Last Sunday afternoon those popular Eastside matrons, members of the Royal Moonbeans Charity and Savings Club, celebrated their 11th anniversary withservices at Central Baptist Church, Baltimore and Pulaski Sts.

The Rev. M. J. Brackett, pastor, delivered the message.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Bertha Wells. Welcome address was given by Mrs. Brackett, with the response by Mrs. Marie Smallwood.

The Royal Moonbeams are no strangers to our Eastside community because of the many worthy charitable deeds they have done.

Participants joining in the celebration included Mrs. Grace Wells, solo member of Central Baptist Church; Purnell Jones, student at Peabody, a piano solo; The Golden Tones, led by Henry Heird, and the Golden Spirituals, under the direction of William "Biggy" Smallwood.

Presentations were made to Mrs. Viola Jones, who received a lovely basket of flowers for her 31st wedding anniversary.

* * *

MRS. BRACKETT and Mrs. Grace Wells were given beautiful corsages.

Officers and members who were handsomely dressed were:

Mrs. Viola Jones, president; Mrs. Dorothy Boulware, vice president; Mrs. Ida Petty, recording secretary; Mrs. Bertha Wells, financial secretary; Miss Elsie Knight, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Marie Smallwood, business manager; Mrs. Sarah Scott, treasurer; Miss Alberta Barrett, chaplain; and Mrs. Ruth Boulware, lady at arms.

Annual Men's Day, sponsored by the Methodist Men of Mt. Zion Methodist Church, will be be held this Sunday Nov. 15. The church is at Biggs Ave. and Gilmor St.

Charles N. Wells, chairman; James Curry, vice chairman; Richard White and Thurman Smith, secretaries; Richard White, president and the Rev. O. St. Clair Franklin, pastor.

Mrs. Aretha Talbert of 1018 N. Wolfe St. is the new PTA president at Elementary School No. 101 Chase and Wolfe St.

The Willie Princes of 2831 E. Federal St. are the parents of a new baby girl.

The Male and Female Ushers of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church will hold their 29th Anniversary this Sunday Nov. 15th at 3 p.m.

Calvin English is President, the Rev. I. A. Williams, pastor.

Men's Day at St. Stephans AME, Essex, Md. is this Sunday.

James Cheatleam is president; the Rev. Reginald Boston is pastor.

THE VERY fine women of St. Matthews Methodist Church are preparing to celebrate their Woman's Day, Sunday, Nov. 29.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. Miss Agnes Alston. The Woman of St. Matthews always do well on their day.

The Rev. U. G. Chambers is pastor.

The church is located in the 600 blk E. 22rd St.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smallwood have announced the coming marriage of their niece, Miss Mary Sutton to James H Parry on Nov. 28 at the Smallwood's pretty E. Lafayette Ave. home.

Send cheers to Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller and Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, both reside at 2430 Brentwood Ave.

HEAR YE — Last call to all Neighbors — Please help support contestants who are participating in the 11th Annual Eastside Popularity Contest.

The Eastside Community Committee Inc. sponsors it for the benefit of their annual Christmas party for 1,500 children.

Contestants working like mad the past week are Miss Constance Williams, Theresa Smallwood, Miss Patricia D. Hicks, Mrs. Etta Smithy, Miss Joan C. Walston, Clark H. Walston, Miss Serena Spicer and William Bellamy.

Help cheer William "Bill" Taylor, coordinator of the Eastside Community Committee, Inc., who is ill, and who has worked so hard for us to keep our center "tops."

A very large turn out will mean so much to our "Bill," his co-workers and you, the community. Let's get on the bandwagon and make it a grand success.

Speaking of bandwagon, reminds me that dancing feet will be made happy as they fall under the magic spell of music provided by the House Rockers Band, composed of an aggregation of musical maestros who too, are part of our beloved Eastside.

Tonight (Friday) is the night at 8 p.m. Place is Biddle Hall, located at 1235 E. Biddle St. Come Early — Stay late neighbors.

Shaping up nicely is the first pre-Christmas Hat Show and coffee Hour being sponsored by the Ladies Guild of Provident Hospital, Inc.

Eastsiders should be proud because our own smart Ruth R. Tubbs of E. Chase St. is the general chairman.

The affair is Dec. 12 from 4 p.m. and will be held at Douglass High School, Gwynn Falls Parkway.

Catering the affair will be Willa Mae DeShields with hats by Ruth J. Croxton.

The project is given to help raise money for Provident Hospital.

All Eastside should help, so that we can have a better equipped hospital. (stop knocking and do something.)

Others on the committee are Mrs. Vernice Vankiscott, general coordinator; Mrs. Louise Jones, chairman of aprons; Mrs. Lillie Gantt, Mrs. Lulu Mack, Mrs. Marjorie Moore, Mrs. Catherine Murphy, Mrs. Beulah Thompson.

Chairman of Bake Sale — Mrs. Maggie Flacks, Mrs. Mary Jackson, Mrs. Grace Johnson, Mrs. Madie Mitchell, Mrs. Mary Roosevelt.

Chairman of tickets, Dr. Effie Ellis.

Recorders, Mrs. Constantia Banks, Mrs. Margaret C. Carroll, Miss Gertrude C. Muir; general auditor; Mrs. Pauline Lee, treasurer, Mrs. Rosina Cole.

HAPPY to know that my pal, Mrs. "Dee" Marrow is now home from Provident Hospital. Send get well wishes to her at 2032 Ruxton Ave.

Our Good Neighbor of the Week.

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is pretty Shirley Mullen Hammond who resides at 123 W. Perry St.

Mrs. Hammond is the lovely wife of Gilbert Hammond, an employee of the Empire Paper Co.

She is also the mother of six very active children. They are Sheila, age 12, who is in the seventh grade and attends School No. 106; Gilda, 11, in the 5th grade; Pearline, 9 in the fifth grade; Maria, 7 in the third grade, and Keith, five, attends kindergarten.

At home is the baby, Deborah, who is 2½ years old.

The family belong to Ebenezer AME Church, the Rev. S. A. Thompson, pastor.

Mrs. Hammond is active in her church and is the secretary of the singing and praying band.

Her father, the late Arthur Hopkins, was a well - known class leader and captain of the Singing and Praying band at Ebenezer.

Her mother, Mrs. Ethel Hopkins, is an old resident of South Baltimore and the family has lived on Perry St. for a number of generations.

Our Good Neighbor was born in the house where she now lives. She received her schooling at Harvey Johnson High No. 106 and Douglass High.

Her hobbies are dancing, movies and playing cards. She also loves to cook her specialty is chocolate cake.

She is a member of the "Two Twenty's," a newly organized club of volunteer community workers. At present she is a shut-in. Drop her a card of cheer.

Her favorite color is blue; favorite television shows are westerns; favorite hymn is "When I've Have Gone the last Mile of the Way"; favorite Bible verse. —121st Psalm.
