Harry A. Cole going for all the marbles

Young lawyer moves up to big league after stint in minors

If two-thirds of the registered colored voters in the Fourth Legislative District pull lever 5-A, Tuesday, Maryland will have its first colored State Senator.

Tuesday's the day they go for all the marbles in the various bids for local and state offices.

There's a young Republican—Harry A. Cole—who they say can draw a dead bead on an aggie (a choice marble) from a country mile.

—o o o—

IF THAT'S TRUE, looks like he may be walking off with all the marbles, when the judges release the results, Wednesday morning.

This is the first time that Harry has shot in the major league, but he has sharpened his eye with two close skirmishes in the minors.

Back in 1951, when he sought to knock a City Council seat out of the ring, his aim faltered by a mere 437 votes.

—o o o—

HIS FIRST encounter was in 1950, when the House of Delegates was the grand prize. He missed by 1,200 votes.

Harry has come a long way since then and on Tuesday, he'll be shooting for the big one—the State Senate.

A native of Washington, Harry has lived in Baltimore most of his life and was educated in the local elementary schools and Douglass High. He was graduated from Morgan State College with high honors in 1945.

—o o o—

HE DID A three-and-a-half year stint in the Army as a 1st Lieutenant, that took him to Europe and Asia with the Second, Third and Seventh Armies.

In 1949, he was graduated from the University of Maryland law school.

The 33-year-old lawyer is used to firsts, having been the first colored person appointed assistant Attorney General in Maryland. This was in May of '53.

THERE ARE roughly 23,000 registered colored voters in the Fourth District and 24,000 white.

Although Harry will undoubtedly receive votes from persons of both races, about 15,000 colored voters could get the job done.

The finals are being held all over the city, Tuesday. If two-thirds of the voters pull lever 5-A, Harry A. Cole will be in.

GOP is not 'war party' —Sherwood

Arthur W. Sherwood, Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth District, in a speech prepared for a television audience tonight (Friday) said that the record of the last two years disproves the notion that the GOP is a "war party."

"Under President Eisenhower," Sherwood said, "the war in Korea has been ended, a hot war in Indochina has been prevented, and we have played an effective role in ending the Communist power grab in Guatamala."

Sherwood also cited the work of Eisenhower's Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, in resolving the Saar question and establishing the western European Union.

Sherwood concluded: "In striking contrast to the picture under past Democratic administrations there is not one single total war, shooting war, or police action in the world today."

The speech by the Congressional candidate was part of a salute to Governor McKeldin, sponsored by the Frank Culotta Republican Club.

Women host to candidates

Supporting Governor McKeldin for re-election, the Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland heard candidates of both parties at a campaign brunch on Monday.

Among them were Fourth District hopefuls Harry A. Cole, Republican, for State Senate; Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, Republican, House of Delegates, and Truly Hatchett, Democrat, House of Delegates, who was represented by Josiah F. Henry Jr.

Also endorsed by the committee are Samuel Friedel, 7th District Democratic candidate for Congress who spoke; and Philip Goodman, 5th District Democratic candidate for State Senate.

—o o o—

GREETINGS WERE brought by Mrs. Catherine Kunze, coordinator, Women's Division, Democratic for McKeldin; Mrs. Pauline Brooks, president, Democratic Women of Mt. Winans, and Mrs. Beulah McClain, Democratic Women of Cherry Hill.

ANOTHER SPEAKER was Robert B. Watts, member of the NAACP Legal Redress Committee. Presentation of $100 to be divided between the national and local NAACP was made to Mrs. Lillie M. Jackson, NAACP president, by Mrs. Queenie Lane, vice president of the host group.

Assurance that ministers throughout the city are encouraging their church members to vote was given by the Rev. V. T. Williams and the Rev. Kelly M. Jackson.

—o o o—

THE COMMITTEE is urging support of all questions on the ballot except No. 10 which is the redistricting proposal. On Question No. 10, vote NO.

The committee slogan is "you Must Stand For Something Or You'll Fall For Anything."

Mrs. Victorine Adams, president, presided. Welcome to the 125 guests was extended by the Rev. M. C. Bascom, pastor of Douglas C. C. Church where the meeting was held; Mrs. Blanche Day, program chairman, and Henry Parks Jr., president of Parks Sausage Company which provided the brunch.

Harry Cole for State Senate.

For state legislature the coalition ticket includes Harley Brinsfield, Emory Cole Jr., J. Leslie Jones, Martin Venze, Mrs. Bertha Winston, all Republicans and Truly Hatchett, Democrat.

