Communist atheism threatens the church

You can save christianity, heed 'return-to-God' plea

By REV. J. L. MOORE

Pastor, Sharon Baptist Church

(Editor's note: The Rev. Mr. Moore, secretary of the committee for the Back-to Church Movement, explains, in the following article, the necessity of families to turn to God.)

Some years ago, an article appeared in a national magazine under the title, "The Church Did It."

In this article, the noted mathematician, Albert Einstein, was quoted concerning the contribution of the Christian Church to Germany when "Hitlerism" was in ascendency. The doctor's statement was this:

"When Hitlerism came to Germany, I expected the universities to oppose it, but they accepted it. The press, instead of denouncing it, propagated its teachings.

"One by one, the leaders and institutions who should have stood out in opposition, bowed meekly to its authority. Only one institution met with vigorous opposition and that was the Christian Church."

Then he concluded: "That which I once despised, I now love with a passion I cannot describe."

o o o o o

WHO COULD deny that from the fidelity of such faithful Christian leaders in Germany has come to the rebirth of Christianity, so evident there on both sides of the Iron Curtain.

The faithfulness of a few has saved that which the recklessness of millions would have destroyed forever.

In the world today are many forces hostile to christianity and the Church. The most powerful force, however, is atheistic Communism.

o o o o o

IT DECLARES war on all religions. It attempts to control the human spirit. It denies God and defies man.

Communism speaks of a collective society but maintains a merciless attitude toward the individual person. It denies the worth of each individual; the value of the soul; the freedom of conscience.

The finished work of Communism is to deny the great truths that wake up the Christian revelation. Wherever it prevails, nothing is left to prevent the return to slavery, to mass exploitation, to the use of unbridled force.

o o o o —

MAN IS transformed into a mechanism with no time left to concentrate upon the meaning of his existence.

The church and christianity has waged a relentless war against these forces. The church affirms the intrinsic worth of every individual—his right to the abundant life, his true freedom.

The church insists that any organized society must always have in view the value, the dignity, and the happiness of every person.

The chaos, misery, anxiety, hate, suspicion and antagonism that are making the world a nightmare of fear are traceable to the loss of a vital conviction in a righteous sovereign God who loves His Fallen Children and has laid His child.

o o o o —

A GREAT preacher once described himself as a man seut from God to persuade men to make Christ the center of their fellowship. What a description of the task of the church today!

"To persuade men to make Christ the center of their fellowship."

Feeling the urgency to translate into action God's yearning for the redemption of the whole world, the interdenominational Alliance and the Afro-urge you to attend the church of your choice.

"If you mourn and need comfort; if you are weary and need rest; if you are friendless and want friendship; if you are homeless and want sheltering love; if you pray and if you do not, but ought; if you sin and need a savior . . . the church opens wide its door."

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the church says, "Come and make Christ the center of your fellowship," for Christ is with His Church and getting to know him is Christianity.

Ministers see needs at Crownsville

An interfaith interracial group of ministers from the Eastern Shore made a tour of Crownsville State Hospital on Thursday.

The tour was a part of their Institute on Religion and Metal Health being sponsored by the Mental Hygiene Society, the Council of Churches, the Dorchester County Ministerial Association and the Eastern Shore State Hospital.

o o o o —

CROWNSVILLE facilities were described as "hopelessly inadequate" in the recent Anne Arundel County grand jury report. The children's ward was called "a disgrace to the state."

The report noted that 2,540 patients are crowded into facilities intended to accommodate 1,900 and that 309 children are being cared for in quarters designed for only 200.

It pointed out that "The equipment shortage in the children's ward is appalling. Noted particularly was a scarcity of clothing."

o o o o —

DR. ARNOLD EICHERT, superintendent of the institution, agrees with these criticisms pointing out that the proposal to transfer 300 children from Crownsville to the more adequate Rosewood Training School has been blocked by court action of opposition groups.

The American Psychiatric Association and the American Hospital Association both recently refused to accredit Crownsville Hospital as an approved institution for care of the mentally ill because of its inadequacies.
