Miss Carroll honored at Royal Academy in London

By
ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

The Royal Academy of Music on Maryle Rd. in London has extended to a 23-year old Baltimore lyric soprano two of its highest honors.

The young woman is Miss Sansi Carroll, daughter of former Sharp Street United Methodist Church pastor, the Rev. Edward G. Carroll and Mrs. Carroll.

The Carrolls now reside in Silver Spring where the Rev. Mr. Carroll is pastor the Marvin Memorial United Methodist Church.

The honors Miss Carroll received on July include the coveted Ernest Butcher Prize, a cash award granted for singing. The other merit awards were for her performance in aural training and singing. Her piano examination also received commendation.

Piano and composition were Miss Carroll's first love in Baltimore she says she did not discover she had a voice unti she went to England.

This is her second year at the Royal Academy which has as patrons Her majesty Queen Elizabeth and the Queen Mother. Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester is president.

Miss Carroll studied two years at Boston University before going to Dartington College of Arts in Devon, South England where she spent two years.

She was graduated in April, 1968 as an accociate of the Royal College of Music and won a trustees scholarship to study privately with Mme. Krause in London.

After completing one year, she was enrolled in June, 1969 at the Royal Academy.

Miss Carroll spent two years at Baltimore's Western High School and was graduated from Washington's Western High School is 1964.

During her high school days she studied at Peabody Institute preparatery school and completed courses in piano and musicianship. She also attended the private Junior Conservatory in St. Johnsbury, Vt. for four summers and received the Junior Music Diploma.

During the time, the Rev. Mr. Carroll was pastor of Baltimore's Sharp Street Church.

Currently, Miss Carroll is soloist at the St. Giles in the Field Anglican Church in London.

Her father's church in Silver Spring has extended the St. Giles choir invitation to sing there this year.

Miss Carroll's brother, Edward G. Carroll Jr., of Wabasr Ave., Baltimore is employed as an account executive at WMAL-TV. He and his wife, the former Miss Beatrice Odom, have one son. Edward G. Carroll III.

Miss Carroll's paternal uncle is the Rev. Julius Carroll, a former associate pastor of the Sharp Street Church here and former minister of music of the old Washington Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

MISS NANSI CARROLL

Presently, he is the pastor of the Eost Calvary United Methodist Church in Washington and a certified minister of music for the entire Methodist church.

A master of the piano and organ, he is also a composer and soloist.

The Rev. Mr. Carroll and his wife, Mrs. Gladys Carroll, reside in Suitland, Md.

Baltimore lad in TV contest

For the second straight Saturday, the TV college football game will feature a team with a standout performer from this city.

Stu Simms, a product of Gilman, is the starting fullback on a Dartmouth eleven that meets Harvard at Cambridge.

Last Saturday, Notre Dame whipped Missouri in the TV game, with ex-City star Tom Gatewood in a major role.

In his last outing, Simms ground out 83 yards as Dartmouth ran up her fourth consecutive win with a 42-14 pasting of Brown.

Mary C. Smith on North Star this Sunday

The role of black women in today's society will be discussed on WBAL-TV's "North Star" Sunday, Oct. 25, at 6:30-7 p.m.

Host John Slade, WBAL-TV Assistant Community Service Manager for Urban Affairs, will welcome to the program Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, Mrs. Roslyn Spruill and Miss Peggy Brooks.

Mrs. Smith, who appeared on "North Star" last July, is a world traveler, poet and student of black "folk culture." She is employed as a librarian in the Baltimore City School System.

Mrs. Spruill is a business woman employed by a large Baltimore department store chain. Miss Brooks, a recent graduate of Goucher College, is currently on a Johns Hopkins fellowship grant to study urban problems in Baltimore.

During the program Miss Brooks will recite "You Say," a poem in which she states the moral and philosophical relationship she feels should be shared between black women and men.

"North Star," seen in color every Sunday at 6:30-7 p.m., is produced by WBAL-TV's Community Service Department and is presented by The Schmidt Baking Company and General Foods, Inc.

