mentary education and would have graduated in February. She was a member of the Senior Senate.

Mr. Messick, owner of the car, attended Salisbury High where he was a member of the basketball team. He was also a veteran, and an elementary education major at Bowie.

Among the college organizations in which he held membership were the Men's Senate, Veterans Club, National Education Association, Student Congress.

He was scheduled to graduate on Saturday.

MISS FORD, one of the students killed, was a graduate of Frederick Douglass High School in Upper Marlboro. She is the daughter of Mrs. Grace C. Ford.

The student, who would have finished in February, was a member of the Press Club, the school choir and the intramural volley ball team.

Mr. Neal, another fatality, was the captain of the Bowie basketball team and would have finished in February.

He graduated from Springarn High School in Washington where he played basketball and football. He was top scorer of the Bowie team.

He was also a member of the newspaper staff. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Neal.

MRS. WHITE, the senior who would have graduated Saturday, had she lived, was an elementary education major. She was a member of the Junior and Senior Senate and was on the staff of the school yearbook.

Her husband is listed as John White, 2500 block Emerson St., Baltimore.

The fourth victim, Miss Williams, was a junior. She was born in Welcome, Md., and was the daughter of Harry Williams. She was an elementary education major.

The last victim, Mr. Wright, was a graduate of the Salisbury High School and a veteran of the Korean War. In high school he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis C. Wright, of Quantico, Md., and was a sophomore.

His family said a wallet containing $13 was recovered from the body. "He had only one scar on his head," said the spokesman, "but one leg was completely amputated."

Frederick, who was to graduate next February, was last seen alive by his family last weekend, when he brought most of his clothes home from school in anticipation of school closing next week.

"He had finished all his final exams," said the spokesman, "and he made all A's and B's."

Frederick played on the varsity basketball team and during high school days, was captain of the Spingarn basket ball team. At Bowie, he was majoring in elementary education and was a member of the newspaper staff. He belonged to Turner Memorial Church.

Funeral arrangements were indefinite Thursday, but are being handled by the Stewart Funeral Home. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Neal; a sister, Ervina; a brother, Bruce; a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Floriel Geter of Paoli, Pa., two aunts and three uncles.

AT THE HOMES of the other two area victims, the sequence had been much the same; the policeman bearing sad news, the body to be identified, the shock to be borne . . .

"She was such a friendly person," said Mrs. Carolyn P. Dade, 4416 Porter Ave., SE, of Rose Marie Ford.

"She was very interested in her work," was the way the Bowie student, who lived with Mrs. Dade, was described.

Miss Ford, who was also to graduate next February, like Frederick, had brought most of her clothing home in anticipation of school closored graduating students from commencement season social activities will probably be aired Friday at the annual board meeting of the Medical College of Virginia.

This is as much as the college president, Dr. R. Blackwell Smith Jr. would say Monday regarding the fact that two such students of the school of Medicine have not been invited to participate in the graduation social affairs.

THEY ARE Charles F. Christian of 2816 Griffin Ave., who has maintained the highest academic rating in the graduating class of 88 students; and Miss Yvonne-eris Smith of 1708 Rogers St. Both are candidates for the MD degree.

Faculty disapproval of the exclusion policy was indicated at a lively discussion meeting last Friday in which a vote of 70 to 14, asking that the racial restriction be lifted henceforth.

Another faculty meeting was held Monday, but according to Dr. Smith, the matter was not again discussed at this time.

STUDENT disapproval of the exclusion policy was exp-

pressed on Monday, also in a resolution to the administration.

It is understood that the faculty had taken an earlier stand against the racial discrimination factor in previous years. The first colored medical student was graduated in 1955 and several students ha veattended the various other schools in intervening years.

This year two will be graduated from the School of Physical Therapy, a two-year course, and two others from Medical Technology, a 12-month course.

The social calendar includes a dance Friday night for the graduates at Tantilla Gardens; a Saturday banquet, alumni reunion, and Saturday night dance at the John Marshall Hotel.

