Akron fetes Tubman during 15-hour visit

By EVELYN P. STEWART

AKRON, Ohio (NNPA) — During his 15-hour stopover here, Liberian President William V. S. Tubman was introduced to Judge Stephen A. Culophy, seph Tazewell, young chemist, in his laboratory in the research building of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

The meeting of the two came during President Tubman's tour of the Firestone Company, where he witnessed the processing of Liberian rubber into finished products.

Mr. Tubman arrived in Akron one hour late. He was greeted by Mayor Leo Berg, who presented him with a key to the city. Also on hand were Rep. William H. Ayres and members of the Citizens' Committee, headed by W. Howard Fort, and Judge Stephen A. Culophy.

—o o o—

A MOTORCADE took the Liberan executive to the Mayflower Hotel, where he held an interview with reporters and photographers. Then, following a trip through the city, President Tubman went for the tour of the Firestone plant.

Next came the convocation at the University of Akron, where he received an honorary degree and delivered a speech, revealing old ties between Ohio and Liberia.

After the convocation, Mr. Tubman attended a public reception at the Akron Community Service Center, an Urban League affiliate, where he greeted some 1,500 persons and accepted a life membership in the institution, tendered by Dr. M. E. Farris, national president of the Frontiers of America Inc.

—o o o—

HE CLOSED the day by attending a formal dinner in his honor, given by Harvey S. Firestone Jr., in the Terrace Room of the Mayflower Hotel. Among the 150 guests present were:

Raymond H. Brown, executive director, Akron Community Service Center; Mercer Bratcher, minority groups adviser, Ohio State Employment Service, Dr. M. A. Farris;

W. H. Kerr, president of the Service Center; Horace Stewart, president, Akron Frontiers Club; Kenneth Shaffer, union and Edward R. Dudley, former United States ambassador to Liberia and special NAACP assistant.

ple in this country are pursuing a word called integration. And he said in Liberia the Liberians are pursuing the word independance.

Declaring that the aim of each group was virtually the same Dr. Tobias said: "I believe that we have something to share with each other."

—o o o—

DR. RALPH J. Bunche, Congressman Adam C. Powell and Bernard Baruch were among those on the dais as Dr. Tobias spoke and Mr. Baruch in a rare public gesture for him volunteered to "say a few words".

He told Mr. Tubman that he was sure that he would be able to go home and tell the Liberians of the great respect America has for his country and he said he hoped that Mr. Tubman would be able to get the financial aid he was seeking from the United States.

But, he said, more than that, he hoped that Mr. Tubman and Liberia would be able to get the badly needed aid from private capital in this country to work for the elevation of his people.

—o o o—

MR. TUBMAN was so impressed by the remarks of the Mayor, Mr. Tobias and Mr. Baruch that when he rose he asked permission to put aside his prepared text and "implement" it by addressing himself to their remarks.

He then told Mr. Baruch "Sir, you have said for me what I could not say for myself."

To Dr. Tobias he said: "You have always been an understanding character in the life of your nation, not only of the colored race but of all races of mankind."

Mr. Tubman then made his strongest statement of the day. He said he had noted that there are some white people as well as colored who are underprivileged but that he was opposed to reversing the position of white people as the majority race.

He said to have white people oppressed by dark races would be just as unfair to the whites as it is now to the colored, and that he is against that.

—o o o—

"INSTEAD," he said, "I hope the day will come when all mankind will be integrated, when love and peace and happiness and respect one for the other shall dominate the human family."

It was a moment of great emotion for Mr. Tubman as he said this and he was loudly applauded.

Mr. Tubman arrived here at 8:20 a.m. from Cleveland aboard the Southwest Limited out of St. Louis. He shunned the crowds at Grand Central Station and went straight to his suite in the Waldorf Towers where he met with officials of his government and had other visitors. Among them Dr. F. D. Patterson and Lansdale Christie.

—o o o—

THEN, THREE hours later, he arrived at the Battery for the ticker tape parade. Following the luncheon which was held until 3 p.m., he rested until five p.m. when he received 2,500 persons at a reception at the Waldorf in his honor.

Hulan Jack, president of the Borough of Manhattan was a speaker at the City Hall ceremonies.

Mr. Tubman is under heavy pressure here from his advisers and well wishers to cancel an official visit to Georgia as guest of Governor Talmadge and go into the state as an unofficial guest so that Mr. Talmadge might not be able to officially slight him because of his race.

A close aide of the president told the AFRO Thursday, however, that "We can't do a thing. He is determined to go there and it looks as if he is going officially."

