On the TOWN

...with the Critic

HELP!!!! — This is the signal beamed across ouburg by the Arena Players that real "live" bunch of actors and actresses who have done more than their share to keep theatre alive in the flesh in our town.

And before putting the "beg" tag on the appeal, hear them out. They don't want money. They only want what other "arts" enthusiasts want — community support to pursue the arts for the sake of art theatre, dancing, music, a mere bit of culture, if you please.

What's more, their performances for the past 10 years have more than proved that they deserve our support.

So let's get with it and help put this square town in company with other forward moving metropolitan centers.

Here's what they need:

Male actors, discarded clothing (shirts, suits, and dresses), and additional members who posses various talents that blend well with the job of producing plays.

UNDER FOUNDER and director Samuel Wilson, Arena Players have hung together for 10 years and have come a long way.

For the first time in their existence, they now have a home of their own. How they got it and what it took to get it was dealt with in a previous piece. But it's worthy of repeating that it was a fabulous thing.

In order that the theatre can be maintained as beautiful as they have been able to make through honest to goodness slaving the Players will operate this summer for the first time.

The summer productions will begin June 6 when "Two Pairs of Two," including "The Sandbox," "The Still Alarm," "The Ugly Duckling," and "The Zoo Story," will be presented.

Admission is but $1.50 and for this next-to nothing fee, you're assured of top-notch entertainment. So plan now to attend. Call 727-0686 after 6 p.m. for details.

MORE THEATRE IN THE RAW — The Painter's Mill Fair, which yearly treks to its Reisterstown Rd. quarters, will open June 8. Top names in Broadway music, comedy, and drama will be on display, so don't want to Miss this either.

THE PYRAMIDS, AGAIN — The Gloria Lynn Set thrown by the Pyramids at the Armory Saturday was fantastic. Charlie Brice, who sits atop the pyramid apex, tells us more than 6,000 souls jammed in, according to official tally.

Glad Charlie told us. We were there, but there was no way of knowing how many partook of the "Soul Sister's" offering.

But we do know that every crevice and corner was packed with brothers and sisters. And they had a ball.

As we've said all along, this gang of guys can lay claim to the title of being the smoothest operators around . . . without being challenged.

Charlie said more than 150 persons were behind the scene . . . which produced the pyramid decor which was crowned by the center stage, where Gloria sang pretty for the people.

Our man Harry (Doc) Youg did all right, too. And what about those Imperials? They reely tore it up.

'Twas a nice one, for sure.

IF YOU suddenly get the feeling that you are in a department store basement on good Old George's birthday while making the rounds on early week nights, don't flip.

It is intended to be that way. From Monday through Wednesday funseekers are given a run for their dough.

Like for instance, the past seven when the Rat Pack bit several high spots, "giving the most for the least was the thing."

Bamboo's Andy hung out this sign: "Every day 10 a.m. 'til 7 p.m. 3 drinks for $1.21. Every Sunday, 1 'til 6 p.m., all-you-can-drink and eat — buffet style, $4.50 And there was live entertainment, yet.

MACEO'S MACE pulled in a packed house with the 3 for 1 kick, backed by plies of chow . . . the fabulous organ sounds the town's best pedal and push men, made up the musical background.

Then there's Al Brown's sleek operation at the Casino, the "Big Three Night" among other just as way-out carryings-on. To make the more palatable, yet Al's Tune Toppers and Sonny Hatchett are dishing out brilliant entertainment.

By and by, when you stop in Casino, ask Bernice, the pert and bright pourer, to give you a demonstration in the new approach to mathematics.

That technique of hers will give an automatic calculater a fit! And it operates so wierd, too.

SAMMY JAY, the dynamic disc J and the Soul Brothers pen this note:

"Let's swing all summer on Thursday nites at Dotson's, Glen Burnie." Very casual dress for a swinging party. Frank Reddish, the biz wheel, amens it!

If by chance you miss running into a fellow stroller on the neon strip, don't give up, even if it's 3 ayem.

It's pretty good bet that you'll find them at Nates' and Leon, gathering place for a lot of hungry folk who guard the dawn patrol. . . . this includes Internal Revenueer Margie and G-girl partner Bee.

