THE SMART SET, one of the most popular of the intercity groups, celebrated the 25th anniversary of its founding in the beautiful surroundings of the Westchester Town House in New York City last weekend.

The conclave opened with an anniversary dinner dance in the Town House Ballroom. Luncheon, highlighted by a fashion show, featured the second day. Wesley Tann, talented young designer, presented the show. Elsie Arches, fashion representative, was speaker.

A formal dance concluded the conclave. During the weekend the husbands and escorts filled their leisure time with swimming and golfing and in a hospitality suite open for refreshments, cards and talk.

Among the Baltimore members attending the conclave were Kay Carter and Ruth Jennifer, delegates from the chapter; also Bertha Forte, Iris Mapp, Alice Pinderhughes, Dorothy Wood, Helen Queen and Sarah Newton.
