Children of Vietnam victims awarded Army scholarships

Scholarships were awarded recently to three children whose fathers, former members of the 4th Infantry Division, were killed in Vietnam.

The scholarship fund, made up of voluntary contributions from the men of the 4th Division, was originally conceived by Major General Charles P. Stone, former commanding general of the division.

Major General Stone, who presented the $1500 scholarships to the children in a ceremony held at Fort Meade, saw the fund as a "living memorial to the soldiers of the 4th Infantry Division."

The scholarship funds are regulated and supervised by Brice Rhyne, president of the 4th Infantry Division Association. The money will be held in trust until the children have been accepted by an accredited college or university.

The scholarships presented at Fort Meade are just two of 53 such scholarships being presented at 28 First United States Army installations.

First recipient of the $1500 scholarship was Miss Gwendolyn Thomas, ten-year-old daughter of Mrs. Violet Thomas and the late Staff Sergeant Pearly Thomas Jr.

Staff Sergeant Thomas, a native of Horry County, S.C., entered the service after high school in 1955. His tours of duty took him to Korea, Germany, Fort Knox, Ky; Fort Hood, Texas; and Fort Meade.

In August 1967, he was sent to Vietnam with the 2nd Squadron, 1st Cavalry, 4th Division.

On Feb. 16, 1968, SSG Thomas died from "metal fragment wounds received during hostile ground action." He is buried in the National Cemetery, Danville, Va.

Staff Sergeant Thomas was awarded the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Vietnam Campaign Ribbon, the National Defense Ribbon, the Good Conduct Medal, and the Republic of Vietnam Service Medal.

Gwendolyn, who lives with her mother at 2829 Windsor Ave., is a fourth grade student at Gwynn Falls Elementary School. Her favorite subjects are handwriting, spelling, and math; at this time she has no immediate plans for college.

Also receiving a $1500 scholarship were James Donald and Timothy Eugene, eight-year-old twin sons of Mrs. Donna Jackson and the late Staff Sergeant Donald Eugene Jackson.

Staff Sergeant Jackson was a native of Yards, Va.

Prior to serving in Vietnam, SSG Jackson's tours of duty took him to Fort Jackson, S.C.; Fort Rucker, Ala.; Germany; Fort Lewis, Washington; and Fort Meade.

When sent to Vietnam with the 4th Division, SSG Jackson was the reenlistment sergeant for the 10th Cavalry. On Dec. 8, 1966, SSG Jackson was accidentally killed in a fall from a military vehicle.

SSG Jackson had received the Bronze Star, ceived the Bronze Star, Good Conduct Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, Vietnam
Campaign Ribbon, the Gallantry Cross with Palm, and the National Defense Ribbon.

Mrs. Jackson and her twin sons reside at 512 E. Church St. James and Timothy are third grade students at Park Elementary School, Brooklyn Park. When they grow up they want to be "soldiers like their daddy."

JFX now has new traffic patrol truck

Commissioner Hugo O. Liem Jr. of the Department of Transit and Traffic, announced the assignment of a new patrol vehicle to the Jones Falls Expressway during the morning and evening peak rush hours.

The new vehicle is a one-ton, pick-up truck equipped with special lighting devices to be used as a safety patrol on the Jones Falls Expressway.

This expressway patrol vehicle will replace the departmental cars which have patrolled the Jones Falls Expressway for the past three years. One analysis indicated that the efforts of these patrols have reduced the accidents during the hours of patrol by approximately 30 percent. The major effect has been in the reduction of secondary collisions which result when an accident occurs or a vehicle is disabled on the Expressway.

Much of the problem on the Jones Falls Expressway is caused by improperly maintained vehicles. Many incidents involve vehicles which have run out of gas while operating on the Expressway.

The potential for causing severe damage to vehicles and injury to operators and passengers should be sufficient reason for most drivers to ensure that their vehicles are in the proper operating condition before entering the Expressway.

Baltimore And All That Jazz

By ARCHIE MANGRAM

We had the good fortune to meet a lovely person last week. Helen Ssott s a lady disk jockey with a jazz show on WBJC FM Radio.

She has two shows weekly from 9 to 10 on Friday nights, and 4 to 5 p.m. Saturdays.

Miss Scott is a very personable and articulate young lady, and surprisingly knows her jazz.

According to her, she has been doing the Jazz Shows for about a year. In that brief span she has apparently become extremely knowledgeable about the jazz scene.

Her programs are a combination of good recorded jazz, and information about the records she plays as well as background information about the artists. It all adds up to a very enjoyable two hours weekly.

If you have caught her show, then you know what I am talking about. If you haven't caught it as yet, then do so. The station is WBJC located at 91.5 megacycles.

Last Sunday the Left Bank Jazz Society sneaked one in on themselves. Featured artists were Lee Morgan and his Quintet. The surprise of the evening was Lee's Tenor player Billy Harper.

His regular tenorman had prior commitments so Lee brought a new man into the organization.

He was "cooker" from the very beginning, and since very few of the audience had heard of him, they were surprised.

One person in the audience had heard of him and wasn't at all surprised that he could 'wail' was this writer. Billy is a fellow Dallas, Texan.

And although I had long since moved when Billy was coming up, I did catch him a couple of times when he was a student at North Texas State College, at a jazz session. Then he was blowing just like Trane, and was stll a youngster.

So we were not too surprised that he is 'wailing' even better now.

* * *

Meanwhile back to the set. Lee Morgan was all I thought he would be and more. He is, without a doubt, one of the premier trumpet players on the scene today.

His group was very cohesive, despite the recent addition of Billy.

The group performed flawlessly throughout the evening. Harold Mabern was on Piano. Jymie Merrit on Bass and Mickey Roker was on Drums. Lee played trumpet and flugelhorn, and Billy Harper, in addition ti the tenor, played flute.

Lee's group is a delightful mixture of the old and the new. Some of the 'charts' (thats the written portion of the tune, played solos, were modern and usually before and after the avant-gard-ish. White other 'charts' seemed to have come from an earlier era, which to me, presented a good balance.

The set was an extra-ordinarily good one and if you slept it, you slept a 'monster.'

* * *

Finally got a chance to stop by Brice's Hilltop Inn on Reisterstown Rd. They have a swinging Organ Trio that is awfully hip. The group features Trudy Pitts and Mr. 'O.' Trudy Plays organ, and Mr. 'C' plays ums.

There is also a guitarist whose name I didn't get, but will supply next week.

The group is perfect for the atmosphere of this quiet, intimate club. Trudy is an organist who can hold her own with any of the so-called 'Big Boys'; you know the Jimmie Smiths, the 'Groove Holmes' and etc.

In fact she reminded us more of 'Groove Holmes' than any other better-known Organist. She plays with the same wild, carefree, 'funky'.

The Drummer and the guitarist complimented her talents very well. All in all this is a very fine, entertaining group well worth the trip to the Hilltop Inn.

We understand that they will be there at least two more weeks (and one is already gone). So drop by and dig this group. You'll be glad you did!
