YW meeting hears Mrs. Elliott; Mrs. Gross is new president

By B. M. PHILLIPS

Mrs. Grace Loucks Elliott, world - traveler, author and former national YWCA president, left a sick bed to attend the Baltimore YWCA's 79th annual meeting on Monday evening.

Because she is recovering from the flu, she remained seated, during her twenty-minute talk.

Her subject was "The Challenge of a Changing Era."

She told the 150 guests, several of them male leaders in the community:

"These are not easy days to be alive, not for an individual or for an organization trying to find its way to serve.

"No one is ready for the explosion in all areas of life . . . for the changes which will come.

"It is hardest for those of us who are oldest, for this is a world in which we were not born, and are not yet at home . . . we have by and large stopped being thankful . . ."

MRS. ELLIOTT suggested, "Liberals of my generation have forgotten what they believe in as right. The result is extremes from both the right and left have moved in."

To illustrate how outdated some things are, Mrs. Elliott recalled her own book of understanding adolescents.

"I am glad it is now out of print. This is a period when statistics tell us that seven out of ten girls are going to be pregnant before they are 20. Adolescence is no longer a transition step from childhood to womanhood.

"It is now often a period when they marry, have babies, rear families. Most of the YW programs for teenage girls are out of style."

THE TASKS she outlined for the YW if it will qualify to deal with people in this world of change are:

1. Help people — women and girls, find themselves, help them develop reverence and respect for themselves.

2. Try to change the negativeness of life to the positive. One would wish for temporary blindness or deafness for some to make them grateful for the power to be able to see and hear, and to appreciate institutions and what has gone before.

3. Reexamine all assumptions we ever started with. For example, none of the concepts of God we learned in Sunday school are good enough fr adequate worship of God today.

We must make it much broader. We must reconsider what we mean by integration . . . some people figure if you're inclusive you're integrated, but you're not unless you hear what the other person says.

4. We need to help the present generation establish their undebatables. Some people call them standards. I asked a group of teenagers the other day what things they don't debate. One said, "brushing your teeth."

And, finally, Mrs. Elliot suggested that we must learn to love our neighbors. Love in the sense which has nothing to do with whether you personally like a person. If he is someone with whom you personally have to deal, he is your neighbor.

MORE ELLIOTTISMS: "We must learn to live together with a global address."

"We must act by choice, rather than by default or conformity."

YWCA needs a core of committed people, willing to pay the price to have it be what it is.

If that means withdrawing from the Community Chest on an issue, who knows, there isn't anything any longer that is impossible.

Mrs. Carl W. Wheelock, outgoing president of the Baltimore YW for the past four years, presided.

Miss Lillian A. Matthews, 51 years a bookkeeper at the Central Y, received a special citation from Mrs. Abdella Campbell, second vice president.

A scroll with names of persons who have made bequests to the Y was presented bv Mrs. Arthur Grotz, the gift of Mrs. Wheelock.

MRS. HOUSTON R. JACKSON, chairman of tellers committee, announced the following officers for the next two years:

Mrs. Norman M. Gross, president; Mrs. John E. Motz, first vice president; Mrs. Abdella Campbell, second vice president; Miss Mary A. Adams, third vice president;

Mrs. Clyde M. Clapp, secretary; Mrs. Morgan M. Buchner, treasurer; Mrs. Marjorie J. Stevens, and Mrs. Harry S. Scott Jr., assistant treasurers.

Named to the board of directors for terms expiring in 1965 are: Mesdames Frank N. Jones, Roger K. Williams, Percy H. Baker, F. L. Bull, Raymond B. Case, Albert R. Fischer, Ernest B. Johnson and Misses Mary T. McCurley and Martha C. Parsons.

Elected to the nominating committee were: Mesdames Ralph V. Cook, Houston Jackson, Henry E. Corner, Harold Folkes, L. Elliot Williams Jr., and Miss Helen Garvin.

OTHER PROGRAM participants were: Mrs. Henrietta B. Martin, executive director of the Central Y, who gave a resume of her annual report; Mrs. Morgan M. Buchner, the treasurer's report; and Mrs. Gross, the auditor's report.

In her annual president's report, Mrs. Wheelock, saw the past four years as 'challenging ones.'

She noted that the Y program has the stress and strain of the city's development program.

She saw the need to continue the program to help people in changing neighborhoods, and she praised the dozens of volunteers who have provided "an abundance of leadership teamwork."

Music was by Dr. Donald Somerville, baritone, with Richard Foss at the piano. Both are from Towson Presbyterian Church.

Former presidents seated at the head table were: Mrs. Clyde A. Clapp, Mrs. Henry E. Corner and Mrs. Elizabeth H. Bartlett. Prayer was by Miss Mary Adams.

OTHER SPECIAL guests included: Paul S. Parsons; vice president, Community Chest; Gordon Manser, executive director the Health and Welfare Council, who leaves shortly to accept a similar post in New York;

Also, A. Cheston Carey, son of former Y president, Mrs. A. Morris Carey, a member of the board for 40 years; Gordon McGregor, executive secretary of the YMCA, and Mrs. McGregor;

And, Nathan R. Jerald, and Leonard A. Seimes, National Conference of Christians and Jews; the Rev. Dozel Wildey, Council of Churches, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Phillips, vice president, AFRO - AMERICAN Co.

Mrs. Robert W. Galloway was chairman of the annual meeting committee which also included, Mrs. Beatrice Hall, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Campbell.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

WMN's Hawaiian luau was 'the most'

with Lula Jones Garrett

That was quite a party... yes, quite a party (the Hawaiian lawn) which the WMN's gave on the eve of Memorial Day.

