Two hundred and seventy-five new recruits were added to the AFRO's 28th annual Clean Block Campaign during the week as the summer long drive begins its first mark.

The new registrations brought the enrollment thus far to approximately 600.

More than 15,000 captains, advisors, and youth workers are expected to be signed up before the closing date of registration.

Clean Block Director M. Francis Mackay warns that many captains are sending in applications without including a complete list of workers.

'An Example For Other Communities To Follow'

Mayor J. Harold Grady Monday issued an official proclamation from the City of Baltimore, designating the period from June 25 through August 27 as "AFRO Clean Block Time."

In citing the campaign as a worthwhile project, Mayor Grady declared the program "sets an example for other communities to follow."

Witnessing the signing ceremony were four Clean Blockers Captain Zerita Thrower and Denine Stanley of the 800 block Appleton St.; and Captain Josephine Pitts and Co-captain Georgia Kearney of the 2700 block Winchester St.

Also present were Mrs. M. Francis Mackay, AFRO Clean Block Director; and her assistant this year, Miss Ann Gardner, a junior at Morgan State College.

THE PROCLAMATION read:

"Whereas, as is their annual custom, the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers will conduct their AFRO Clean Block Program throughout the summer months for over 20,000 children of Baltimore City; and

"Whereas, Miss Frances Murphy, a Baltimore school teacher, now deceased, conceived the idea of the Clean Block Campaign as a summer vacation activity for boys and girls who otherwise had little to occupy their time; and

"Whereas, the AFRO - AMERICAN newspapers are rendering a valuable service to the City of Baltimore, through the medium of an increased interest in the importance of sanitation, and the creation of a greater awareness of the necessity for citizens to co-operate in helping make Baltimore a cleaner, healthier and happier place in which to live; and because of this civic - minded project, the AFRO - AMERICAN newspapers set an example for other communities to follow.

"Now, therefore, I. J. Harold Grady, mayor of the City of Baltimore, do hereby proclaim the period of June 25 through August 27, 1962, as "AFRO - AMERICAN CLEAN BLOCK TIME" and do urge all our citizens to do their part in helping make this project a City-wide success."

A SCENE LIKE this will be duplicated all over Baltimore and in many suburban areas beginning Monday when the 28th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign officially gets underway. Clean Blockers for the next two months will be busy painting, sweeping and cleaning their neighborhoods in a contest that has proved worthwhile. They need and deserve adult help, cooperation and encouragement. Don't be a litterbug.

Pep rally on Friday— 10 o'clock

The regular weekly Clean Block pep rally will be held Friday during the campaign at the Willard Allen Auditorium of the new Masonic Temple.

The first of these meetings will be held Friday, June 29 and each Friday thereafter at 10 a.m.

The auditorium is located at 1307 Eutaw Pl. at Lanvale St. It can be easily reached by buses coming from all sections of the city.

THOSE WHO ride buses Nos. 28 and 37 should get off at Lanvale St. and walk two blocks west.

Clean Blockers who ride the No. 7 bus should get off at Lanvale St. and walk two blocks east.

Youngsters lucky enough to ride the No. 19 bus may get off in front of the door at the corner of Eutaw Pl. and Lanvale St.

No Clean Blocker should miss these weekly rallies. Absences are counted against the block and points are deducted when it comes time to award the prizes.

Prize fund moves up to $387

A check for $10 from Dr. William H. Watts, a perennial supporter of Clean Blockers; $6.50 from School No. 452, Reuben F. Jones, principal; and a welcome $5 from Waller's Cities Service on Edmondson Ave. boosted the sagging Clean Block Prize Fund to $387.50 late Thursday.

The three contributions were the first to reach Clean Block officials in the past two weeks, after a total of $366 had poured in when the office opened.

The hope was still held that many of Baltimore's clubs and churches would make contributions to the prize fund.

Balto. teacher picked for African schools

James Williams, 1526 Mount Royal Ave., Baltimore, has been selected as one of 120 young Americans who will serve as teachers in Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda and Zanzibar in East Africa.

The project is directed by Teachers College, Columbia University.

These teachers will join 150 Americans who went to East Africa as teachers last year under the auspices of Teachers College.

Teacher College had undertaken the project at the request of the Agency for International Development of the State Department. The program is conceived in the spirit of President Kennedy's plan to enlist Americans for service in new or underdeveloped nations.

Those selected for the Teachers for East Africa program will make up what is believed the largest single group of professionally trained American teachers to be sent abroad to assist an underdeveloped region of the world.

Gadabouting In Baltimore

'So pretty' yet 'So purposeful'

with Lula Jones Garrett

Out in the Reisterstown Plaza, Saturday, eyes popped as the FACTS group and guests (as chic as Parisians and twice as knowing) strolled into the Chesapeake Room for their annual seminar.

And there was more popping as they strolled down into the store and picked up many a little number that had been modeled for them during the luncheon session. They bought like mad!

In fact, so eye-catching were the ladies, that the guest speaker, the Hon. Ernest Bonhomme, kept spicing his more serious discussion with "how pretty and how charming" were his listeners, so much so that he "could scarcely believe that they were carrying on so tough a fight." (The girls have a program primed to secure equality for all.)

And if you don't think Mr. Bonhomme knows feminine beauty, you should have met his vivacious, beautiful-eyed wife, who came with him.

Mr. Bonhomme, Ambassador of Haiti to the Organization of American States, discussed the ills of prejudices, pointing out that it is not only physical prejudices ... in housing, schools, etc. that must be eradicated, but the poison in people's minds that must be focght.

Unpleasant reactions to poor race relations, he told the group, are not confined to Little Rock, Ark., but have world - wide repercussions. He added that in South America there is social injustice, but not because of the color of skin ... except in Panama, where Americans have had great influence.

Theme of FACTS' year's program has been "Dignity, Freedom, Equality for All." A report of their activities showed work in these areas.

The group sponsored two radio programs aimed at the problem of school drop-outs, under the title of "Hold Fast Your Dreams." These programs were in cooperation with the Baltimore Urban League.

In this area they also provided vocational guidance and counseling for youth, and worked with the Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church on a project.

FACTS held a "Swap Shop" in the Lexinton - Poe Housing Project, in conjunction with department stores and cleaning establishments. Here families exchanged items to assist and improve their living habits, etc.

They made regular visits to the Baltimore City Council Chamber, the Advisory Committee on Foster Care, and the City Budget Committee sessions, in order to enlighten the membership on issues of special concern. FACTS' Study Committee participated in the city-wide "Focal Point" radio program.

These are but a few of the projects carried out by the group, chiefly composed of young matrons.

Participants on the program also included Mrs. Robbie Chissell, retiring president; the Rev. Alfred B. Starrett, Miss Shirley Kyle, incoming president; Mrs. Chissell was recipient of the bautiful silver bowl from the group.

The luncheon was arranged by a committee headed by Miss Kyle and including Mesdames Florence Bailey, Helen Burwell, Olivia Dixon, Saretha Greene, Miriam Hughes, Tillie Pair, Hortense Perkins, Lillian Ross and Beulah Westcott.

New officers also include Mesdames Louise Robinson, vice president; Norma Maiden, recording secretary; Miriam Brown, corresponding secretary; and Lillian Ross, treasurer.
