Hey Gang! Here's How To Get Your Clean Block Started

Don't miss big Kickoff Rally on Friday, June 22

It's Clean Block Time Again and hundreds of young Baltimoreans are eager to get started.

That was the conclusion reached Thursday by Mrs. M. Francis Mackay, beginning her tenth consecutive year as AFRO Clean Block Director after her office was flooded with telephone calls and a constant stream of young visitors.

Organization for this year's drive is under way and will continue until July 15 when registration closes.

Rules, regulations, registration blanks, window cards, captains flags will be given all registrants.

CAPTAIN ADVISORS and secretaries will be required to attend all meetings each Friday morning at the Willard Allen Auditorium, Prince Hall Masonic Temple, 1307 Eutaw Pl., at 10 a.m.

At these meetings Clean Blockers will learn how to solve all problems.

Workers are urged to paint before planting flowers.

HERE ARE some simple rules to follow for your block organization:

1. The captain must get all persons in his block to sign up and send or bring their names to the Clean Block office.

2. He or she must call a meeting of all adults and children and elect a president.

3. Elect a secretary who will write down what is done at the meeting and send reports to the Clean Block Sidelights Column.

4. Elect a block inspector, who will see that no trash accumulates anywhere in the block.

5. Elect a marshal who will call out the clean-up crew at a definite time each day, so that all workers work together at the same time.

6. DO NOT WHITEWASH TREES AND CURBS.

The block will soon improve in appearance.

The Clean Block office, located on the second floor of the AFRO Building, Eutaw St. and Druid Hill, is open each day from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

Prize fund needs your $ $ help

Hundreds of letters have been sent out by the AFRO Clean Block Director, Mrs. M. Francis Mackay, once again making an appeal for contributions to the Clean Block Prize Fund.

The fund is inaugurated this year under a handicap as compared to past years. The number of blocks continues to increase and the need for more funds to reward these youngsters who spend a greater portion of their summer vacation cleaning and beautifying their neighborhood is greater than ever.

Many blocks which have never participated before have already signed up this year.

THE PRIEZ GOAL has been fixed at $2,500. If collected, this amount would by no means provide adequate rewards to hard - working youngsters who put in 12 weeks of their summer months in keeping their neighborhoods spotless and beautiful.

The purpose of the prize fund is not to pay Clean Blockers, but merely to give them token awards at the close of the campaign as a means of expressing the city's appreciation for their civic interest and devotion to duty.

A special appeal has been sent to more than 500 Baltimore clubs, merchants, civic groups and individuals. Only a small percentage thus far has responded, but Clean Block officials are hopeful that many more will come to the Prize Funds aid.

CHURCHES and Sunday Schools have also been asked to encourage their children to register their blocks and take up a special offering for the Clean Block Prize Fund.

Unless response to the appeal for contributions is greater than it has been in past years, many youngsters will be disappointed at the close of the drive when the prizes are to be awarded.

All money collected is used only for the Prize Fund and is distributed to youngsters.

Council of youth forum is honored

A committee of Me-De-So Wives recently gave a dinner honoring the Youth Council of the City Youth Forum and staff members of agencies which cooperated with the program.

Present at the dinner were the two other sponsors of the youth program, the Baltimore Urban League Family Life project, Cortez Puryear, director, and the Madison Avenue YWCA, represented by Mrs. Bettye Moore, teen department director.

The forum which reached some 500 persons with its nine monthly programs, voted lectures on the American citizen by Dr. Clifton Jones, Morgan State sociology department, as most helpful.

Mrs. Helen Nash's talk on teenage problems proved most personally helpful and came nearest to meeting the emotional problems of teenagers.

