AT THE FINAL season's session of Pierians, Friday evening Pearl Cole Brackett was inducted as president of the art club.

The meeting, held in the Terrace Room of the Belvedere Hotel, also saw the installation of Gwendolyn Tarter as vice president; Louise Lamb, recording secretary; Lydia Mussenden, corresponding secretary; Jewel Mosely, treasurer; and Hazel Fleming, program chairman. Annette Johnson became permanent historian.

Mrs. Johnson, founder and first president of the group, received a gift of wedgewood. There were flowers for the retiring president, Edith Smith.

Flowers also went to two new members, Rebecca Mills and Nesrine Clift, who, following the business session were guests of honor at the black tie dinner party given by the club. Guests at dinner were husbands and friends of members.

In the cocktail interim, Richard Long, of the Morgan college faculty, who had arranged a showing of his collection of Haitian paintings, gave an informal talk on Haitian art and artistc.

CHARLES TILDON, polemarch of the Alumni chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi, between hosting out-of-town guests and bursting buttons over the prospects of parenthood, was a mighty busy host at the dance on Friday evening. The Tildons expect their first child in October.

Such a snazzy bunch of gals the Kappas draw! Marion Redmond was an eyeful in pale blue short formal frock, the skirt of rows of flower petal ruffles, the top sleeveless and cut low both front and back; Mrs. Samuel Adams, elegant in a full-length sheath, the skirt featuring a slit that started at the floor and went up, up, up. She highlighted the frock with vivid green shoes and bag.

Jennie Newton was a pretty picture in red chiffon with sequined bodice and accented with silver accessories; and Evelyn Gunn was chic in black.

VERNIECE REYNOLDS, Lillian Ross and Mae Dyson were hostesses at dinner at the closing meeting of the We Wives held in the beautiful new Chesapeake Room of Reisterstown Plaza.

Special guests at the head table were Hiwatha Shaw who leaves Baltimore about July 15th for California and Lula Patterson.

After dinner, the group browsed and shopped, then regrouped at Mae Dyson's for snacks, cocktails and cards. The group feted the July birthdays...Ivy Grinnage with a dainty pale green housecoat...Ruby Reid with white and black blouse and Josephine Brown with red and blue hostess coat.

Later the group showered Hiwatha with beautiful packages containing everything from lingerie, and jewelry and spent a delightful hour while she opened them.

Brief business was conducted by out-going prexy Verniece Reynolds as Adelle Foreman in-coming laid plans for the coming year.

Also about were: Gwen Tarter (whose hubby has been sick for quite a while..but is up and about now), Margery Prout, Iris Mapp, Ida Smith, Ada Weaver, Agnes Reaves, Margaret Armstrong, Priscilla Lansey, Bettye Phillips, Roberta Keets, Margaret Hyte.

MR. AND MRS. WAYMAN LATTIMORE leave the altar of St. Katharine Episcopal Church following their marriage in Baltimore, Saturday. Mrs. Lattimore is the former Miss Ann Williams.

Miss Williams bride Waymon Lattimore

Miss Ann Bluette Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Williams, was married to Waymon Carroll Lattimore in St. Katherine's Episcopal Church, here, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Lattimore is the son of Mrs. Thelma Hunt and the late Foster Lattimore of Mount Vernon, N. Y.

THE DOUBLE-RING ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Frank Christian, S.T.M., vicar of St. Katherine's.

William N. Parrott, minister of music at St. James Episcopal Church, was at the organ, and Mrs. Roslyn Catlin, of the St. James Choir, was soloist.

• • •

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a full swept bridal gown of silk organza veiled over taffeta and trimmed with imported re-embroidered Alencon lace on bodice and skirt. The gown had a portrait neckline and short sleeves, and was enhanced with a chapel train.

Her bouffant veil of bridal illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls and crystals, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and white orchids with stephanotis.

This bouquet she placed at the altar of her patron saint at the end of the ceremony, and carried from the chancel a bouquet of cymbinium orchids.

• • •

MRS. FRANCIS FINNEY was matron of honor for Miss Williams. Mrs. Marie Humbles of Accomac, Va. was honor bridesmaid for her cousin.

Other bridesmaids were Mrs. Jean Lattimore, of Mt. Vernon, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Katherine Fairley of Washington, Miss Anastatia Phillips and Mrs. Ernestine Washington of this city.

• • •

THE BRIDESMAIDS wore pink frocks with fitted bodices and bouffant short skirts, and matching accessories.

Their headpieces were flat bow arrangements with flirtation veils. Mrs. Finney's gown was identical, but of deep rose.

• • •

FOSTER LATTIMORE of Mt. Vernon, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Harold Holmes of Mt. Vernon, Albert Bacote of Washington, Floyd Fields of Mt. Vernon, Robert Flowe of Charlotte, N.C. and Ronald Freeman of New York City.

