TRICK OR TREAT BASKETBALL.

Tomorrow night 8:00 P.M.
Baltimore Civic Center
Bullets vs Phoenix

Halloween Night is Bullets Family Night. So you get a chance to see the fabulous Connie Hawkins and his team tangle with the Bullets. And we have a special treat in store for you. Each head of household pays full price for a $4.25 seat, but everyone else in the family gets the same price seat for only $2.50.

There's a trick, too. We'll have a costume contest at halftime, with free prizes for the best outfits. And if the head of the household wears a costume, he gets his $4.25 seat for the special low price of $2.50.
Tickets on sale at Montgomery Ward, Sears, Hochschild Kohns, AAA or call 837-0230.

Bullets seek to regain momentum on Phoenix

Momentarily derailed by the hotshot Detroit Pistons, the Bullets hope to recapture their winning ways tomorrow (Saturday) night against the Phoenix Suns at Civic Center.

The Suns are at .500 for the season and are in last place in the Central Division. But that is deceiving because the fact that they are in the same bracket with the unbeaten Pistons and defending champion Milwaukee Bucks should be taken to account.

Detroit streaked to her 9th straight victory after putting down a Baltimore really in the final two minutes to earn a 109-103 win.

Detroit got balanced scoring from Jimmy Walker, Dave Bing, Bob Lanier while pulling away from a 99-97 edge with 2:10 left in the game. Gus Johnson made it close for Baltimore with a pair of free throws but Walker and Lanier sparked a Piston surge that clinched the game.

ABOUT US TEENS

By ANGIE THORNTON

Another Tuesday and things are really happening in B-More. Let's get into the column that's happening right now.

The Soul Sisters and Brothers United had a really big success from their dinner which was held on Saturday, Oct 17 and they would like to thank all those responsible for it.

This group has a lot of big things planned for the future and they want all of you soul brothers and sisters to get ready for the things they have coming up.

• • •

This is the last week that you can get tickets for the Big, Bad, Teenage Cabaret that is being given by that out-of-sight band, Leslie and the Persions.

The cabaret will be given at the Central YWCA on Franklin St. and Park Ave. The time is from 7:30 p.m. to your hour and they will have that well known D.J. whose name I have to tell you is THE Roadrunner (Brent Lewis).

This is bound to be an out-of-sight thing so why not check it out. If you are interested call me and I'll turn you on to the action.

On Saturday, Oct. 24 the Frederick Douglass Marching Band, along with other bands, marched in the Morgan Homecoming Game parade and also played the Star Spangled Banner at the beginning of the game. It was a really exciting occasion.

The "Mini-Teens" are still planning their Halloween Party and it will be held on October 31 at 729 Grantley St. The winners in the Mr. Groove Contest for last week were Timothy Jeffrey Davis of No. 181, Jones, Northwestern, and Houston Woods Jr. Sr. High School.

Next week you can find Mr. Groove in front of the M and F Men's Shop between 3:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. and you can also find him there on Thursday at the same time.

The Big Bad Toys are getting ready for you and they want you to get ready for them. Girls do you want to join an out-of-sight club that will do it right? John the Big Bad Toys Sorority. If you are interested, call me. Their number is at the nd of this this column.

Also here's a reminder about Tonya LA PELLE and her tuff enterprises. She is really doing it and her Wigs and Whatnots Boutique on Monument St. along with the fabulous show she presents is just Too Too Tuff. if you want to know about Miss La Pelle, call me and I'll fill you in on it.

Let's not forget our main theme which is LOVE, PEACE and UNDERSTANDING. We have got to get along with our selves, with our fellow brother. So in other words we have got to get it together among ourselves first and then we can really swing. Dig It.

Hurting people doesn't do it, it only hurts you in return. Don't hurt people by hate, help them with love.

The Top 10 for this week are: 1. 5-10-15-20, 2. I'll Be There, 3. I Can't Get Over You 4. I Gave To You, 5. Engine No.9;

6. Deeper and Deeper, 7. I Do Take You, 8. Stand By Me, 9. Tears of a Clown, 10. I I Light 2 Light.

This week I'd like to say hello to The Toys (Big and Bad), the Truth and Soul Social Club, Tonya LeBelle, My brother Michael Belfield, all the high schools and their football teams, and also to all you soul-socking sisters and brothers.

Have you heard the new record called "So In Love." Isn't it just "Too Tuff." If you haven't heard it, try to listen to it and you'll see why it's going to be a Stone Hit.

Halloween is coming so call me and tell me what's happening with you. Time to say goodbye till next week.

Top 6: 1. So In Love, 2. Ain't No Mountain High Enough, 3. I Gave To You, 4. Super Bad, 5. Love Song, 6. Tears of a Clown.

If you have any interesting news please write "About Us Teens" c/o AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper, P.O. Box 1857, 21203, or write or call Angie Thornton, 1102 Clendenin St., Balto., Md. 21217 728-0057.

