Bethel Church laymen in stamp drive to buy bus

The Laymen's League of the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Druid Hill and Lanvale St., is spearheading a campaign for 2200 books of Merchants Green Trading Stamps for a bus.

Miss. Mayme Tilghman, League president, is chairman of the campaign committee, under the direction of the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant, pastor of the church.

The Bethel AME Church is very much in need of transportation to bring the aged to church and also children to Sunday School. Over 1000 members of the church are working together in the city of Baltimore to accomplish their goal.

* * *

A CAMPAIGN committee has been chosen with Paul Holtsclaw and Roland Armstrong as co-chairmen, who are at this time placing posters and collection boxes throughout the city to help collect stamps.

Over 100 Sunday School children of the church are also helping to collect stamps for their bus.

Mrs. Georgie L. Ferguson, widow of the Rev. C. C. Ferguson, former pastor of the church, is chairman of the women's division.

Merchants' Green Trading Stamps can be donated at the Bethel AME Church office, Druid Hill Ave., and Lanvale St., Baltimore 17.

There is also a "Licking Committee" for all the loose stamps donated in addition to filled books.

Four winners at temple contest

The four first place winners in the annual Oratorical, Instrumental and Vocal Contest sponsored recently by the education committee of Myra Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star (P.H.A.) at the Masonic Temple, Eutaw Pl. and Lanvale St., were:

G. James Gholson, instrumental, Fairmount High School; Thomas Wilcox, oration, Douglass High School; Alan Richardson, vocal, Douglass High School, and Lemuel Hynson, instrumental, Baltimore City College.

Miss Vivian Benjamin, oration, Dunbar High School, won second place.

Other participating in the contest were: Tyronne Stinnette, Dunbar High; Robert Hardy, Arthur Jenkins and Miss Carol Dailey, all of Douglass High; and Miss Carolyn Winstead, Dunbar High School.

MOMENTS MUSICAL

Doulgas choirs present 2nd, 3rd parts of 'Messiah'

By ADAH K. JENKINS

The choirs of Douglas Memorial Community Church, under the direction of James Hammond, minister of music, recently met the challenge of the 2nd and 3rd parts of "Messiah" with admirable success.

Devoted to the Crucifixion and Resurrection, the oratorio includes the exacting and beautiful arias for tenor and soprano: "Behold and see if there be any sorrow", "How beautiful are the feet of them" and "I Know that my Redeemer liveth"; the majestic one for bass "The trumpet shall sound," and the tragic "He was despised and rejected" for alto.

Careful preparation was evident in the performances of the soloists: Esther McCready, Gloria Waller, Lois Wright, Wendell Wright and Kenneth Lockwood.

However, the burden of this epic work depends upon the stupendous choruses.

Mr. Hammond and his forces deserve high commendation for their accomplishment. It is to be hoped that this presentation, with the addition of the final "Amen" chorus, will be an annual event at Douglas Memorial.

Music lovers deserve the opportunity of becoming as familiar with these parts of "Messiah" as they are with Part I, usually sung at Christmas.

Donald King, as the distinguished guest organist, kept consistent tempos, that enabled the listener to hear the elaborate tapestry of the choral score.

The devotional part of the concert was conducted by the Rev. Marion Bascom, minister.

A MUSICAL salon was held recently at the studio of Mrs. Gwendolyn Lassiter, presenting three young pianists of the city — Carolyn Carr, Marsha Henson and Donald Covington.

All three are students of Mrs. Lassiter and the recital was sponsored by members of the First Community Baptist Church, the Rev. Paul Smith, pastor.

Mrs. Alma J. Caswell presented her elementary class of 24 students in recital on a recent Sunday afternoon at Panye Memorial AME Church. Playing a varied program of engaging material were: Ennis Gordon, who also played the entrance march; Terry Thomas, Dorothea Howard, Lydia Matthews, Georgia Miller, Teresa Hawkins, Alfreda English, Cynthia Burrows, Joyce Creigler, Miriam Brooks, Cornelia Spencer, James Green, Debra Fuller, Tarjia Johnson, Jesse Peterson, Virginia Moore, Wayne Brooks, Dolly Askew, Louise Person, Cheryl Jackson, Shirley Banks, Carol Mitchell and Cecily Black.

ATTRACTING A number of local choir conductors and singers for the first Maryland performance of Daniel Pinkham's "Wedding Cantata", the intercultural Handel Choir presented the spring concert of its 27th season at Old St. Paul' Episcopal Church.

It is a gracious work with free, flowing melodies and a slightly Oriental overcase.

Under the discerning and capable direction of James Winship Lewis, the choir also sang the "Great Organ Mass" by Haydn, accompanied by an orchestral ensemble. The eloquently rich voice of Curtis J. Morris, was heard as one of the bass soloists.

The Etude Octette, one of the most promising choral groups of its kind in the city, was presented at Ames Methodist Church by the Cadets, Cadettes and Majorettes of the church.

From its enviable repetoire the ensemble selected numbers from Bach's "St. John Passion" and the motet "I Wrestle and Pray"; "He Watching Over Israel" from the oratorio "Elijah" and one of the stirring choruses from the opera "Faust."

Contemporary music was heard in the challenging "Our Father" from Levy's cantata "For the Time Bing."

The octette works arduously with problems of pitch stability, phrasing, which depends greatly on proper breathing and thoughtful contrast in expression.

