ASSOCIATION OFFICERS are the Reverends W. D. Leighton, moderator; E. W. White, moderator emeritus; J. S. McFarlin, first vice moderator; J. E. Perry, recording secretary; C. C. Alexander, corresponding secretary and A. Jones Fox, treasurer.

General theme of the convention is: "The Church as a Factor in Evangelism."

Featured during the sessions will be sermons by the Rev. Leroda J. Green; J. E. Harlee; J. M. Brackett, A. F. Townsend, J. H. Tuggle, S. S. Brown, M. Long and W. D. Leighton, moderator.

Funeral held for John Wesley Jones

Aurhor H. Williams, a former resident of Mt. Winans, died at his home on June 1. He lived at 1721 McKean Ave. He was a former member of Star of Bethlehem A.M.E. Church and was a member of the Mt. Winans baseball team.

He is survived by Mrs. Marie S. Williams, wife; Robert J. Williams, son; Eddie Williams, brother; and Mrs. Geneva Wesley, aunt.

Funeral services were held at Ebenezer A.M.E. Church, the Rev. M. Thompson delivered the eulogy.

Manning re-elected by veterans affairs group

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — Richard C. Manning, State director of veterans affairs for Maryland since 1939, was re-elected vice president of the National Association of Veterans Affairs for 15 states and Puerto Rico at the association's conference held recently in Charleston.

Thomas A. Nash dies of stroke

Thomas Albert Nash, 75, S Winters Ave., Catonsville, died Monday at his residence following a stroke. According to his son, Albert C. Nash, 1300 Summit St. in Catonsville.

"Dad suffered from a bad heart. He was able to be up and around but he had to be careful."

* * *

IN ADDITION to his son, Mr. Nash is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edith Nash; two sisters and one brother.

Funeral services will be held today (Friday) at the Higginbotham Funeral Home in Ellicott City. The Rev. Russell Sapp, pastor of Ellicott City Methodist Church, will deliver the eulogy.

Mrs. Peterson dies at 70

After an illness of three years, Mrs. Lavinia Peterson died at 70 years of age Friday in a local convalescent home.

A life-long resident of Baltimore, she was educated in the city school system. She was formerly a member of Sharp St. A.M.E. Church.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Florence Borron, and a niece, Mrs. Catherine Henry.

FUNERAL SERVICES were held Wednesday at the Katie Williams Funeral Home. The Rev. I. M. Gray, pastor of St. John A.M.E. Church, delivered the eulogy. Burial was in Arbutus Cemetery.

Atlanta prof dies suddenly

ATLANTA, Ga.—Dr. Vishnu D. Gokhale, chairman of the department of mathematics at Atlanta University, died suddenly recently in Atlanta.

President Rufus E. Clement of Atlanta University conducted the funeral services which were held in the Greenwood Cemetery. Dr. Gokhale was 54.

Dr. Gokhale had been a member of the Atlanta University faculty since 1950.

Woman struck by bolt of lightning

AIKEN, S.C. — Mrs. Frances Cummings, 37, received token injuries when struck by lightning during a thunderstorm May 31.

She told Aiken Hospital authorities that a bolt struck her while she was in the kitchen of her home. She said it struck a pedal of the stove, splitting it and killing several chickens.

Three schools top others in annual clean-up drive

The Harriet Tubman School No. 114 and the Henry Winter Davis Elementary School No. 123 were two of the three local schools receiving grand awards in the recent fifth annual Clean Up, Fix — Up, Campaign, conducted by the Department of Education and the Citizens Planning and Housing Association.

A total of 75 schools were entered in the campaign with the General Wolfe Elementary School No. 23, rounding out the top three winners.

Mrs. Mary P. Horsey is principal of No. 114; Mrs. Maude L. Williams, Principal of No. 123 and Mrs. Ida Gerber, principal of School 23.

* * *

THE CITATION accompanying the award to No. 114 read: "For excellent planning and execution in relating the 'Clean-Up—Fix Up activities into the curriculum at all grade levels.

For No. 125 the citation read: "For the impact which the school has had on the neighborhood, particularly in their lot which has involved children, neighbors and even landlords."

* * *

FIRST PRIZES were won by the following schools listed with their principals:

Lokerman School 100-Clarence J. Roberts; Elmer A Henderson 101-Arthur Williams; Harvey Johnson Junior High 106-Mrs. Hermoine W. Wharton; Phyllis Wheatley 100-Henry N. West; No. 145 George E. Simms Josiah Diggs 162. Mrs. Vivian H. Bundy.

Boycotters refute fund charge

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The resignation and subsequent verbal blast of the Rev. U. J. Fields, secretary of the Montgomery Improvement Association, was termed "deeply regrettable."

The expression was made in a press release issued by the board of directors of MIA Tuesday after the Rev. Mr. Fields announced that he had resigned from the association charging that the organization was misusing money sent from all over the nation.

The Rev. Mr. Fields, pastor of Bell Street Baptist Church, said some persons in the association were "irresponsible" with the organization's funds.

* * *

HE ESTIMATED the sum involved thousands of dollars.

"I can no longer identify myself with a movement in which the many are exploited by the few," the Rev. Mr. Fields said.

He concluded that the MIA "no longer represents what I stand for."

THE REV. M. L. KING, president of the MIA, was in California and could not be contacted for comment at press time.

Fred Gray, attorney for the association, said that the "charges were completely groundless."

"I can't understand why he did what he did."

THE ASSOCIATION issued the following statement:

"It is deeply regrettable, the Rev. Mr. Eugene J. Fields has made a public statement which gives the impression that there is disharmony among the leaders of the Montgomery protest movement that accuses the Montgomery Improvement Association misusing funds provided by the people of America in support of our struggle for common decency and justice.

The president, the Rev. M. L. King Jr., has always insisted upon honesty, that all funds received be duly acknowledged and that a bimonthly financial statement be made to the board of directors.

No money received by this association has been misappropriated.

During the past six months we have encountered various attacks designed to hinder our protest movement; this simply is another similar attack."

Dr. Moses Jones, vice president of the MIA, signed the statement.

"The camera close-up for publicity shots was perfect! A professional model told me about Black and White Vanishing Cream as a make-up base to keep complexion looking fresh and camera perfect always."
(Very Informal Homestead, Pa.)
Yes, you can beautify your complexion the same way professional models do with Black and White Vanishing Cream. It's greaseless (can't cause blackheads), actually checks skin oiliness.
Your make-up looks fresher, your skin feels softer.
Remove make-up with Black and White Cleansing Cream. Stimulate with Black and White Cold Cream. 35¢ each.

Blood needed for burned youth

"I would gladly tell them to take my blood, I don't have seven pints, and we've just run out of people."

Mrs. Goldie Davis, the mother of 11-year-old Vernon Davis of the 2800 block of W. Mulberry St., was making an appeal for blood donors needed to help in saving the life of her son.

Vernon, who received severe burns while he was attempting to climb over the top of a box car on the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks near Smith Ave., has been making a gallant fight for life at City Hospitals for the past month.

"THEY TOLD me at the hospital that they have to operate on him to give him a skin graft and that blood transfusions will be needed. The doctor told me that about seven pints will be needed.

"That means that we'll have to get 14 doners, and since we had to get 11 doners when he was first taken to the hospital, we are just about running out of people.

"I told them that I'd be willing to work the rest of my life to pay for the boy's treatment, but they said at the hospital that they don't need money, but blood to replenish the blood bank."

Prospective blood donors are asked to contact the blood bank at City Hospitals, Dickens 2 - 5400. A boy's life and future may depend upon it.
