9,000 from 22,428 in 1955 to 31,383 this year, the number of votes cast by the winning candidates was almost exactly the same as four years ago.

HERE ARE the figures for the Fourth District Councilman ic election May 3, 1955

REPUBLICAN
Brimfield	7,869
Emanuel Kozer	9,938
Charles Lafsey	9,052
DEMOCRAT

COLE HEADQUARTERS reported a deal between McKeldin and Pollack leaders under which an estimated $21,000 was made available for Pollack areas.

Angered Cole, who said the McKeldin crowd had sacrificed him for the head of the ticket, had a statement of the alleged double cross prepared. He was dissuaded by personal friends.

Cole Headquarters declared it received $1,000 from the McKeldin forces for election day workers.

Cole advisers, shocked at the disclosures, pointed out that this is a lesson to them. Hereafter, they must be prepared to finance their own campaigns with funds raised before the election.

COLE HEADQUARTERS said Harris was not anxious to run for council and filed only after McKeldin headquarters declared the party needed him and pledged $1,000 to finance election day workers.

Way to beat a machine is to beat it in the primaries.

Friends have repeatedly urged Cole to change his affiliation from Republican to Democrat.

The Republican party is dead!

THE FOLLOWING figures show the highest percentage of votes:

Fifty four per cent, fifty four per cent and fifty-six per cent turned out in the First, Fifth and Third Districts.

In the Fourth District, 50 per cent of its registered voted, and 49 per cent voted in the 4th District and the Second District was last in the entire city with a turnout of 46 per cent of the voters.

To Mother

Hail to her who holds
Creation in her hands!
As mighty Time unfolds
She loves and understands.

Down through all the ages,
Through all the realms of time,
Upon immortal pages,
In every land and clime.

Her tender story lives
In classic word and song
Her constant faith forgives,
And makes the weak one strong.

Upon her day of days,
On hallowed Mother's Day,
We humbly bring her praise,
And fond devotion pay.

May dawning eras bless
All mothers everywhere,
And may they long possess
Their children's love and care!

—J. FARLEY RAGLAND.
