Late hubby gets 'lye' from wife

A 32-year-old housewife, who allegedly threw a can of lye water in her husband's face when he came home late, was ordered held in bail of $1,000 Tuesday at Northeastern police court pending a further hearing.

Magistrate Samuel Gaboff set bail for Mrs. Evelyn Bennett of the 1400 block Tin Pin Alley after she entered a plea of not guilty.

Her husband, Joseph, was admitted to Johns Hopins Hopkins with minor burns about the face and arms. The hearing was delayed until Saturday pending his release from the hospital.

24-Hour Guard For Postman Bowles Assaulted

Threats made after charge against Bowles

NAAWP head, free under $300 bond, faces trial Monday

WASHINGTON

Police Capt. H. F. Maury of Precinct 14 said on Thursday afternoon that he had placed a 24-hour guard around the home of Postman Roscoe V. Cooper, who has charged NAAWP head Bryant W. Bowles with assault.

Eugene Davidson, president of the local NAACP, and Roy Garvin, attorney for the branch, said the NAACP requested police protection for Mr. and Mrs. Cooper after the couple received threatening telephone calls. Asked about the calls, Mr. Cooper said: "My wife has received them, not me. She's worried right now. I just want somebody to protect her."

Mr. Cooper made the state-

Fourth Dist.

- Senses GOP sweep election of coalition
- Urges voters vote 'No' on Question 10

Fourth District Republican leaders, sensing a McKeldin sweep, that will carry their candidates along with him, declare they have the best opportunity for many years to elect Republicans to the State Senate and legislature.

As they see it, there are 46,346 registered voters in the district. More than 50 per cent of these are colored.

They estimate 5,000 colored voters in the 17th ward, 8,900 in the 15th ward, 5,200 in the 14th ward, and 4,000 in the 13th ward.

—o o o—

RECENT registrations in the district gave colored Democrats a slight edge over colored Republicans.

The Republican coalition ticket for the state legislature in the fourth district includes

Stop Pollack

(An Editorial)

Bernie Melnicove's publication of a 4-page tabloid newspaper under the heading "Afro Democrat" indicates how desperately afraid he is of losing his seat in the State Senate to Harry Cole.

Only such desperation and fear would cause him to stoop to the deceitful stratagem of misusing the trade mark name "Afro" in connection with a publication issued by him designed to fool the people.

Bernie has made a good State Senator, but Harry Cole will make a better one.

Harry Cole is not tied up with the Pollack crowd which makes it a habit of distributing deceit circulars on poisoned pen hand bills regularly one or two days before the election with the hope that they will not be answered.

While the good citizens of the city are rebuking the Dellas and Turners who advocate an outmoded white supremacy, it is time they attended also to the Pollacks and the Melnicoves who issue deceitful circulars at the last minute in an attempt to mislead and confuse the voters.

Mr. Melnicove's "Afro Democrat" is a deliberate and unwarranted use of the Afro name to advance his political fortunes.

It is a new low in politics for him or for Pollack and will fool nobody.

The AFRO urges the election of Theodore McKeldin and Harry Cole.

A dirty trick!

- Bernard uses Afro name to fool voters
- Flood of deceit bills flows over state

A four-page tabloid, carrying the misleading title, "The Afro Democrat," and seeking to persuade colored voters in the Fourth District to vote for State Senator Bernard S. Melnicove has bitterly angered many leaders in the area.

The pamphlet seeks to create the impression that Melnicove has the backing of the NAACP, the Urban League, the AFRO-AMERICAN, the Morgan Alumni Association, and the Maryland Teachers Association.

Spokesmen for all of these organizations were prompt in repudiating the Melnicove "deceit folder" as a despicable trick and without exception asserted that they were throwing the support of their organizations to Harry A. Cole, Republican candidate for the State Senate seat now held by Melnicove.

Below are the statements of some of the persons whose names were used without authorization by the Melnicove organization in an effort to fool Fourth District voters:

Mrs. Lillie Jackson, president of the Baltimore branch of the NAACP, issued a statement Friday.

"The association is not in politics. I regret Mr. Pollack has issued a deceit pamphlet to give the impression the NAACP or the AFRO is behind Mr. Melnicove.

"Mr. Melnicove was cited by the association in 1947. This is 1954. We resent Mr. Melnicove's dragging the NAACP into his political campaign.

"This act of Mr. Melnicove is ungodly, unmoral and unjust."

Since the question has been raised, personally I am supporting Harry Cole and Governor McKeldin.

Beware of Hallow'een masks warns fire chief

Battalion Chief John Killen, in charge of the Fire Prevention Dept., urges all parents and children to be careful in purchasing Halloween masks this year.

Masks made of paper and celluloid are inflammable and will burst into flames immediately causing serious injuries, he warned.

