study Provident's needs and to make suggestions as to the best means by which the State can help Provident to provide the Baltimore Community with the Best Medical Services. ACTION—NOT WORDS.

Here's What Two of Provident Board Members Say of Byrd's Plans for Provident:

"I believe such a commission as proposed by Dr. Byrd would be of great value to Provident Hospital. Certainly it would bring to the attention of the Public the important contributions Provident could make to the community."

JEROME D. GRANT

"I am thrilled and pleased that Dr. Byrd will be interested in the Provident Hospital and that he will do everything in it. Provident is a vital part of the Baltimore Community and deserves every study as that it can best serve the Community."

VIVIAN G. ALLEYNE

WANT A BETTER PROVIDENT HOSPITAL?

A HOSPITAL THAT WILL GIVE OUR COMMUNITY TOP-GRADE MEDICAL SERVICE? TALK WON'T BUILD IT.

Buddy Young to spark Colts against 'Skins

In what seems like a million years ago, the Baltimore Colts had their finest hour against the Washington Redskins. Coach Weeb Eubank piloted his club to a blistering 49-14 win over the Redskins on Sept. 18.

On Sunday, the Colts move into Griffith Stadium in Washington for a regular league clash with the Redskins. In league competition, the Colts have won only one game (New York Giants, 20-14) against four losses, while the Redskins have yet to win a league encounter.

Thus Sunday's Griffith Stadium contest, set for 2 p.m., shapes up as almost an even-steven pick.

Buddy Young, speedy halfback of the Colts, could be the difference between the teams if he is able to get into the clear. Young made two sensational runs against the Redskins in the Baltimore encounter.

7 knockouts feature show at Fort Meade

FORT MEADE, Md. — Seven knockouts and two technical knockouts featured an eight card fight program, as Coach Pat Nappi's Fort Meade Generals defeated Patuxent Naval Air Station six bouts to two, Tuesday night, at the Fort Meade Field House.

Meade's three winners of last week, when the Generals dropped their opener of the season to the Camp Lejeune Marines five to three, were all victors again, this time by knockouts.

Intersevice Bantamweight Champ George Davis of the Generals backed Al Turner against the ropes in the first round, fired a left to the body and several rights to the head, and Turner was counted out at 1:32.

—o o o—

THE SHORTEST fight of the night, but the liveliest, took just 37 seconds. At 130 pounds, Tony Filipelli of Meade, the winner, and Leman Williamson stood toe to toe from the opening bell, and both were bleeding when the fight ended.

Welterweight Stanley Vaughn outclassed John Hall, dropping him at the bell ending the first round with a vicious right to the body. Hall was unable to answer the bell for the second round.

Meade's sixth victory was won by the 150-pound Leo Harrington, when the fight was stopped at 1:42 of the second round. His opponent, Joe Ricki had been knocked out, and referee Leo Gates wisely stepped between the fighters.

—o o o—

PATUXENT victories came in the 130 pound division, as Bill Snar knocked out Arthur Hill in 1:39 of the third round, and in the middleweight division, as Julian Hunt won a unanimous decision from Clarence Bell.

Next Wednesday night, Nov. 3 at 8 p.m., the Fort Meade squad will travel to Camp Lejeune for a rematch with the Marines.

Ft. Meade squad invades Howard

The Fort Meade "Generals" will invade the District's sport area 2 p.m. Saturday when they meet the Howard Bisons at the Howard stadium.

Fort Meade has an undefeated 4-0 record but it will be facing an improved Howard t e a m which is fresh from a 12-8 homecoming victory over Fisk University.

Freshmen back Rufus Brown and Johnny Harris of Brooklyn, N.Y. are expected to see plenty of action after their excellent play last Saturday along with backs Johnny Walker and George Smith.

Howard's only other victory this year has been a 13-0 win over the D.C. Naval Reserve station in its opening game.

Willie Mays shows class in Puerto Rican circuit

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (ANP)—Willie Mays, New York Giants' centerfielder of "Say Hey!" fame, made his debut in winter baseball with the Santurce club of the Puerto Rican League here last week.

He came out of the game with a .400 batting average, rapping out two hits in five times at bat. He also scored two runs and fanned twice.

Despite his efforts, the club, managed by Giants Coach Herman Franks, dropped a 9-8 decision to the San Juan Senators. Willie's teammate, Ruben Gomez, was tagged with the loss, although he pitched only one-third of the ninth inning.

One of Mays' strikeouts was credited to Arnold Portocarrero of the Philadelphia Athletics.