Coalition managers point out that despite the fact that J. Leslie Jones' name appears on the top line and Truly Hatchett's name directly underneath, levers over both names should be pulled down.

—o o o—

ON A DOOR to door campaign, new voters have been advised that even though they are registered as Democrats, this is a general election and they can vote for a Republican if they wish to do so.

Unaccustomed to voting machines, one new voter had the mistaken notion that simply pulling the lever over McKeldin's name meant a vote for the other candidates on the Republican ticket.

J. Millard Tawes, Democratic candidate for State Comptroller and the three sitting judges on the Supreme Bench have no opposition and will be automatically elected.

Across the top of the ballot in the voting machine are 20 questions.

The AFRO recommends that voters vote NO on question 10, which would redistrict the city and especially the Fourth District so that it would from now on make it impossible to elect a colored candidate for any office.

AFRO urges a YES vote on each of the other 19 questions except question 10.

Friedel to round out campaign

Congressman Samuel N. Friedel, seeking reelection as a Democrat in Maryland's 7th Congressional District, is rounding out appeal to the voters.

Mr. Friedel, who has spent 18 years in public life, in city, state and national government, has won praise from Democrats and Republicans alike, as a humanitarian working in behalf of the interests of all the people.

His entire record in the Congress to date shows that Mr. Friedel is "truly the people's representative," as he was so characterized by Democratic Whip John McCormack in the House of Representatives.

—o o o—

LABOR, business and professional circles, political club, civic leaders, and men and women from all walks of life have publicly endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Friedel.

He has also met a number of voters in both parties who have pledged their support, and in quite a number of cases, coming to his offices to assist in the distribution of campaign literature, outlining in detail the record that has been established by him to date.

Monday morning, Oct. 25, Mr. Friedel was guest of the Colored Women's Democratic Club, Madison and Lafayette Aves at a "Brunch."

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED!!

The bigotry unleashed in this election is Maryland's shame. It is the shame, not just of the Democratic party, but of all our citizens.

Let there be no mistake. On election day, we reach the crossroads.

We, the Republican candidates from the 5th Legislative District of Baltimore City, denounce this bigotry. We call upon all men of good will, who honor their birth right, to use their vote to join us.

POLITICS

Republican Viewpoint

By HARRY A. COLE

On October 25, The Sun paper reported James H. Pollack as saying that he deplored Senator Della's statement advocating white supremacy.

Certainly, every decent, law abiding American should frown upon such activity at any time, especially during a political campaign.

However, Mr. Pollack has a conveniently short memory or he lacks the quality of shame.

—o o o—

CAN HE so easily forget how members of his party circulated all types of scurrilous and race-baiting literature in the white neighborhoods of the Fourth District in the campaigns of 1950 and 1951, telling those voters to vote against colored candidates irrespective of qualifications?

Can he deny that this has been one of his favorite tactics in winning elections in this district?

Mr. Pollack has found it inopportune to recall because, despite the fact that he opposed Truly Hatchett in the primary, he has been forced to accept him on his ticket (at least carry his name).

It is evident that he didn't even want to carry his name until the AFRO - AMERICAN newspapers carried a picture of one of his signs which still carried the name of a defeated candidate.

—o o o—

IT SHOULD be pointed out clearly that Mr. Pollack has employed the same tactics which he deplores on the part of Senator Della in this campaign.

This time instead of having just one candidate in the Fourth Democratic race for State Senate, Mr. Pollack has two. His regular candidate is Mr. Melnicove; his other "candidate" is one Calvin Douglass.

Mr. Douglass is a lawyer who served as an assistant city solicitor and received his appointment upon the recommendation of Mr. Pollack.

Mr. Douglass has been a devoted member of the Pollack organization for many years and announced in the AFRO-AMERICAN that he had filed for the State Senate as an independent candidate solely to split the colored vote to the end that Mr. Melnicove might be re-elected.

This was Mr. Pollack's maneuver and he has seen this maneuver turn out to be his greatest political blunder.

—o o o—

FOR MANY people have criticized the activities of the Pollack machine and justly so. It has not contributed to the economic, social, and political progress of the Fourth District community.

In fact, it has proven to be the source of many ills.

It is no wonder, therefore, that the colored populace has tired of the many insults made to them by the Pollack machine and some of those like Senator Della who pretend at real leadership. Certainly, they might be more aptly described as misleaders.

—o o o—

MR. POLLACK, himself of a minority group, should understand that there are types of pride which transcend partisan politics. There are nobler causes than party allegiance.

