Church group plans meeting to protest FHA discrimination

A mass meeting protesting the Federal Housing Authority's use of management firms that openly practice racial discrimination, has been announced by Frank M. Conaway, chairman of the Stewardship United Methodist Church-Committee on Discrimination in Housing.

The meeting will be held Friday, October 30, at 7:30 p.m., in the church auditorium, 213 Wilson St. The Rev. Marion C. Gray is pastor.

Mr. Conaway and the Rev. Reverend Gray, told the AFRO, "It looks like the Federal Government has no intentions of correcting its racial management policy and will continue to employ management firms that openly and blatantly practice racial discrimination."

Mr. Clapp, Baltimore Regional Director for FHA, has no intention of doing anything about this problem. And it is about time the community got together and made him correct his stand," the Rev. Mr. Gray said.

Parren J. Mitchell, Democratic Congressional nominee from Maryland's 7th Congressional District will be the keynote speaker.

HOME AGAIN — Father Henry J. Offer, SSJ, is now pastor at St. Francis Xavier and St. Paul's Church in East Baltimore. Father Offer had been pastor at St. Peter Claver from 1960 until this year. He had previously been pastor at St. Francis from 1954-1960.

Bill 1090 subject of CPHA dinner

"Is It True What They Say About House Bill 1090?" will be the subject of a Cocktail-Dinner and Discussion Meeting of the Citizens Planning and Housing Association Wednesday evening, October 28, at Martin's West, 6 p.m.

House Bill 1090 is one of the executive reorganization bills passed by the General Assembly this past session creating the Maryland State Department of Economic and Community Development.

It consolidates 16 commissions, boards and bureaus concerned with economic and community development in Maryland and establishes a State Community Development Administration to facilitate, subject to local governmental approval, planned mixed income community development.

It is the latter portion of the bill that has been petitioned to referendum and will therefore appear on the ballot, November 3 to be voted on by all voters throughout the state.

The meeting will introduce to the Baltimore public Edmond F. Rovner, Executive Assistant to Governor Mandel and Secretary of the newly created Department.

Because of the lack of clarity regarding this issue — its importance and timeliness, CPHA is opening reservations to the Dinner Meeting to the public. Tickets may be obtained at CPHA's City Office, 330 North Charles Street, or by calling LE. 9-1369.

Moderator of the discussion will be Arnold Zenker of WJZ-TV. Panelists will be Robert C. Embry, Jr., Commissioner of Baltimore's Department of Housing and Community Development; Homer E. Favor, Chairman of the Urban Studies Institute of Morgan State College; and Gerald A. Brown, Chairman of CPHA's County Planning Committee.

Fitness races now open to all

Ten "run for fitness" races for men, women and children will be sponsored during the next two months by the Druid Hill Branch of the YMCA of the Greater Baltimore Area.

The races, to be held in Druid Hill Park, are part of the YMCA's physical fitness program to help individuals increase physical stamina and stimulate mental and spiritual well-being.

The races, all beginning at 10 am., will be held October 24 and 31; November 7, 14, 21 and 28; and December 5, 12, and 19.

Male entrants will be required to run two miles while women and children will run one mile. Every person who finishes at least five of the ten races, regardless of how they place,

OCTOBER 27

The third annual Harford County public school Novice Cross-Country Meet will be held for ninth and tenth grade boys at the Harford Junior College. The ninth grade novice race will begin at 3:30 p.m. with the tenth grade race scheduled to begin at 3:45.

OCT. 23-25

Performances by the Smithsonian Puppet Theatre and the premiere performances of the Baltimore Theatre Ensemble puppet show, "Invasion on Puppet Mountain," will highlight the Towson State College Puppet Festival.

Women's Peace Group to meet

Vital national legislation on issues such as family assistance, equal rights and military funding will be presented by Miss Patricia Samuel, legislative director of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom when WILPF meets Saturday, Oct. 24, at Stony Run Friends Meeting House, 5116 North Charles St., at 2 p.m.

Miss Samuel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Samuel of Baltimore, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, taught high school in Africa under the AID program, and last July was a delegate to the Inter-American Conference of Women sponsored by WILPF in Bogota, Columbia

The public is invited to the meeting.