CLOTH MASKS are safer.

Baltimoreans literally went to the dogs last week as results of a front page story in the Oct. 23 edition of the AFRO-AMERICAN.

Nearly 100 adults and children flocked to the Municipal Animal Shelter, 222 N. Calvert St, to inquire about adopting the four cute eight-week-old puppies pictured in this paper last week.

Joseph McGuire, clerk at the shelter, said that the puppies, plus 14 other dogs found new homes by noon, Saturday.

—o o o—

"WE WERE turning so many people away, you would have thought we were having bargain day out here," he said.

His only regret was "We didn't have enough puppies and dogs to go around." But he added, "We'll have more within the next six weeks."

Those of you who are interested in adopting a dog, or puppy, check with the shelter and Mr. McGuire or Williams Heinekamp, superintendent, will keep you informed.

NYC ticker tape greets President

By JAMES C. HICKS

NEW YORK, N.Y.—New York, a city which belongs to the world, welcomed one of its foreign sons Thursday as a lunchtime crowd of 500,000 thundered a ticker tape welcome up Broadway to President W. V. S. Tubman of Liberia.

Following the parade which was led by marching units of the armed forces and the New York City Fire and Sanitation Departments, Mr. Tubman was welcomed by Mayor Robert F. Wagner as a man who "is no stranger to us because he is a descendant of residents of America and many of our people are descendants of residents of Liberia."

Mayor Wagner then presented Mr. Tubman with the city's medal of honor for distinguished visitors and he was then whisked away in a Cadillac motorcade uptown to the Waldorf-Astoria hotel where he was guest of the city at an official luncheon in the Empire Room.

THERE, DR. CHANNING H. Tobias, NAACP board chairman, in a masterful speech linked colored Americans with the people of Liberia in the way they both today are pursuing two words:

Dr. Tobias said colored peo-

Mrs. Winston's platform should appeal to women

"NOW TRY OUR BRAND"—Mrs. Madeline Pullen, consumer specialist for Carnation Evaporated Milk Co., tells housewife, Mrs. George Henderson, 618 N. Mount St. Mother of three small children, Mrs. Henderson is one of the many housewives who have sampled Mrs. Pullen's "taste-test" of Carnation Milk.

No stranger to politics is Mrs. Bertha C. Winston, candidate for the House of Delegates in the Fourth Legislative District.

For that reason, she is asking the voters' support on a platform which is sincere, practical, high-minded and incidentally, of particular appeal to women.

On behalf of working women, she favors a law to increase the State minimum wage of 40 cents an hour; to match the Federal law which requires a minimum wage of 75 cents.

Mrs. Winston wants women placed in jobs in every department of the state government, where they can qualify.

—o o o—

SHE WANTS increased aid for education, to assure "full time classes, with a seat and desk for every child."

She favors slum clearance programs, with the assurance that every family forced to move will be given assistance in finding new quarters, and the privilege of returning to the newly built project if they want to.

From her experience as the wife of a minister, Mrs. Winston suggests religious worship in public schools as an aid to reducing juvenile delinquency.

SHE WILL push legislation to provide needed facilities for the aged, and the chronically ill; for youngsters committed to welfare department care; for the treatment of mental diseases and alcoholics.

Being closely aligned with many outstanding civic and church organizations, Mrs. Winston's platform conscientiously reflects her high Christian and good-government principles.

Fourth District voters should pull down lever 10A on Nov. 2, and send Mrs. Winston to the House of Delegates.

MRS. BERTHA WINSTON

McKeldin For Governor

(AN EDITORIAL)

The AFRO urges its readers to go to the polls Tuesday and re-elect Theodore R. McKeldin as governor of Maryland.

As a young man in his forties, he made a good mayor of Baltimore City.

Elected governor in 1950 by a 90,000 vote margin, he has given the state outstanding leadership.

In his fifty-fourth year, thoroughly ripened by experience and at the height of his mental and physical powers, it is natural that voters should turn to him rather than his opponent, Dr. H. C. Byrd, who is untried in political office or in government.

—o o o—

CITIZENS in every walk of life know McKeldin, his good character, his courage, his tremendous energy, his family life, his pleasant manners, his humble beginnings, his stubborn insistence that common people be treated with dignity and decency, and respected as citizens.

Where courage is required in speaking to the Hotel Owners Associations, the Board of Education, the National Conference of Christians and Jews, or to the Legislature, Governor McKeldin has courage.

Of the Supreme Court's decision, he says, "Maryland prides itself on being a law abiding state. I am sure our citizens and our officials will accept the Supreme Court's interpretation of our fundamental law." That is McKeldin in character.

IN CHURCHES, Catholic and Protestant, synagogues, lodge Halls, civic clubs all over the state, McKeldin has been a welcome speaker who charged no fees for the
