Bratton-Varona TV go matches puncher, boxer

NEW YORK—Johnny Bratton, of Chicago, the former NBA welterweight champion, and Chico Varona, of Havana, the world's sixth ranking welterweight, will feature Monday night's St. Nick's Arena boxing card.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be televised over the DuMont network at approximately 10 p.m. (EST).

The bout shapes up as one of exceptional interest since it pairs a great puncher in Varona with a crafty boxer, as well as a hard hitter, in Bratton.

—o O o—

BOTH HAVE compiled great kayo records. Varona has bowled over 33 of 71 men he faced in the ring while Bratton has put 32 of a total of 84 opponents to sleep.

Chico outscored Frankie Fernandez at St. Nick's two months ago in one of the most thrilling bouts seen in years. Ray Miller, who refereed the match, didn't have to part the boxers at any time during the entire 30 minutes of fighting.

—o O o—

BRATTON IS A picture fighter. He can do most anything with a pair of gloved fists. His only drawback has been a pair of brittle hands but Johnny claims they are well calloused and he hopes to fight his way to another crack at Kid Gavilan.

Varonia's best victories were scored over Vince Turpin, Danny Womber, conqueror of Kid Gavilan, Charley Spicer, Tommy Armenteros, Bobby Lee, Walter Haines and Sixto Gonzales, the latter for the Cuban welterweight title.

Bratton's outstanding wins were over Del Flanagan, Joe Micelli, Pierre Langloit, Danny Womber, Freddie Dawson, Daurent Dauthuille, Bobby Dykes and Tuzo Portugeeze.

Fate unkind to Dunbar Hi

Coach Bill (Sugar) Cain might well complain about the mean tricks that have been played by Fate on his Dunbar High School eleven, if he were a man disposed to that sort of thing.

Cain and his Poet footballers were in Washington, D.C., yesterday (Thursday) to tangle with a formidable Armstrong High School eleven, in the second straight game in which the unexpected had upset his plans.

He did get relief here, however when Armstrong principal, William Buckner, cancelled the game because of the prospect of poor attendance.

—o O o—

IN THE FIRST place, Dunbar played a game in the teeth of last Friday's Hurricane Hazel, and was lucky to come out of it with a 6-6 tie against a Bates (Annapolis) outfit over which the Poets had been heavily favored.

In the second place, the Cainmen were required to move up the Armstrong game by one day due to the fact the Generals would have been unable to obtain a stadium had the contest been played today (Friday) as scheduled.

And in the third place, the Poet coach was compelled to pass up Monday's Carver-Douglass clash — which he was understandably anxious to scout—because of the need for a practice by his East Baltimore charges.

—o O o—

LAST FRIDAY'S tiff with Bates was supposed to have been called off when Baltimore school officials ordered precautionary measures to be taken in the face of the storm danger.

However, the Bates team had already left Annapolis and could not be contacted. Upon arrival here, the visitors explained that they would be unable to come back to fill a postponement, so the contest went on.

An intercepted pass and touchdown in the second quarter, gave Bates a 6-0 lead and the Poets spent the remainder of the afternoon trying to catch up in the rain and wind and mud of Hazel.

The Dunbar prayers were answered in the last minute, when James Tanner blocked a Bates kick and the Poets recovered on the 18. Five plays later, fullback Eddie Beauford crashed over from two yards out.

Six seconds later the gun went off to end the game.

Turner beaten in video bout

BROOKLYN — Jesse Turner, St. Louis middleweight contender who has yet to live up to the prestige he won last year by beating Norman Hayes and knocking out Terry Moore, lost an unanimous 10 - round TV decision to Paddy Young, of New York here at Eastern Parkway Monday night.

Except for the second round, when he staggered his opponent with a heavy left to the head, Turner did little in the way of effective punching. It was during this second heat, his best of the evening, that Jesse dealt Paddy a gash on the nose that caused Referee Harry Ebbets to request medical advice.

Turner absorbed a series of hooks, for which Paddy is famed and twice appeared to be in serious trouble. He himself was cut over the left eye in the sixth round.

—o O o—

DR. SAMUEL SWETNICK, State Athletic Commission doctor in attendance at the ringside, examined Turner's eye as he had Young's nose earlier. Because of the flow of blood, the medic was back in the ring after the ninth round to take another look at the optic.

Young shook Turner with one of his left hooks in the fourth and again in the sixth. On both occasions, it looked as though Turner was in bad shape, but he weathered the storms.

Ebbets scored the fight: 8-1-1 for Young; judge Artie Schwartz saw it 6-3-1 and Judge Bobby Dawson tallied it 5-4-1 for the New York Irishman.