"I'm sure even he wouldn't vote for his executive because he was a Democrat. I am proud that the church has seen fit to inject Christian leadership into this campaign. Certainly there is a very great moral issue to be determined.

Mr. Pollack and Senator Della may have their personal differences but in politics they are "birds" of a feather. It is hardly a secret that Mr. Melnicove is committed to vote for Senator Della as the next president of the Senate, in return for Mr. Melnicove's appointment to the Legislative Council.

It is no secret that Mr. Melnicove is Mr. Pollack's handpicked candidate. He knows that I would never cast a vote for Senator Della; the man has made public statements which show that he lacks candor, tolerance, and understanding for the many problems which beset this era of enlightenment.

—o o o—

I MIGHT say that Mr. Pollack is unquestionably wrong when he says that I have advanced the race issue as a reason for voting for me.

I have stated many times and do again for the record that any candidate for public office should first be qualified to serve.

He should be committed to serve no bosses such as Mr. Pollack but dedicated to serve in the best interests of all the people of his constituency.

He should not favor his ethnic group to the detriment of others. Mr. Pollack knows that Mr. Melnicove has not met this standard. Mr. Melnicove is one of the "Thoys" in the Pollack machine and Pollack's wish is his command.

Mr. Pollack may have a bad memory, but I think he ought to be ashamed.

Democratic Viewpoint

By ROBERT B. WATTS

Come Tuesday and every registered voter should be at the polls, and above all, encouraging others to go.

Nothing, absolutely nothing, should prevent any voter from casting his ballot on that day.

Certainly the statement of Senator Della crying for white supremacy should bestir us to the extent we get smart and cast our vote down to the last man.

In this way, and in this way only, can we prevent these irresponsible outbursts. Once our vote has reached its deserved potential. No candidate would dare make such statements.

—o o o—

SINCE THIS IS my last article prior to the election I want to recommend certain candidates to the voters. Of course I am urging all to vote for Theodore R. McKeldin for Governor.

In the Fourth District, I recommend George Fallon for Congress and I endorse Harry A. Cole for State Senate.

For the House of Delegates I endorse Truly Hatchett and Jerome Robinson.

Jerome Robinson has done a terrific job and although he has certain political associations which I don't favor, I feel that his tremendous record deserves our vote.

In the Fifth District I recommend for State Senator, my good friend and liberal Phillip Goodman. Phil came out strongly against the statement of Senator Della and has championed our cause in the City Council.

—o o o—

FOR THE House of Delegates I endorse Carl Barbarach, Maurice Cardin and Marvin Mandel and the entire Democratic slate.

For State's Attorney, I heartily endorse Anselm Sedaro and urge everyone to make a special effort to reelect this militant, capable fearless State's Attorney.

Out in Baltimore County, I endorse the entire Democratic ticket with particular emphasis on "Mike" Birmingham, John Granson Turnbull, John E. Raine and Gordon Boone. I have met both privately and publicly with these men and without hesitation endorse them.

—o o o—

GORDON BOONE has done a tremendous job as a member of the House of Delegates, helping Morgan College as if he were an alumnus, John E. Raine is capable, fearless, honest and above all a man with a heart of gold. He is one of the most capable State's Attorneys in the entire state and one of the fairest.

In the new Seventh District, Samuel Friedel should be re-elected. He has been friend to all segments of the community and has been most sympathetic to our cause.

The men I have mentioned deserve in my humble opinion special consideration. Other than Theodore R. McKeldin and Harry A. Cole, I have adjocated Democrats.

I recommend George Fallon because I feel the plight of the working man will be best served by a Democratic Congress and not because I am impressed with his record.

—o o o—

IN THE FOURTH District, Calvin Douglass is a candidate for the State Senate and I urge all voters to spread the word that Mr. Douglass is not a bona fide candidate but is in the race only to divide our votes.

Certainly we should not be fooled with such schemes and chicanery.

Don't be fooled into believing you are playing the race issue when you vote for Cole and Hatchett for both are qualified, and we should not forget the opposition's trick in previous elections of telling voters not to vote for colored candidates. Wasn't this the race issue?

Most of all, don't forget to vote and to make yourself a committee of one to get your friends and neighbors out to vote.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Find Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. ®Trade Mark.

"We're trying to see what the people want and how they feel," one of the Republican candidates said.

"We are not tied to any boss," said another.

"If anyone wants to meet with us or have any of us speak to any group, we would be happy to do so," said another.
