Volunteers awarded at Provident fete

Fifteen Junior Volunteers attended a capping and awards luncheon held in the Provident Hospital Annex on September 5th.

Mrs. Doris Reese, Administrator of Nursing Service and Nursing Education officiated at the ceremonies. Miss Gertrude Johnson, a volunteer with 164 hours service, served as mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Reese congratulated the young ladies, and one gentleman, for their assistance to the Staff and expressed hope that the exposure and training they had received during the 1970 summer program would serve as incentive for many of them to consider pursuing a nursing career in the area of their choice —preferably, of course, the new Provident Hospital Complex.

Volunteers capped for 1970 service were: Denise Bailey, Douglas High, 82 hours; Valerie Cheek, St. Pious, 82 hours; and Kathy Maxwell, Harlem Park Jr. High, 79 hours.

Those volunteers receiving certificates in addition to being capped were: Gertrude Johnson, Gwynns Falls Park Jr. High, 164 hours; Wanda Ramsey, Western High, 53 hours; and Karen Taylor, Altholon Jr. High, 137 hours.

Phillip Gibson of Forest Park Sr. High served a total of 144 hours. Former Junior Volunteers receiving certificates were: Brenda Coney, Rock Glen Jr. High, 218 hours; and Marion Queen, St. Francis Academy, 218 hours. Those capped and awarded certificates were: Sharon Jones, Calverton Heights Jr. High, 182 hours; Pamela Love, Rock Glen Jr. High, 196 hours; and Thomasina Richmond, Rock Glen Jr. High, 196 hours.

Volunteers attending but who had not served the minimum standard of 50 hours were Clarissa Brown, Renee Hardy, and Diane Smith.

Provident Hospital officials extending greetings and congratulatory remarks of appreciation to the group were Mr. Henry J. Whyte, executive director, Mr. Charles G. Tildon, associate director; Mrs. Willia Bland, auxiliary vice president; and Mrs. Ruth Tibbs, director of volunteers. The Rev. Earl Tucker delivered the invocation and benediction.

OCTOBER 18

Gifts being prepared for patients

Clark L. Mock, chairman of the 1970 Baltimore Mental Health Christmas project, has recently named committee chairmen who will assist in providing and packaging gifts for some 7,000 patients in state mental hospitals and 400 recovering patients living in foster homes.

Mr. Mock is a past president of the Baltimore Mental Health Association. Until his retirement in 1967, he had been executive director of the Family and Children's Society for 25 years.

Mrs. Moses Morris Jr. will serve as co-chairman of the Christmas project, which is now in its twenty-second year.

Mrs. Mack Silverstein will serve as chairman of the purchasing committee; Mrs. Wolfe Adler has accepted chairmanship of the foster care committee.

• • •

The foster care committee purchases gifts and makes up Christmas packages for some 400 recovering men, women and children who are living in foster homes throughout the community. Each package, made up of several gifts, includes one item which the patient has specifically requested, usually wearing apparel.

Schools in the metropolitan area will conduct their annual collection of small gift items such as toiletries, ballpoint pens and stretch socks.

Volunteers who can sew or knit are still needed to make simple items for the Christmas packages. Those interested are asked to call the association at 235-9786 for information.