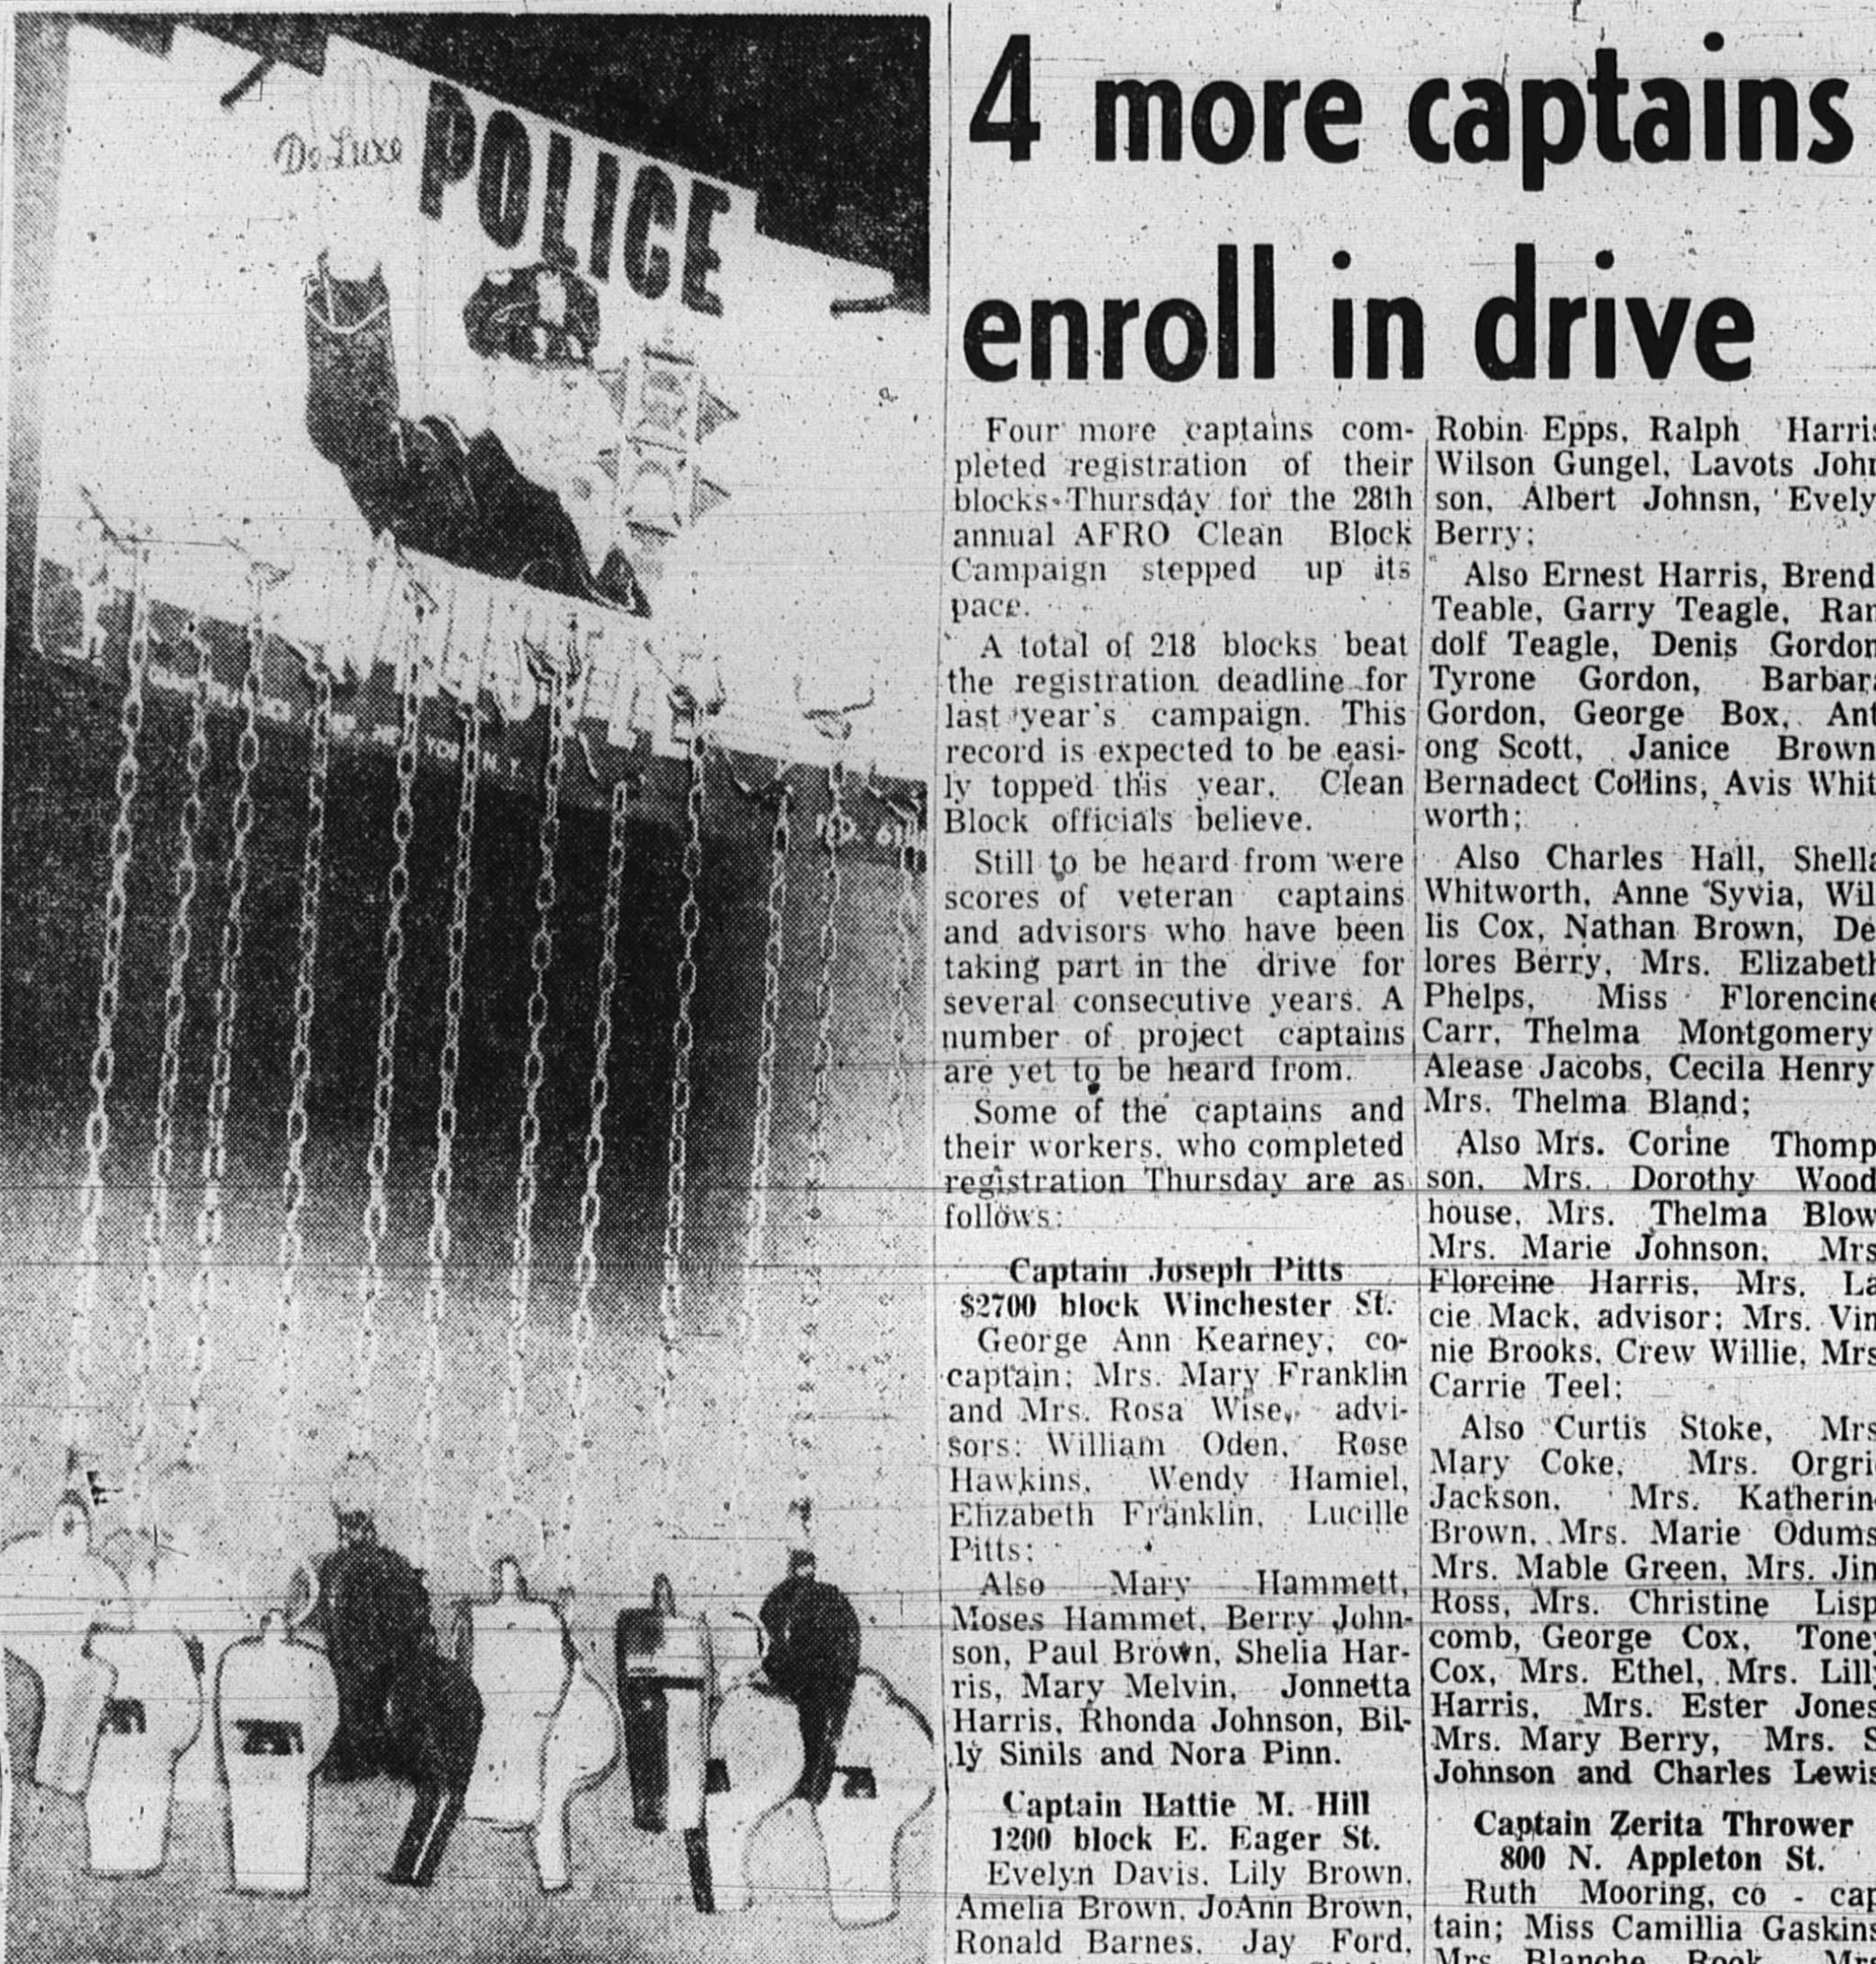
PRIZE WINNERS of the scrapbook contest were three brother: Lynn, Paul and Leslie Simon.