CRAWLER IS wiggies no end to fling out the welcome mat to some new faces along the late watch beat. This would be the swinging gang at Castle D'or, where North meets St. Paul.

If you want to get lost without making it to suburbia, stop in at Alpine Villa, East Baltimore way. That spot has more extra rooms kitchens, joy fountains than a Spanish Castle.

There are not many rooms at Red Fox, Jones Cocktail Lounge, Club 2300, Chick's and Knotty Pine, but there are loads of happenings.

Howard Dixon and the Comedy, convinced that the burg's jazzy lovers aren't for real, have reverted to style—a steady diet of rock and roll, blues, and any other sounds ruary until April.

where a man has a chance to hang onto his shirt and not blow bales of dough while attempting to bring "culture" to the cement jungle.

He tried, but it was useless, we know!

Atlanta hotel accepts mixed baseball team

ATLANTA, Ga. — The first Atlanta Hotel to voluntarily meet the challenge of integration forces here when it housed all members of the Jacksonville Suns of the International League early last week.

The Jacksonville team, which has several tan players, was housed at the hotel, located on famed Peachtree Street, after its game with the Atlanta Crackers baseball team.

It was not immediately known, however, whether the exclusive downtown hotel would extend its services to colored people in general.

BEFORE integrating, the hotel's management had released a short statement saying, "The hotel has agreed to take the visiting baseball teams."

The move by the Peachtree Manor was considered a step in the right direction by leaders of such civic groups as the NAACP.

Leaders have been negotiating with Atlanta hotels in an effort to bring about integration. They have also accused the hotel owners of not bargaining in good faith.

Fleet Frederick femme features busy weekend

A fast and formidable Frederick (Md.) Track and Field Club heads the entry list for tomorrow (Saturday's) Junior Olympics, scheduled for Clifton Park.

The Olympic development games highlight a busy Baltimore weekend of cinder activity, the second phase of which is the South Atlantic Spring meet, also slated for Clifton but, on Sunday.

DEBBIE THOMPson is hailed by Eastern track buffs as a future Wilma Rudolph, heads the Frederick contingent which will invade the city by bus. The 14 - year - old Western Frederick Junior High School darling was the sensation of te recent Lone Island Relay carnival, held at Adelphi College.

She captured three events and was second in a fourth to gain outstanding athlete honors.

Moreover, in the first major meet of her career, the National Women's Indoor championships at Louisville in March, Miss Thompson finished second to Jean Holmes of Tennessee State, who the previous week had whipped Miss Rudolph in California.

FREDERICK COACH Jack Griffin's entourage will also include hurdler Tammy Davis, another sparkler Marlene Snowden, Sherril Hoy and Ruth Thompson.

Girls' events of the Junior Olympic meet will get under way at 11 a.m. Boys' competitions will commence at 1 p.m.

ON SUNDAY, a strong squad from Maryland State College will head a band of athletes using the SAA games as a springboard to the national championships, calendared for June 22 - 23 at Walnut, Cal.

Maryland State, which recently was crowned CIAA champion, is headed by triple stars Russ Rogers and Charlie Mays—LACY.

DEBBIE THOMPSON

Ex-Howard and Union gridders inked by Colts

The Baltimore Colts announced Friday that they had fortified their training camp roster with the enlistment of three free agents.

The signings brought to 21 the number of rookies who'll be reporting to coach Weeb Ewbank for summer drills.

ONE OF the newcomers, Napoleon Barbosa, 6-1, 215 pounds, will be injected into the battle for a tight back assignment.

A strong and powerful runner, the 24-year-old Barbosa glistened as a carrier, passer and punter while playing quarterback and fullback at Virginia Union in Richmond.

SCHEDULED for line tests are 6-1, 250-pound Sterling Parker and 6-3, 245-pound Tom Condon. Parker, a former standout at Howard University, played independent ball in the Washington, D. C. area last season.

The 25-year-old Fairmont Heights Md. resident will probably be entered in the defensive tackle competition.

CONDON, who is currently awaiting his release from active duty with the Army Reserves, attracted attention while performing with the Fort Devens, Mass. eleven last fall.