But it had to be, what with its chic hostesses and great imagination . . . what with the Cherry Hill Union Hall the setting and the N'th in decorations enhancing the place.

The hostesses were: Gwendolyn M. Carter, Kay Carter, Robbie Chissell, Wilhelmina A. Garner, Ivy L. Harris, Stevie Harris, Ruth Jennifer, Jimmie A. Laforest, Norma Maiden, Hortense Perkins, Nicki Randolph, Ellsworth Rhetta . . . backed of course, by the men in their lives, including:

Other member, Cleota Brayboy, is as you know in Alaska.

The WMN's wore eye-catching sarongs of polished cotton in the most exotic flowered or striped motifs. They tucked huge habiscus flowers in their hair and slung colorful leis about their shoulders.

They shared the glamour with their guests, by adorning both men and women with leis, and pinning sprays of flowers in the women's hair. They slung colorful nets over the cloths on their individual tables, and filled the tables with drinks of all kinds.

And they spread a luau that ran the gamut from whole suckling pig to salads, sea foods and tropical as well as domestic fruits.

They garnered Bobby Felter and his orchestra for the dancing, and it was something again to see that energetic bunch swing from the most intricate twists to the most sedate waltzes.

After the dance, Dr. and Mrs. Harris entertained at breakfast.

Guests for the dance were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Lorenza Felder, Waverly Hendricks, Harry Cole, William Mumby, Ulysses Lee, Rudolph Redd, Raymond Young, John Wood,

Messrs. and Mesdames Howard Collins, George Lottier, Warren Weaver, William Thompson, Earl Nash, John Stokes, Charles Brown, James Gilliam, Samuel Daniels,

Messrs. and Mesdames Lawrence Mapp, George Russell, Steven Moore, Claude Young, Joel Newton, William Pinderhughes, Walter Edmonds, David Scott, Robert Harris,

Messrs and Mesdames Douglass Henderson, Roiand Williams, David Driver, Robert Diggs, Powell Sheffey, Benjamin Foreman, James Lee, Richard Cummings,

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Watts, Myles Robinson, James Perkins, John Woolford, Edward Thomas, Miles Harrison, John Hall, Milton Stanley,

Messrs. and Mesdames Irving Williams, Charles Parker, George Woodland, Charles Michael, Emerson Brown;

Drs. and Mesdames Lonnie Green, Marcus Moore, Allan Forte, John Chissell, George Pendleton, Thomas Jones, Royston Scott, William Hall,

Drs. and Mesdames Albert Burwell, James C., I. B. Higgins, Raymond Gray, Theodore Phifer, Percival Smith, Thurman O'Daniel, George Woodland; Lt. Col. and Mrs. Steve Davis;

Mesdames Carolyn Hawkins, Tillie Patter, Lula Patterson; Jerilyn Manuel, Evelyn Johnson, Gloria Barnes, [illegible]sie Colson, Myrna Randolph Clarence Hawkins, Henry Freeman, Frank Ellis, Thomas Brown,

MRS. VIOLA C. JACKSON of Washington, former principal of School No. 112, was the honoree when the Pals entertained at a dinner party in the Powhatan Avenue home of Mary K. Pool, this week.

Mrs. Jackson was met at the station by Josephine Neal. Upon arrival at Mary's home, an [illegible] was pinned on her by Ethel Brewington. . . and soon afterwards guests were being taken to the candle - lighted dining room and sun parlor for the delectable meal.

A beautiful garden cake, with a colorfully dressed doll at the entrance to the "garden" was the center piece for the buffet table. The other decorations were carried out in pink also.

Following dinner, guests returned to the living room, where, with Sallie Fletcher serving as mistress of ceremonies, came Reflections of Yesterday". A poem "Once upon a Time" by Corheda Better; the gift of a beautiful chiffon wool sweater, presented by Addie Butler; and a response by the honoree filled that hour.

Later still, on the patio, guests enjoyed snacks, refreshments, and picture taking. To climax the evening, Lavalette Campher presented a rose to each guest, among them being:

Mesdames Jackson, Anita Johnson, Addie Butler, Josephine Neal, Corheda Better, Sallie Fletcher, Bernice Taylor, Carrie Carter, Elizabeth Matthews, Mesdames Shirley Griffin, Naomi Stanley, Ethel Brewington, Lavalette Campher, Emily Bryant, Audrey Hardin and Mary K Pool.

THE WE WIVES and husbands were entertained by Verniece and Medford Reynolds at the special dinner meeting which included a special demonstration by Mrs. Gertrude Connor of Youngsware.

Mrs. Connor showed how a meal for more than 30 people could be served in Stainless Steel waterless cookware on one burner through stacking with even the dessert being cooked and kept hot.

After dinner, served piping hot and delicious, the husbands retired to the club room with Medford and the group held election of officers. A standing ovation was given Verniece for the variety of planning for the meetings during the past two years.

New officers are:

Adelle Foreman, president; Lillian Ross, vice-president; Priscilla Lansey, recording secretary; Agnes Reaves, corresponding secretary; and Iris Mapp, treasurer.

About were:

Ada and Warren Weaver; Iris and Lawrence Mapp, Ed and Ida Smith, Priscilla and Gaines Lansey, Ivy and Sherlock Grinage, Agnes and J. C. Reaves, Adelle and Ben Foreman,

LOOK LIKE A QUEEN and feel like one, too... when you give your hair PLUKO care

Give your hair a silken sheen that sparkles with every movement of your head, attracting all eyes your way. Daily Pluko care makes dry, brittle, dull hair easy to arrange in your most flattering style—and stay that way! Pluko helps splitting ends, too, makes hair look longer, softer, smoother, inviting to caress! Try Pluko. See the difference.
