Be a hostess with an Hawaiian eye!

During the warm days of spring, that urge to enjoy life in the outdoors overwhelms us.

Whether it is a call to the beach, the park, your backyard, or patio, "What's on the Menu" becomes very important.

Assuming that the charcoal - grills and Hibachi-ovens are in good repair, thoughts of juicy hamburgers, barbecued chicken and ribs, succulent broiled steaks should be dancing around in our heads.

* * *

WANT TO BE different? Go native as the Hawaiians do with their spicy way of barbecueing ribs. This is guaranteed to be a top favorite with your family and friends, especially those with discerning tastes for foods with foreign flavors.

* * *

HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY SPARERIBS

3 4 lbs lean meaty spare-ribs
½ cup Soy Sauce
1/3 cup pineapple juice
1 clove garlic, chopped
½ cup chopped onion
¼ cup catsup
3 tablespoons brown sugar
½ teaspoon ground ginger

* * *

CUT RIBS as desired; parboil 30 minutes; drain. Combine remaining ingredients in a large shallow pan; marinate ribs in mixture about one hour.

* * *

PLACE MARINATED ribs on grill over hot coals, turning and brushing often with sauce, 30 minutes or until richly glazed and tender. Or, bake in oven at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes basting often. Makes three to four servings.

A very elegant dish is the Kabob—that is, food threaded on a skewer and cooked. This style of eating comes from the Far East. To show your individuality and finesse as a hostess, serve these juicy morsels as a part of your next outdoor feast:

* * *

HAWAIIAN KABOBS

1 lb. ground lean ham
1 lb ground lean pork
1 cup bread crumbs
2 eggs, beaten
2/3 cup apricot juice
16 cooked apricot halves
8 spiced crab apples

* * *

COMBINE MEAT, crumbs eggs and apricot juice, mixing lightly and thoroughly. Chill. Shape into 32 balls; place in a shallow baking pan. Bake in slow oven, 325 degrees F for 1 - hour; drain.

Place in refrigerator until eating - time. For each Kabob, string — alternately— 4 balls, two apricot halves and one crab apple on a metal skewer. Heat over an outdoor grill (or bake in a shallow pan in a 350 degree oven for about 15 mins.). Makes 8 Kabobs.

* * *

SHRIMP DINNER EN BROCHETTE

2 lbs. large shrimp
6-8 small white onions
1 large green pepper, cut in pieces
1 10 oz. pkg. frozen cauliflowerettes
2 cups French dressing

* * *

PREPARE AND wash shrimp, onions and green pepper. Separate cauliflowerettes. Marinate all in French dressing three to four hours.

String shrimp and vegetables on separate skewers.

Broil over charcoal fire until vegetables are tender. Do not start cooking shrimp until vegetables have partially cooked.

Serve with Bleu Cheese crackers. Makes four to six servings.

* * *

PRACTICALLY everyone has his own method of making Barbecue Sauce with a dash of this - and - that.

Some like it Hot. and some like it Not - So - Hot.

This recipe to follow has several ingredients, but the results are well worth the efforts in getting them. During the cooking, other ingredients may be added to "Red - Devil" the flavor.

* * *

BARBECUE SAUCE (1½ qts.)

½ cup diced green pepper
2 medium onions, minced
2 cloves garlic, crushed
¼ cup oil
2 cups tomato catsup
1 cup chili sauce
½ cup water of beer
½ cup beefsteak sauce
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 teaspoon grated horse-radish
½ cup lemon juice
¼ cup vinegar
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon black pepper

* * *

FRY ONIONS, green pepper and garlic in oil. Add re- MORE ON MACH 4-59 maining ingredients. Simmer over low heat for one hour or more. Stir occasionally while cooking. For ribs and chicken.

Good potato salad is another favorite Outdoor-Special. Dress it up with baconbits, chopped olives, chives, ham bits, sour cream, etc. But for goodness sake, keep it refrigerated — to prevent food poisoning. Baked Beans are often a part of Outdoor—Fare, also.

With raw vegetables, fruit, and easily served desserts plus plenty of punch or hot coffee, your Outdoor meal is a success.