Improved Clippers, Barons vie tonite

The American League's two most improved clubs clash for the first time this season as the Clippers meet the Cleveland Barons tonight (Friday) at Civic Center.

Baltimore seeks to strengthen her hold on first place in the West, and the visiting Barons hope to get back on the winning track after a fast start. They won their first three, but then dropped the next three on the road.

With six wins in their first seven outgoing, the Clippers are off to the best start in the club's history. They have won all three of their home games and taken three of four on the road.

Marc Dufour, drafted from Springfield this summer is tied for the AHL scoring lead with Providence's rookie Randy Rota, each with 11 points. Fred Speck of the Clippers and Rey Comeau of the Barons are in a six-way tie for second, and each has six goals to pace the circuit in that department.

Dolphins match Colts receivers

Trere is one thing that is apparent as the Miami Dolphins move into town for Sunday's game against the Colts at Memorial Stadium. They can give as much as they take in the matter of passing and catching.

Other phases of the game have a measure of importance, too. Like the urge of the Colts to whip a Don Shula-coached team, and vice versa; the incentive that goes hand in hand in a battle for the division lead, and the lust for vengeance on the part of the Colts because of that 20-13 exhibition licking they absorbed in the Orange Bowl in August.

But, rarely does an opposing team take the field against Baltimore capable of beating them at their own game.

If John Unitas is a good passer, so is Miami's Bob Griese. The latter, in fact, has pitched completions 52.5 per cent of the time it has taken the Dolphins to run up a 4-2 record, second only in the division to the Colts.

Local fans are proud of their corps of receivers — Roy Jefferson, Eddie Hinton, Tom Mitchell and John Mackey. But Miami fans are equally enthusiastic about their trio of Willie Richardson, who may have a score to settle with the club which discarded him; tight end Marv Fleming and Paul Warfield, who many claim is the best in the business.

Warfield has caught 19 passes for 483 yard and a 25.4 average. Fleming, running from tight end, has grabbed 11, and running back Jim Kiick has pulled out of the backfield to latch onto 16. Baltimoreans need no updating on Richardson, who for four years was a favorite target for Unitas and Earl Morrall.

Griese has thrown seven touch-down passes and has been intercepted nine times. Unitas also has hit on seven TC throws, and has been intercepted seven times . . . LACY.

Boone Interiors Opens on Liberty Rd.

Baltimore's newest furniture showrooms have been opened to the public at Boone Interiors, 7003 Liberty Road, bordering on the Woodmoor Shopping Center.

Decimated by fire in June of this year, Boone Interiors has completely rebuilt its furniture showrooms in an even larger building, and with a unique concept.

Covering over 18,000 square feet, the showroom has been divided into 71 room settings, completely finished by interior decorators.

In this way, according to Maurice Boone, vice president of the company, people planning to buy furniture can get ideas for their own surroundings — and can avoid many of the pitfalls found in buying furniture either too small, too large, or set in the wrong surroundings.

• • •

Boone Interiors brings to Northwest Baltimore one of the most complete furniture services the area has seen.

In addition to a huge assortment of quality brands — many of them theirs exclusively in tre area — Boone carries a full complement of interior decorators, who assist the buyer in shaping the room to his or her personality.

As far as can be determined, Boone Interiors is the first (and oldest) furniture store-interior design company nationally whose entire top management (and ownership) is black.

FHA protest rally planned for tonight

Frank M. Conaway, chairman of the committee on discrimintaion in housing and the Rev. Mervin C. Gray, pastor of Strawbridge Methodist Church told the AFRO today that two cities will merge in greatest protest rally ever conducted against the Federal Housing Administration.

Several groups from Washington and Baltimore will meet at the Strawbridge Methodist Church auditorium, 7:30 o'clock tonight (Friday) to make known their dissatisfaction with practices of the Wallace H. Campbell Company, a management firm retained by the Federal Housing Administration.

Mr. Conaway stated that due to months of research and exchange of letters with Allen T. Clapp, Director of the Federal Housing Administration office in Baltimore, he feels that the problem can only be resolved by total community effort. Mr. Clapp apparently is insensitive to the problem and needs of the black people in Baltimore City.

• • •

Parren Mitchell, Congressional nominee, 7th district, will be the keynote speaker; and he has already stated that he will have much to say about discriminatory practices and housing managed by FHA.

Joining Mr. Mitchell at the protest rally is Clarence Mitchell III, Senator, 4th Legislative district, Baltimore City, who also stated that this is an issue that should be the concern of all people. Paul Sarbanes, Congressional nominee, 4th district is also invited to attend.

Mr. Clapp and Mr. Campbell were also invited to appear. Mr. Capp, however has indicated he will not attend.

Mr. Conaway and the Rev. Mr. Gray have filed class action complaint through the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development seeking a complete investigation of the Wallace H. Campbell, management firm.