One might wish for more vitality in the pulse of such choruses as Thompson's "Alleluia" and more positive entrances in the intricate counterpoint of the Bach motet.

Solo roles were handled well by Gloria Waller, soprano in "The Little Damozel" and Kenneth Lockwood, baritone in the operatic chorus.

The octette is fortu[illegible] n having the musicianly organ accompaniments played by Elizabeth Day.

SPECIAL TRIBUTES FOR FATHER'S DAY

SUNDAY, JUNE 17, 1962

ALLEN — A Father's Day Tribute to our father, DR. WILLARD W. who passed away October 2, 1961:
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach
Sweet to remember him who once was here
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
DAUGHTERS,
M. RISALIND ALLEN
Remembering you on Father's Day
ELIZABETH ALLEN NALLE

ANDREWS — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, ZACHARY D., who passed away August 6, 1961:
Remembering you on Father's Day
Our father, we loved so,
Remembering those happy days
We spent going to and fro;
If we could have you back once more,
To be with us on Father's Day
Our father, we would cherish them
Till the end of our live-long days.
LOVING WIFE, NEVA;
CHILDREN, NEVANO E.
SYLVESTER W.
NAPOLEON S.

BASS—A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, MASTON THOMAS, who passed away July 27, 1961:
Loving husband, faithful father,
How we miss your presence here;
Home and world for those cherished
Have darkened since your passing, dear.
LOVING WIFE and CHILDREN

BROWN — A Father's Day Tribute to my father, KENNETH G. who passed away January 20, 1962:
Dad was tired and weary,
Weary from toil and pain;
Put aside his glasses,
He'll not need them again
Into Heaven's mansions he entered,
Never to sigh nor weep.
After long years of life struggles,
Dad has fallen asleep.
You bade none a last farewell,
You said good-bye to none,
Your dear heart just ceased to beat.
At the time when life could be sweet
And you could have lived your best
The gates of Heaven opened and you
Entered into Eternal rest.
DAUGHTER,
LORRAYNE B. SCOTT

BROWN — A Father's Day Tribute to our father, SHERMAN, who passed away April 11, 1960.
Beyond the gates, my father finds
Happiness and rest, and there is comfort
In the thought that a living God knows best.
DAUGHTER, RUTH BROWN;
SON-IN-LAW,
CHARLES BROWN

CAREY — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, MATTHEWS, J., who passed away July 1, 1962:
He has gone from his dear ones
His child and his wife
Whom he willingly toiled for
And loved as his life.
LOVING WIFE
AND CHILDREN.

CLARK — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, THEODRIC, who passed away February 17, 1962:
One year ago, the sun was shining
The sky was heavenly blue,
Then our hearts were bright and cheerful
Because, dear Husband, we had you.
You'll be within our thoughts today
No matter where we go,
You'll be within our hearts, dear dad
Because we loved you so.
LOVING WIFE,
EDNA CLARK
2 DAUGHTERS and 2 SONS

CLARK — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, WALTER H. who passed away February 13, 1961:
Loving husband, faithful father,
How we miss your presence here
Home and world for those you cherished
Have darkened since your passing dear.
WIFE, BETTY R. CLARK
SON, ALVIN CLARK
GRANDCHILDREN AND
GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

CONAWAY — A Father's Day Tribute to our father, BAILEY, who passed away April 2, 1959:
We always think of Father
Whenever things go wrong.
There's something in his memory
That helps to make us strong.
Oh, what a different world we'd have
If everyone could be
Just a little more like father,
The one God gave to us!
CHILDREN
BAILEY, JR. MADELINE,
ELZABETH, ESTHER AND GWENDOLYN

DUNSTON — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband, our father and grandfather, SPURGEON, who passed away July 31, 1961:
We always think of Father
Whenever things go wrong.
There's something in his memory
That helps to make us strong.
Oh, what a different world we'd have
If everyone could be
Just a little more like father,
The one God gave to us!
WIFE - FANNIE DUNSTON
CHILDREN AND
GRANDCHILDREN

DURHAM — A Father's Day Tribute to my father, JAMES, 1952:
The prayer we'll make on Father's Day
Is that God will give you, too
Still more and more of all the joys
We had, dear Dad, because of you.
DAUGHTER,
MRS. PAULINE JAMES
AND FAMILY.

DYSON — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, REV. JOHN C. who passed away August 29, 1959:
Loving husband, faithful father,
How we miss your presence here,
Home and world for those you cherished
Have darkened since your passing, dear.
LOVING WIFE
AND CHILDREN.

FREDERICKS — A Father's Day Tribute to our father, WILLIAM A. SR. who passed October 26, 1957:
Every day is Father's Day
For surely, Father dear,
You know of the deep love and affection

HARVIN — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, FRAN, who passed away April 25, 1959:
We always think of Father
Whenever things go wrong.
There's something in his memory
That helps to make us strong.
Oh, what a different world we'd have
If everyone could be
Just a little more like father,
The one God gave to us!
LOVING WIFE EDNA HARVIN
AND CHILDREN

HENDERSON — A Father's Day Tribute to my husband and our father, ROLAND ELAIS, who passed away September 16, 1960:

PETERS — A Father's Day Tribute to our father and grandfather, THOMAS I. who passed away March 13, 1940:
We often sit and think of him
When we are all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call it's own
Like ivy on the withered oak
When all other things decay
Our love for him will still keep green
And never fade away
CHILDREN AND