It is understood that most of these functions are sponsored by the alumni.

Baccalaureate services are set for Sunday morning at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, 8th and Grace Sts. Commencement is set for 4 p.m. Sunday at the Mosque.

DR. CHRISTIAN, a top academic student throughout his four years at MCV is from Charles City County, where he attended Ruthville High School. He is also a graduate of Virginia State College.

As an Army serviceman in both World War 2 and the Korean Conflict, he attained the rank of captain.

Initially discharged in 1946, he attended Virginia State College, and was recalled to Army service in 1950.

DISCHARGED in August 1958, he entered MCV that September. He had bought a home in Richmond during his military service which made MCV convenient, otherwise he might have entered Meharry Medical College instead. He plans to intern at MCV.

Miss Smith chose study at Newport News, is a graduate of Hampton Institute.

MISS Smith chose study at MCV because it is a state institution which she felt would be less expensive for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Smith, who now live in Aloosie, N.C.

She plans to intern at Kings County Hospital Center, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Dr. Christian, 37, is marrie to Mrs. Gwendolyn Coles Christian, a Richmond School teacher.

—Dixon bill

Mr. Bonnett said:

"I believe this is a smoke screen to come back and ask for more. A lot of members have been fooled by tis ordinance".

Councilman Anthony F. Di. Domenico (D., 3rd Dist.) stated: "I have lived with this and I am glad to see we are about to ass a law to give human dignity to all".

Councilman C. Lyman Schueler said: "I am sold on this ordinance as amended."

Councilman Frank X Gallagher (D., 3rd Dist.) called voting favorably on the ordinance a "necessary step" and added. "I think it is unfortunate that it was left to the City to initate this move."

Councilman Henry R. Hergenroeder (D., 3rd Dist) said "I hope this will not be an out for the Legislature."

AS CHAIRMAN of the Judiciary Committee, Councilman Hergenroeder was expected to vote for the ordinance. He stunned the audience momentarily when he announced, "I vote no".

When Mr. Goodman asked the Councilman if he didn't mean "yes", Mr. Hergenroder answered "I vote no".

PRIOR TO casting his vote Councilman Walter T. Dixon (D., 4th Dist.) sponsor of the bill stated:

"My speech has been made by my colleagues from the Fourth and Fifth Districts on this ordinance."

"This is the time and place for the men of this Council to exercise their leadership.

"There is a moral issue involved here. This issue has been kicked around enough. I abhor this amendment but (the steering committee wants it.

"Baltimore has been held up as the laughing stock of this country for discriminating against my people. Deep down they (the opponents) know this ordinance is right.

"We have got to decide what kind of philosophy will rule this city." Council Dixon declared.

COUNCILMAN ALPERT added: "The Dixon Bill as amended today is not the bill my colleague Walter Dixon introduced here.

"Gentlemen, this is a very unfair amendment to put in the Dixon Bill but as he said, half a loaf is better than nothing."

Councilman William L. Hodges (D., 6th Dist.) passed when his vote was called for but he said "the entire bill belongs in Annapolis for enactment and should be passed on a state-wide basis."

COUNCILMEN who voted for the bill are as follows:

FOR — Philip H. Goodman, president; Anthony F. DiDominico, Clement J. Prucha, C. Lyman Schueler, Second District.

Maxwell Alpert, Walter T. Dixon, Maurice J. Soyther, Fourth District.

Jacob J. Edelman, Soloman Liss, Leon A. Rubenstein, William D. Schaefer, Fifth District.

Peter G. Angelos, Frank Gallagher, Third District.

AGAINST — William Bonnet, James J. Duffy, Joseph J. Staszak, First District.

George Arthur and Henry R. Hergenroder, Third.

Thomas P. Fallon and Michael J. McHale, Sixth.

William J. Hodges, also of the Sixth, passed.

THE DION BILL will not become law until given final approval on Monday.

