Bomb scare was hoax at OIC

A bomb threat telephone call to the Opportunity Industrial Center, Valley and Eager Sts., this afternoon (Friday) proved to be a hoax, but brought the evacuation of 30-odd students and officials from the building out in the rain, according to police.

The call came at 1:20 and police were called immediatly. However, they did not respond from Eastern District until 2:20, according to a witness.

An official at the Center, Mrs. Ruth Norris, assistant administrator, refused to discuss the incident with the AFRO, nor would she even verify that the bomb call had occurred.

Students and instructors, however, returned to the building shortly after arrival of police.

Lawyers' wives host at colorful dance

The Lawyers' Wives kept their party at Martin's West small and cozy, Friday evening, dancing to music of Jimmy Smith's orchestra, dining from a lush buffet, and chatting from table to table.

And add pretty, please! For the affair was actually a haute couture one with a flare of pants wear.

* * *

Mrs. Francis Green wore one of the highly attractive party suits . . of pink satin, corded at the hem of the tunic, and a corded motif midrif. Not in pantsuit but right in there for chic was Mrs. Stephanie Howard whose white crepe jump suit had a sheer, sheer midrif.

Mrs. Ben Foreman toppin her party pants with a black sequin tunic . . . and Mrs. Archie William's jump suit was of gold and white knit, fashioned with a roll collar and highlighted with a gold and brilliants pin.

Mrs. Milton Allen who was chairman, wore a brief-skirted sheath of sequins with a broad band of woolen material at the bottom and Mrs. Edward McDaniels was in forest green, designed with a long torso and a pleated flip skirt.

But Mrs. E. Gaines Lansey was as demure as you wish in a floor-length pink frock with matching floor-length evening coat.

Actually the black tie affair was a show case for candidates running in the November election . . . all of whom are husbands of the club's members.

The hostesses were Mesdames Martha Allen, Miriam Brown, Doris Cole, Joan Davis, Agnes Dorsey, Adele Foreman, Lorraine Hayes, Gwen Howard, Daisy Josey, Madeline Murphy, Betty Murphy, Clarice Parrish, Dorothy Reddick, Ruth Rosedome, Jackie Watts, Anna Williams, Natalie Woodson and Grace Walker.

League asks badges for judges

Everyone wears name tags these days at meetings, even at parties, so why are election judges singled out for anonymity? The League of Women voters of Baltimore think election judges should be identified by badges on Nov. 3.

Tre wearing of badges by judges is one of nine recommendations to the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore for the conduct of elections under existing law and it could be done in time for the Nov. 3 general election.

The League has suggested to Charles P. Crane that this recommendation would add to the voter's confidence in the election procedure. However, Mr. Crane was somewhat less than enthusiastic over the recommendation that the judges wear name badges.

The badges could also designate party affiliation in writing or by color code as on the ballot. It appears that this recommendation will not be done for the Nov. 3 election.

The other eight recommendations call for rewriting the Judges' Manual; providing a telephone at each polling place with a copy of the Official List of Polling Places; providing each precinct witr one voting machine for each unit of 400 registered voters or fraction thereof;

Encouraging early delivery of machines; requiring that every machine delivered to each precinct be readied for use and be available for use throughout the election day;

Providing more and larger placards, which state by whose authority they are placed;

Requiring performance bonds from all successful bidders; and,

Developing a manual for step-by-step preparation of machines.

Channel 13 airs Morgan State-North Carolina A and T Game.

Baltimore, October 21 — WJZ-TV (Channel 13) will telecast the Morgan State-North Carolina A and T football game on a one-day delayed broadcast Sunday, November 1, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Chuck Thompson will cover the play-by-play action during the colorcast and former Baltimore Colt backfield star Lennie Moore will do the color in the NCAA-Sanctioned game.

Morgan State's current 4-1 record makes them strong contenders for the number one slot in the Northern Division of the Central Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association. To date, North Carolina A and T is 3-3 on the season. However, history predicts a close contest. The Aggies have bested the Morgan States Bears in their last two gridiron meetings. In '68 they took a tight 7-6 victory from Morgan and in '69 the Bears again lost narrowly 20-19.

WJZ-TV will televise one other Morgan State game this season on a one-day delayed basis when the Bears meet Jackson State at RFK Memorial Stadium in Washington, D.C. The game will air Sunday, November 15 from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Channel 13.

SUNDAY 10 P.M. CHANNEL 2 ISSUES ON THE BALLOT!

WMAR-TV will present facts and opinions on both sides of the complex issues facing the voter next Tuesday. To help you give advance consideration to these matters, clip this checksheet and use it to record your conclusions. You may take it into the voting booth with you on Tuesday.