Convicted with Mr. Dow in Criminal Court was Willie H. Wynn, 42, of the 2200 block W. Lapvale St., who got a similar sentence. Mr. Dow is former manager of a Pennsylvania Ave. night club.

U. of Akron awards degree to Tubman

AKRON, Ohio (NNPA) — The ers." highlights of the visit of President William V. S. Tubman of Liberia to Akron Friday included an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Akron and a tour of the plant of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

After receiving the honorary degree, the 58-year-old chief executive of the West African republic held a reception in the Akron Community Service Center and shook hands with an estimated 1,200 persons.

In the long line which moved by was Mrs Herbert S. Bear of Hudson, northern Summit County village, who identified herself as the great niece of the first consul general sent by President Abraham Lincoln from the United States to Liberia.

—o o o—

"MY GREAT uncle, Abraham Hanson of Wisconsin, died in Monrovia in 1866," Mrs. Bear told President Tubman. "He is buried there." She gave Mr. Tubman photostatic copies of letters of condolence sent to her family from presidents of Monrovia. President Tubman acknowledged the letters graciously.

In a simple, solemn academic ceremony, President Tubman was awarded an honorary doctor of laws degree in the only special convocation of that kind ever held by the University of Akron. To welcome him to the campus, the university band played the Liberian national anthem.

President Tubman, who rose from private to colonel in the Liberian army before his election, returned salutes from the honor guard of ROTC cadets in the military fashion.

—o o o—

DR. NORMAN P. Auburn, university president, conferred the degree. Mr. Tubman was introduced by Lee R. Jackson, chairman of the university board of directors and president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

In his address on the campus, President Tubman traced the link between the United States in general and Ohio in particular with Liberia, reserving special mention for the Harvey S. Firestones, both father and son.

"The Firestone Plantations Co., which the late Mr. Firestone founded, has played an incomparable role in the economic and social development of Liberia," President Tubman said, adding:

—o o o—

"PRIOR TO THE arrival of American interests, our striving republic experienced untold tragic incidents with more powerful neighbors. Today, due largely to the presence of the Firestone Co., and other American enterprises, encroachments on our territory have ceased.

"The success of this company's venture in Liberia is a celebrated example of how big business with a reasonable attitude can utilize its financial strength and technical skill to win the respect, confidence and friendship of the people of the country whose natural resources it has gained permission to exploit."

President Tubman also welcomed to Liberia the B. F. Goodrich Co. which recently was granted a concession to grow rubber there.

—o o o—

TO THE University of Akron, he said he hoped that its research in rubber would be made of still greater usefulness and that natural rubber will always have a greater demand than synthetic rubber even in Ohio and always yield big profits to large as well as small plantation owners.

His remarks about synthetic rubber drew laughter from some 1,500 persons at the convocation.

PARKWAY OPENED—Motorists began using the Washington - Baltimore expressway Saturday by passing the treacherous U.S. Route 1, which has a high accident rate. The new highway runs from Bladensburg Rd. NE to Russell St. in Baltimore with no traffic lights or towns to impede the trip.

A pair of scissors may have saved you

New highway linking Baltimore and D.C. is new lease on life

By JAMES WOOD

At 2 p.m., a Friday ago, motorists between Baltimore and Washington received a new lease on life.

It was then that the District Commissioners cut a ribbon on the new New York Ave. bridge in Washington, opening the 19-mile Federal section of the four-lane highway to Baltimore.

The 14-mile portion of the route built by the Maryland State Roads Commission from the cityline to the Jessup interchange was already in use.

—o o o—

THE RIBBON - cutting ceremonies gave motorists, for the first time since 1749, a decent highway between the District and Baltimore.

Call it what you may—The District calls their end a "parkway," and Maryland theirs an "expressway"— it's 33 miles of good driving, without a stop sign, redlight, town or crossroad.

The major difference — resulting in the Two names — is that trucks are allowed on the Maryland portion, while passenger cars only are allowed on the Federal end.

—o o o—

THE WHOLE project cost around $35,000,000—and anyone who has ever traveled the old Route 1 will say it was well worth it.

In the past, motorists on route to or from Washington, had to spray their way through eight towns, 37 stop signs, and a jungle of motels, gas stations, garages, taverns and billboards.

Route 1 had been dubbed "death highway," and at one time had an accident death rate of one a week.

—o o o—

IN THE PAST 12 years, 375 persons have been killed, 6,000 injured and more than 12,000 reported accidents have occurred between the Baltimore county line and the D.C. line.

Motorists still living to tell the tale—report taking nearly two hours to make the trip in the days when Route 1 was the only way.