The 24-year-old Californian was recommended to the Colts by his teammate at Los Angeles State, Fred Gillett.

The latter will be a Baltimore fullback candidate next month.

Condon, who boasts exceptional speed for a lineman, is expected to be given a shot at offensive guard or defensive end.

Louis urges legislation to aid boxers

LOS ANGELES — (ANP) — Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis speaking from the witness chair before the California assembly committee "investigating boxing and safety proposals for the sport, last week urged legislation to protect prizefighters.

He stated that prizefighters should be required to set aside a percentage of their earnings so they would be able to pay income taxes at the end of the year. This would be equivalent to putting fighters on a pay-as-you go basis.

LOUIS' recommendations on establishing a procedure for boxers were accompanied by suggestions that promoters donate part of their revenues from fights to a welfare and pension fund for needy boxers.

There was also a recommendation for creating a national boxing commission to regulate boxing.

Both Louis and Aileen Eaton, co - promoter of the Olympic Auditorium, recommended the commission.

Walbrook five easily wins tenpin title

The talent - loaded all-tan Walbrook team rolled over the competition to score easily in the Women's Classic Tenpin bowling league last weekend, sweeping its final two games to secure a lead of 9½ games over the nearest pursuer.

The team of Dolly Madison, Kitty Chesson, Bertha Lockett, Rose Burnham and Bea Johnson walloped Towson and second place Glen Burnie in the final two matches of the season.

NEEDING ONE more victory to clinch the title, the Walbrook quintet took no chances. It swept aside its two opponents without the loss of a game.

Towson was throttled 853-796, 893-783, 868 - 729, and Perry Hall was downed 816-793, 891 - 711, and 952-698.

MRS. MADISON was the top kegler of the Towson match, putting together three 200 - plus games for a 627 series. Mrs. Chesson was next at 530, followed by Mrs. Lockett, 513; Mrs. Burnham, 499, and Miss Johnson at 445.

Against Perry Hall, Mrs. Chesson led the way. She tallied 580, with Miss Johnson at 539. Mrs. Madison at 533, Mrs. Lockett at 520, and Mrs. Burnham at 479.

IN THE FINAL standings, Walbrook boasted a 42½-11½ record. The competition followed in this order:

Glen Burnie, 33 - 21; Ritchie, 32 - 22; Fairlanes, 31½ - 22½; Dundalk, 28½ - 25½; Reisterstown, Normandy, Woodlawn, Perry Hall and Towson.

Thomas enters Compton jump

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — John Thomas, U.S. high jump champion, will compete in the Compton Invitational field here tomorrow (Saturday).

Other top athletes are Joe Faust, Bob Avant and Australia's Colin Ridgway. It will be the first West Coast showing for Ridgway. Thomas, the 6-6 Boston university star who was topped in the Olympics by Russia's Brumel, will also make his first West Coast appearance of the year.

Thomas has more 7 - feet jumps to his credit than Brumel.

Citywide tennis meet at Clifton Park June 18

The season's first city-wide tennis tournament will be held at Clifton Park June 18-22 under the joint sponsorship of the Pepsi - Cola Company of Baltimore and the Baltimore Junior Association of Commerce.

Known as the Baltimore J A C tennis tournament, the event includes matches for boys and girls, with each sex divided into three age groups: uner 13, under 15, and under 18. First and second prizes will be awarded in each division.

Spokesmen for the J A C's say that many more are expected this year than last as the result of carefully planned promotion through the city's high schools.

PLAYERS interested in entering are invited to telephone or mail a postcard either to Z. D. Maciekowich at 1019 Crosby Road, Baltimore 29, Md. RI. 7-0729; or the J. A. C. Office, 22 Light Street, Baltimore 2, Md., PL. 2-1325.

If a postcard is mailed, it should have the name, address, age and telephone number, if any, or the entrant. All entries must be in by June 11.

GIANT KILLER — Harry Jerome of Oregon University, outfinished Florida A and M's Bob Hayes Saturday night at Modesto, Cal. Jerome broke tape in 9.3 seconds, a bare whisker ahead of youth who week before whipped world record-holder Frank Budd.