Mitchell-Parker debate on TV-11

Parren J. Mitchell, winner of the controversial Democratic nomination for the Seventh District Congressional seat, and his Republican opponent, Peter Parker, will appear on WBAL-TV, Tuesday, October 27, at 7:30-8 p.m.

The men will appear on the sixth in a series of special WBAL-TV political programs featuring candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives and County Executive positions for Baltimore, Howard and Anne Arundel Counties.

They will face a panel of newspaper, radio and television newsmen to discuss issues affecting Marylanders living in the Seventh Congressional District.

Jerry Moring, WBAL-TV News Department Manager, will moderate the program.

Mrs. Coretta King on TV show

A special thirty-minute interview with Mrs. Coretta King, wife of the slain civil rights leader will be featured with host Gil Noble., 3-4 p.m. Sunday Oct. 25 on WJZ-TV Channel 13.

Mrs. King talks about her family life and how she copes with her four young children while maintaining "staggering public demands."

Other topics discussed will be non-violence, the coming elections, and the women's liberation movement.

Composer and pianist Horace Silver will also be profiled on the program. Film will be shown on him playing at the Cadilac Club in Newark, and Gil Noble will also interview him at his home.

TV-11 to host 4th and 7th candidates

Republican David Fentress, who defeated Samuel A. Culotta in Saturday's primary election rematch, and Paul S. Sarbanes, his Democratic opponent in the Fourth Congressional District, will discuss campaign issues on WBAL-TV Monday, Oct. 26, at 7:30-8 p.m.

The following evening, Tuesday, Oct. 27, at 7:30-8 p.m., WBAL-TV will present, in a similar program, candidates for Maryland's Seventh Congressional District.

OCTOBER 26

The East Baltimore Advisory Council, affiliated with the Community Action Agency, will hold an Open House and Conference at 1131-33 Harford Ave. from Noon until 10:00 p.m.

The Conference theme is "Awareness, Responsibility and Togetherness." There will be display booths, awards, art exhibits, and refreshments. A special feature will be entertainment by the Salvation Choral Ensemble. The public is invited.

Crime workshop Saturday on 13

The 1970 Maryland Workshop on Crime and Correction, held at St. John's College in Annapolis, is the subject of a 90-minute Group W (Westinghouse broadcasting Company) documentary, "On Trial: Criminal Justice," to be televised by WJZ-TV (Channel 13) on Saturday, October 24 at 9:30 p.m.

The eight-day conference, convened this summer with the goal of promoting reform in the criminal-justice system, brought together more than 100 judges, prison officials, correctional officers, parole supervisors, policemen, lawyers, interested private citizens, exconvicts and prison inmates.

There's only one sure way to tell if you like Bourbon. And that's to try Old Fitzgerald.
Why? Because we season it with just a "whisper of wheat," instead of the rye commonly used in other Bourbons.
That's what gives Old Fitzgerald its mellow, nut-sweet taste. That's what makes it a Bourbon different from all the rest.
No wonder people who drink Old Fitzgerald say they don't know any better.
If you're not a Bourbon drinker, it's only because you haven't tasted Old Fitz.