Buddy Young on library program

Buddy Young, star player for the Baltimore Colts, will be the guest speaker Oct. 28 at the first free "movie night" for teenagers to be held this season in the Pennsylvania Ave. Branch of the Pratt Library.

In addition to Mr. Young, who will discuss football and answer questions, a film entitled, "Football Highlights" will be shown.

The program is set for 8 p.m. in the library's auditorium at North and Pennsylvania Aves. Students in grades 9 through 12 are invited to attend. Free tickets may be obtained at the library.

—o O o—

LATER FILM showings are scheduled as follows:

Thursday, Nov. 4, 8 p.m.—"Date Etiquette"; "Are You Ready for Marriage?"; "What Makes a Good Party?"

Thursday, Nov. 11, 8 p.m.—"It's Fun to Sing"; "Song of the Prairer"; "To Hear Your Banjo Play";

Miss Hohann Klick, young people's librarian is program chairman. Miss Janet Stevens is branch librarian.

LeDroit Park five plans busy season

WASHINGTON

The LeDroit Park Falcons met recently at Howard Playground to plan for a busy basketball season.

Ducks come from behind to defeat Trainers, 12-7

Both teams benefit by breaks in opeing game of city grid series

TODAY'S GAMES
Carver At Cardozo (D.C.)
Bates at Douglass (Morgan)

Douglass High School came from behind a 7-0 halftime deficit to take the measure of Carver Vocational High in the opening game of the city scholastic football series ot Druid Hill Park Monday afternoon.

The final score was 12-7.

Breaks played a major part in the outcome of the contest, one of several schoolboy tilts postponed from Friday because of the hurricane.

—o O o—

CARVER'S BREAK came first, enabling Coach Sodie White's lads to go in front in the second quarter.

It occurred when Gabe Bell, a Trainer end, was interfered with whiile attempting to take a pass from quarterback Charley Butler in the end zone. Officials ruled that Douglass defender Louis Gross had committed the infraction and gave Carver the ball on the one-yard line.

On the next play, Butler drove into pay dirt on a quarterback sneak. Johnson Davis booted the extra point to make it 7-0.

The Trainers had threatened earlier, also in a break in the game. A fumbled punt was recovered by Carver at midfield in the late stages of the first quarter and the ensuing drive had carried to the 1, before stalling.

—o O o—

SHORTLY AFTER play was resumed following the halftime intermission, Douglass guard John Holt broke through to block a punt attempt by Carver's Davis. The loose ball was recovered by Howard Gaskins to give the Ducks possession on their rival's six-yard line.

A third-down pass from quarterback Don Mitchner to end John Manning netted the Douglass TD. The conversion attempt was missed and they were still playing catch-up.

—o O o—

THE SECOND Duck break came about in the final period when Carver defenders became entangled among themselves and permitted a Douglass pass-receiver to race unmolested to the goal line.

Taking possession on the Trainer 49, Mitcher found he was making little progress on the ground, so went to the air. After one 12-yard aerial gain, the Duck signal-caller tossed a 15-yarder to Bobby Owens.

Owens caught the ball on the 30 and appeared bottled up by Carver's Will Webster and Eddie Johnson. However, Cornelius Bivins, a teammate, rushed in to try the tackle on Owens, inadvertently hit Webster and bowled him into Johnson.

Result was that all three Carver defenders wound up on the ground and Owens, after a momentary deflection, was able to continue to payoff territory.

—o O o—

THE VICTORY was the first for Douglass and left Carver still searching for her first win of the season. Douglass is now 1-3 and Carver 0-3 in the campaign.

The Ducks meet Bates High of Annapolis today (Friday) at Morgan College. The Trainers in the meantime will be in Washington for a test with unbeaten Cardozo High in the latter's homecoming.

George Crowe recalled by Milwaukee

TOLEDO, Ohio (ANP)—George Crowe, 31-year-old RBI champion in the American association, appears to have won another shot with the Milwaukee Braves.

The left - handed hitting first baseman was repurchased by the Braves from their Toledo farm club last week.

Crowe has had two previous bids in the majors. In 1952, he was part - time first baseman with the Braves before the club moved from Boston to Milwaukee. The following season at Milwaukee he hit 286 in 47 games, mostly in pinch - hitting roles.

For the old Milwaukee Brewers in 1951, Crowe led the American association in base hits, 189, and RBIs, 119.

This past season with Toledo George finished second in batting with a .334 mark. He paced the circuit in runs batted in, 128, also in hits, 197, and was tied for second in home runs with 34, only four less than these swatted by the league leader.