But they've got a new lease on life now.

—o o o—

ON THE NEW parkway or expressway — suppose we just call it a highway—the distance between the two points can now be reached within 50 to 55 minutes, without exceeding the speed limit which ranges from 30 to 55 miles per hour.

In place of "the jungle," is nature at its best. In place of an undivided highway with no place to go, is a divided four-lane highway.

In 1749, a dirt road was opened between Baltimore Town and Georgetown. Though it later was paved and called Route 1, the improvement was nothing to shout about.

Now, some 205 years later, everybody's shouting about the new lease on life that a pair of scissors created on a crisp October Friday.

begins at 10 a.m. and seldom is she through before 11 p.m.

She starts out in the morning on her door-to-door canvassing of you, the housewife. After learning pertinent information such as your name, address, the number of young children you have, she asks permission to demonstrate the benefits of her product in your kitchen.

There, you make a "taste-test," comparing Carnation Milk with the brand you are using.

Her cheerful manner opens the door to many homes and she is loved by all children she comes in contact with. And no wonder: She has raised four of her own. By coincidence, they were all Carnation Milk babies!

—o o o—

IN SOME cases, her convassing entails a few minutes of baby-sitting while mother dashes to the store, or chases after a run-away youngster who takes a notion to explore his neighborhood. But, as Mrs. Pullen puts it, "it's all in a day's work."

If she hasn't visited your home yet, you probably have seen her in the afternoon, conducting a radio broadcast from your neighborhood grocery store, interviewing patrons and selling cans of Carnation Milk.

Or, if you belong to a church, civic or club organization, you have probably met Mrs. Pullen, in person, at some of your meetings. She is chiefly responsible, in most cases, for the coffee, hot chocolate, fudge and cookies you get.

—o o o—

ALL OF THE refreshments are made in her kitchen and she spends on the average of $100 a month for supplies.

Added to her busy schedule are the weekly tours she makes of clinics and hospitals, talking to mothers, explaining the benefits of evaporated milk over other forms of milk and especially promoting the qualities of Carnation Milk.

In short, Mrs. Pullen talks milk from sun up to sun down and she, . . oh, your doorbell is ringing now. Well here she is!

The Business Council set in vamp its operation and dues program, re-surveyed its constitution and appointed heads to several committees.

Husband fined for Sept. fracas

A husband who admitted that he had not returned home since Sept. 1 when he had an argument with his wife, was fined $25 and costs on Tuesday in Northwestern Police Court.

The fine was imposed by Magistrate E. Everett Lane on Benjamin Hawkins, 25, of the 1600 block E. Oliver St., who was charged with striking his wife, Mrs. Cora Hawkins of the 900 block Madison Ave., on Sept. 1.

A warrant was taken out for Hawkins' arrest on the same day as the alleged assault, but it was not served on him until Monday when Hawkins went to the office of the probation department in answer to a summons concerning the support of his two children.

Mrs. Hawkins testified at the hearing that her husband struck her when she questioned him over the alleged purchase of a watch for another woman. Hawkins denied striking his wife and said he left home "to avoid trouble."

Announce New Way to Relieve Pain of Arthritis and Rheumatism Without Pills!

Greaseless, odorless cream penetrates deep—speeds up flow of fresh, rich blood into sore areas—actually helps drive away pain-causing congestion and pressure.

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Science has now developed an odorless, greaseless cream that acts in a new way to bring a new kind of relief from pains of arthritis, rheumatism, and muscular aches and pains. This new cream relieves these pains without the need of taking pills and other internal medicines that may only upset the system.

Gently rubbed into painful areas, this cream penetrates so deep and completely that it actually vanishes. Quickly a comforting feeling of warmth develops and the whole painful area takes on a pleasing glow. This is striking evidence of the power of this cream to penetrate quickly and stimulate the circulation of the blood. This glow illustrates how it speeds up the flow of fresh, rich blood into the sore areas and actually helps drive away the pain-causing congestion and pressure.

146 British and French doctors are so satisfied with this new help for patients suffering from arthritis and rheumatism that they have prepared written reports of success based on hundreds of cases. Further, one of the leading arthritis and rheumatism clinicians in the United States has now confirmed the findings of these doctors.

Now for the first time this remarkable cream can be obtained without a prescription at drug stores throughout America—under the name InfraRUB®. The price of InfraRUB is only 98¢ for a large tube. InfraRUB is backed by the amazing guarantee that sufferers from the pains of arthritis, rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, neuralgia or muscle injuries or sprains will get hours and hours of comfort-relief or their money will be refunded in full.