It is believed at that time efforts will be made to delete the controversal amendment, and to add a member of the Restaurant Association to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

MAYOR J. Harold Grady has announced that he opposes efforts to amend the bill.

He called adoption of the Dixon bill "a sound step in the right direction."

The mayor added that "when you are pioneering you can't always get the very best bill possible".

City Council President Goodman also called approval of the bill "a step forward in the right direction."

WHILE THE "very rich" have and other privileges inherited by the ruling class, the "have-nots" are free to circulate, enjoy equal public accommodations—those they can afford, he said.

"There it's strictly a thing of economics. If you have it, you are in. If you don't, you are out," he emphasized.

Lack of discrimination as we know it.

The career government man who has seen a lot of the globe in his 47 years, is looking forward to an end to his work abroad.

Then what?

"I intend to return to Westminster and do what I can there to improve conditions. Expanding the housing development and businesses he and his brother jointly own rates high on his list of things yet to be done, Mr. Diggs said.

"AND I MIGHT even find time to get married," he smiled. "You see I have itchy feet, and no one has been able to catch me and pin me down," he chuckled.

Until then, the man in motion will keep moving—UPI.

hospital in the early afternoon on Memorial Day and died two hours later.

A spokesman for the family said he had suffered declining health since the death of his wife, Mrs. Katie Butler Fitzhugh, who died March 23, nine week previous.

They had been married 30 years.

Mr. Fitzhugh was a member of the Enon Church 50 years and trustee board chairman 41 years until he retired in 1961.

For more than 50 years he owned and operated the Northside Lunch Room, 10th and K Sts., Sparrows Point, Md., which he established shortly after he came to Maryland from Virginia in 1911.

AN ACTIVE 33rd degree Prince Hall Mason, Mr. Fitzhugh's death closes a colorful coreer of more than 50 years in the lodge.

He was a lifelong friend and closely associated with Dr. Willard W. Allen, the Most Ponissant Grand Sovereign Scottish Rite Southern Jurisdiction Commander who died in October, 1961.

A few days prior to Mr. Fitzhugh's death, he was notified that he was due to be honored along with two other high Masonic officials whose service to the lodge totals 120 years.

The other two are Alvan S Stanley, Prince Hall Grand lodge secretary 29 years, and Henry U. Ayers, Grand lecturer 40 years. The occasion comes June 8 as the lodge's First Annual Awards Night.

MR. FITZHUGH was born Feb. 6, 1873 in Atlanthus, son of the late Adeline and George Fitzhugh.

He as educated in Culpeper County and came to Maryland when a young man to begin the unusual career which saw him devoted to his church, the fraternal order and his business.

He was elected to the honorary treasurer general emeritus post in October, 1961 at the Supreme Council session in Washington.

For 40 years he had held the position as treasurer general of the Supreme Council which includes the 22 states in the Southern Jurisdiction from Maryland to California.

SUCCEEDING MR. Fitzhugh is Louis W. Roy, Sr., of Washington.

Mr. Fitzhugh was member and Past. Master of the Enterprise Lodge No. 3 of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the State of Maryland 50 years and served as its treasurer 40 years.

In addition to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Butler, Mr. Fitzhugh is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Daisy Fitzhugh Morgan, New York City; Mrs. Harriett Fitzhugh Perry, Newport, R.I.; another sister-in-law, Mrs. Arpearlia Smith, Manasses, Va.

Others surviving include nieces and nephews, George Bailey, Baltimore; Howard N. Fitzhugh, Washington; Mrs. Beatrice Travis, Mrs. Ethel Ramsey, John A. Kirby, Richard H. Kirby, Mrs. Adeline Scott, New York City; Mrs. Ruth McCoy, Ernest Parker, both of Boston, Mass.; Samuel and George Parker and Miss Laura Parker, Newport and Mrs. Ernestine Parker Lomax, wife of Seaman Robert Lomax, Guantanemo Naval Base, Cuba and other relatives.