Second sports clinic held for recreation leaders

Men whose names once made sports headlines lead the Sports Clinic of the Institute for Volunteer Recreation Leaders in their second session Wednesday at Clifton Park Junior High School.

Albert H. Whetle, former head of the Amateur Athletic Union and now a member of the United States Olympic Committee, spoke to the group on "Athletics with a Purpose."

Frank Skaff, first base coach for the Orioles and a former major league player, conducted the accompanying workshop and also demonstrated to volunteer coaches the essentials of teaching sports.

—o O o—

FIVE OTHER workshop are running concurrently with the Sports Clinic. Arts and Crafts are being led by Miss Catherine Douglas, supervisor of arts and crafts, Bureau of Recreation.

George Meekins, square dance instructor, Bureau of Recreation's is conducting the art of tion's is conducting the art of teaching square dances and round dances.

"Storytelling as a Folk Art" is the title of the workshop headed by Miss Isabella Jinnette, assistant coordinator of Work with Children, Enoch Pratt Free Library.

—o O o—

THE PROGRAM Clinic For Working with Teen Agers" is led by Charles Kujawa, Metropolitan Boys' Work and Camping Secretary, YMCA.

The discussion on Golden Age Club programming is under the guidance of Miss Mary Clark, senior recreation leader, Somerset housing project.

The Institute, which is being sponsored by the Division of Recreational and Educational Agencies of the Council of Social Agencies, has a present enrollment of 140 volunteer leaders.

Meetings will be held on successive Wednesday evenings through Nov. 17.

HISTORIC RECORD SET BY MILDER LOWER-PRICED OLD CROW!

Introduction of lighter, 86 Proof bottling as a companion to the world-famous 100 Proof Bottled in Bond brings forth unprecedented public demand!

Never before has a milder, lower proof bourbon of Old Crow's prestige and quality been offered at a popular price...and never before has the demand for any brand of whiskey climbed to such great heights so quickly. Your enthusiastic response to this introduction of 86 Proof Old Crow as a companion to the 100 Proof Bottled in Bond is a tribute to the fame and quality of a bourbon favored long ago by such illustrious men as Daniel Webster, Henry Clay and Mark Twain.

Old Crow has graced the tables and taverns of America for more than a century. It was carried west by pioneers in their wagon trains. In the east and throughout the land, political victories were toasted with James Crow's magnificent bourbon, and in the south it was deemed an essential ingredient to many a social gathering.

Today, the reception which you have accorded the lighter, milder, 86 Proof bottling of Old Crow proves again that Americans recognize in Old Crow, now as always, the finest Kentucky bourbon ever put into glass.

BUSH — In memory of my beloved Husband and devoted father, WILLIE who passed away October 21, 1951:
Gone is the one we loved so dear,
Silenced is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for speech
But not too far for thought to reach.
Loving WIFE AND DAUGHTER, FANNIE AND BEULAH.

LOCKS—MAGGIE M. In loving memory of our dear mother MAGGIE M., who departed this life ten years ago, October 22, 1944:
October brings sad memories
Of our loved one gone to rest
Who will never be forgotten
By us who loved her best.
Devoted Children MADELYN, LILLIAN and CARL.

LYLES—A tribute of love to our dear wife and mother, DEPSY, who passed away, October 23, 1949:
The depth of sorrow we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while she sleeps in peaceful sleep
Her loving memory we shall always keep.
Gone but not forgotten.
Devoted Husband, REV. ROMIE LYLES
Loving Daughter, NAOMI E. HURT
Devoted Adopted son, CALVERT LYLES

PEYTON—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, ULYSSES PEYTON, who passed away October 27, 1952:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance, dear of you.
Loving Wife, MARIE
Daughter, MILDRED

REDDRICKS—In loving memory of our dear mother, ROSA, who departed this life, October 19, 1932:
GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
Daughters, LEAH REDDRICKS, LAURA BEAN

WARD—In loving memory of our dear mother, HATTIE L. who departed this life October 22, 1953:
Dear Mother, you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more.
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.
Devoted CHILDREN AND FAMILY

WATKINS—In loving memory of PINKIE C. WATKINS, who passed away eleven years ago, October 22, 1943:
Eleven years have passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away
God took her home, it was His will
Within our hearts she liveth still.
Her Loving Children JOHN and MARY

WATTS—In loving memory of our dear sister, MARGARET, who passed away, October 23, 1949:
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once sat there.
Her Sisters EVELYN HALL, MABEL REED