Attending the dinner were Mesdames Bernard H. Christmas, Bruce Allyne, W. Atwell Jones and Gilbert Banfield. Also, Misses Deborah and Yvonne Grinnage, Sondra Banfield, Ruth Brown, Margaret Barrett, Gwendolyn Lewis, Laura Smith, and Bonnie Rudolph.

Also, Lynn, Paul and Leslie Simon, Lionel Browne, Omar Zen, and Quinton Pinkney.



CLEAN BLOCK CAPTAINS will be armed with genuine police whistles in the 28th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign which gets under way with a kickoff rally Friday morning, June 22 in the Willard Allen Auditorium of the Masonic Temple, 1307 Eutaw Pl. The whistles will be used to call Clean Blockers to their duties and sound warnings to thoughtless persons caught throwing litter in the street.

4 more captains enroll in drive

Four more captains completed registration of their blocks Thursday for the 28th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign stepped up its pace.

A total of 218 blocks beat the registration deadline for last year's campaign. This record is expected to be easily topped this year, Clean Block officials believe.

Still to be heard from were scores of veteran captains and advisors who have been taking part in the drive for several consecutive years. A number of project captains are yet to be heard from.

Some of the captains and their workers, who completed registration Thursday are as follows:

Here's how to reach site of gigantic kickoff rally

The Willard Allen Auditorium of the new Masonic Temple is easy to reach by AFRO Clean Blockers coming from all sections of the city.

The auditorium, located at 1307 Eutaw Pl. at Lanvale St. will be the gathering place Friday morning, June 22 for hundreds of Clean Block captains and prospective captains anxious to get started on the 28th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

Clean Blockers riding the No 28 bus should get off at Lanvale St. and walk two blocks west. Those who ride the No. 7 bus should also get off at Lanvale St. and walk two blocks east. Youngsters boarding the No. 19 bus may get off right in front of the door at the corner of Eutaw Pl. and Lanvale St. Remember the big Kickoff rally will begin promptly at 10 o'clock Friday morning, June 22. Be there!

'Freedom Rider' label makes life rough, white youth says

"My friends call me 'n[illegible] lover.' They outcast me," says Edward C. Dickerson, 20, "because I joined the Freedom Ride movement."

Presently he is jobless and homeless.

The Rev. Willard Clayton, the Rev. H. Octavius Graham, and the Rev. Clinton Coleman of the Interdenominational Ministers Alliance formed a committee and raised money to help ease Mr. Dickerson's plight.

Now he can pay a week's rent for a YMCA room. He still is jobless.

Mr. Dickerson joined the Freedom Riders in January. He gathered information on which restaurants in Cambridge, Md., his home town, refused to serve colored people.

WHILE SEVERAL Freedom-Riders were being tried for trespassing, he made it publicly known to his towns-people of his part in the demonstrations.

Their retaliation was swift, he said.

"The policemen told every citizen about me. I was threatened. Places refused to serve me," he reports.

Mr. Dickerson left Cambridge in February. He lived in New York City with a fellow Freedom Rider.

"When I looked for a job in New York, I did not make it a point to hide that I was a Freedom Rider. But as soon as an employer saw the button, he said, 'No help wanted.'"

LEAVING New York, he worked in New Jersey "doing things like cleaning some one's yard to keep me alive."

In Baltimore a month, he has found it difficult to support himself.

"Two weeks ago I got a job as a dishwasher. For 75 hours work they paid me 20 dollars. I quit. That was the first time I quit anybody in my life."

Mr. Dickerson wants a part-time job so that he can eat while he participates in demonstrations.

"I would like to dedicate my life," he says, "getting rid of this stupid racial discrimination."

Harlem Park health fair is scheduled on June 21

The second annual Harlem Park Neighborhood Council Health Fair will be held on Thursday, June 21, in Lafayette Square, 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Lafayette Square is bounded by Lafayette Ave., Arlington Ave., Lanvale St., and Carrollton Ave.

More than 5,000 persons attended the affair last year.