Birthday Tribute

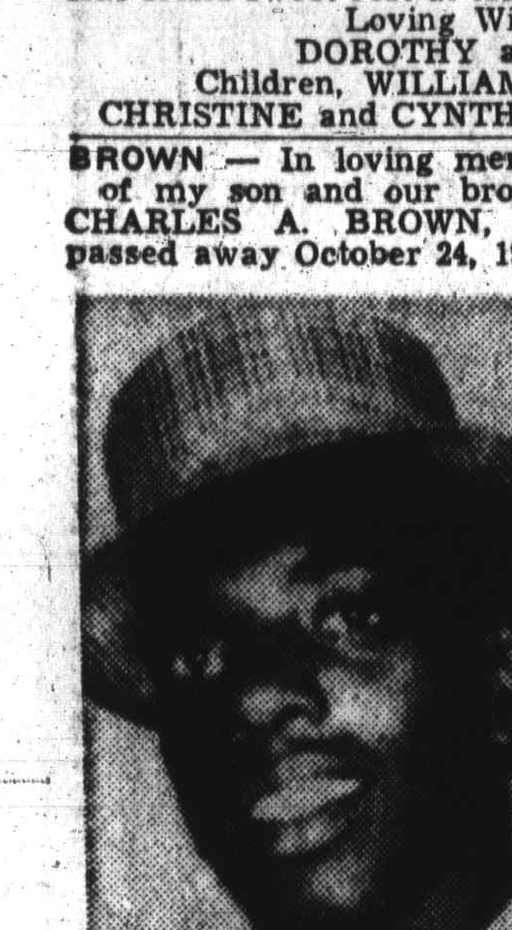
GOODE — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM, on his birthday October 22, who passed away July 6, 1969:
I do not need a special day,
To bring you to my mind;
The days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were mine to give,
I'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of my dear husband
On this, his Birthday morn.
Wife,
MAMIE GOODE

WILSON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear nephew JOHN W. JR., on his birthday October 23, who passed away August 30, 1969:
If we could have our fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world
We would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
We'll whisper soft and low;
"Please, God, let us have our loved one
Back, because we miss him so.
Devoted Aunts,
NANCY and CATHERINE

In Memoriam

BLAKE — In loving memory of my husband and our father, WILLIAM RINGGOLD, who passed away October 21, 1966:
God saw the road was getting rough;
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his living eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife,
DOROTHY and Children, WILLIAMS, CHRISTINE and CYNTHIA

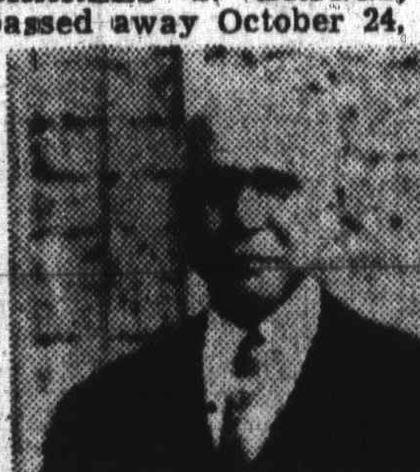
BROWN — In loving memory of my son and our brother, CHARLES A. BROWN, who passed away October 24, 1964:



GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.
FAMILY and FRIENDS

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear daughter and granddaughter, ELIZABETH CLEMENTS BROWN, who passed away October 21, 1967:
We often sit and think of her when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green and never fade away.
Mother,
ROBERTA SELBY and Grandmother,
MRS. ESTELLE Y. SELBY

BRIGGS — In loving memory of our loved one, REV. CHARLES S. BRIGGS, who passed away October 24, 1968:



Sincere and true in heart and mind
Beautiful memories he left yehind.
By The FAMILY

BUTLER — In memory of my dear husband, CHARLES BUTLER, who passed away October 25, 1965:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, husband dear
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no, it isn't true
For five long years have passed, dear
And my heart still aches for you.
Wife, MILDRED

CARTER — In louing memory of my dear wife and our mother, BERTINA CARTER, who passed away October 22, 1966:

Oh, mother, dear, when you were here,
We had your tender care;
And none can ever take your place
Or fill that vacant chair,
You were the sunlight of our home
Till God took you away;
But we never will forget you,
And we'll meet in Heaven, we pray.
HUSBAND and CHILDREN