• • •

A RECEPTION was held immediately following the ceremony in the Me-De-So Club, Eutaw Place.

Mrs. Mildred Seaborne was head hostess. Active hostesses were Mesdames Maxwell Chatman, William N. Parrott, Mark Patterson, J. Percy Bond, James Williams, Theodore Watkins, James Jordan, and Wilbur Stewart.

Honorary hostesses at the reception were other members of the Baltimore chapter of Girl Friends.

• • •

FOR HER DAUGHTER'S wedding and reception, Mrs. Williams wore a frock of azure blue with brief over jacket of re-embroidered lace in the same shade. Her fitted turban was of the same shade of blue. She wore shoes that matched and a corsage of orchids.

• • •

MRS. LATTIMORE was gowned in beige lace. Her brimmed hat was of tiny rows of beige lace, and she wore matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lattimore will be at home in this city.

• • •

FOLLOWING REHEARSAL on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Chatman entertained the bridal group at a party in their home.

Guests were Mesdames Francis Finney, Marie Humbles, Jean Lattimore, Katherine Harden Fairley, Ernestine Washington, Mildred Seaborne, William Parrott, Mark Patterson, Hazel Phillips, Thelma Hunt, Monterey Clay, Roslyn Catlin;

Misses Anastatia Phillips, Toni A. Robinson, Jo-Ann Clay;

Foster Lattimore, Harold Holmes, Albert Bacote, Floyd Fields, Robert Flowe, Ronald Freeman, William Parrott and the Rev. Fr. Christian.

• • •

MESDAMES FRANCIS FINNER and Ernestine Washington gave a shower for Miss Williams at the home of Mrs. Washington on Denlyn Road on Thursday evening.

The wedding colors of white and pink were carried out at the buffet supper.

Guests were Mesdames and Misses Ernestine Brown, Consuella Wilder, Anastatia Phillips, Joan Tillery, June Lee and Marjorie Troy.

• • •

OUT-OF-TOWN guests at the wedding and reception included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Brown and Robert Jones; Mesdames Gynesta Waters, Margurite Freeland and Bernard Harris of New York;

Messrs. and Mesdames Phillip Bowling, Foster Lattimore, Ernest Rutherford; Mrs. Thelma Hunt, Floyd Fields, Harold Holmes, Miss Toni Robinson of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.;

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Clark and Harry Scott of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Antoinette Corprew, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fairley, Dr. and Mrs. K. Harden, Mrs. Bernice Gumblin, Albert Bacote and Miss Catherine Cooper of Washington;

THE MUSICAL TINKLE of ice in glasses, the slap of swiftly dealt cards, the whir of amateur movie cameras, the dulcet voice of Dakota Staton on a record player and the subdued conversation and merry laughter of people thoroughly enjoying themselves were pleasant sounds that marked the third annual Couples' Club outing Sunday.

Rustic setting for the gala affair was the scenic Aqua Pool Country Club, deep in the sunny hills of Howard County.

Yvette Murphy, the club's perennial social chairman was voted the 'hostess with the mostest' by the distaff members upon learning that the arrangements called for caterer service and they would be completely free of food preparation chores.

Inhibitions were forgotten as Adele Foreman, aided and abetted by Mary Elizabeth Laws and Francis Mackay became impromptu instructors in the Continental line, performed on grass, no less.

William Jones revealed that he was an expert on the twist; Edna Stanford did her solo ballet number from the safety of the veranda and Jim Murphy dared emerge in public wearing brilliantly hued red and gold toreador pants imported from Haiti.

Cameras of every make and description were in evidence. The two Charleses — Hicks and Laws — were busily shooting color shots of the feminine contingent during unguarded moments.

Medford and Vernice Reynolds, armed with a new trilensed movie camera, made a production of the whole affair. Cliff Mackay, who has been clicking for lo these many years, was given an unsolicited lesson in exposure values by no less an authority than Hiram Butler.

Amidst all of this activity, a goodly number of the more indolent lazily slept the afternoon away, coming to speedy perpendicular position only when the dinner bell sounded its clarion call around 4 o'clock.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Philips of Harrisburg, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Horace McLilly of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hicks of Frederick, Md.; Miss Jerlyn Manuel of Wilmington, N.C.;

Also Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ewing, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Reckling, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Veney, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Moseley, Mrs. Lillian Ross, Mrs. Gertrude Urquhart, Henry Freeman, George Williams and William Jones.

Club members are Seretha and Lonnie Greene, Adele and Ben Foreman, Delphine and Tom Warrington, Ethel and John Rich, Edna and William Stanford;

Also Yvette and James Murphy, Bea and Hiram Butler, Vernice and Medford Reynolds, Mary Elizabeth and Charles Law, and Francis and Cliff Mackey.
