Dear Esther:
I am very interested in methods of preserving vitamins in foods. What vitamins are lost or inactivated by cooking, and especially by overcooking.
Henrietta Smith, Houston, Tex.

Overcooking results in the loss of vitamin C, vitamin B1 and vitamin B2. Also, overcooking some foods changes the flavor and texture.

Dear Esther:
How long is it safe to keep ground beef in the refrigerator?
Mary Valentine, Newark, N.J.

Ground beef should be used within two days. Otherwise, wrap and freeze it for safe use later.

Hassling with cooking? Ask Esther for help.

CCB Players to present 'Exit the King'

Eugene Ionesco's Exit the King will be presented by the CCB Players at the Community College of Baltimore today (Friday) through Sunday at 8:15 p.m. in The Little Theatre, located on the campus of the college at 2901 Liberty Heights Ave.

Exit the King was written after its author had suffered a heart attack and the play's action becomes bration of the impending most liturgical in its celedeath of the King.

Although Ionesco is considered a leader in the Avante-Garde style and many of his plays are alwildly "absurd," Exit the King becomes conservative in comparison.

The play deals with the death of King Berenger I, played by William B. Santoro, who, as a member of the Pickwick Players Children's Theater Company, has appeared in many of their productions, including "Heidi" and "Pinocchio."

Berenger is continually warned of his impending death by Queen Marguerite, played by Jacquelin Thompson, a graduate of Forest Park High School. Watching his kingdom literally disintegrate he grows defiant and proclaims his reluctance to accept death.

Response to TV 11's Good News Sweepstakes was, to say the least, overwhelming: nearly 36,000 entries received!

Of these, none matched exactly the 11 names selected at random from the 24 by WBAL-TV (indicated above by circled photographs and boldface type).* A total of 10 entrants matched 10 of the 11 names and, from these, the six prize winners were drawn at random on October 12.

WBAL-TV thanks all who participated and wishes only that each of you could have won 1st Prize. Our thanks, too, to Mano Swartz furriers and Equitable Trust Bank for their fine cooperation.

Remember, to be a winner every day, keep informed by watching TV 11 News reports on Maryland, national and world events.

2 girls win top 'Fat Daddy' awards

A 15-year-old Eastern High School student, whose hobby is creative writing, was one of two winners in the "Love and Peace" essay contest sponsored recently by Paul (Fat Daddy) Johnson, a leading Baltimore disc jockey.

For her prize winning entry, Audrey Wright, who lives in the 1700 bl. Chilton St., was awarded 113 top record albums totaling well over $500 in value. The other winner in the contest, Nancy E. Hairston of the 1900 bl. Woodlawn Dr., received the same prize.

Commenting on why she entered the contest, Miss Wright said, "I just wanted to express my ideas on love and peace. In spite of all the turmoil in the world today, I believe they still exist."

A 10th grader with a desire to become a writer, Audrey confided that she was inspired to write her prize winning essay after reading a poem written by the late black poet and humorist, Langston Hughes.

She has had several of her writings published in the school newspaper.

All told some 514 letters were sent in during the contest according to Mr Johnson who judged each letter personally.

"All of the letters were good," he noted.

"If the people who sent in letters can keep in their hearts the feelings they expressed in the letters, they will make a real contribution to mankind."

Voted the Number I Rock Jockey in the nation five times, Mr. Johnson, known to his listeners as "Fat Daddy," hosts a popular morning show on WWIN radio. Recently picked by a leading national men's magazine as one of the three top disc jockeys in the country Fat Daddy attributes his success to his fans:

* * *

"After so many good things happen to you, you can't help but feel love and gratitude toward your audience."

"So because of them and because of so much turmoil in the world, I felt a love and peace contest was needed."

"The theme of our morning show," he continued, "is love and peace."

Racial harmony and an end to the war were cited repeatedly as the means to bring love and peace to the world in many of the letters, Fat Daddy told the AFRO.

"In judging the letters," he continued, "I graded them on sincerity and motivation of ideas and feeling throughout the letter."