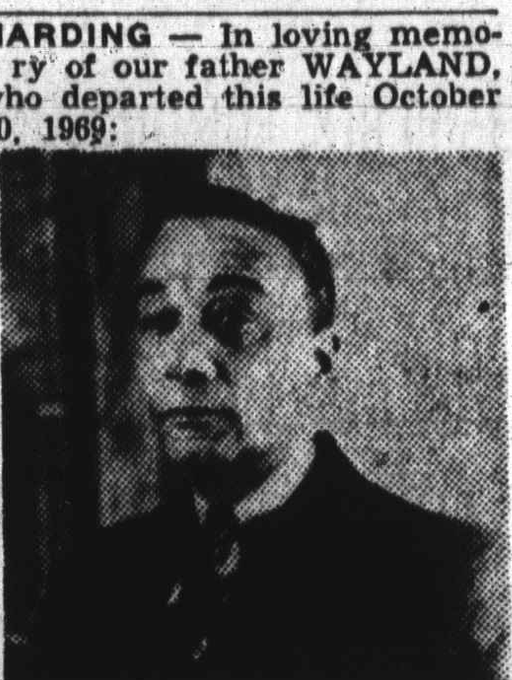
In Memoriam

CARTER — In loving memory of my dear mother and loved one, BERTINA BUTLER CARTER, who passed away October 22, 1966:
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when I lost my darling mother,
I lost my dearest friend.
Daughter — BERTINA and FAMILY

CHILDS — In loving memory of my dear son and our brother, MILTON E., who passed away October 25, 1969:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
Loving MOTHER, SISTERS, and BROTHERS

FORREST — In memory of our dear father, grandfather and brother, OLIVER, who passed away October 23, 1966:
Gone, dear one, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face.
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed.
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN SISTERS, BROTHER

HARDING — In loving memory of our father WAYLAND, who departed this life October 20, 1969:



God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered; "Peace be Thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Children,
CLARICE CONAWAY, ZEDA PINDLE, WAYLAND JR.

HARRIS — In loving memory of my father, PERCY HARRIS, who passed away October 28, 1941:
Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
My father rest in heavenly peace —
God grant some day I'll meet him there.
Devoted Daughter —
CATHERINE DEAN

JENNINGS — In loving memory of my husband, REV. PETER JENNINGS, who passed away October 24, 1963:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife —
JOHNSY BEAL JENNINGS

JONES — In loving memory of my dear husband and brother, WILLIAM J. JONES, who passed away October 20, 1969:

PETERS — In loving memory of my mother, ELIZABETH PETERS, who passed away October 28, 1961:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend,
I kept the watch with you, dear mother,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Devoted Daughter —
CATHERINE DEAN

In Memoriam

RAILEY — In loving memory of my husband, father, brother, HYLAND T., who passed away October 18, 1969
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face,
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us three years ago.
WIFE,
CHILDREN,
SISTER

RANDALL — In loving memory of my husband, JOSEPH E., who passed away October 22, 1969:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes
For all of us you did your best,
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
Loving Wife,
ELEANOR and FAMILY

SINGLETON — In loving memory of our dear brother, ERNEST SINGLETON, who departed this life, October 22, 1968:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall
Love's remembrance outlasts all
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance dear of you.
Sisters — EMMA SINGLETON
and LILLIAN WEATHERS
Friend — MILDRED WILLIAMS

SMITH — In loving memory of our loved one, MARGARET F. SMITH, who passed away October 23, 1969:
Her pleasant way and smiling face
Are a pleasure to recall.
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet her,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp her hand in the better land,
Never to part again.
THE FAMILY

WATKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband, LEROY J. WATKINS, who passed away October 25, 1969:
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true, in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Loving Wife,
MARTHA

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of my dear daughter, CHARLOTTE E. WILLIAMS, who passed away October 21, 1965 and went home to rest:

Never a smile so sunny,
Never a way so dear,
Never a daughter so faithful
Who brought such joy and cheer.
Never a touch so gentle,
Neber a heart so true,
Never a daughter in all the world
So precious, dear CHARLOTTE, as you.
Mother — GRACE ANN WILLIAMS

WILLIAMS — A Tribute of love to the memory of my dear niece, CHARLOTTE E. WILLIAMS, who passed away October 21, 1965:
The depth of sorrow, I can not tell
Of the one I loved so well,
While she sleeps a peaceful sleep,
Her memory I shall always keep.
Her Loving Aunt and Godmother
ETHEL JOHNSON

WILSON — In loving memory of our son and brother, JOHN W. JR., who passed away August 30, 1969:
Gone forever,
And you, left us to remember
Your birthday comes each
Year so clear and we will never Forget you dear.