Highlights of the fair will be storytelling for the children, continuous movies, an eye-screening test, a cooking demonstration with free samples, visits from community doctors and outstanding persons from various health and welfare agencies throughout the City.

Sixteen City-Wide health and social service agencies will have booths and exhibits to demonstrate the services that they provide.

THE FAIR IS sponsored by the Harlem Park Neighborhood Council's Health Committee. Mrs. Virginia Ellison chairs the affair and Mrs. Vernice Wynn is co-chairman.

The Health Committee has solicitated the services of the Public Relations Committee which is chaired by George Koromah and WO-HE-LO Youth Committee which is chaired by Mrs. Dorothy Brown.

A parade from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. will be held on the evening before the fair. The parade group will assemble at 801 N. Arlington Ave.

Neighborhood youth groups and block clubs will have craft articles for sale.

In Memoriam 3

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear mother, ELLEN, who passed away June 17, 1960:

The day we said good morning to you,
And later you said good-bye to us.
Oh how we miss your smiling face,
Your tender voice warm and true.
What is home without a mother?
All things this world may send,
But when we lost our darling mother,
We lost our dearest friend.
Sleep on dear mother and take your rest,
Good-night, good-night, God loved you best.

DEVOTED CHILDREN And FAMILY

GRESHAM — Sacred to the memory of my loving wife, mother and grandmother, GERTRUDE M., who passed June 15, 1961:

We do not forget her, we love her too dearly
For her memory to fade
From our lives like a dream;
Our lips need not speak
When our hearts mourn sincerely,
For grief often dwells where
It seldom is seen.

JEFFERSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, JANE E., who passed away June 15, 1959:

We do not forget her, nor do we intend.
We think of you often and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.

Loving Daughters,
A. GERTRUDE SHIRLEY
VONZELLA J. FORD
And GRANDCHILDREN.

McIVER — In loving memory of our sister, ETTA THERESA, who passed June 11, 1957:

Nothing Is Destroyed
There is no death The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine for evermore.
And ever near us, though unseen!
Her dear immortal spirit treads;
For all the boundless universe
Is life — there are no dead.

Missed by her devoted sisters,

RUTH M. CLEAVER
CORHEDA BETTER

SPAIN — In loving memory of our mother and sister, ROSA, who passed away June 16, 1959:

Nothing but memories as we journey on,
Longing for a smile from a loved one gone,
None knows the depths of our deep regret,
But we remember and will never forget.

Sons, DALLEN, PERRY
Sister And Brother,
HILDA, IRVIN.

WILKERSON—In loving memory of our beloved wife, mother and grandmother, BESSIE GRAY, who departed this life June 18, 1957:

What would we her hand to clasp,
Her patient face
to see,
To hear her voice,
to see her smile,
As in the days
that used to be.
But some sweet
day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil
and strife,
And clasp each other's hand
once more,
In heaven, that happy life.

J. C. BAILEY

Mrs. Ella F. Bailey and family of the late J. C. wish to acknowledge and thank the many friends who tried to ease the grief of the passing of J. C. The floral tributes, the cards and telegrams were expressions that were sincerely appreciated by heavy hearts, that responded to every word or act of kindness. Our thanks to you.

THE FAMILY

JOHN BLACKWELL

Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings and other kindnesses, we are deeply grateful.

THE BLACKWELL FAMILY

MARY CARVENS

Thanks to our relatives, friends, neighbors and Mortician George Kelson for expressions of sympathy and assistance during our recent bereavement at the passing of our mother.

"We cannot, Lord, Thy purpose see,
But all is well that's done by Thee."

THE CARVENS FAMILY

COX — The family of the late LELIA B. COX wishes to thank the many friends, who rendered kind services and made generous contribution during its recent bereavement.

Husband, ALEXANDER COX
Sons, JOHN W. and SOLOMON H. HENSON.

PAUL GLEN

To those who expressed their sympathy in so many beautiful and practical ways during our recent bereavement, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
